HERE IS A FACT:

“Mr. & Mrs. John Q. Public Definitely Don't Want to Buy the Machine When They Walk Up to It With Coin in Hand”

This is one hard-headed, solid, definite, proved fact. A fact that every single operator in all the nation should indelibly impress upon his mind.

This is one fact that has been proven so many, many times in the past that it means the difference between profit and loss to any operator anywhere in the country.

That cigarette machine. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Q. Public don't give one hoot whether it is, or it isn't, all lit up. Or whether it has, or hasn't, an electric clock. Or any other kind of attraction-getting gadget on it when they walk up to it with their coin in hand.

They are only interested in one thing, and one thing only:

THEY WANT TO BUY A PACK OF CIGARETTES!! THAT'S ALL!!

And they hope that those cigarettes are going to be fresh. Just as fresh as they would be if they bought them from some high class tobacconist who spent many thousands of dollars on humidor display cases.

They want that pack of cigarettes to be delivered to them. Not have to sock the machine. Not have to kick it. Not have to make themselves conspicuous by calling the attention of the spot's owner, and everyone else in the place, to themselves, if the machine doesn't work.

THEY ONLY WANT TO BUY A PACK OF CIGARETTES! THAT'S ALL!

When John Public and his wife walk up to any machine in this industry they don't give one hoot what's under the playing surface.

They don't care how many outstanding, praiseworthy, prize-winning electronic parts are in that gorgeous, beautiful, sensational machine.

All they want from that machine is some music; some fun; or some merchandise.

Or, maybe, a service, like getting their correct weight, or getting their shoes shined.

Away back in the days of "Camco" (and, by the way, the late and very great Franklin Delano Roosevelt was on the Board of Directors of this organization) an "idea" was originated whereby, after each candy bar purchase, the machine actually said, "Thank You."

This was done on a tiny recording machine produced for the very benefit of this vending machine (and at terrific cost) by none other than the Thomas Alva Edison Laboratories of Orange, N. J.

So what happened?

So the damn thing FLOPPED.

Why?

Because John and his wife (Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Q. Public, if you please) are two of the strangest people in the world.

Fickle? Just operate a few amusement games and you'll find out.

John and his wife were only INTERESTED IN BUYING THAT CANDY BAR.

They didn't give one hoot whether the machine said "thank you" or "the hell with you."

They went up to the machine with coin in hand to BUY A BAR OF CANDY. THAT'S ALL.

They wanted that machine, in the easiest, simplest, most non-exerting fashion, to deliver a bar of the candy they desired.

Fresh, clean, pure, and just as fine as if they had purchased it from the finest confectioner in the entire world.

So—the next time you get any ideas about yourself and your equipment—just remember ONE BIG AND IMPORTANT FACT:

“Mr. and Mrs. John Public Definitely Don't Want To Buy Your Machine When They Walk Up To It With Coin In Hand.”

What does the end of the TV freeze mean to the juke box business?

According to most informed juke box men, it means a boom.

With the planning of 2000 new TV stations, there can no longer be any doubt that television is the mass entertainment of the future. In a very short time, there will be no section of the country that TV can't reach. It will bring constant entertainment into almost everyone's home.

And most importantly for our business, it will create numerous new singing stars and songs.

These are the artists and tunes which customers will then insist upon hearing in their nearest juke box. For on television, their favorite artists may do their favorite tunes once—or perhaps twice, but on a juke box, they can be heard as often as a customer is willing to pay a nickel or a dime to listen.

And here we hit upon the basic, sound reason for the success of the juke box: It lets the public play records it wants to hear for as long as it wants to hear them.

The situation created with the expansion of television is almost the same as when radio hit its peak. Radio, as we all know, created many singing stars, artists such as Bing Crosby, for instance. But you could only hear them on radio when they were scheduled. If you wanted to hear them at any other time, you either had to play a record or put a coin into the nearest juke box.

This same condition exists with television. Only more so. For now 2000 more stations will create untold numbers of new stars and songs which the public will insist upon hearing and hearing not only when they are scheduled to make appearances on television, but at many other times also.

As television spreads throughout the country, hitting areas which never had it before, it is likely that at the beginning people will be entirely engrossed in it. They may stay home for a short while to see every show that comes on. But very quickly they become selective. They find that, just as in radio, there are some shows they want to see, some they don't want to see. They find too, that after a week or two of not getting out at all, they want to see their friends again, get down to the corner tavern and have a drink with the boys.

It's when this period sets in—after the initial newness of television wears off—that the boom in juke box play must start.

For the shows that these people have been seeing on television will open up an entirely new entertainment world to them. They are going to see artists they never heard of before. They may hear tunes which are completely unfamiliar to them. But by the time they get to their nearest juke box, these will be the artists and songs they want to hear—the ones they will demand to hear. And when the public develops a whole new set of favorites (just as happened in radio 20 years ago), it means that play must necessarily increase because the old favorites are not being eliminated, they're being added to.

The picture then for juke box operators and music men as far as the lifting of the TV freeze is concerned, is a rosy one. The entire entertainment industry is set to boom. And the juke box business, which is an integral part of the entertainment industry, will boom along with it.

Joe Delaney, formerly A & R head of London Records, now with WJMR-New Orleans, has created quite an interest in his Saturday morning show among the juke box ops. Joe devotes one hour and forty five minutes of his show to airing the new releases of the week. All the record companies are represented, and it therefore gives the busy op a chance to sit down and review all the records since most ops can't spare the time to get around to every distributor. This service aids both the record company and the operator. The proof of the pudding is that record companies are sending Joe their releases promptly, and ops are calling and visiting the local distributors early Monday mornings with orders. . . . Tom Reddy a new deejay at WJZ-New York, daily 2 to 2:30 P.M. . . . Ray Honaker (WSAP-Portsmouth, Va.) would like kidisks for his new kiddie show. . . . Dave Garroway wrote personal notes to 450 djs throughout the country plugging Jack Haskell's recording of "Come Back" and "Be Anything."

AL "JAZZBO" COLLINS
(WNEW—New York, N. Y.)

Al "Jazzbo" Collins (WNEW-New York) broadcasts his 9:35-10:45 "Purple Grotto" from an eerie subterranean studio located beneath WNEW's regular studio. Jazzbo discovered the cavern, where by candlelight, he broadcasts his nightly show to his Grotto fans. . . . John Wisley, (WFGM-Fitchburg Mass.) is pretty pleased these days about his own 2KW organization. The two KW's stand not for kilo-watts, but are the initials of his two little girls. The newest addition to the Wisley family is Kathy, who bounced into the world on April 8th at a howling weight of 7 lbs. 14 oz. Mom and baby doing well. The other KW is Karen, who is nearly three and owns, loves, and plays all Mitch Miller's "Little Golden Records." The cigar industry reported an upsurge in sales in Fitchburg last week. . . . Billy Eckstein held a telephone marathon with deejays all over the country. Jocks called Billy collect at the Paramount Theatre last Friday, many of them taping the interview for their shows. . . . WALK-Huntington, L. I., held a cocktail party at its studios celebrating the opening of the station. . . . Larry Shields (WFRP-Savannah, Ga.) is acting in the capacity of contributing editor for the monthly "Rider's Reader," put out by the Savannah Transit Co. . . . Something new in the realm of vocal quartets made its radio debut on the Bob Wolff sports show April 15th over Station WWDC, Washington, D. C. The harmony quartet, called "The 4 Base Hits," is composed of Washington Senator pitchers Bob Porterfield and Tom Ferrick (tenors), outfielder Irv Noren (baritone) and catcher Clyde Kluttz (bass). Accompanist for this stellar attraction is sportscaster Bob Wolff who reads notes and is a wizard on the uke (all four strings).

Among the judges and masters of ceremonies at the Easter Parade in Washington, D. C. for the benefit of the Cancer Crusade, were WWDC personalities Hazel Markel, Art Brown, Milton Q. Ford and Jack Rowzie. Mrs. Markel was one of the Easter Fashion judges while the three WWDC djs alternated as mc's and described the affair. . . . Del Parks has replaced Stu Wayne on the morning spot at WPEN, Philadelphia. . . . Bud Wilson (WKBR-Manchester, N. H.) turned his program "Turntable Terrace" over to an announcer in a hurry when his wife called. What was the result of his frantic dash from the studio? Debra Louise Wilson, first child for Bud and his wife, Marie. . . . Bob Poole, Mutual network personality, recently "faked it" without his vast audience ever knowing the difference. Poole, with a terrible case of laryngitis, was advised to talk very little. With the aid of his producer, Larry Dorn, Poole managed to use sound tracks, voice cuts and gimmicks so cleverly that he had to speak only about a hundred words on his whole hour show for days. . . . Morning Man, Pete Baron (WJXN-Jackson, Miss.) and his alarm clock keep them "Rising and Shining." Pete expects to add a parrot and/or a talking dog to the menagerie in the near future.

THE CASH BOX RECORD REVIEWS

Only Records Considered Best Suited To The Requirements Of The Trade Are Reviewed On These Pages.

"HONEST AND TRULY" (2:54)
 "WHEN THE SWALLOWS COME BACK TO CAPISTRANO" (2:07)

BILLY MAY ORCHESTRA
 (Capitol 2054; F-2054)

● A tune that is currently receiving many waxings is given another one over by the Billy May orchestra. The pleasant blend that has trade marked the group is put to good advantage as they spin through the top deck. Flip is an oldie that is also presented with the stylized May sound. Ops should get play out of both decks.

"BLACK SHADOWS" (2:57)
 "I FEEL LIKE CRYING" (3:08)

JOHNNY HARTMAN
 (RCA Victor 20-4637; 47-4637)

● Johnny Hartman has one of his better sides on the initial end. The tune carries an eerie sound that Johnny renders in an expressive manner. The under siding is a slow ballad that's also done sincerely by Hartman along with his musical backing. The top one looks good.

"RAINBOW STREET" (2:24)
 "LOW DOWN MAMA FROM NEW ORLEANS" (2:45)

THE SATISFIERS
 (Rudder 1002)

● The Satisfiers offer a polished blend as they go through a pleasant ditty on the top level. Together with the Rufus Smith quintet the disk comes out as listenable fare. The second dish finds the group with a slow bounce that they present in a stylish manner. Ops might take a peek here.

"KISS OF FIRE" (2:35)
 "THE VERY FIRST TIME" (3:01)

TONY MARTIN
 (RCA Victor 20-4671; 47-4671)

● Tony Martin comes up with a first rate coverage of a tune that's sure to go a long way and his effort should give it an added push. The Henri Rene orchestra supplies the fitting backdrop to the grand vocalizing of Martin. The under portion presents Tony with an Irving Berlin ballad and the result is a delightful half. It's the first one.

"THE LITTLE TRAIN A-CHUGGIN'
 IN MY HEART" (2:46)
 "THERE'S A CLOUD IN MY VALLEY
 OF SUNSHINE" (2:50)

MARION MORGAN
 (MGM 11219; K11219)

● Set off against a train effect background, Marion Morgan turns in an effortless job on a cute ditty. The LeRoy Holmes orchestra creates the musical mood. The second dish is a jump rendition of a tune that's currently being teed off in the picture "Son Of Paleface." Ops oughta check here.

"AS YOUR LOVE IS TO ME" (2:30)
 "SWEET, PURE AND INNOCENT"
 (2:15)

PAULETTE SISTERS
 (Broadway 1012)

● A plain but pleasant side is dished up on the upper portion by the harmonizing Paulette Sisters. The girls are given musical assistance by the Jimmy Carroll orchestra which helps round out the disk. The bottom half is a beauty item that moves along easily as the girls run through the lyrics. Ops might wanna look.

DISK OF THE WEEK

"I WAITED A LITTLE TOO LONG" (2:59)
 "(HO HO HA HA) ME TOO" (2:00)

KAY STARR
 (Capitol 2062; F-2062)

KAY STARR

● With one song already at the very top of the parade, Kay Starr has waxed herself another potent contender. Fully exploiting her vocal talents, Kay takes off on a slow and infectious melody that's labeled "I Waited A Little Too Long." The vocal is set against a light backing that adds to the effectiveness of the level. Another appealing feature of the disk is the change of pace that moves the tune along with a happy bounce. The total effect is one that should have ops scurrying for their nearest distributor in order to get hold of this tasty juke box item. The lower siding is a fast moving ditty that's handled cutely by Kay whose ingratiating manner of delivery enhances anything she turns out. The impetus of her current hit could make this end stir up a bit of noise too. However, the lid that's gonna happen for sure is the first one and we advise ops to get with it now.

"TROUBLE IN MIND" (2:40)
 "THE DIRTY DOZENS" (2:34)

TOMMY DORSEY
 (Decca 28064; 9-28064)

● Tommy Dorsey and his Clambake Seven give a tune from the rhythm and blues field a thorough going over. The different instrumentalists are showcased on the disk with Tommy heading the list. The lower portion is a fast moving item that's given a slick treatment by the high flying combo. Ops could move this in the right spots.

"SHE MET A HANDSOME BANKER"
 (2:51)

"PHILOSOPHIZE" (2:48)

EDMUNDO ROS ORCHESTRA
 (London 1140)

● A pair of Latin tempo items are given the typical Edmundo Ros orchestration and vocal on this disking. The first one is a rhumba that Ros projects vocally while the under siding is carried along with a samba beat. Both decks make for good listening and ops who are situated properly oughta watch this.

"BLUES AT SUNDOWN" (2:40)
 "BENSONALITY" (2:58)

DUKE ELLINGTON
 (Columbia 39712; 4-39712)

● A slow but forceful blues item, composed by the Duke himself, is hammered out in convincing manner by the orchestra. Flip is another Ellington composition that's belted out in a driving fashion by the orchestra with a resulting good sound. Ops in the right locations can fully exploit this disk.

"I'M YOURS" (2:50)
 "JUST A LITTLE LOVIN'" (2:25)

EDDIE FISHER
 (RCA Victor 20-4680; 47-4680)

● A stirring and lovely ballad that's headin' high is given a wonderful send-off by Eddie Fisher and the Hugo Winterhalter orchestra. The lush backing and the expressive singing should make this waxing a logical contender for top honors. The under siding is a lighter tune with a pretty melody and here too the artist makes the most of it. The side to watch is the first one.

"LOVE ME" (2:38)
 "ONLY YOU" (2:46)

FRANK CAMPANA
 (Jubilee 6003)

● An exciting tango beat and a fair vocal coverage makes the top level a listenable piece of wax. The Dick Freitas orchestra rounds the lid out. The second end is a dramatic number that comes out stronger as handled by Frank and the orchestra. Ops might be interested in this pair.

"TILL I SEE YOU AGAIN" (2:33)
 "JACK AND THE BEANSTALK"
 (2:44)

TOMMY TUCKER ORCHESTRA
 (MGM 11220; K11220)

● Tommy Tucker and his orchestra work their way through a slow, soft ballad on the top level together with vocalist Peter Hanley and a choral group. The result is a listenable half. The under deck is a cute ditty from the flick of the same name. The entire crew shows better on this end. Ops oughta act accordingly.

"WRONG" (2:33)
 "I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU"
 (2:53)

ANN GIBSON
 (Capitol 2049; F-2049)

● A pretty tune is given a first rate going over by chirp Ann Gibson with the assistance of Jerry Shard and his music. To go along with the fine vocalizing of the artist, some delightful trumpeting adds to the level. The second end is a blues type number that's presented in a convincing manner.

"MUSIC LESSONS" (2:14)
 "DREAMS COME TUMBLING DOWN" (2:52)

ANDREWS SISTERS
 (Decca 28116; 9-28116)

● A novelty item with musical and animal effects is bounced through in a spright fashion by the Andrew Sisters. The girls make merry with the cute number and should find an additional market among the kiddies. The lower half is an up beat tune that carries a good melody and the trio takes care of the rest. Ops oughta get hep to both lids.

"JUST BECAUSE" (2:48)
 "DEEP ELEM BLUES" (2:51)

DICK STABILE ORCHESTRA
 (Decca 28127; 9-28127)

● The Dick Stabile orchestra with the vocal work being handled by Billy Wilson skip around with a beauty number on the top level that comes out with a Dixieland sound. The under lid is another similar disking that shows the vocalist to greater advantage. Ops might be interested in this platter.

"PLEASE DON'T CRY" (2:36)
 "I GIVE MY LOVE TO YOU" (2:47)

ALFRED AKA
 (Decca 28112; 9-28112)

● A slow, sentimental ballad is sent through its paces by Alfred Apaka on the top dish. The vocalist takes charge of the lyrics and turns in a listenable performance. The reverse side is a soft, soothing number that contains a bit of folk flavoring and here too Apaka brings in a creditable platter. Ops might take a peek.

ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

NEW YORK:

The talk of the town for the past week has been Johnnie Ray. Not only did he get a million dollars worth of publicity on his Copa opening (and deservedly so), but his new record "What's The Use" and his sensational album are selling like crazy. Johnnie stays at the Copa for 3 weeks (he set a new record there his first week) and then goes into the N. Y. Paramount. . . . Sunny Gale, who started "Wheel Of Fortune" on its way, now appearing with Nat "King" Cole at the Earle Theater in Philadelphia. Sunny, who was on the Ken Murray and Arthur Murray TV shows a few weeks ago has been invited to repeat on the Arthur M. Sunday evening show. . . . Could be that the Morton Frank who supplied the lyrics to the new Sammy Kaye recording "You" is Frank Abramson, on the contact staff of Republic and World Music. Melody is from Puccini's "La Boheme" and lyrics were written in association with Sunny Skylar. . . . Paramount Pictures to use the Rainbow record of "Jungle Fantasy" at the preview of "Come Back Little Sheba." Negotiations now going on for use of the record in the picture itself. . . . In a surprise ceremony, Tommy Volando was married over the weekend. . . . Tony Bennett back in New York after closing El Rancho in Las Vegas, will have a recording session at Columbia this week. . . . Alan Dean set for return date at Toronto's Prince George Hotel May 5-11. . . . Harry Belafonte, just signed to a long term recording contract with RCA Victor, has cut "Chimney Smoke" and "A-Rovin'." . . . Former dj Herb Dexter has been appointed general professional manager of Milton Kellem Music Pub. The firm is now working on Ruth Casey's Jubilee Record of "In Spite Of All" and Teresa Brewer's Coral record "Gonna Get Along Without You Now." Sorry to hear that Morty Palitz' mother died last week. Besides Morty she left another son, Dr. Lawrence Palitz.

SUNNY GALE

Chicago: Cute card from Henry Okun all about the big reception Buddy DeFranco received here at the Capitol Lounge, after his appearance at the Preview, and the fact that Buddy's "Pennywhistle Blues" grabbing much attention. . . . Clarence A. Camp well known coinman, who is also Nash dealer in Memphis, now dickering for radio station there. Clarence spent much time with Tommy Reed and Tommy's very charming missus, Vivian. Clarence plans a label of his own and may bust with Tommy as his first band. Tommy still at the Chase in St. Loo. . . . Bumped smack dab into Johnny Desmond at the Chase with deejay Gil Newsome. Johnny advising that he was covering deejays in St. Louis area. . . . Received a nice visit and a very pretty Easter card, too, from June Davis the gal who does that great blues singing stint with her own tune, "J. D. Blues," on Okeh. Fact of the matter is the gal's voice is a natural for the hot spots. . . . Art Morton sends in his new disk, "So Exciting" on Harmony label. Art sounds grand on the tune which is so close to another, it's difficult to tell 'em apart. Art's voice never better than on this wax. . . . Like "Ye Old Handbill" (No. 2) that Jilla Webb surprised us with. Seems like there's some mighty smart promotion back of the gal these days. The sheet covers the fact that Jilla appears as guest artist with Mario Lanza and then reprints a statement from The Cash Box telling about her great voice. . . . Beep (Impatient) Roberts advises us that, right after he wrote us about Tex Williams, he discovered Tex on the front cover of The Cash Box. From now on we'll call Beep: "Kid Impatience." . . . Two one-stop music spots in St. Loo do just about all the selling to juke box ops in that area. They charge a few cents above, but, ops prefer purchasing from these spots rather than scooting about here, there and everywhere, wasting mucho time to buy all the disks they need. Eddie Okel and Harry Brockman are the boys who have the spots. . . . If anything at all, juke box leaders much enthused over unfreezing of TV stations. Believe that, like what happened back in '34, new stars and new songs will result. And that the nation's juke boxes will really sell these to Mr. and Mrs. America.

CHICAGO:

LOS ANGELES: Interesting to note that Capitol Records has just signed Freddie Slack on the label's 10th anniversary. It was exactly 10 years ago that Freddie and his orchestra backed Ella Mae Morse in cutting Capitol's first great hit and its second release. First disc to bear the label had Paul Whiteman orchestra on "I Found a New Baby" and "The General Jumped at Dawn." But the new baby really jumped with "Cow Cow Boogie," written by Don Raye and Gene DePaul. . . . What makes the Slack return to Capitol all the more auspicious at this time is the hit he just scored by Ella Mae Morse on "Blacksmith Blues." . . . While not yet scheduled, it would be a surprise to everyone around Capitol's Sunset & Vine offices if Ella Mae and Freddie weren't paired on a real big one in the very near future. . . . Honeymooners Art & Lee Rupe back to Specialty from Southern trip and signed new artist Lloyd Price.

Lunched with Lou Chudd of Imperial to learn that he's doing right well in the folk and country music publishing business, and without even pushing. His current hot one is "Wild Side of Life," with Hank Thompson on Capitol doing a big selling job over the counters and via the boxes cross country. . . . Lou is also scoring with his own folk line, as witnessed by Slim Whitman on "Love Song of the Waterfall," tune written by Bob Nolan and published by American Music. . . . In the blues and rhythm field, Imperial has several taking off, particularly Fats Domino on "Going Home" and new releases by T-Bone Walker and Herb Fisher. . . . Heading for New York for a month's stay was American Music's top man, Sylvester Cross.

LOS ANGELES:

Singing and flycasting at the Sportsman's Show is Abbott Records' Johnny Horton, the champion fisherman who's landed a nice one in "Words," song written by him and published by American Music. . . . The tune's been cut by Terry Preston on Capitol and Eddie Zack on Decca. . . . Two parties in past week: Mercury's for Johnny Hodges at Tiffany Club and MGM's for Hank Williams and Radio Station WSM artist bureau chief Jim Denny at the Riverside Rancho.

Slim Whitman Capitol doing a big selling job over the counters and via the boxes cross country. . . . RECORD REVIEWS

Only Records Considered Best Suited To The Requirements Of The Trade Are Reviewed On These Pages.

"YOU MADE ME LOVE YOU" (2:47)
"THE DARKTOWN STRUTTERS BALL" (2:50)

CONNIE HAINES & ALAN DALE
(Coral 60700; 9-60700)

● A grand old ballad is carried softly and smoothly by chirp Connie Haines. Assisting with the musical backing is Ray Bloch who lends to the appeal of the waxing. The lower level offers the combined talents of Connie and Alan Dale as they make merry with a jumpy item. Ops might be interested.

"OH MARIE" (2:34)

"JUDY" (2:39)

ALAN DALE
(Coral 60699; 9-60699)

● An interesting rendition of a favorite Italian tune is presented on the first lid by Alan Dale and the Ray Bloch orchestra. Done slowly in Italian then jumped up in English, this dish makes for good listening. The under end is a plain number that Alan projects easily. The top one is a perennial coin catcher.

"SWEET SUE—JUST YOU" (2:35)

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY" (2:45)

JOHNNY LONG ORCHESTRA
(Coral 60698; 9-60698)

● The Johnny Long orchestra takes hold of a cute oldie and bangs out an infectious rendition that bounces about merrily. The vocal ensemble projects the lyrics in a tasty manner making the end an interesting one. Flip offers Francey Lane with the group as they reface the old birthday classic. Ops might take a gander.

"KEY LARGO" (2:39)

"HI HO TRAILUS WHIP" (2:41)

ANITA O'DAY
(Coral 60697; 9-60697)

● Anita O'Day takes a light Latin beat, adds a bit of sincere chirping and winds up with a good sound. The tune is helped along by the backing provided by Benny Carter and his aggregation. The under siding is a change of pace item that moves slowly then speeds up and Anita controls it all the way. Alvy West gets ork credits here. Ops oughta give a look.

"NO OTHER GIRL FOR ME" (2:32)

"IF SOMEONE HAD TOLD ME"
(3:03)

GORDON MACRAE
(Capitol 2047; F-2047)

● A light number is dished up in a liting fashion by Gordon MacRae on the top level. The Van Alexander orchestra sets the lid up musically and the result is a pleasant waxing. Flip is a pretty ballad from the flick "About Face" and here MacRae has a stronger entry. Ops oughta watch the bottom side.

"DELICADO" (2:22)

"BAGS AND BAGGAGE" (2:55)

STAN KENTON ORCHESTRA
(Capitol 2040; F-2040)

● A South American Baio is offered with a novel instrumental arrangement by the Stan Kenton orchestra. This Latin tempo item should move well in the right spots. The under portion is another slick instrumental that features the bass soloing of Don Bagley. Ops oughta check here too.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"YOU" (3:10)

"OH, HOW I MISS YOU TONIGHT" (2:05)

SAMMY KAYE ORCHESTRA

(Columbia 39724; 4-39724)

SAMMY KAYE

● The Sammy Kaye orchestra comes up with a ballad that could very easily send it back to the head of the list. Sammy and the band have not had a big one in a long time, but this new release looks like the side to do it. The number is called "You" and it is based on passages from the opera "La Boheme." The melody is beautiful and Tony Russo, the band vocalist, takes full advantage of it as he projects the lyrics with warmth and feeling. The lush orking and expressive vocalizing make this lid a powerful entry. The second end is a pleasant sounding tune that the Kaydets handle in an adequate fashion. We look for the top deck to happen fast and ops oughta be prepared for it.

"GOODY GOODY" (2:23)

"AIR MAIL SPECIAL" (3:00)

ELLA FITZGERALD
(Decca 28126; 9-28126)

● An infectious ditty that's getting lots of waxing is given one of the better efforts by Ella Fitzgerald. Making use of all her vocal tricks and the backing supplied by the Sy Oliver orchestra, Ella has a potent end here. The reverse lid finds Ella running through a rousing number that she delivers with her patented vocal gibberish that moves solidly with her fans. Ops have two good ones.

"BASIN STREET BLUES" (2:42)

"FLAMINGO" (2:37)

HERB JEFFRIES & LES BROWN ORCHESTRA
(Coral 60717; 9-60717)

● The heartfelt vocalizing of Herb Jeffries is put to good advantage as he reads the lyrics to this classic blues item. The Les Brown orchestra further enhances the side with its fine musical accompaniment. The lower deck is another old tune that Jeffries handles expressively. Ops oughta get with the disk.

"PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA"
(2:49)

"SOMEWHERE ALONG THE WAY"
(3:15)

JERRY GRAY ORCHESTRA
(Decca 28141; 9-28141)

● A cute ditty that's high up in the lists at the present time is given fair coverage on the upper lid. The Jerry Gray orchestra, with vocal credits going to Tommy Traynor, gives out with a happy rendition. The second half offers the entire crew with a lovely ballad that could make noise. Their treatment could share in the spins. Ops might take a gander.

"MORE THAN LOVE" (2:47)

"COME BACK" (2:43)

GUY LOMBARDO ORCHESTRA
(Decca 28132; 9-28132)

● The pretty "Tango Of The Roses" is dished up tastefully by the Guy Lombardo orchestra, featuring Kenny Martin with the vocal chores. The Lombardo crew could make this go. The flip level is a slow tune that's done adequately by both vocalist and orchestra. The upper lid deserves the attention of ops.

"HONEST AND TRULY" (2:46)

"SINGING WINDS" (2:30)

RALPH FLANAGAN
(RCA Victor 20-4656; 47-4656)

● Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra ease through a good tune with a typically fine instrumental arrangement. Harry Prime and the Singing Winds add the finishing touches with their vocal efforts. The under lid is the Flanagan theme song and here too the band comes out on top. Ops can choose from either half.

"GOODY GOODY" (2:04)

"IT'S BEEN SO LONG" (2:11)

JEANNE GAYLE & BOB CROSBY'S BOBCATS
(Capitol 2037; F-2037)

● A snappy, up beat ditty is given ample coverage on the upper deck through the combined efforts of Jeanne Gayle and the Bob Crosby Bobcats. The tune should kick up some excitement and this version should get some spins. The lower end is a jump item that the artists sell solidly. The upper one is stronger.

"IT'S A SIN TO TELL A LIE"
(2:22)

"IT HAD TO BE YOU" (2:15)

DICK HAYMAN ORCHESTRA
(Mercury 5825; 5825 x 45)

● A grand oldie that is currently being revived is given a wonderful instrumental and choral treatment by the Dick Hayman orchestra and chorus. The slow soft ballad is shown to good advantage via this rendition. Flip is another oldie that the group handles in a flowing fashion and once again come up with a good level. Ops oughta look in.

"STOMPIN' AT THE SAVOY" (2:48)

"BOULEVARD OF BROKEN
DREAMS" (2:58)

RALPH MARGERIE ORCHESTRA
((Mercury 5827; 5827 x 45)

● An old jump item is socked out convincingly by the Ralph Margerie orchestra. The band presents a big sound that turns out as listenable material. The under portion is a beautiful number that the orchestra executes tastefully with some fine trumpeting marking the end. Ops should get with this one.

"GOODBYE FOR AWHILE" (2:45)

"GOOD MORNING, MORNING GLORY" (2:47)

VIC DAMONE
(Mercury 5831; 5831 x 45)

● A popular Italian phrase coupled with a soothing melody make up the material Vic Damone has on the first platter. Together with the George Siravo orchestra, Vic sells the lyrics impressively. The bottom dish is a plain, jumpy number that Vic delivers creditably. We like the initial end.

"IT'S A SIN TO TELL A LIE" (2:45)

"THAT'S WHEN YOUR HEART-
ACHES BEGIN" (2:38)

INK SPOTS
(Decca 25505; 9-25505)

● Using their familiar vocal format and styling, the Ink Spots come up with a pretty version of a wonderful old ballad. The ingratiating melody is carried effectively by the group with Bill Kenny in charge of the lead. The under siding is another slow, soft item that's presented typically. Our nod goes to the top deck.

The HALE You Say

by natt hale

It isn't too often that we feel we've accomplished all we'd set out to achieve in any given 24-hour period. The other dawn, however, we found ourselves sitting in a roomy cab, driving to the lost horizon we bemusedly describe as home. During such moments of post-reflection, we usually find ourselves excogitating the plans for the next day's assault upon the deejay element and radio personnel en force.

Into our enviable spirit of euphoria came the dulcet contemplation of the cabbie: "Whadd'ya doin' out dis time o' night? Hully smoke, it's five o'clock in d'maw'nin awreddy. . . . Whadd'ya do, own a joint or sum'pn?"

Undoubtedly, we should have known better. Too many times, we've tried to explain our peripatetic duties to the layman, only to leave a bewildered and flustered "square" regarding us with a mixed feeling of something between awe and pathos.

Undaunted, we gave out with a few succinct sentences describing the incidental details of professional record promotion. Naturally, the disc jocks, newspaper columnists, specialty photographers and all the rest of the publicity hierarchy came in for their share of mention.

To all of which, our cabbie friend seemed apathetic. True, he gave us an attentive ear, which probably accounted for our warming up to the subject with greater detail and enthusiasm. This led us into the subject of how we expunged the competition with persistent and unrelenting campaigns, all calculated with fulminatory "gimmicks" and the like.

NATT HALE

By this time, we were rolling along the Drive at a healthy 20-mile-per-hour clip. The cabbie had settled back into his inflated-cushion with a far-away look in his retinas. Once again, the recital of our personal pursuit to justify our existence by extolling the talents of the glamorous figures in the never-never land of the recording world had exacted its toll. We felt certain that the cabbie now recognized his passenger as being above the ordinary run of men, beyond the realm of mere mortals.

It would probably cost us an additional two bits to inflate the impression, but we still felt it was worth it. . . .

Within a matter of minutes, however, the cabbie had inserted a sharp pin into the bubble that was our dream world, and left us a pale, exsanguine heap on the back seat.

"Bet ya have to take a lotta guff, don'cha?" he asked.

"How do you mean—a lotta guff?" we asked.

"Well, the way I see it," he said, "you're the Number Two man on the totem pole all the way. You gotta be nice to all the guys you have to see—those disc jocks, the newspaper guys, the artists and—well, just everybody. You're always the bridesmaid, don'tcha see?"

We were beginning to see.

"Maybe I'm wrong," he maybeed, "but, from where I sit, when you go out on your regular rounds, you're askin' for somethin' all the time. Either you're tryin' to get a record played, or you're seein' if some guy won't write somethin' for you or some guy takes a picture you need. You always gotta be in a position where you need a favor? Right?"

We were really irked. Probably because the cabbie was bringing facts to light which had hitherto remained imprisoned in the dark recesses of our mind.

"Now, then," he continued, "I imagine it's even a little worse when you get one of those stars in town, isn't it? Geez, even with the few I get in the cab, I know how they like to be babied. I guess you gotta be with 'em, take 'em around, interduce 'em to the big people, see that they're not bothered, get 'em interviewed, get their names in the paper, maybe pictures, and everything. Isn't that kinda tough?"

He didn't realize how much tougher he was making it for us!

"Now, take me," he went on with the torture, "I just bought a new ranch-type house in the suburbs, I gotta wife, three terrific kids, a brand-new Caddie besides this cab, and a gift shop business on the side. I work eight hours a day and then, Buddy, that's all! If anybody doesn't like the way I drive or the way I work, I can tell 'em to lump it. . . . I don't have to take nothin' from nobody!"

However, to temper our disgruntlement, he added:

"Course, I don't get to meet all the glamorous people you do, and I don't get to see all the fancy places you do—but, whatthehell, I'm satisfied!"

He's satisfied! He should only know!

Well—what're you gonna do?

Record Stars Score In New York Club Dates

NEW YORK—There were several performances taking place in New York night clubs last week which refuted the old bromide that record stars didn't do well on personal appearances.

The most publicized, of course, was that of Johnnie Ray at the Copa, but we'll talk about his great show in another issue.

At the moment our hats are off to Dolly Dawn, currently appearing at Cafe Society and to The Dominoes who last week played The Birdland.

Dolly, who recently signed with Jubilee Records, gives one of the most polished performances we've seen. Although she hasn't been on records for the past few years, she's been appearing in clubs around the country and her manner of handling the audience and keeping them with her from start to finish shows how much that experience is worth.

The audience's enthusiasm makes it hard for her to leave the floor and she has to sing about ten songs, including, naturally, her Jubilee recording of "Be Anything, But Be Mine."

And what's more, every song has a style of its own, and every song shows Dolly to be an authoritative, polished performer.

The Dominoes, who just closed at Birdland, are a group headed by Billy Ward whose reputation was made on their King Records. "Sixty Minute Man" sent them to the top of the list and they've stayed there ever since, having just won the Pittsburgh Courier Poll.

This group too knows how to handle itself on the floor. They pack all the excitement of their records into their act and, most difficult of all for a group, move with grace and agility while they sing.

Although they are currently concentrating almost exclusively on rhythm and blues material, there's no doubt that their appeal with pop material should be even greater.

At any rate, here are two acts, at least, which prove that being a hit on records doesn't mean that their style can't be transferred to a sight medium.

See Run On Puccini Melodies

NEW YORK—With Puccini's "La Boheme" now in public domain, a run on the melodies from this opera is expected in the music business.

First to hit the market is Sammy Kaye's Columbia recording of "You" written by Sunny Skylar and Morton Frank and based on "Musetta's Waltz."

Tin Pan Alley tunesmiths have long wanted to adapt the Puccini melodies and now, as they come into public domain one by one, it is expected that there will soon be a run on all his tunes.

"Voice of America" Tapes Avakian

NEW YORK—The Voice Of America this week called on jazz historian, George Avakian, at Columbia Records' N. Y. studios. Rene Erville, writer, broadcaster and music commentator of the Voice's French Division, interviewed Avakian (via transcriptions) in response to a great deal of fan letters from abroad regarding Jazz in America. Erville quizzed Avakian about Columbia's "Golden Era Series," i.e., "The Louis Armstrong Story," "The Bessie Smith Story" and "The Bix Beiderbecke Story," all produced and edited for the company by Avakian. The provocative and sometimes amusing discussion was recorded in French for export to Radio Diffusion Francaise.

BANDS BOUNCE BACK BIG!

Turnout For Billy May Band At Martin Block's "Gandy Dancers' Ball" Stimulates Entire Biz As It Proves Pulling Power Of Name Orchestras.

The Band

The Audience

The Promoter

NEW YORK—It looked like the good old days last Friday night, April 11, as more than 4000 kids jammed New York's Manhattan Center to dance to Billy May's orchestra and listen to the singing of Frankie Laine.

Titled the "Gandy Dancers' Ball" by its promoter and M.C., disk jockey Martin Block, the dance was not only a complete sellout, but thousands of would-be ticket purchasers were turned away at the door and still more thousands of $1.50 mail reservations had to be returned.

The huge crowd was treated to one of the most stimulating bands heard this way in a long while. Billy May, who with this appearance, had his first showing in the east, fulfilled the promise of his advance publicity and his highly regarded Capitol disks by coming up with an original sound and style that kept the audience listening and dancing throughout the evening.

Frankie Laine, who was the guest singer, also drew tremendous response. The Columbia artist sang four of his recorded numbers and had them calling for more as he left the stage.

The Gandy Dancer tag was applied

The enthusiastic response to this affair, together with similar turnouts for dance bands which have recently occurred in other parts of the country, have made it clear to everyone interested in the dance business that the day of the big band business is just to the dance because of the record of that title which Laine currently has in the best seller lists. Gandy dancers are railroad men and in line with that, the room was decorated with railroad posters, and railroad workers caps were distributed at the door by Columbia's N. Y. distrib Times-Columbia as well as pamphlets supplied by the railroads.

around the corner.

There is much talk of the revival of some of the great aggregations of a decade ago and certainly the crowds at Manhattan Center last Friday night gave everyone reason enough to go all out in an effort to cash in on the unreleased demand for big dances as we used to know them.

At the Gandy Dancers' Ball, the

May orchestra played several sets to which half the audience just crowded the bandstand to listen while the rest let go on the dance floor. Each contingent appeared to be enjoying itself as much as the other.

If, as many think, this a forerunner of even greater dances to come, the revival of big bands should make itself felt very shortly in the record business. For not only was Billy May introduced to the public through his Capitol records, but his personal appearances have been stimulants to their sale. The same is bound to apply to many other bands as soon as they really get rolling.

The Martin Block affair was what the entire business has been waiting for—the proof that it could be done. It was indeed a dandy Gandy Dancers' Ball.

Billy May, Martin Block and guest Frankie Laine

Best Selling Records

COMPILED BY JACK "ONE SPOT" TUNNIS

Tunes are listed below in order of their popularity based on a continuing weekly national survey of thousands of record dealers by Jack "One Spot" Tunnis. Each listing includes the name of the song, record number, artists, and tune on the reverse side. The number underneath the title indicates the actual sale per 1000 records made for the week. If the figure is 67.4, it means that for every 1000 records sold that week, 67.4 were of the tune indicated—a combination of all the records on which it was available.

Kickin' The Blues Around

with Sam Evans

Ruth Brown, Atlantic money maker, and principal product of the pen of Jack Walker, is climbing high on all of the "Hot" charts with her "5-10-15 Hours." . . . Joe "Zizzy" Johnson (we were cheerleaders together years ago at Wendell Phillips Hi) is producing the show at Detroit's Flame Club. His praise for Nellie Hill could be heard thruout the lobby of The Gotham Hotel where we lunched a week ago. Al Hibbler keeping the Flame burning right thru here; with Hadda Brooks and Tamara Hayes set to fan it during May. Maurice King and his band now in their second year at the Motor City's gay spot. . . . Bill Lane a pleasant addition to Detroit's WJR, with his show called "Swinging Down The Lane." . . . Robbins Music has some great music in that wonderful new movie "Singing In The Rain" another of the many fine products from the pride of Culver City, MGM. . . . T. J. Fowler signs with Savoy and Lee Magid doing flips about his first release "Fowlers Boogie." A huge box of Savoy records just delivered and sorry there was nothing on that new team called The Four Buddies. All sides look good from this turntable.

M. Whitmark & Sons have a national campaign to promote "If Someone Had Told Me" with Dolores Gray doing the vocal. . . . Mynna Granat types a note about the threesome good-luck charm. Firstly the gal is with three publishers: Raleigh, Bristol, and Biltmore. Nextly they are backing three sides: "Boogie Oogie" with Larry Darnell; "Why Don't I" The Heartbreakers and lastly "Proud Of You" featuring Mr. Blaine's boy Sonny Til. Columbia, Jubilee and Victor being the labels, all needed now is to get a saddle on three midnite drawings in a row and we can all retire from the business. . . . When we made our last hurried overnite trip into New York City, Chris Forde, President of Tuxedo Records was most gracious in arranging things. Chris had set up interviews for this scribe with Tommy Small, Bill Cook and Phil Gordon, but it was so 'damp,' well maybe you know how it is.

Leonard Chess has passed thru the Cajun country and is now over where the soil is thick and red, namely Georgia and taking orders for John Lee Hooker's "Union Station Blues" b/w "High Priced Woman." Chess next will spin over to Memphis for a recording session with Howling Wolf. . . . Eugene "Genial Gene" Potts, a brother Alpha and deejay, is dinking from WGIV in Charlotte, N. C. His "Coffee Pot Time" is a must during the early hours in Tobaccoland. . . . While out in the well irrigated San Joaquin valley, Leroy Calhoun of KARM, Fresno, Calif., celebrated his third anniversary with ABC's outlet, as a deejay. . . . Singer Mabel Scott and hubby Charles Brown took it all to court, because things got so messy. Now a peaceful divorce and property settlement is being worked out to the satisfaction of both parties.

When Alan Fried put on his big Moondog Dance, recently in Cleveland, it was not The Orioles, as mentioned in this column. All praise goes to The Dominoes, who along with Paul Williams and His Hucklebuckers, were the main attractions. . . . Jack Gale, of United Music, coming to Chicago and wants to know "If I will have lunch with him?" The man must be kidding. I haven't had a T-Bone steak since the last record plugger was in town. Jack says: "The new Tony Bennett 'Somewhere Along The Way,' is slightly terrific." . . . Sugar Chile Robinson; Hal "Cornbread" Singer; Lowell "Blues" Fulsom; Ray Charles and famed blues-singer Lil Green doing a stretch at Chi's Regal. To be followed on May 16th by Ella Fitzgerald and Erskine Hawkins. . . . Stan Kenton playing to packed house every nite during his current run at The Blue Note. Delicado much in demand as an encore number. What a showman. . . . The Devine Miss Sarah Vaughan follows Stan, and then Dinah Washington returns to her home town and The Note, plus some greens at my house.

SAM EVANS is the Jass and Blues expert heard nitely on WGN, Chicago's Mutual outlet and on WBKB-TV.

Ramblings

Eddie (Mr. Cleanhead) Vinson had a narrow escape when warning signals failed to work as he and his band journeyed from Beaumont to Houston, Texas, last week. The band's trailer, with manager Harold Newboldt at the wheel, was smashed to ribbons by a Missouri-Pacific fast freight at 2 a.m. in the dark of night. Luckily no one was hurt—but oh!—those orchestrations and instruments. . . . The Dr. Blues Show (WJNR-Newark) played the new Marveltones' recording of "My Heart Is Yours" on the Regent Label twice. Result—700 records sold in two days. . . . The Buddy Basch office has been signed to handle the promotion for The Blenders, vocal group currently recording for the Decca label. . . . The Bells Of Joy, Peacock recording artists, are booked solid for a year ahead.

For Ruth Brown there seems to be no end to adventure. Ruth, while vacationing with her family in Virginia risked her life in a daring rescue of two men who were in grave danger of drowning. While motoring on an unusually foggy night, Miss Brown noticed an automobile taillight shining in a stretch she knew to be a treacherous bog. Stopping her car to investigate, she discovered two men clinging to their car which had swerved out of control and was rapidly sinking into the muck. Lying flat on her stomach, with her father holding her ankles, Ruth was able to reach the first of the two men and pull him up out of the swamp. The second man was out of her reach, so while her father rendered first aid to the rescued autoist, Ruth sped back for help and a tow rope. The second man was rescued just as his car disappeared into the mud. NFA got the story from Ruth's proud relatives.

C. on April 29th. . . . Arnett Cobb and his group playing to capacity crowds at Club Harlem, Philadelphia. Incidentally, the Cobbs celebrate their 13th anniversary on April 29th. . . . JAZZ 'N' BLUES REVIEWS

"GONNA MOVE AWAY FROM TOWN" (3:16)
"ROCK THIS MORNING" (2:00)

JESSE ALLEN
(Aladdin 3129)

● A slow dynamic blues is given a dramatic reading by Jesse Allen. Allen, who wrote the tune, sings the sad lyrics potently. The musical group sets up the vocalist smoothly, as they back him in polished manner. Flip is a fast boogie beat that Allen belts out with zest. Allen's vocal and the supporting instrumentalists combine to make this a top flight waxing.

"GOOMP BLUES" (2:41)
"ONE NIGHTER BLUES" (2:31)

JOHNNY OTIS
(Mercury 8273; 45x8273)

● Johnny Otis and his ork come up with two instrumentals that make good listening. The upper deck is a driving number that Otis and the boys spin through excitingly. A spirited arrangement that turns into a wild instrumentation makes this a likely side. The under lid is slow, low down item that features some exceptional saxing. Ops oughta check here.

"HAPPY DAYS" (2:14)
"GIVE ME LIBERTY OR GIVE ME LOVE" (2:52)

PAUL GAYTON
(Okeh 6870)

● A rocking rhythmic blues is given a rollicking treatment by Paul Gayton as he bangs out a forceful vocal. Gayton pipes the happy lyrics with zest and spirit as the ork, featuring a driving brass section, provides a potent backdrop. The second side is a slow romantic oldie that the boys do justice by. Gayton sings the pretty ballad feelingly and succeeds in waxing a listenable end.

"DRIPPERS BOOGIE" (2:31)
"TANYA" (3:05)

JOE LIGGINS AND HIS HONEYDRIPPERS
(Specialty 430)

● A real gone wild boogie beat is bounced through with contagious spirit by Joe Liggins and His Honeydrillers. The slick orking of an exciting arrangement, enhanced by the sock vocalizing of the harmony group, add up to a smash side. The lower lid, a slow jump is another dramatic treatment, solidly executed. The entire waxing is accompanied by a stirring undertone. Ops have two smash sides here and we recommend their putting them into the boxes.

"REELING AND ROCKING" (2:23)
"GOIN' HOME" (2:15)

FATS DOMINO
(Imperial 5180)

● A slow jump is given a rocking Fats Domino treatment and the result is a strong side. Fats' slick singing makes this a side his devotees will go for. The rollicking tune is sold in sock style by the chanter who is potently backed by the ork. Flip is a slow beat item executed forcefully by the singer and the musical aggregation. Ops who are looking for good filler material need look no further.

★ AWARD O' THE WEEK ★

"MOODY MOOD FOR LOVE" (2:35)
"EXCLAMATION BLUES" (2:41)

KING PLEASURE
(Prestige 924)

● The top level presents the distinctive vocalizing of King Pleasure. The quick tempo delivery of a slow tune makes this an unusual etching and one that comes out a potent platter. "Moody Mood For Love" is a slow, soft tune with romantic lyrics that Pleasure chants engagingly. A fem chirp aids in the singing, and pipes in the same racing manner to help make this a different side. The lush orking of the slick arrangement aids no end as they provide a dramatic backdrop for the chanting duo. Ops looking for a record that's sure fire have one here. Flip is a hustling tune that has King Pleasure reversing the pattern he set on top lid, singing a fast bounce with an easy delivery. King's powerhouse selling of this item makes this side a happy companion for the top deck. Ops are advised to latch on to this record immediately.

"HOUSEWIFE BLUES" (2:29)
"I'VE LOST" (3:00)

THE ENCHANTERS
(Jubilee 5080)

● A fast moving tune is taken through its paces by the Enchanters. An ok set of lyrics and a solid melody are chanted with zest by the quartette who are backed in polished style by Buddy Lucas and his Band Of Tomorrow. The under lid is a slow item capably sung by the harmonizing group. Ops would do well to take a listen.

"SO TIRED" (3:00)
"THELMA LOU" (2:40)

ROY MILTON
(Specialty 429)

● A slow sentimental number is given an easy treatment by Roy Milton as he vocalizes the sad lyrics with warmth. A sincere arrangement is projected soothingly by the Solid Senders as together they bring in a listenable side. The second portion is a moderate jump that Milton socks out expressively. The sax is the featured instrument on both sides.

"BE ANYTHING" (2:19)
"SKIPPIN' AND HOPPIN'" (2:35)

BOBBY SMITH
(Apollo 1191)

● Bobby Smith and his ork come up with a r&b treatment of a current pop plug item. Kitty DeChavis chants the pretty tune in ok style and Smith and his ork provide the musical backdrop. Lower deck is a driving beat instrumental that the boys rip through as they drive home the spirited arrangement. Ops should take a peek.

"MAILMAN'S SACK" (2:13)
"NEWSPAPER BOY BLUES" (2:44)

TINY BRADSHAW
(King 4537)

● Tiny Bradshaw belts out a fast moving shouty item with zest. Bradshaw's dynamic vocal is supported in spirited fashion by the ork as they handle a driving arrangement solidly. Featured is a raucus and wild bit of saxing that does much for the waxing. Flip is a low down blues sung by Tiny Kennedy, and again on this side, the ork is strong as it delivers a rollicking instrumentation. Ops have two likely sides.

Jazz 'n' Blues

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"LOADED WITH LOVE" (2:16)
"RAM BUNK SHUSH" (2:30)

LUCKY MILLINDER
(King 4534)

● A moderate bounce is taken for a rollicking spin around the wax by Lucky Millinder and his orchestra. Titled, "Loaded With Love," the happy, stimulating item is treated to a sock arrangement that the Millinder ork projects merrily. The musical aggregation provides sprightly mood music for the vocalizing duo, Corky Robbins and Johnny Bosworth, who chant the happy lyrics smoothly and with ease. The infectious warbling of Corky and Johnny do much to help put the tune over, and the polished musicianship of the ork provide the finishing touches. Juke box devotees know the name "Millinder" and with the right kind of waxing, which we have here, another kind of happy tune will be played—that of coins dropping into the boxes. The under portion is a similar beat instrumental that showcases the Millinder group to advantage. Listeners are treated to some solid saxing and all around strong orking. We look for the top side to break fast and advise ops to get with it.

"NUMBER MAMBO" (3:09)
"MAMBO BLUES" (2:38)

NAT BROOKS
(Rainbow 173)

● A catchy novelty mambo is taken for a pulsating spin around the wax by Nat Brooks and the Mambo Boys. Brooks' vocal of the rhythmic latin number is top grade and he receives forceful accompaniment from the instrumental group. The etching is an exciting presentation and makes for good dancing and good listening. Flip is a similar item ably rendered by the artists. Ops should take a listen.

"MAMBO HOLIDAY" (Side #1 2:45)
"MAMBO HOLIDAY" (Side #2 2:39)

JOE HOLIDAY
(Prestige 772)

● A stirring mambo tune written by Joe Holiday is treated to an exciting arrangement and socked out in stimulating manner by Holiday and the ork. The Latin tempo item is presented on both sides of the platter and it comes out as an infectious piece. The tenor sax solo is an impressive bit of musicianship backed excitingly by bongo and timbales.

"BLOODSTAINED BANNER" (2:42)
"THE GOVERNOR" (2:41)

THE DIXIEAIRES
(Prestige 2001)

● A driving religious item is handled with much gusto by the Dixieaires, who sock out a contagious harmony arrangement in grand style. The lead vocal chants the rhythmic spiritual dynamically and the result is an ok disk. The under portion is a similar number with a slower beat. Once again the Dixieaires come through with a solid performance. Ops who have the right location for this material should take a listen.

"MY LAST AFFAIR" (2:34)
"STILL WATER" (2:55)

CHARLES BROWN
(Aladdin 3120)

● Charles Brown and his band run through a slow blues item easily. Brown, who seems to come up with one good one after another, chants the sad lyrics expressively and smoothly. The band provides a soft, melodic backing. This is an ok side. Flip is another slow number that Brown delivers in a potent manner, and again on this end the arrangement is top flight.

"BOOGIE-OOGIE" (2:43)
"DARLIN'" (3:03)

LARRY DARNELL
(Okeh 6869)

● A driving boogie beat novelty is sung by Larry Darnell with joyful abandon. Darnell's chanting of the catchy lyrics is explosive. The orking of this rhythmic rocker backs the singer solidly as they bring in a likely disk. The under position is a change of pace that Darnell and the boys work on with pleasing results. The artists give a moving performance as they handle this slow mellow tune.

The Man Who Came Back

BOSTON, MASS.—Earl Bostic, just recovered from a near fatal accident which occurred last December while he was enroute to fill a one nighter, is pictured with his band as they played before a capacity crowd at the Hi Hat Club in Boston recently. The band made its first recording in five months last week, under the direction of Ralph Bass of King and Federal.

Winning Artists Receive Pittsburgh Courier Awards At Carnegie Hall Concert

NEW YORK — The Pittsburgh Courier held its annual "Courier Concert" at Carnegie Hall, New York, on April 19th, at which the winners of it's yearly theatrical poll received their awards.

Among the favorites who stood the test and emerged winners were:

Nat "King" Cole, who was voted the best of the Trios. The Cole group won handily, though Rene Hall, Errol Garner and Charles Brown were strong vote getters and finished in that order behind the "King".

Billy Eckstine drew the nod as Champ Male Singer. This made the fifth time that Billy has led the field. However, Eckstine did not come through without a strong struggle from Bob White, a talented newcomer for whom a great future is predicted.

Lionel Hampton was overwhelmingly voted the best band. Lionel, who has taken this coveted honor three times, received his closest run for the championship from Duke Hampton. The winning Hampton garnered twice as many votes as the runner-up was able to gather.

The Dominoes ran away from the list of Quartets which included some of the biggest names in the theatrical business. The vocal group, whose "Sixty Minute Man" was such a phenomenal hit, received 32,715 votes, or almost four times as many as the Five Keys, who placed second.

Dinah Washington, also a repeater in the Courier poll, was declared winner of the Female Blues Singer group, but only after a 'knock em down and drag em out' struggle. Running very strongly behind the elected Queen were Ruth Brown, 2nd; Little Esther, 3rd; and Jo Jo Evans, 4th.

Many new names appeared in the listings and their show of popularity would indicate they are the stars of tomorrow. Among these were: Arette Lemarre, singer; Debbie Andrews, singer; Billy Wright, combo leader; Bob White, singer; and Lynn Hope, combo leader.

Here is a complete list of the victorious entertainers: Bands—Lionel Hampton; Small Combos—Paul Bascomb; Male Blues Singer — Lester Williams; Trios—Nat "King" Cole; Favorite Instrumentalists — Paula DuPree; Female Vocalists — Laura Lynn; Gospel Singers—Clara Ward; Quartets—Dominoes; Male Vocalists —Billy Eckstine; Female Blues Singer —Dinah Washington.

Deejay Frank Plath (WFJL) To Tape Atom Bomb Test

CHICAGO—Probably the only deejay who will be present at the next atomic bomb test will be Frank Plath of Station WFJL, this city.

Frank left town this past Tuesday with his favorite portable tape recorder and instructions to be in Las Vegas, Nevada at a certain date.

This will be the first time that any deejay has been present at an atom bomb test explosion, Frank believes, and is looking forward to thrilling the audiences of his many shows on WFJL with the tape of the bomb burst.

Frank Plath has two daily shows over WFJL: "Disks & Data" at 4:00 to 5:30 P.M. and "Musical Memories" at 10:30 to 11:00 A.M.

He is also heard on Thursday evenings, 8:00 to 8:30 P.M. with "Chicago's Top Tunes" as well as Saturdays 12:30 to 2:30 P.M. with the show: "Saturday Date".

THE CASH BOX FOLK and WESTERN ROUNDUP

Joe "Cactus" Nixon has taken over with the country record spinning at WOKE in Oak Ridge, Tenn. Joe previously did his spinning at Nashville's WMAK. He's now carrying three and a half hours per day split into two morning segs.

Margie Hess of the "Jamboree Sweethearts" is in need of a lead or alto female voice for the group. If interested contact Margie at P. O. Box 18, Pennsboro, West Virginia.

Dave Landers (M-G-M) will be the featured name on May 4th, with Johnny and Jack (RCA Victor) following on May 11th. Cowboy Copas (King) will hold the feature spot on May 18th with succeeding Sundays to be booked. Anyone interested in a St. Louis Sunday date?

Frank Page, who heads the country artist work at Shreveport's KWKH, is building a fine stable of recording talent. Station now boasts of Webb Pierce (Decca), Faron Young (Capitol), Slim Whitman (Imperial), Red Sovine (M-G-M), and Jimmie Lee. Page spins the country records at KWKH and handles the Saturday night "Hayride" which has long been a feature of the mid-west.

Maggie and Scotty (Swan) head the "Chippewa Valley Barn Dance" from WEAU in Eau Claire, Wisconsin. They carry their own managing and booking chores having traveled 83,000 miles during 1951 on their personal appearances. Scotty also does the country disc jockeying at WEAU.

Slim Williams is carrying a one hour live show each day from WENE in Endicott, New York. On Saturday afternoons they have a show from WNBF in Binghamton, New York and a Saturday noon television show is being set for this group.

WNPT of Tuscaloosa, Alabama boasts of the youngest disc jockey in the business. He is "Little Danny" Fields, age 3, who was discovered in one of the station's recent talent contests. "Little Danny" carries on his show for a local sponsor, spins his own records and occasionally picks up his little guitar to do a number himself.

Pee Wee King (RCA Victor) entertained the local disc jockeys and other Nashville personalities following his guest appearance on WSM's "Grand Ole Opry" April 12th. Occasion was handled by King's manager, J. L. Frank, and Prof. Mgr. of his Ridgeway pubery, Charlie Adams. During the festivities tapes were cut for use on stations all over the country in conjunction with King's new RCA Victor record of "Busy Body."

The Carlisles (Mercury) in Nashville cutting new sides for Dee Kilpatrick following a very successful two weeks of p. a.'s. in Alabama. Martha Carson (Capitol) shared billing with them on Alabama tour. Reports are that it was one of the best accepted and attended tours through those parts in some time.

Cousin Walt of WIEL in Elizabethtown, Ky. recently appointed Director At Large of Elizabethtown's Chamber of Commerce. Vine Grove FFA also saw fit to appoint him an honorary member. Congrats, Walt! Now between spinning your country records you will have plenty to keep you busy.

Jack Davis, who does the WROM (Rome, Ga.) country record spinning from his own Rockmart, Ga. studios, has just completed an eight week "Amateur Program" from the stage of Rockmart Theatre. All winners appeared on an hour long TV'er from Atlanta's WAGA on April 13 with all kinds of comment kicked up around the viewing area. Maybe chances for a regular spot.

Curly Gray and "Billy Boy" Turner are new additions to WGGH in Marion, Illinois. The boys have a half hour spot near noon each day.

Around Lake Charles, Louisiana you are likely to hear country records by Lyman Hellums of KPLC. Lyman has a top audience down there and reports the area is wild about George Morgans new Columbia—"Almost." (We've had many reports from everywhere about this same wax—it must be moving!)

THE CASH BOX FOLK & WESTERN RECORD REVIEWS

BULLSEYE of the WEEK

"BUSYBODY" (1:59)
"I DON'T MIND" (2:25)

PEE WEE KING
(RCA Victor 20-4655)

PEE WEE KING

● Pee Wee King comes up with a catchy moderate beat item, titled "Busybody", that looks like it will step right in and take the place of

"Slow Poke" which was such a fabulous success for the artist. The catchy, rhythmic piece is treated to a spirited arrangement that Pee Wee's band polishes off in sprightly fashion. Redd Stewart warbles the cute lyrics infectiously, and his lilting performance does much to help make this side soar. Effective use of a clicking sound throughout gives the reading an interesting touch. Another point of interest is the short time it takes to spin the record. Just under two minutes. Flip is a snappy, happy tune that the artists do well by. However, we look for the top deck to break out and be another big one for Pee Wee and the ops.

"ECHOES OVER THE SMOKEYS" (3:00)

"MY WORST MISTAKE" (2:52)
MATTIE O'NEIL and SALTY HOLMES
(King 1056)

● Mattie O'Neil and Trio, assisted by Salty Holmes on the harmonica, cooperate on a slow country item with excellent results. Mattie O'Neil's lead vocal is strong and she uses the now popular echo chamber effectively. Holmes harmonica playing backs the singers in solid style as together they etch an ok side. Flip side presents the same artists in a slow tune with sad lyrics.

"FAIR AND TENDER LADIES" (3:04)

"FOGGY MOUNTAIN TOP" (2:49)
THE CARTER SISTERS and MOTHER MAYBELLE
(Columbia 20920; 4-20920)

● A slow country weeper is given a sock reading by The Carter Sisters and Mother Maybelle. The lead vocalist's strong chanting of the plaintive tune is dramatically backed by the harmony group and the instrumentalists. Flip is a fast beat item ably sung by the artists as they bring in a listenable side. Ops should take a listen.

"DOODLIN'" (2:22)

"THANKS FOR LOVING ME" (2:22)
JOE ALLISON and HIS NASHVILLE BOYS
(Capitol 9219; F-9219)

● A moderate, lilting ditty is sung by Joe Allison in sprightly fashion as he warbles the infectious lyrics smoothly. Allison's effortless, but appealing vocal is backed unobtrusively by his Nashville Boys, and the result is a grade A side. The under level is a similar soft and easy tune with romantic lyrics that Joe Allison executes pleasantly.

"TEXACO NEW MEXICO JOE" (2:32)

"THE GRANDEST THING ON EARTH" (2:30)

BILLY BRIGGS
(Imperial 8150)
● Billy Briggs belts out a moderate bounce zestfully and he warbles the novelty lyrics engagingly. Briggs vocal is enhanced by a lilting arrangement, and the result is a pleasing end. The under portion is a sentimental tribute to mother that could catch some play in view of the timing of its release. Briggs handles the chanting in ok style.

"DING DONG BELLS" (2:23)

"I'D LIKE TO KISS SUSIE AGAIN" (2:31)
KENNY ROBERTS
(Coral 60696)

● A fast moving, energetic item is treated to a smooth vocal by Kenny Roberts. The vocalist's yodel type singing does much to make this a pleasureable side. Roberts happy warbling of the contagious lyrics, "Those ding dang bells are ringing again, but I'll be darned if they're ringing for me", is solidly backed by the instrumental group. The second side is another novelty that Kenny Roberts yodels joyfully. Ops have two interesting sides to choose from.

"TRUE LOVE" (2:10)

"TENNESSEE MEMORIES" (2:17)
THE CARLISLES
(Mercury 6388; 45 x 6388)

● A fast beat pulsating number is excitingly sold by the Carlisles as they sing the merry tune with spirit. The group singing is effectively projected and backed in capable manner by the string accompaniment. The lower lid is a slow item warmly treated by the artists who wind up with a strong side. Ops might do wise to take a peek.

"A LOVELESS MARRIAGE" (2:36)

"I'D SURPRISE YOU" (2:31)
RED SOVINE
(MGM 11214)

● Red Sovine warbles a moderate beat that tells the story of a loveless marriage. Sovine's dramatic vocal of the weeper is done in polished manner and the presentation comes out an ok dishing. The lower lid is a slow country lament that Red projects with feeling. The instrumental accompaniment on both decks is better than fair. Ops should take a listen.

"YOU DIDN'T WANT ME" (2:39)

"THERE'S A BLUE SKY WAY OUT YONDER" (2:35)
RED RIVER DAVE
(MGM 11222)

● Red River Dave and The Texas Cowboys come up with a slow country lament and deliver a potent reading. Red warbles the sad lyrics, "you didn't want me when I wanted you", with feeling as the boys set him up with a musical backing. The second side is a change of pace that the vocalist and his group execute infectiously. Red livens up the side with his vocal tricks.

HOLDS OPS ENTITLED TO INJUNCTION

DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

Civil Action No. 5690

Filed March 10, 1952

JOHN H. SMITH AND MARGARET V. SMITH, CO-PARTNERS, TRADING AS BELMONT AMUSEMENT CO., SOUTHERN MARYLAND DEVELOPMENT CO., INC., A BODY CORPORATE, TRADING AS TRITON BEACH CLUB AND CHESAPEAKE BEACH PARK, INC., A BODY CORPORATE vs.

J. HOWARD McGRATH, ATTORNEY-GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES AND J. EDGAR HOOVER, DIRECTOR OF FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

R. Palmer Ingram, Ellis Levin and Joseph M. Wyatt for plaintiffs.

Bernard J. Flynn, United States Attorney and James B. Murphy, Assistant United States attorney for defendants.

Civil Action For Declaratory Judgment And Injunction — Johnson Act—
“Dealers” In Coin Machines Within Meaning Of Act—Interstate Transportation Of Gambling Devices—Held Plaintiffs Are Entitled To Declaratory Judgment And To Injunction:

CHESNUT, District Judge—

The plaintiffs in this case are seeking a declaratory judgment and an injunction to prevent the enforcement of the defendants against the plaintiffs of the provisions of the Act of Congress of January 2, 1951, c. 1194, 64 Stat. 1135, 15 USCA, ss. 1171-77, sometimes referred to as the Johnson Act. The case has been heard upon complaint, answer, evidence and argument of counsel. There is no procedural objection interposed by the defendants. The principal question in the case is whether the activities of the plaintiffs constitute them “dealers” in coin machines within the meaning of the Act.

The main purpose of the Act is to aid the States in the local enforcement of anti-gambling laws by prohibiting the interstate transportation of such gambling devices.

Section 1171 defines the term “gambling devices”. It includes certain, so-called slot machines or coin machines, including such machines owned and operated by the plaintiffs in this case.

Section 1172 prohibits the interstate transportation of such gambling devices except where the interstate transportation is to a place in another State which has enacted a law providing for the exemption of such State from the provisions of the Act.

Section 1173 requires manufacturers of and dealers in gambling devices to register with the Attorney General, and to file inventory and sales and delivery records monthly. It also requires the manufacturer or dealer to mark and number each gambling device so that it is individually identifiable. It is made unlawful for manufacturers or dealers to sell, deliver or ship gambling devices not so marked, and it is also made unlawful for them to recondition, repair, sell, deliver or ship such machines without having registered or without filing monthly reports.

And by section 1174 the shipping packages for such gambling devices or repair parts thereof must be plainly marked.

Section 1175 provides that it shall be unlawful to manufacture, recondition, repair, sell, transport, possess or use any gambling devices in the District of Columbia, in any possession of the United States, within

Indian country or within the maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States (it will be noted that that the prohibition does not apply to the use of gambling devices within the State).

Section 1176 provides maximum penalties for violation of any provision of the Act, to be not more than a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment of not more than two years, or both.

Section 1177 provides that gambling devices transported, delivered, shipped, manufactured, reconditioned, repaired, sold, disposed of, received, possessed or used in violation of the provisions of the Act shall be seized and forfeited to the United States.

The facts of the case with respect to the activities of the plaintiffs as stated in the complaint and fully supported by the evidence are not in dispute. Two of the plaintiffs are Maryland corporations engaged in conducting amusement parks or resorts on or near the Chesapeake Bay and within about 25 miles or less of Washington. One such park is in Anne Arundel County in the State of Maryland, and the other in Calvert County. The third plaintiff is a partnership which owns and operates about 100 such gambling machines placed in various locations in Anne Arundel County on a rental or percentage basis of about 50% to the owner and 50% to the proprietor of the location. None of the plaintiffs have at any time in their present business engaged in any way in interstate transportation of such machines. They have bought and from time to time may buy the machines but only from reputable and established dealers in the State of Maryland. They have never ordered any of such machines for delivery to them interstate. They maintain their own service employees for repair of machines. When occasionally a repair part must be ordered from a dealer it is bought from a Maryland dealer and delivered in Maryland. One of the plaintiffs, the Southern Maryland Development Company, Inc., owning and operating a bathing beach known as Triton Beach Club in Anne Arundel County (the whole park consisting of about 200 acres) has not bought any machines anywhere since the passage of the Act. The two corporate plaintiffs in their amusement parks have many other types of machines and devices for the amusement of their patrons. The ownership, use and operation of all gambling devices possessed by the plaintiffs are lawful in the respective Counties of Anne Arundel and Calvert in the State of Maryland where they alone are used, under Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland. All taxes, Federal state and county, have been duly paid by the plaintiffs respectively. Shortly after the passage of the Act the plaintiffs in good faith inquired at the office of the Attorney General of the United States whether his office interpreted the Act as applicable to their activities, but were unable to obtain a ruling upon the subject. Subsequently, and before filing the present complaint, their places of business were visited by representatives of the FBI who made particular inquiries about the possession of such machines and in some cases demand was made for their inspection, and attention was called to the provisions of the Act with regard to registration and reports. The plaintiffs also learned from the public press that in numerous other States FBI agents had seized such gambling devices. The plaintiffs respectively, although maintaining that they were not subject to the provisions of the Act, nevertheless as a matter of caution did file certain statements and itemized lists of their machines with the Attorney General. They contend, however, that they are not obliged to continue that form of compliance with the Act.

My conclusion of law is that the activities of the plaintiffs respectively do not bring them within the scope of the Act and they are therefore entitled to a declaratory judgment to that effect. They are also entitled to an injunction to restrain the defendants from enforcing the provisions of the Act against them by requiring registration or monthly reports or seizure of any of the machines owned and operated by the plaintiffs, unless the particular machine is shown to have been transported interstate in violation of the Act.

The controlling point in the case is the very narrow one of construction of the meaning of the word “dealer” contained in section 1173. There are two well known elementary rules of construction that are applicable here. One is that the words used in the statute are to be understood in their ordinary meaning and acceptance unless the context of the Act as a whole reasonably indicates to the contrary. Another rule is that the statute is highly penal in character and therefore should be strictly construed.

It is clear enough that the ordinary acceptance of the term “dealer” as applied to an article or commodity, means one who buys and sells that commodity in the usual course of trade. The undisputed facts are that no one of the plaintiffs does sell any of these gambling devices. The evidence shows that they constitute assets of the respective plaintiffs used in their activities, and these activities are by the local law legal in the places where they are exercised in the State of Maryland. The plaintiffs own, use and operate the machines but they do not sell them. With respect to a very few of the machines one of the plaintiffs has at times surrendered or traded them in for an allowance on the purchase price of a new machine purchased in the State of Maryland and not ordered from outside of the State.

Counsel for the defendants contend that by the proper construction of the word “dealer” as contained in the Act, it should be given a broader meaning to include the relation of the plaintiffs to the gambling devices. In other words, it is contended that the word “dealer” as used in this Act should be construed to include the plaintiffs who are owners and operators of the machines. It is admitted by counsel for the defendants that this is an extension of the application of the word “dealer” beyond the ordinary meaning of the word. No authority is cited for this expanded and unusual definition of the term, which is not defined in the Act. I find no basis for the contention from the context of the Act as a whole. The main purpose of the Act is to aid the State in the enforcement of their local laws. There is no local law in the Counties in Maryland in which the particular gambling devices are owned, used and operated contrary to their ownership, use or operation. The main purpose of the Act being to prohibit interstate transportation of gambling devices for the purposes mentioned, the provisions of section 1173 with regard to the requirements made of manufacturers and dealers is incidental or merely for implementation of the Act to accomplish its main purpose. It is not even contended by the defendants that the plaintiffs are manufacturers, and the evidence clearly shows that in no way have any of the defendants been engaged at any time since the passage of the Act in interstate commerce with regard to the machines.

There is another important reason against the unusual and expanded definition of the term “dealer” as used in the Act. The Act was passed pursuant to the constitutional power of Congress to regulate interstate commerce. To extend it as contended for by the defendants, I think, gives the Act an effect beyond the constitutional power of Congress with respect to purely intrastate transactions. It is another elementary rule of construction that an interpretation of an Act which would make it unconstitutional will not be adopted unless imperatively required by the wording of the Act or the context of the Act as a whole. This is not the case here.

It should, of course, be unnecessary to add that the question presented to the court is essentially only a question of construction of the meaning of the Act. Nothing that has been said in that connection has any bearing on or relation to the question as to the public policy involved in prohibiting or permitting the ownership, use or operation of gambling devices of any nature. That is a matter of State policy.

As the Act is a very recent one it is not surprising that there are few if any prior judicial decisions upon its application. The only one that has been called to my attention is a decision of District Judge Christianberry in a recently decided case in the Eastern District of Louisiana, No. 729 Miscellaneous, entitled United States of America vs. 200 Gambling Devices, where under facts less favorable than in the instant case the conclusion of law with regard to the meaning of the word “dealer” was that it should be limited to activities of buying and selling the machines, that is, in accordance with the ordinary acceptance of the word. And I find nothing in the legislative history of the Act as contained in the United States Code Congressional Service, 1950, Vol. 2 pp. 4240-4257, to the contrary.

For these reasons I conclude that the plaintiffs are entitled to a declaratory judgment as above stated and to an injunction as prayed for with the limitation above mentioned. Counsel may present the appropriate orders in due course.

JUKE BOX PHENOMENA

From 0 to Over 550,000 Juke Boxes on Locations Everywhere in the U. S. and From 10 Selections to Over 100 Selections in 18 Years is Greatest Growth Phenomena in History of Modern Music. Many Other Thousands of Juke Boxes Located All Over the Known World. Canada is Second to U. S. With About 15,000 Juke Boxes on Locations Thruout Dominion. Biz Still Growing and Now Entering New Era as TV Unfreezes is Belief of Industry's Juke Box Leaders.

CHICAGO — Tho there are very, very few left in the juke box industry today who can go back to the dawn of the 20th century, there was in existence at that time the beginnings of the modern juke box business.

There are still a few old timers around who talk about the "Automatic Harp", the "Automatic Pianos", the world-famed "Violano Virtuoso", the "Automatic Band" (which looked like the automatic piano but which contained drums, cymbals, etc., and of which a few probably can still be located here and there thruout the world.

Before 1934, when the modern juke box came into being, that is, when the first fully automatic amplification unit was produced and placed into a cabinet, to change the old timer's juke box into the beginnings of the present type highly scientific and electronic juke box, the trade then had juke boxes, too.

But, to get the tone louder, the retailer would step over to the machine and push a lever that looked like the old time emergency brake arm. If he pushed it in, the sounding board would force the speaker to play lower. If he pushed it out, the tone would be louder.

Bamboo needles were used in those days and, after about ten plays, the storekeeper would step over, open the lid and place a new needle in the tone arm. Tone arms had a pressure of about four to five ounces in those days and actually "ate" records.

In short, the juke box, prior to 1934, was anything but "automatic."

Then, in 1934, the first truly automatic juke box came into being, playing 10 records on one side for 10 selections.

It was tough in those days to "sell" coin machine operators on the "idea" of a juke box paying off. Few could see how they would get anywhere investing about $300 in a machine that was supposed to show them a profit.

In fact, amusement games, in most cases, were still on penny play. Few had as yet gone to the nickel side of the fence.

It is, therefore, all the more amazing to see the modern juke box jump into the prominence it now enjoys.

From zero in 1934 to over 550,000 juke boxes located in almost every kind of retailing establishment in the nation in 1952.

From ten records (and only ten selections) in 1934 to over 100 selections in 1952.

From 78 rpm in 1934 to a mixture of 78 rpm and 45 rpm in 1952.

From the first early recordings which were sold to juke box ops, with tongue in cheek as to whether "this juke box business will last", and that was at the time when the recording industry was all but ready to fold as rdaio came in to deal it a terrific blow, to the present state when publishers, artists, recorders and everyone else in any fashion whatsoever connected with popular music, chases juke box ops everywhere in the nation, from tiniest hamlet to largest cosmopolitan center, to "sell" the juke box man on using certain disks.

Truly a phenomena in every sense of the word. Truly the greatest growth in all the history of music, modern or otherwise, and all in 18 years.

From 1934 to 1952 the juke box industry has continued to grow and, according to predictions of its present leaders, is still growing.

In fact, they state, this is an entirely new era coming up that will zoom the juke box to even greater prominence than it has enjoyed these past 18 years.

They point to the unfreezing order by Uncle Sam to allow for over 2000 more TV stations. They predict that these, like radio in 1934, will bring into being new songs and new artists that the public will want to hear again and again.

They point out, just as happened with radio, the public will only be able to hear the new TV stars that will be created on juke boxes as many times as they desire to hear them, after their click on some TV station.

In fact, the average juke box leader is enthusiastic over the greater growth of TV.

He foresees an entirely new era for recorders and that, he points out, means a new era for the juke box business.

Juke boxes will cash in on the new stars, he explains.

As the present Senator Homer E. Capehart (R.; Ind.) once stated:

"The one basically sound reason for the success of the juke box is the fact that it allows the public to play what it wants to hear for as long as it wants to hear it."

This, leaders of the juke box industry point out, is why they are enthused over the greater growth of TV. Whereas other industries are extremely worried as to what over 2,000 more TV telecasters can do to their business, juke boxmen are optimistic.

The public will see new faces, hear new songs, get acquainted with new

Night Time Shoppers Help Boost Coin Machine Play

CHICAGO — Coinmen from many cities report that the night time shoppers, especially those who shop at suburban stores and where merchants are now making a practise of holding open one or two nights each week usually until 9 P.M., are helping to boost collections on all types of machines.

Investigation has uncovered the fact that such cities as Chicago, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Portland, Newark, Milwaukee, Boston, and many others, as well as merchants in other cities, are now making plans to hold their stores open until 9 P.M. at least one or two nights each week.

This is much due to the fact that wives are working right along with their husbands and haven't the time to shop during the daylight hours. Employment among wives is reported to have increased over 50 per cent since 1940. And continues to go up.

Some of the large stores here have discovered that they are getting about 30% of their business after 5:45 P.M. In view of this fact, some of the stars they've never before known, these men point out.

And, they explain, in each instance this will bring these new stars to the attention of the recorders, who will make their recordings, because people will want to hear them over and over again.

The juke box, they explain, is the one and only medium which can truly convey the music of these new stars correctly and to the complete satisfaction of the general public.

So, these men state, the juke box industry is actually entering into an entirely new and greater era.

The 100 selection machines have opened the path to the public's greater appreciation of the nation's popular music here in the U. S., as well as all over the known world.

(They offer more music, finer tone quality, greater selectivity, plus the greatest of stars singing their very best, as only recordings can reproduce their best, at the most economical price the public has ever paid for such outstanding entertainment.)

leading stores here have now decided to stay open two nights per week until 9 P.M.

Suburban operators here, as well as operators from other cities, are enjoying an increase in collections due to these night time shoppers.

Some tavern and restaurant owners report that they are getting more people after 9 P.M. than they ever did before.

Furthermore, these men state, these are good customers. Usually shoppers who have been purchasing merchandise and drop in for an hour or two before going home.

As one tavern owner in a Chicago suburb told a leading operator:

"Husbands and wives who shop at night are making an evening of it. They not only enjoy their shopping expeditions, but drop in during the evening for a glass of beer or a cocktail or two."

This operator claims to have noticed that, on Monday and Thursday evenings, play has been greater than during other evenings of the week, with the possible exception of Saturday evening.

This is now spreading thruout the country. Many cities are reporting that their leading stores are giving night time shopping a holiday air.

Not only does this cause people to visit the business sections after work, and especially after their dinners, but, it tends to increase play in almost every such area where night time shopping has become the vogue.

Milwaukee ops, for example, have been enjoying this holiday spirit brought about by the stores staying open later. Not only in the downtown area of the city, but, also out in the suburbs where suburban business men have caught on to the increase in business they enjoy from the late shoppers.

As night time shopping spreads, operators find that collections on music, games and vendors increase during those evenings when businessmen keep their stores open to greet husbands and wives who work all day.

Busy as a Beaver

The busy beaver spends time to good purpose, collecting the stuff with which he builds security at the bank. So does the operator who fortifies his routes with the Model "D."

There's no need for cussing profit leaks when it's so easy to dam them with the "D."

Chi Op Donates Juke Boxes Thru Offer On Air Show

CHICAGO — Robert E. (Bob) Gnarro of A. B. C. Music Service, well known juke box operator here, instead of breaking up some old juke boxes he had on hand, decided to donate them to worthy charities, orphanages, teenage canteens, churches, and other institutions.

Bob, tho, found himself at a loss as to how best to give the nine or ten juke boxes he had on hand away to the most deserving institutions.

"First of all," he said, "I believe that donations of this kind prove to the peoples of Chicago that we juke box operators are just as interested in helping to bring about better general conditions, eliminating teenager delinquency and other troublesome conditions.

"An operator just can't put an ad in the daily press and say, 'Listen, I've got some nine or ten juke boxes that I'll fix up and make work perfectly, load full of records, and give them away.'

"There are, without any doubt, institutions and teenager groups that want these juke boxes. Therefore, I turned the entire matter entirely over to Howard Miller, noted disc jockey of radio station WIND. He's telling about this offer on his airshows.

"Howard Miller turned around," Bob Gnarro reports, "and named Bill Gersh, publisher of 'The Cash Box,' as the person to choose from the hundreds of applications just which causes were the most worthy."

There have been suggestions made here for sometime to the local juke box ops association that such donations of old juke boxes be arranged thru a central source as a matter of good public relations effort.

So far, since nothing has as yet been decided, Gnarro, and other ops like him, are making donations on their own.

This is the first time, tho, that such an outstanding air show was arranged to call attention to the good work done by juke box ops.

Sandler Distrib For Wurlitzer In Des Moines

IRV SANDLER

DES MOINES, IA.—Sandler Distributing Company, this city, of which Irving Sandler is president, has been appointed distributor of Wurlitzer phonographs and equipment in the Des Moines area, according to an announcement by Ed Wurgler, general sales manager of the phonograph division.

Sandler will represent a territory which includes Henderson and Rock Island counties in Illinois; Clark, Putnam, Schuyler and Scotland counties in Missouri; and 72 counties comprising the state of Iowa.

The Sandler organization takes over the territory as an individual distributor, replacing a branch office which had previously handled Wurlitzer equipment in Des Moines as a part of the Brandt Dist. Co. in St. Louis, Mo. Greatly increased business activity has made it necessary for Pete Brandt to confine his sales facilities to the area adjacent to St. Louis.

Sandler has an excellent background and has been an important factor in the business for many years. His organization is staffed with capable sales and service personnel. Bob Crosby, head of the service dept., attended the service course at the factory, and is now ready to give expert assistance to operators on the new Models "1500" and "1550."

Wurlitzer Execs At Buffalo Distrib

BUFFALO, N. Y.—They were all smiling when they surrounded the new Wurlitzer 1500 and faced the camera up at Century Music Distributors, this city, during the recent "National Wurlitzer Days." Pictured above, (l to r): Steve Vukelic, Century; Ben Kulick, well known music op; Ray Haimbaugh, Wurlitzer vp; Art Rutzen, export manager for Wurlitzer; and John Pillion, Century.
 Executives of Century report that they entertained an exceptionally large group of visiting operators, and that they were all high in their praise of this new phonograph.

Jack Mulligan And Leo Dixon New Distributing Combination

Mulligan Ties In With Dixon To Form Big Ohio-Penna. Distrib Firm. Rock-Ola First Big Line

YOUNGSTOWN, PA.—Dixon Distributors, this city, announced this past week, thru president Leo Dixon of this firm that Jack Mulligan of Tri-State Distributors, Sharon, Pa., had joined hands with the firm and that the name of the firm would remain Dixon Distributors with headquarters in this city.

The first big line being distributed is the products of Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corp.

The Dixon firm will now handle Northwestern Ohio as well as part of Western Pennsylvania for Rock-Ola.

As yet no official announcements have been made as to any other lines it will handle.

Regarding the formation of the new firm, Jack Mulligan stated:

"We believe that we shall be able to bring about better and more efficient distribution to the operators throuth the Ohio and Pennsylvania areas than has ever before been possible.

"In the first place," he continued, "Leo Dixon is as well acquainted with the operators in Ohio as we are with the operators in Western Pennsylvania.

"Between the two of us," he stated, "we feel certain that we shall be able to serve the operators better than they have ever been served before."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE MOUNTAIN MISCELLANY

Mr. Ray Somers, popular operator from Logan, Utah, in town buying lots, but lots, of equipment in anticipation of a great business in the Resort Areas. . . . Bob Bever, sales manager for the Dan Stewart Company, leaving for a trip through Montana, reports sales are terrific on United's new "6 Player Shuffle Alley" and Exhibit's "Big Bronco." As soon as Bob returns from the Northwest he will be off again to their Los Angeles office. . . . Bob Goss, of Missoula, wrapping, roofing and in general getting everything in order for the opening of the fishing season. Bob has a reputation of being one of the top fishermen in the country and as Montana has the fish, naturally he always comes up with the best. . . . One of the most frequent visitors to Salt Lake City, keeping an eagle eye on all new equipment as it comes out is Melvin C. Gardner, as usual sporting a big smile on his face.

Press Struby of R. F. Jones Company, who just returned from a trip through Nevada, and surrounding parts, tells us the weather was good but the roads were bad. . . . Gene Phelps, Amusement Sales Co., Midvale, Utah, in and out of Salt Lake City, keeping track of all new equipment and looking for new business. . . . Understand Roy Holt, owner of Rainbow Music, is branching out. Roy is opening a new cafe in Salt Lake City. Good luck, Roy, we wonder how you get all of your activities into a 24 hour day. . . . Earl Wilson, Las Vegas, Nevada, keeping the telephone wires hot for more and more of Exhibit's "Big Bronco." . . . Irving Munsey, owner of the Atlas Specialty Company, still waiting very patiently for a new Cadillac. . . . Norman Cragun, Cragun Music Company, Ogden, Utah, limping around this week. Tells us he strained his sacroiliac lifting all the heavy machines he has been buying.

Salesmen, Too, Want "Coin Machine Club" In Chicago

CHICAGO—In addition to distributors who have been asking that a "Coin Machine Club" be created in this city, where coinmen would have a meeting place when they arrived in town, it seems that salesmen, too, for the various leading manufacturers would like to have such a club in existence.

Jack Mitnick, Eastern Regional Director for AMI, Inc., and Ben Becker, Regional Salesmen for Bally Manufacturing Company, who met at Runyon Sales Company offices in New York wrote The Cash Box, along with Barnett Sugerman and Abe Green of the Runyon firm, that they would certainly like to have a "Coin Machine Club" come into existence.

They stated, "Any Loop hotel," would do.

Plans so far made for the "Coin Machine Club," which was originally proposed by The Cash Box, at the request of many leading coinmen from all over the country who found this city without the meeting places it had had for years when they arrived in town, have been well under way.

A very large suite at one of the leading hotels, turned into club rooms, has so far been recommended.

Other plans as to how to conduct the club have also been proposed by some of the leading coinmen.

It is believed that such a club can become this coincenter's general meeting place for all coinmen from all over the country as they come into town.

DO YOU WANT A "COIN MACHINE CLUB IN CHICAGO"?

If you do, then tell us what such a Club would mean to you! What it should be like! And where you think it should be located in Chicago!

THRU THE COIN CHUTE CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

One of the outstanding events ever to hit the coin machine industry in Los Angeles can be reported as the Wurlitzer 1500 showing at Paul Laymon's. And it wasn't merely the fine turnout of top recording artists or the excellent vittles prepared by Lucille Laymon and the wives of Charlie Daniels, Ed Wilkes and the other boys—it was just the warm, friendly and yet effective way the whole thing was handled by Paul, Lucille and staff. All this on top of showing a really excitingly new, different and fine product. You could tell by the atmosphere, the studied appraisal and approval of veteran music operators as they looked the new machine over, commenting on its 104 selections, beautiful appearance, competitive price and the "WurlMagic Brain" that enables the machine to play any combination of 78 and 45 speed records. Just about all the music ops we've ever seen or heard of in these parts were on hand to look the new baby over on Sunday and Monday, and whoever couldn't get in or thought they might not be interested was brought in by word of mouth acclaim before the week was up.

Among the artists visiting with the boys on Sunday were Capitol's Jeannie Gayle, Dottie O'Brien, Stan Freberg, Yogi Yorgesson and Ben Light, with promotion man Joe Mathews on hand for the introductions. . . . A gracious and charming hostess was Lucille Laymon while Paul looked as proud and pleased as if he'd fathered the Wurlitzer 1500 all by himself. . . . Charlie Daniels should be just about ready to put in for his bartender's card after the affair, long as he goes to work for a rich tavern keeper (seems the only drink Charlie can pour is a double). Fortunately, most of the folks stuck to the softer beverages. . . . Nice chat with Phil Weinberg, Bally's regional man in from Texas, who seemed to enjoy the new Wurlitzer as much as anyone though he did manage to tell us a few nice things about Bally's new game, "Atlantic City". . . . Jack Smith of the Wurlitzer business office was in from the East on the following day or two.

Musically speaking, there seemed to be considerable other activity in these parts, with Nick Carter taking a run from his Nickabob up north to handle a batch of AMI sales up that way. . . . Dan Stewart reported a spurt of action on the Rock-Ola with the local lads. . . . Actually, the only concern rumored around the Row about the latest machine to grace the market was attributed to some folks up the street who've had things pretty much their own way for some time when it came to locations demanding maximum selection. . . . With Jack Simon, it's a real spurt on arcade equipment these days, with his "Bucaroo" horse still racing to catch up with demand, Jack reports. . . . At Badger Sales, it's Keeney's new "Super DeLuxe League Bowler" that's bringing the boys back for more, Bill Happel tells us, while another big item is Williams' "Baseball" 5-ball, what with the keen interest in the game since the Spring warmup contests by such clubs out here as the St. Louis Browns, Pittsburgh Pirates and Cleveland Indians, not to forget our own local prides, the L. A. Angeles and the Hollywood Stars. . . . Phil Robinson of Chicago Coin is counting the days now till arrival of that new 5-ball that's advance reported as being a winner.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE MINNESOTA MUSINGS

Throughout Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and through Iowa and Missouri considerable damage is being done by the flood waters. Pierre and Ft. Pierre, S. D. have been very hard hit after being isolated by four blizzards this winter. Now the towns are under water and it is really making these two towns the "hard luck" towns. Naturally, with everything going under water there is a lot of equipment being lost. Claire Nitterburg of the Nitterburg Bros. Castlewood, S. D. made the trip into the twin cities and received a call to hurry back so that he could help with the sand bagging job. . . . Vic Hendel of Worthington, made his first trip into the Twin Cities in many a week. . . . Andy Benna of Ironwood, Mich. finally made it into the Twin Cities to pick up some supplies for his route. . . . Don Culver of Glendive, Montana finally got away long enough to come into town to see what was new in coin operated equipment.

Another infrequent visitor to the Twin Cities area was John Morton, associated with the Dakota Amusement Co., of Bismarck, N. D. Izzy Alpert of Twin Ports Sales Co., Duluth, is vacationing down South at the present time and his center of activity is in and around New Orleans, La. . . . Morris Anseau of Minnesota was very much surprised inasmuch as he was to make the trip into town and out again without any unhappy results. Morris was beginning to think that he was jinxed because everytime he came into town there was a blizzard. . . . Back from Florida and on the job again are Jack Lowrie of Lake City, and also Mike Crakes of the Friendly Sales Company of Minneapolis. The husband and wife combinations in town last week were Gordon Dunn and his wife of Moose Lake, and Dan Thibadeau and his wife of Menominee, Wis. While hubby was looking at the coin machines the wives were picking out records for the route. . . . Seen here and there at the distributings office were Don Kohner of Winona; Lester York of Mitchell; Walter Fischer of Pipestone; Chet LaDoux of Virginia; Pete Kramer of St. Cloud; Kenny Anderson of Austin; Wes Rydell of Mora; Ed Kubes of New Prague; and Forest Dahl of Fergus Falls. . . . Seen picking up records and supplies were Amos Miller of Spooner, Wis.; Bob Cross of Jackson; Fred Kirschman of St. Cloud; Jack Harrison of Crosby; August Quade of Rochester; Jack Bailey of Twin Brooks, S. D.; Roy Foster of Sioux Falls, S. D., Elgin McDaniel of Wadena; and Harold Peterson of Bethel.

Another welcome visitor to the Twin Cities was Harold Scott and Mrs. Scott of Moberge, S. D. Harold is very prominent in the activities of the South Dakota State Operators Association. He states that the next meeting of the Association will be held the first part of May in Deadwood, S. D.

Wurlitzer K. C. Distrib Shows "1500"

KANSAS CITY, MO. — W. J. Mashek, head of Central Music Distributing Company, this city, showed the new Wurlitzer Model 1500 to his many customers in this area during "National Wurlitzer Days" and reports the machine was "heartily greeted by the many operators who visited us."

Mashek was tremendously thrilled over the large turnout of operators and expressed his gratitude to them. A refreshment bar and sumptuous "Smorgasbord" was kept busy during the two-day showing.

Many operators drove over 400 miles from western Kansas to attend the showing, and Mashek reports they told him "it was well worth the trip."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE EASTERN FLASHES

The excitement over the showing of the two new machines, Wurlitzer's new 1500 phonograph, and Exhibit's shuffle pool game "Twin-Rotation" still prevails along coinrow. Altho it would appear that these machines were viewed by all local coinmen, each day sees many additional operators dropping in to Joe Young's offices to see the Wurlitzer phono, and into Mike Munves' showrooms to look over Exhibit's game. Reaction on both are terrific. . . . Joe Young and Abe Lipsky of Young Distributing are now faced with the situation where they have an order book all filled up and must now await deliveries. "Operators will get deliveries in rotation" states Young. . . . Mike Munves reports he's ordered a quantity of "Twin-Rotations" from Exhibit, based on the orders he's taken, but he too must await deliveries.

Johnny Fuller, Universal Vendors, Albany, N. Y., visits coinrow—happy as a lark. His beautiful missus, Mary, presented him with a new daughter, Pamela, on March 12. . . . Jack Kanter, games operator, and "Senator" Al Bodkin, exchange pleasantries when they meet on coinrow—they're neighbors in Forest Hills, L. I. . . . Ben Sterling, Jr., Moosic, Pa., in to see Mike Munves. Ben received a tough blow, almost disastrous, when his arcade and park burned down last spring, and isn't over it yet. "It took me nearly 30 years to build up the arcade, and we had equipment that's impossible to replace" states Ben. . . . Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., now completely moved over to his new building. We've already reported that the outside is the most beautiful in New York. Al took us around the inside this week, and it's more gorgeous than the outside. The entire industry here owes Al a vote of thanks—and should try to emulate this example. A house warming and open house party will take place sometime in the very near future. . . . Teddy Seidel, manager of Milty Green's coinrow offices of American Vending Co., doing a big job on used shuffle games.

Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales Co., attracting plenty of attention to Bally's "The Champion" coin operated mechanical horse. In addition to displaying it in his private office, he has one in the window of his showroom, Kids, on their way to and from a nearby school, crowd up against the window to look it over. "Shugy" and Abe Green and a few invited guests thought they'd take in the opening baseball game at the Polo Grounds, but were keenly disappointed when it was rained out. . . . Harry and Hymie Koepfel, Koepfel Distributing Co., came up with a strength saving move this week—they installed a phone in their shop and showrooms. Now if they're out of the office, they don't have to rush back to answer a call. . . . Nat Cohn wants us to tell Bill Gersh how thrilled his wife, Lillie, was to receive that birthday card from him. . . . Max Weiss, brown as a berry, back from a vacation at Miami Beach, raving about the wonderful time he had, and the hospitality shown by his Miami friends. . . . Jack Mitnick, AMI regional sales representative, in town for a week, returning from a trip that carried him thru the Midwest and Canada. . . . In town also is Ben Becker, Bally's regional representative. Ben returned from Florida in time to help the missus with the kids, who came down with the measles. . . . Was that Jack Semel we saw in that brand new beautiful car riding along coinrow? . . . We're getting ready to leave to attend the 23rd Anniversary Celebration Banquet of the Amusement Machines Association of Philadelphia, being held at the Latin Casino, this Sunday eve (April 20). Joe Silverman, here we come (or when you read this—here we've been). . . . Which reminds us—The Westchester Operators Guild holds its first Annual Dinner at Bill Reiber's Farm Restaurant, Elmsford, N. Y. (on the Sawmill River Parkway) on Tuesday evening, May 6. Execs of the Guild report big advance sale of tickets, and exceptional good fortune in securing advertising for its journal. The Guild plans on a fine meal, and plenty of entertainment by recording artists, in addition to a regular show.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE DALLAS DOINGS

With the Easter Holidays behind them, Dallas operators are settl'ng down once more to business as usual. A check of the leading phonograph distributors brings forth the good news that spring business prospects are good. Over at Commercial Music Company the place is still in an uproar over the new Wurlitzer. Tommy Chatten says that operators have been ganging in all week to buy the new machine. . . . When we were there early in the week we saw Bob DePriest. He was giving Tommy a hard time because he was out of the six player shuffle alleys. . . . Ray Langley, T. A. Webb, Travis Roberts and Olen Dreyer were in from San Angelo. . . . Ray Barnes, the great amateur golfer from Palestine and John Pipes of Big Spring also in town. . . . L. A. Smiley of Bogato was along with Vincent Lopez of Fort Worth and Ray Robins of Tyler, as was Bill Chandler of Dallas and Boyd Wiley of Dallas.

J. G. McCain was in from Shreveport, La. . . . Clark Richardson was in from Dumas. He says that business is good in his territory. We saw Dewey Parsons, Jack Sprott and C. A. Taylor. . . . Bill (Baldy) Sheffie'd of Paducah has just returned from a vacation in Georgia. . . . Raymond Williams has been fishing at Possum Kingdom. He brought back a nice string. . . . By the way, Tommy Chatten has just moved into a new home. . . . at Walbox Sales Company the new Bally coin operated horse "The Champion" has just arrived. Fred Barber says it looks like it will be a good seller. . . . Phil Weinberg, regional sales manager for Bally, has returned from a trip to the West Coast and now he is on his way to Houston and San Antonio. He says that business conditions look good to him. . . . Jack and John Durham from Texarkana were in town the other day. . . . Things are going well for Abe Susman and the gang at State Music Distributors Inc. They are now handling American Shuffle Boards in addition to the Keeney line and AMI. When we talked to Audry Hunter she said that the operators are flocking in.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE CHICAGO CHATTER

The fact that manufacturers are manufacturing as speedily as they can and the majority have the finest games they've ever produced on their production lines; the fact that ops are going right ahead, with the usual gripes, of course, which proves things are normal; the fact that this, that, and the other thing, has happened here, there, and everywhere; all this, and much else, too, was cast more completely aside this past week (Tuesday) as the Cubs and Sox played their opening games of Big League Baseball's 1952 season. Always sportsmen, coinmen crowded about TV sets and, even if they were busy on their routes, had their car radios going full blast. To get the action and the final scores. Yes, sirree, summer's on the way. . . . Jack Mulligan of Sharon, Pa., and Leo Dixon of Youngstown, O., dropped in to our offices here to say "hello." Advised they were now "partners" in Dixon Distrib Co. And that they had been granted a bit more territory by Rock-Ola here for the Rock-Ola music line. Both men look to a big, bright future.

Art Weinand of Rock-Ola back in town again after two weeks on the west coast. Art held interesting regional meets there. Got an entirely new picture of conditions out west. Also learned thisa and thata. And was glad he made this long, long trip. . . . Dropped down to St. Loo last week and looked the old town over. Lots of things happening in The Town of The Blues. . . . One interesting sight that every coinman'll get a laff from. Those record displays at Eddie Okel's place in St. Louis are contained in the cabinets of the former "Supreme Shuffleboards" made by Stone Mfg. Corp. Best counter displays for records. At least someone found a good use for old shuffleboards. . . . Clarence A. Camp of Memphis, Tenn., in St. Loo. Clarence has many things going for him, like that Nash dealership in Memphis. His horses. But Clarence feels he ain't completely busy as yet. So what's Clarence doing? He's buying himself a radio station in Memphis. He's creating a new record label. He's setting up his pal, ork pilot Tommy Reed, (who's now playing the Chase Hotel in St. Loo) to record his first sides on his new label. And still has other ideas like a tremendous housing project under consideration. Talk about looking for work!

Juke box leaders enthuse over the fact that Uncle Sam has unfrozen TV stations. And that over 2,000 more will be in action by end of '53. Means new stars and new songs. Just like in '34 when radio got going. And juke boxes best suited to bring the best to the public. . . . When you think of modern juke box progress it's a true business phenomenon. From zero machines in 1934 to over 550,000 in 1952. Just 18 years. And the belief that, some day soon, the figure will yet hit the million juke boxes on location mark. . . . Roy McGinnis still down at his home in Miami Beach and won't return until some time after May 1. In the meantime Paul Huebsch a busy man over at Keeney plant. Advises that Wally Finke and Joe Kline have done a very fine distributing job for Keeney's shuffles. . . . Ralph Sheffield reports that sales of fishing equip't for premium stimulation has been going at great speed. Ralph believes that, if present sales continue, he'll run short of that stock he has.

George Metz of Lake City Amusement, Cleveland, tells us that Joe Abraham is sick at home with virus. But, toward end of week, we heard Joe feeling much better. . . . Also heard from Cleveland that Roy Monroe back from Florida. Wishing he could go down all winter long, every winter. (Who doesn't?). . . . Everyone here who knows him gotta laff outa that story sent in by Jackie Cohen of Cleveland. What crocodile tears? Oh, my, oh, my. Especially from a guy with one of the best music routes in the nation. . . . In deep and puzzled conference: Jack Nelson, general sales manager, and Bill O'Donnell, assistant gen'l sales manager, of Bally. Trying to figure out how to supply that absolutely tremendous demand for "Atlantic City." What a job that is. . . . Frank Menceri of Exhibit back from a long road trip. All hepped up over the grand reception the firm's products received everywhere he traveled. That new "Twin Rotation" is a really magnificent coin operated product, as many a coinman have stated. Its true likeness to rotation pool so perfectly executed that one big distrib stated he's gonna point it out to officials in his town to show them what coin machine manufacturing ingenuity really means. . . . Nate Gottlieb back from Miami all sun tanned and healthy.

Dave Bender of Ben Coven's firm says, "Our furthest customer is only as far away from us as his telephone." Ben nods agreement. In the meantime, in case you know of a very nice apartment (no elevator bldg.) Ben and Trudy Coven will thank you mucho much. . . . Talk about a huddle over in the Bally Wigwam this past week: Bill Marmer of Cincinnati, Jimmy Savarese and Frank Fabiano of Buchanan, Mich., Ralph Nicholson, Art Garvey, Dan Moloney, Georgie Jenkins, Bill O'Donnell, Jack Nelson, Herb Jones and others, all listening to what's what and why. . . . Ray Moloney and family, along with the Tom Callaghan's still down in Miami. . . . George A. Miller advises that MOA hasn't yet set dates for convention here in Sept. George having his hands full finding hotel that can accommodate the boys. . . . By the way, your deposit (up to $100) guaranteed by The Cash Box from whomsoever you send deposit to buy merchandise advertised in The Cash Box.

Always nice and homey down in St. Louis. Our last week's visit down there made us feel this was the kind of town a guy likes to visit. Charley Kagel's and Tony Koupal, two guys who go 'way out of their way to make St. Loo visitors feel right at home. . . . And Pete Brandt one swell host in every fashion. A gentleman and one of the really swell guys of the coinbiz. . . . Charley Haley now in charge over at McCall Novelty, while Andy McCall in that hospital at Chesterfield, Mo., recovering from a severe illness. Charley a regular guy if ever there was one. . . . Jackie Rosenfeld always interesting to call on. He and Jack Gorelick doing a job in St. Loo. And, as per usual, Jackie very logical about what's what. And what can be done to help the business. . . . Carl Trippe pops around just as peppy as ever and just as swell a guy as ever. . . . Ben Axelrod wasn't in when he called. . . . Lou Morris wasn't around. . . . Some of St. Louis' ops among the most progressive. But, all complain about "the other guy," because 10c play not working in this very zinging town. . . . Bumped into Ed Levin of ChiCoin on the plane and saw him in St. Loo all in one day.

Nice letter from Herb Jones accompanied the new issue of "Bally-Who." Ops who received it should follow the suggestion to tell a bit about themselves and their people. . . . Now that Paul Golden is back from Miami the new amusement assn. here may get going again. . . . Sam Stern over at Williams is trying to figure out that big plant expansion all on one ground floor level. . . . Over at United this was the busiest of busy weeks. Bill DeSelm, Johnny Casola, Ray Riehl, Herb Oettinger and everyone else watching those ball games with eagle eyes. Looks like Herb is in for another satchelful. . . . There are very, very few in the business today who can remember when such a terrific moneymaking lineup of games was being produced. Just look over the ads in The Cash Box of every manufacturer.

How To Use "The Confidential Price Lists"

[Also Known As the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Confidential Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Confidential Price Lists" acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Confidential Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added costs of reconditioning.) "The Confidential Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Confidential Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week; Second price listed is highest price.

This Week's Used Market

The action in the used machine market continued to be the heaviest in some time. This burst of activity, as explained in last week's analysis, while attributed to many factors, can mainly be laid to Spring buying. Each year, with the opening of vacation locations in the offing, buying always swings upward. Prices more or less held at the same level as last week and indications are that the current spurge of activity will continue for a while.

The pin section, as can be expected, got a large share of the action. Almost all the games available received many askings. Again the newer games led the field in quotations. As was the case last week, new games entered the listings for the first time.

The music section went along with the other sections insofar as activity was concerned. Prices remained unchanged, an indication of the strong emphasis placed on music machines. The major action continued with the big movers of the past months getting the play. To continue the similarity of the trend in the market, shuffles were the second largest participant in the week's heavy activity. The prices, contrary to last week's market, when they dropped slightly, held firmly, indicating that the demand had stiffened the prices of the offerings.

Arcade equipment showed slight increases in activity with a few more machines entering the flurry of buying and selling and here too, prices held quite constant.

The following was the most active equipment in this week's used market:
