Col.-AFM Row Still Unsettled

NEW YORK - Columbia Records is seeking to resolve a hassle which was generated by Ferrante and Teicher's complaint to the American Federation of Musicians regarding the diskery's release of a Ferrante-Teicher package, "Broad-way to Hollywood." The piano duo, now hot on the United Artists label, charge that the Columbia disk was produced not in accordance with the conditions of the Exclusive Service Contract, nor according to the terms of the Phonograph Record Labor Agreement. In a letter to Columbia, Henry RSI has included singles by all of the majors in its "Hot 100" singles service (based on BMW's weekly "Spotlight" selections) for some time, but this is the first time it has featured major label LP's -RCA Victor, Capitol, Columbia and Decca - in its album packages.

RSI President Hal Cook said the new jazz service was inspired by recent BMW articles pointing out the increase of jazz programming by pop as well as jazz deejays across the country. Subsequent research by RSI, said Cook, proved the validity of the trend, particularly in college markets.

After only one year, RSI now has 618 station subscribers. In the process of providing stations with "Spotlight Winners" (both singles and LP's) selected by the record and music staff of BMW, RSI has sent out 88 different labels on its singles service and 31 different labels on its LP

MW Eyes New Participation In Retail Disks

CHICAGO - Montgomery Ward, which has enviously been eying a return to the retail record industry through its 1,000 stores throughout the U. S. ever since Sears, Roebuck started its impact program in retail records about six years ago, finally looks set to move under the aegis of Richard Laga, formerly a regional sales rep with Epic Records.

Though no comment could be obtained from MW or Laga, it's known that Laga has done a comprehensive job of canvassing manfacturers and distributors in many domestic areas, seeking out ideas and methods to implement the MW return to platters. In his confabs with distributors and recordlabel owners, Laga has expressed some interesting merchandising concepts, not ordinarily worked in the record business: He has queried executives regarding their actual dollar participation in setting up individual record department in Ward stores.

Discussions were held as to whether distributors and their manufacturers would actually shell out for store fixtures on a percentage basis. It's further reported that at present Laga is formulating a central agency, which will suggest buying of particular hot single and LP albums to stores with record departments. By June, Ward is reported to be ready to work from regional warehousing to service particular stores within the perim-

Disk Dealers Give Views On Album Price Slashes

It is an inadvisable, even deplora- for stockpiling of merchandise. ble move that could be very harmful. Manufacturers who reduce prices do it from weakness, not strength, and it makes a record buyer more cynical about the list price of records and the quality of records. As far as I'm concerned the discounts mean that the more stock a dealer has on hand the more money he loses. I think the price cuts give the discounter a bigger advantage than they have now. Instead of price cuts, why don't the manufacturers reduce the list price?"

Ed Zemski, assistant buyer for the Doubleday Book Shop chain, said. The price slashes are a very bad thing. They will not mean anything to the consumer, since the discounters are already selling records at 40 per cent to 50 per cent oft. It anything, the price cuts give the discounter an additional weapon and lets them make a bigger profit while they continue to sell at a lower price than anyone else.

Nappy, head of the Colony Rec-Shop on Broadway, however, was estatic about the discount deal. He told Billboard Music Week, "1 love the deals because we sell at list. We find we make a profit that way. We don't sell to a priceconscious trade - we let Sam Goody sell that way and you know what happened. The more deals, the bigger the profit we make at list. Of course, if Victor advertises that way, but we don't encourage this price cutting."

Music Week, "It's a slash in price, that's all. Frankly, we're selling 50 per cent more records, but the profit is much less. If you're working on a 30 per cent mark-up normaily and under this kind of deal your mark-up goes down to 18 or 20 per cent, you have to do a lot more than a 50 per cent increase in business to hold the profit level. We've ordered close to $350,000 worth of merchandise since the deals started. As for the small dealer, this is ridiculous and murdecous. Many of them have bought up a lot of goods on smaller, earlier deals. Now they come on with the big splash and they don't protect you on the inventory you have already. They did the same thing to me four years ago. I was stuck for $400,000 in losses and it was never made up to me.

Boston By CAMERON DEWAR

There's good and bad in everything. This seems to be the reaction of Greater Boston dealers to the disk sales by record firms. Feeling is that the situation is geared to help the larger dealer, while the small man just hasn't the kind of money to buy in heavy enough quantities to take advantage of the Sentiment ran all the way from some who thought it was wonderful to expressions like, "They're clobbering the record business, But George Gavrikkies of the Music Tent in Dedham, feels it should to be stimulate sales. Sees Stimulus

Bob Kelly of Stereo Sound and Music Corporation thinks it is a wonderful stimulus for business and feels the record companies had to do something. "It may be rough on the little man, but it's certainly new interest and helps sales." But he does ask two questions: How do you get the price back up again, and how do you help all of the industry at the same time?

A large one-stop operator, Jerry Flatto of Boston Record Distributors, says, "I just don't understand it all. I blame the manufacturers for putting out too much product ... too much and too fast. Now the question is, what is the price of a record? These weird discount structures show up just because the companies want to keep the factories going. The discount approach isn't for a good store since the smart buyer takes only the cream of the catalog anyhow.

We are participating in the sale, B iggs in Cambridge is against the idea of discounts. "How much inventory can you carry?" says he. "It all means that it is a way for the manufacturer to get rid of excess inventory and no help at all to the little dealer. It isn't going to do much for you unless you have a lot of money to put into the deal."

But Flatto summed it up by saying, "For the bigger dealer, how can he look a gift horse in the the sale we'll sell their records mouth For the smaller man, it's a issue. This could hurt independent rough deal and probably very little help." In other words, the ready at the point where dealers big dealers were in favor mostly, Sam Goody's told Billboard but it didn't seem like any bargain to the small retailer.

DIXIELAND, OFF THE RIVERBOAT IN OLD ODESSA

NEW YORK - There has often been controversy as to whether jazz came up the river or not, but now the Russians have added fuel to the fire. In fact, if the Russian theory is correct, the river that jazz came up was the Black Sea instead of the Mississippi.

Last week Soviet orchestra leader Leonid Osipovich Utyosov, taking up the startingly new Soviet line that jazz is not at all bad, made the following remarks about the origins of jazz, and as with all good things, claimed the Russians had it first.

His speech made these points: "Jazz music has existed for a long time. In Odessa, long ago, musicians always improvised at weddings and this gives me ground to say that so-called Dixieland existed in Odessa before New Orleans."

It is believed that both Neshui Ertegun, professorial Atlantic jazz chief and an authority on jazz, would dispute this view of Utyosov, and that so would former jazz critic Leonard Feather. They disagree on some things, but on this - never!

Elsnick plans to carry a 25 per cent discount on all LP's, while Dale Shonrock, Alexander Records, will carry a "buyone-get-one-free on his entire stock.

While all dealers questioned intend to participate fully in the RCA and Mercury sales, a number ing to 79 cents as the desired price are doubtful as to whether or not they will partake in Capitol's offering.

Some Unfavorable Reaction

The unfavorable reaction to Capitol stems mainly from its dealer discount offer which is considered on the whole confusing. As Fred Sipiora, Singer One-Stop. says: 'Their discount prices are varied because their album prices to take free merchandise that isn't 100 to get 33 free appeals only to big dealers and actually hurts the small guy." For these reasons some will not participate in the Capitol plan unless they are "forced into it by the amount of Capitol's consumer advertising."

A discordant note was raised by Andy Anderson, Record Center, who termed the spring sale a "further example of the demonstration of the artificial price structure existing in the record business to-Reaction to the specific offerings day." Several dealers echoed Anderson's opinion that a permanent lowering of prices to the extent of knocking off a dollar on LP sales to customers would do much more to stimulate business than these

WASHINGTON-The Supreme Court hearing on the struggle between management and small business members within the ranks of the American Society of Composers, Authors & Publishers, as dealt with in the 1960 consent terms, will take place the week of March 27. The historic "first" accounting for ASCAP stewardship of performance royalty collection for thousands of songwriters and publishers in this country before the highest court is expected to take place at about midweek March 28 or 29.

The detailed plea of dissident publishers, Sam Fox Publishing Company, Pleasant Music Publishing Corporation, and Jefferson Music Company, was submitted to the high court in a brief last month. (Billboard Music Week, February 13.) Although the answering briefs of the decree negotiators, ASCAP and Justice Department, were due last week (March 10), ASCAP requested an extension of time in which to file and was given until Monday (13). Justice Department will file at the same time.

The first dissident appeal, and a counter motion by ASCAP and Justice Department to dismiss, were filed in April, 1960.

The opposing ASCAP argument, along the lines of its first dismissal motion, is expected to counterclaim that Fox, et al., did not appeal from the final judgment and so have no right to ask for a review

Coast Dealers Launch Assn.; Co-Op Optional

HOLLYWOOD-A full-fledged regional dealers' association blossomed here last week in the same spot where a disk-buying co-operative was planted only a few weeks before. The dealers who recently banded together to form a co-op (Billboard Music Week, February (27) last week voted in favor of establishing the Southern California Record Dealers Association.

The sought-after co-op is in existence and is now operating, but is functioning as a part of the newly formed SCRDA. Members of the association do not necessarily have to avail themselves of the co-op's services. Also, the association assures the dealers in this Hirsig store in Madison, Wis., as area of a permanent organization wherein they can meet regularly to discuss common problems and exchange views even after the co-op part of its operation has outlived its usefulness.

Indications are that SCRDA may ask to join its national counterpart, the Society of Record Dealers, if and when SORD votes in favor of Klingele, Victor named four other ter." accepting regional bodies within its fold. UA's contract with British Decca. is up for renewal, and Talmadge said he will insist on label identification for UA "even if it means switching distributors" in England.

There are many obvious advantages to UA disks being released abroad under its own label, noted Talmadge, both to UA and the European distributors. For example, he pointed out, the parent company, United Artists Pictures, has a corps of film representatives available in every country to promote UA disks, particularly the firm's best-selling themes from such big box-office (both here and abroad) 'UA movies as "Exodus," "The Apartment," and others. ### CONCERT REVIEW

Brass, Acoustics Hamper Dizzy

A rather lean and disappointing house viewed the first in a proposed series of concerts entitled "Genius at Midnight" in Carnegie Hall, Saturday, March 4.

The first program featured Dizzy Gillespie, and was presented by the MGM-Verve Record firm which also recorded the festivities for future release.

The jazz trumpeter's compositions made up most of the concert. Besides such older of D.G.'s writings as "Emanon," "Ow" and "Manteca," a humming brass ensemble of four trombones, four trumpets and four French horns and tuba performed a new work and two reworkings of Gillespie material by arranger Lalo Schifrin.

The new work was entitled "Kush-An African Poem," and had swing and warmth. "Tunisian Fantasy," a development of "Night in Tunisia" in three parts, was notable for fine, moody writing through the "The Casbah" segment. A wild and woolly, broad and brassy "Gillespiana Suite" in five sections closed things out for the night.

Diz performed with his usual adriotness, and young alto saxist Leo Wright showed a sharp solo concept, combining the stimulating sound of Earl Bostic mixed with that of Charlie

In spite of some of the good moments, the concert must be chalked up as a disappointment due to the top-heavy brass instrumentation and fuzzy acoustics of the hall which scrambled and muddied the performance. It is hoped that the forthcoming recording will not carry these deficiencies. Jack Maher.

NIGHT CLUB REVIEW

Darin Parades R.&B. Hits at Copa

The lustre of Bobby Darin has not worn off in a year. After a highly successful debut at Jules Podell's Copacabana last summer, Darin returned for a repeat last week and had the roomful of customers eating out of his hand all over again.

Darin gassed the out-of-towners and expense-accounters with a varied act which consisted of stints on the drums, vibes, piano, a lot of ad lib comedy and best of all, his singing.

For a time, it was conisdered not smart for a rock-type performer moving into the night club circle to perform his record hits. But Darin, safe in the knowledge of having made it in the more sophisticated areas, now has the courage to bring Splash," "Queen of the Hop," "Dream Lover," etc., to a tumultuous response.

Beyond this, he offers a broad program of familiar tunes, mostly upbeat style, like "Some of These Days," "Bill Bailey," and his more recent disk click," "Mack the Knife" and "Up a Lazy River." He strays momentarily and effectively into a soft, lightly accompanied "Toot Toot Tootsie." It all adds up to a neat package indeed, delivered with class and style by a youngster with the touch of a veteran.

Bobby Scott's piano backing is literally the end, as is the whole brace of arrangements for the augmented house band, batoned by Dick Berke. Frank Gorshin, No. 2 man on the bill, builds his whole act on impressions, and an effective performer Ren Grevatt.

MUSIC REVIEW

'Life' Swings With Dr. Souchon

Jazz and the adventures of those connected with it seems to be just the thing to take the mush and contrived sentimentality out of the "This Is Your Life" TV stanza. That was the case, at least, when the weekly show spotlighted prominent New Orleans doctor and jazz historian Edmond Souchon, Sunday, March 5.

Despite host Ralph Edward's unctious manner in sketchily retelling the good doctor's history, "Sou" himself took the whole thing in stride; correcting misstatements by Edwards, passing out credit to other people, and adding a jovial note or two.

There was much Dixieland-style jazz, too: in a reunion of the string jazz band in which Souchon played as a youth, and through the playing of prominent jazz men like Eddie Condon, Muggsy Spanier, Matty Matlock and Ray Bauduc. The vitality of this music and the ad-lib comments of the musicians did much to raise this soap-opera show to a more human level.

HIGH FIDELITY TO NAME 40 'GREAT' DISKS OF DECADE

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass. - Which disks are the "greatest" of the past decade? This question is raised—and an answer advanced-by High Fidelity magazine in the publication's upcoming April issue. The article has special significance. The April number marks 10 years of publication for the magazine. During this period their reviewing staff has evaluated many thousands of records as an aid to disk buyer and dealer alike. Of those thousands 40 records were considered worthy of the "greatest" accolade.

The article is expected to have big impact on disk buying by serious collectors. Most will pore over the list and measure their collections against the judgment of the critics. Where gaps occur, they will probably try to fill them. Worth noting is the fact that the magazine is read by more than 100,000 trend-setmusic listeners. High Fidelity will also make the "40 greatest" list available to dealers in poster form for in-store display and promotion.

Are all 40 disks currently available? Most are. About 75 per cent can be had by the collector by walking into any respectable record shop that carries name labels. A relatively small number might have to be special-ordered by the dealer. Two or three might take some scurrying on the part of the collector, investigating availability in the shops that specialize in disks that are no longer pressed.

High Fidelity did not reveal titles on the "40 greatest" list. Interested dealers and consumers will have to wait for the appearance of the April issue. Publication date is March 30.

Now Up in Air

HOLLYWOOD-Fate of RCA Victor's expensive Hollywood recording studios remained up in the air at week's end following the disclosure that NBC's Sunset and Vine property housing RCA Victor has been sold, and will be converted into a complex of two office buildings and a hotel, to serve as a

NBC peddled the square block, five and a half acres in the heart of Hollywood, for $3,500,000. RCA Victor and the remnants of NBC (most of the network's radio and TV personnel moved several years ago to its new headquarters in Burbank) must vacate the premises by November, 1963.

RCA's recording execs here said they did not know where the label will set up its new studios. They indicated it appeared unlikely that TV studios in Burbank would be converted to disk use. RCA Victor, the first label here with its own recording facilities, may go back to buying studio time on a per-session basis. This would cramp RCA Victor's custom operation which closely ties in customs recording with its record-pressing contracts. Possible solution mentioned was that Victor might remain where it is as a tenant in the new "communications center" but it appeared unlikely in view of the new owner's Uhlco Properties plans.

Fate of RCA's GERMAN DISK VENDERS Waxing Studios REGISTER HIGHER SALES

FRANKFURT, Germany-Sale of machine-vended phonograph records has jumped 35 per cent since a court decision last autumn eased vending machine regulations.

The Bundestag passed legislation liberalizing the operation of vending machines early last November, and since then vending machine disk sales have zoomed.

The disk-vending machine is relatively new to West Germany, but the response is spurring the development of a series of new models by various companies.

40 Records

West Germany's most popular present disk machine is the Mefa, manufactured at Baden-Baden. The Mefa offers a choice of 40 records, but machines are under development with a choice of 120 disks.

There is a trend to the "24-hour concept" of disk merchandising, as is suggested by the installation of disk venders on a mass basis. German record shops are installing disk venders not only inside the shop but also outside on the shop facade, under the slogan, "Music when you want it-as you want it."

German disk producers lean definitely now to the theory that singles must be more vigorously merchandised as a massconsumption article. The trend is toward lower prices and mass selling.

Some industry oracles maintain that singles eventually will he almost entirely machine-merchandised "like cigarettes or American chewing gum," as one phrased it. "Why keep kidding ourselves? We're not selling Bach or Beethoven, we're selling a musical version of soft drinks and candy bars-and it has to be merchandised the same way."

FM Stations Reaching Huge Car Radio Crowd

NEW YORK - Platter spinners, both longhair and pop, at the country's 600-odd FM-only stations are now beginning to reach a huge new audience the out-of-home listeners riding in U. S. autos equipped with FM car radios.

Since research firms (A. C. Nielsen, Pulse, etc.) figure that auto radios account for anywhere from 16 per cent of the total volume of radio listening on winter mornings to nearly 40 per cent on summer evenings, the new status which auto listening will give FM stations in the eyes of the promotion - conscious record industry is obvious.

Another, and even larger, breakthrough for the FM outlets-broadcasting in some form of stereo other than the compromise, AM - FM, two - station method - continues to be just a stereo gleam on the radio horizon. Most FM stations would like to go into stereo and most FM set and tuner manufacturers are watching developments closely with an eye to invading the consumer electronic market on short notice.

Welcomed for Promos

Record executives would welcome a new promotion outlet for stereo platters. What's logamming the stereo radio situation at the moment is the slowmotion process whereby the NAB's National Stereo Radio Committee has field - tested a number of competing stereo systems and has passed its findings along the the FCC in Washington. FCC, in turn, is now digging slowly through an analysis of the various systems. A stereo system (Crosby, Calbest, GE, Zenith, etc.) or system combination probably won't be selected before mid-summer, and there probably won't be any action at the consumer level before next fall.

In the case of London, it may be noted, when the company announced its first-of-the-year deal on merchandise, it made its co-op funds available for discount ads, and the firm even encouraged dealers to advertise other labels in the same ad. Wallichs said his stores will take advantage of the manufacturers' discount offers toward the end of the programs, but as far as his patrons are concerned the Music City chain will stick to its own 100-LP's-at-a-discount policy. Here, again, brisk business was reported, with Wallichs stating that sales were running well ahead of the same period a year ago.

Denel's Music, Hollywood, is among the dealers who plan to start the discount sales during the coming week. Denel's hasn't received shipment on its orders under the discount program, nor has it received any of the manufac-turers' material heralding the event. ### BEST SELLING BILLBOARD MUSIC WEEK

NOTE: The listings on this spread are the nation's best selling LP's in the period specified above. They include approximately 200 albums which must be regarded as essential inventory for dealers and as outstanding programming for broadcasters. For convenience in using this material for inventory, display or programming, the listings have been broken into leading categories. The LP's then are listed alphabetically rather than in sales order within each category.

The letter M following a title indicates that only the Monophonic version of that LP is a best seller; the letter 5 Indicates that only the Stereo version is a best seller; the letters M-5 indicate that both Mono and Stereo versions are best sellers.

The best selling new LP's, on the charts nine weeks or less, are listed In rank order according to sales in the Action Album charts, in the center of this spread.

Laurie LLP 2004-A spectacular packaging job gives this double-fold package potent display and merchandising value. The contents are tailored for the young warbler's fans—"Lonely Teen-Ager," "Little Miss Blue," and other r.&r. hits, plus such great standards as "Fools Rush In" and "One for My Baby." A strong sales item.

THE GENTLE TOUCH

Jackie Gleason. Capitol SW 1519 (Stereo & Monaural)-Here's the first Jackie Gleason mood album in a long spell, during which time the maestro has been occupied with the legit theater scene and TV. This one features George Williams arrangements for woodwinds, rhythms and two trumpets. The moody danceable selections include "Cheatin' on Me," "Looking for a Boy," "Moonglow" and "Will You Still Be Mine." Strong wax for dealers and

THE MISFITS

Original Sound Track Music. United Artists UAL 4087-The LP of Alex North's score for the sound track of the widely discussed film should be a strong sales item. The vast publicity accruing to the picture and its glamor stars, Marilyn Monroe and the late Clark Gable, all should help the disk sale. The seven North themes are all workmanlike and interesting. They are backed by six other sound-track themes of varying interest, two of these by North. But it's the A side that is the only attraction here, and it should be sufficient for sales purposes.

SHOW GIRL

Original Cast. Roulette R 80001-Carol Channing's revue opened to fine reviews on Broadway in January, and this original-cast package should profit sales-wise from the raves. Miss Channing and comedian Jules Munshin are hilarious in the comedy sketches and special material songs, which spoof the 1920's, vaudeville, etc. Sock showmanship for Broadway fans, and comedy LP collectors,

FREDERICK FENNELL CONDUCTS GERSHWIN

Mercury PPS 6006 (Stereo & Monaural)-This should be one of the most successful of Mercury's new Perfect Presence Sound series. Any good version of a dozen top Gershwin tunes should do business; this set is exceptionally performed and beautifully packaged. Frederick Fennell conducts a large, suave-toned orchestra in imaginative arrangements by Rayburn Wright of such great stand-ards as "Love Walked In," "The Man I Love," "I Got Rhythm," Embraceable You" and "Lady Be Good."

Various Artists, London LL 3238-This album should be a big seller. It features the Cambridge Strings playing tunes from shows, movies and TV shows, including the current hit, "Tunes of Glory." The other tunes include "The World of Suzie Wong," "Camelot," "Where the Boys Are" and "Gurney Slade." Strong wax here that could be a solid seller.

JAZZ POLL WINNERS

Columbia CL 1610-Here's a smart hunk of packing that's bound to sell and sell to jazz buffs. A four-page folder outlines the artists and their awards from many sources and provides brief bio details on the performers. Included are tracks by Les Brown, Dave Brubeck, Kenny Burrell, Miles Davis, Duke Ellington, Don Elliott, Lionel Hampton, Charlie Mingus, J. J. Johnson, the Hi-Lo's; Lambert, Hendricks and Ross, Gerry Mulligan, Art Van Damme and Paul Desmond. Album could be a poll winner in itself, as far as buyers are concerned.

MAYNARD '61

Maynard Ferguson Ork. Roulette R 52064-Powerful, dynamic and imaginative performances of some exciting new works, are the hallmarks of a truly brilliant big band jazz album. Maynard Ferguson is at the top of his form and delivers a virtuoso trumpet performance in a work called "Ole" that will be a challenge for anyone to match. The other five works in the collection, whether torrid or meditative, are swinging items that are tops in taste as well as execution. All are originals save for a moving arrangement of Gordon Jenkins' "Goodbye." A brisk sale indicated for this package.

Country & Western -

GOT YOU ON MY MIND

Jean Shepard. Capitol ST 1525 (Stereo & Monaural)-Here's a collection of attractive songs, performed stylishly by Jean Shepard. The tunes are all old favorites, including "Big Midnight Special," "Under Your Spell Again," "Mockin' Bird Special" and, of course, the title tune. Strong wax that could also get pop action.

Faron Young. Capitol T 1528-This collection of favorite tunes should appeal to Faron Young's large following in both the country and pop fields. The tunes include "Let Old Nature Have Her Way," "Big Shoes," "Anything Your Heart Desires" and "Congratulations." All of them are sung with feeling and warmth by Young, over good support by the band.

BIG CITY LIGHTS

Grady Martin and the Stewfoot Five. Decca DL 74072 (Stereo)-One of the favorite country and western bands performs a program of all-time top country hits in instrumental fashion. The saxophone leads the way in the combo stylings of "City Lights," "Tennessee Waltz," "Heartaches by the Number," "Crazy Arms," and a host of others. A lot of good, danceable fare here, that will also have the terpers in a singing-along mood.

Rhythm & Blues _

ARETHA FRANKLIN WITH THE RAY BRYANT TRIO

Columbia CL 1612 (Stereo & Monaural)-Aretha's Franklin's first LP for Columbia combines the new young singer's two strong r.&b. entries, "Won't Be Long" and "Today I Sing the Blues" (which also saw some pop chart action) with some other powerful singing chores by the lass. Besides jumping blues things like "Sweet Lover," two standards, "Ain't Necessarily So" and "Over the Rainbow," are included. Ray Bryant plays piano through many of the tracks, but when Miss Franklin plays for herself, strong sides like "Who Needs You?" "Are You Sure" and "Maybe I'm a Fool," stand a very good chance for chart action as singles.

Classical -

MADAME BUTTERFLY

Sadler's Wells Orchestra (Balkwill), Angel 35902 (Stereo & Monaural)-The famous Sadler's Wells Company of London presents a delightful portrayal of the "Butterfly" highlights in this new LP, one of the few stereo versions available. The soloists, who sing in English, include Marie Collier, Ann Robson, Charles Craig and Gwyn Griffiths. Believed to be one of the rare English versions, the performance is merchandised by a lovely Oriental scene, which ties in well with the material.

WAGNER: DIE WALKURE ACT I, SCENE 3; EXCERPTS FROM DIE GOTTERDAMMERUNG

Soloists; NBC Symphony Orchestra (Toscanini), RCA Victor LM 2452-The team of Toscanini, Traubel and Lauritz Melchior do a strong and moving job of interpreting this Wagner music. Both the "Die Walkure" and the "Die Gotterdammerung" excerpts were recorded from a radio broadcast in February of 1941. Each in its own right carries the dramatic Toscanini touch with the two opera stars fitting in beautifully.

LEONCAVVALO: I PAGLIACCI

Orchestra and Chorus of La Scala Opera House, Milan (Von Matacic). Angel 3618 B-L (Stereo & Monaural)-Here is a sterling and beautifully recorded performance of the score of the warhorse work. Featured in the cast are such performers as Lucine Amara, Franco Corelli, Tito Gobbi, Mario Spina and Mario Zanasi, all of whom offer top-notch vocalizing. A most apt partner to the opera. Side 4 of the two-LP program is a group of three well-known operatic choruses by Verdi. These are the Anvil Chorus from "Il Trovatore," the Triumphal Chorus from "Aida," and the Chorus of the Jews from "Nabucco." For the main attraction there is stout competition but the recording has the sound and class to sell.

Sound

WOODWINDS & PERCUSSION

Hal Mooney & His Ork. Mercury PPS 6013 (Stereo & Monaural)-Here's another of the new Perfect Presence sound line for the label, with three most attractive lassies on the cover setting the gay mood. Mooney has done some sharp arrangements for a sizable complement of woodwinds, effectively showcased in front of tasteful but never overwhelming percussion effects. The rhythm emphasis is Latin applied to mostly standards and one fine show tune of the more modern era, "Tonight," from "West Side Story." Set can appeal to dancers, mood buyers or sound buffs.

USED 'EM SINCE 1953

Comedy LP's Nothing New To WDZ's Program Mgr.

NEW YORK - Harry Michaels, program manager-deejay of WDZ, Decatur, Ill., is irked by "jockeys who have just begun using comedy albums on their shows and are crying for free disks from the distributors."

Michaels, who has been using comedy LP's on his shows since 1953 and as a regular feature since 1955, writes, "The comics don't owe the jocks free albums. Shelley Berman and Bob Newhart made it without our help no matter what some jocks may claim."

He adds, "Back in 1953, there were few comedy albums. We had to use what we could dig up. When there were no comedy albums we would write and produce our own material. Any jock who is incapable of doing comedy himself has no right to rest his show on the abilities of hardworking comics whose albums he fills his shows with. If a jockey finds himself in a position where he is begging for free comedy material, he has little right to use it"

Michaels says he buys many albums out of his own pocket-"not from distributors but from local record stores. They have to make a buck too." Commenting on the recent stories in BMW about a trend toward the programming of more comedy LP's by deejays, Michaels noted, "True, there is one. It's a welcome trend. Maybe working together we can do something about returning comedy to its proper place on TV. But please, gentlemen, be kind to comedians. Don't kill a good thing."

Michaels emphasizes that he is not claiming "paternity" of the trend - "Many fine decjays have devoted segments of their shows to comedians for decades. Bob Arbogast, Dan Sorkin, Wally Phillips and others are the pioneers."

A student of the use of comedy in the recording field, Michaels points out, "Comedy was recorded before music. After Thomas Edison's deathless recitation of 'Mary Had a Little Lamb,' there was little else to record but the spoken word. Ask any old-timer about 'Cohen on the Telephone' or 'Two Black Crows.' Columbia Records was recording comedy records before they perfected the process of recording on both sides of a disk. This recent revival is a welcome, blessed event."

TV JOCKEY PROFILE

Television disk jockeys and the TV record and dance party formats have become increasingly important, Each week, this feature will provide details of an outstanding exponent.

DIXON ON DISC Starring John Dixon WALA-TV, Mobile, Ala. Saturday 11 a.m.-1 p.m.

John Dixon

"Dixon on Disc" was launched on WALA-TV June 1, 1955, by John Dixon, who was the first to organize and conduct a TV dance show for teens in the Gulf Coast area. The show spotlights teen-agers dancing on camera to their favorite records. The youngsters are selected each week from mail received the previous week

Visiting record artists also appear on the program, and teen-agers on the show participate in various contests. Members of "The John Dixon Fan Club." of course, are very much in evidence on the telecasts. Dixon also emsees and conducts outside TV record hops frequently at locals and community centers.

About 80 per cent of the records played on the show are culled from the "Top 50" best selling platters; while the remaining are new releases. Tele-Records (TV films featuring record artist lip-syncing their latest disks are also featured-sometimes as many as four per show.

Dixon, who is a national sales manager of WALA-TV, opines that a large portion of his viewing audience is adult. As an example, he cites the Jarrad Sports Car Center, which uses "Dixon on Disc" as its only means of advertising. The results were so good, reports Dixon, that Jarrad stayed on as a sponsor for two years. Station WALA-TV reaches about 200,000 TV sets in a coverage area of 125-mile radius (Alabama, Mississippi and Florida),

In a recent Billboard Music Week issue, Dixon-as a "Programming Panel" member-said, "The most important ingredients for running a successful record hop are predicated on having a successful 'Disk as WLEE has Jockey program, which without sincere and enthusiastic audience always co-operacceptance can never achieve maximum potential. Next in importance ated fully with is the endorsement of a local sponsor (i.e., Jaycees, Senior Class, P.T.A., the recommenetc.) who perform the remaining requisites—obtaining an auditorium, dations of our armory or gym-and equally sharing the responsibility of publicizing the hop."

THE QUESTION

(submitted by Jack Sterling)

Is it proper for a radio outlet to give away recordings as station promotions?

THE ANSWERS

JACK STERLING WNAK, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

At WNAK we make it a practice to eliminate or dispose of all recordings that do not meet either our standards or warrant air time. In our "Hit Kits" we try to give one of the top chart tunes plus a couple of belowstandard recordings. This keeps our librarian from filing recordings that we perhaps would never use. Instead of destroying the under-par recordings, we give them to our listeners who are appreciative,

DAVID LYMAN WLEE, Richmond, Va.

Station WLEE's FCC lawyers

have advised us that the practice of awarding phonograph records is questionable. Inasmuch lawyers, we now refrain completely from the awarding of records.

DEAN GRIFFITH WPGC, Washington, D. C.

It is proper, provided your requests for records are not unfair. At WPGC we've worked out a "system" with the promotion men. They provide WPGC with four copies of each record. Once a record becomes a hit. we replace it every other week with a new copy. The record we give away is the one which has been played on the air. To ask for 10 or 15 copies of one particular record is undoubtedly unfair. Co-operation is the keynote to good service, and at WPGC we back that statement up with one outstanding fact-It works.

ANDY WEST KUDL, Kansas City, Mo.

It is my definite and unfaltering opinion that record giveaways are advantageous to a station as well as the record distributors. The public listens to a music station for music. Records are an integral part of that station. Giving records away improves listener-station relations. It helps distributors because it creates terest in acquiring record collections-consequently higher record sales. Co-operation between distributor and station is a must for both. Boiled down, it's "you belp me and I'll help you."

Dick Osborne, WLW Exec, Dies at 35

CINCINNATI-Richard A. Osborne, 35, assistant general sales manager of WLW-Radio, died of a cerebral hemorrhage Tuesday morning (7) in Christ Hospital here. Osborne became suddenly ill Saturday afternoon (4) at his home and lapsed into a coma shortly after being taken to the hospital. Although he had been under a doctor's care for more than a year, his death was unexpected.

Osborne had been with the Crosley Broadcasting Corporation the past seven years. He came to Cincinnati from Columbus, Ohio, where he was national salesman with WLW-C. Prior to joining Crosley Broadcasting, he held sales positions with The Chicago Tribune; radio Station WPAY, Portsmouth, Ohio; WHKC, Columbus, and later was sales manager of WCMI, Huntington, W. Va.

Even Granco was surprised at the way the firm's "ARC 60" took off, Sales Manager Al Barshop recently told BMW that his firm has been shipping over 13,000 FM auto units a month to dealers - an annual rate of over 150,000 - since the start of the year, and that the rate might well go much higher. In terms of consumer list dollars, that's an annual business of at least $7.5 million. "Autos also represent a good environment for stereo," said Barshop, "and it's possible that we may get into stereo FM car radios eventually." Other major electronics firms, meanwhile, are eving Granco's FM auto adapter with interest, and are likely to join the act quickly if its sales

Granco, which sells more lowpriced FM sets than any other manufacturer in this country, also plans to move quickly on the FM stereo front - when it happens. By Granco's figuring, it will take "within 90 days" from the time FCC decides which brand of FM stereo it likes best until stereo FM sets bearing the Granco label are in the hands of dealers. Audio tuner manufacturers should move at the same rate. Larger manufacturers of consumer electronics, with more complex organizations and sales channels, will take longer - but not too much longer. Set pricing will be, by all estimates, about 30-40 per cent more than FM-only receivers

PROGRAMMING

A description of the LP programming philosophies and techniques of leading radio broadcasters with specific illustrations of how these are put into practice. Stations with original approaches to the use of LP's for programming are invited to submit details for publication here to Lee Zhito, Billboard Music Week, 1520 N. Gower St., Hollywood 28, Calif.

WNTA Radio (AM and FM), Newark, N. J., follows a musical programming philosophy that is summed up in the phrase, "The Golden Sounds of Music." It caters to a mature audience and its total programming is balanced under the slogan, "The station that informs while it entertains."

As one of 19 stations serving the greater New York City-Northern New Jersey market, it looked for and found that different element to attract the audience it wanted. The magic ingredient for it is the big record of the past, be it six months, six years, or 16 years old. Its name for these hit records and memory tunes is "The Golden Sound," and the listeners have taken to this, as have some of WNTA's competitors.

"With the dearth of really good music being turned out these days, people enjoy sitting back and hearing some of the better offerings of Tin Pan Alley of old, and frankly our staff enjoys it too," according to Production Manager Sid Sirulnick. WNTA is a haven from rock and roll, but does balance its musical programming with some of the good new pop items from the LP's and singles released each week.

All records are checked in at its weekly music meeting to be sure it approves just those selections that meet its "Golden Sound" standards. Its vice-president and general manager, Ted Steele, has declared these music selection meetings to be of such importance that he clears his calendar each week to take part in the sessions, as the entire program and music staff makes the evaluations.

The WNTA recipe for good listening is derived as follows: in an average hour it plays 12 records (it has four-minute news casts on the hour and half hour) and these 12 are broken down into three categories: "golden records," new singles and new LP's. This works out to four records from each category per hour, with the pacing generally following the normal fast, slow medium balance.

Eighty per cent of the Golden Records are now available in LP series, such as Columbia's "Greatest Hits," RCA's "60 Years of Music," Decca's "Hits of the Decade." WNTA heartily endorses the compiling of big hits on a label into LP form by every company. Sometimes a station may forget a big song buried in its files, or it may have originally been available only in 78 r.p.m. and has disappeared, but a reappearance in an LP at the station guarantees the disk's new life.

WNTA Radio also lays claim to another honor, that of being the first station to regularly air portions of comedy LP's, as reported in BMW, December 31, 1960. One each hour it delves into the "Comedy Corner" for a bit out of one of the many comedy LP's. "Let's face it, 100 per cent of comedy is on LP," says Sirulnick. "Our listeners have come to realize that 970 is "the smile on the dial (we're just full of slogans), all day long."

Once a day, on a regular basis, the WNTA Music Library is open to telephone requests. The station asks listeners to tell the "Golden Sound" in their life, and these requests generally back up the music philosophy outlined above. Eighty per cent of the requests are filled from LP's, and the taste of its listeners has proved noteworthy. Among the front-runners of requests are Tony Bennett's "Because of You," Doris Day's "Secret Love," Mario Lanza's "Be My Love," and Bing Crosby and Grace Kelly doing "True Love."

Here is a sample of programming listed out of the 4-6:30 p.m. Bob Brown show heard on Wednesday, February 15, 1961, from the Gold Studio:

Weekend radio at WNTA is different. It offers special varieties of the "Golden Sound," from homespun homilies of Allan Brown Saturday mornings (he loads himself up with an armful of "Sing Along" and Johnny Maddox-type LP's), to the suave and erudite Bob Brown with his special "Golden Sound of Jazz" (all LP's) from 1-4 p.m. on Saturdays, and capped off with its pride and joy, "The Golden Sound of the Classics," heard each Sunday from noon till 8:45 p.m. This program, formerly the "Sunday Spectacular," features the beautiful music of the masters for eight and three-quarter hours, with the music performed by the choice LP classical performers.

PROGRAMMING TIP OF THE WEEK

Station WLEE, Richmond, Va., recently staged a "Count the Music" contest, whereby listeners were asked to count the number of records played by WLEE between sign-on January 29 and sign-off February 18. Grand prize-to anyone who could guess the exact number - was a 1961 Ford Falcon.

Throughout the contest each WLEE deejay kept track of the number of tunes played on an automatic counter. At the end of his shift he recorded the total on a special form, sealed it in an envelope, and turned it over to Dave Lyman, WLEE's program development director.

The final count was 8,137. a figure which no one guessed exactly. Guesses ranged all the way from 75 to 600,060,-060. Portable stereo sets were awarded to the five closest entrants, the nearest guess being 8,175.

Korvette Exec States Case for Discounting

NEW YORK - "We consider ourselves in the record business for keeps and we are spending plenty of money to improve our service to customers to prove it." These are the words of Dave Rothfeld, divisional merchandising manager and record buyer for the chain of 13 general merchandise discount stores, known as J. J. Korvette, Inc. Korvette has frequently been the target of local dealer attacks for merchandising and pricing reasons.

One frequently heard blast against Korvette is that like many other general merchandise · discounters, the stores allegedly use records as a loss leader to build traffic. "In the first place," says Rothfeld, in answer to this charge, "We have to account to our stockholders. How can we afford to let one department be a loss?

"Beyond that, we have spent many thousands of dollars for modern racks, browsers and display equipment. We go to great pains to hire the kind of clerks who know music and merchandise and how to sell it intelligently. In other words, we give service. In our new Brooklyn store record department we are doing a great deal along merchandising lines including installing display space for 2,000 album covers.

"Another frequently levelled accusation is that the big discounters like Korvette carry only hit merchandise and do not stock catalog." Rothfeld has an answer for this, "We carry as complete a stock of albums as anybody you can name in the area," he notes. "For instance, we have the complete London and Angel lines. We have Caedmon, Vanguard, Bach Guild, Folkways and Elektra. We even have a complete stock of imported Deutsche Grammophon and Electrola records. Does that sound like the top 20 or the top anything?"

Korvette, which in some circles has been called the B. Altman of the discount trade, also does a substantial business in components. "We have Harold Weinberg, a member of the Audio Engineering Society, as our audio expert and he runs a solid department," says Rothfeld. "We have a tremendous amount of equipment and the music is going on all the time. We feel that we can help create the mass market for audio in this way. And I can say this is no loss leader either."

There have been frequent statements that stores like Korvette's can offer the kind of prices they do in special sales only if they have underground sources of merchandise. "We do it very simply," said Rothfeld. "Let's say there's a big special deal from a manufacturer. There are several right now and there were others last spring. Last year, we ordered several hundred thousands of dollars worth of LP's from one company alone. We had enough stock to last us for months. That enabled us to come up with sales long after the manufacturer deal was over. I think that's just good buying.

"Right now, however, we are watching our buying with extreme care. Certainly we're buying from the firms like Capitol, Victor and Mercury, who have announced big discount plans, but on others who haven't, we're being cautious. I expect we may see some interesting new developments with other companies in

"Where do we buy our merchandise? Strictly from the local distributor. In Hartford, we work with Hartford distributors, and in Philadelphia and Harrisburg, we work with distributors in those areas. We never have bought direct. I feel that distributor salesmen are an invaluable part of the retail picture. They can help you a great deal and if you use them right, they become a sort of extra salesman for you. 'We wouldn't work in any other way.

"One thing where we agree with any record dealer, large or small, is on the matter of clubs. I don't like them at all. They hurt our business when they offer a huge selection of top merchandise at prices like six LP's for 99 cents. We can buy right, sure, but we can't buy that right.

"Frankly, I can see someday a Korvette label, and maybe a Korvette record club, too. It's one way of competing with the record clubs and I feel we have enough distribution through our 13 outlets to actually make an artist."

Rothfeld has noted the increasing sale of party records all over town, in many of the smaller shops. "We won't handle them, even though we know it's hurting our business. Those other stores will sell a customer a party album and probably another two or three to boot at the same time. We still will not carry them. It's not good for the family trade."

a co-op buying fund in excess of $10,000. In some sectors of the industry here it was predicted that the Capitol, Mercury and RCA Victor 25 per cent discount programs would collide head-on with the fledgling group and kill the local co-op movement before it gained momentum. Dealers, it was felt, would prefer to use their ready cash to take advantage of the majors' attractive price cuts rather than tie up their money in a group buying fund.

Instead, the co-op move continued undetered by the majors' discount proclamations. The dealer group, however, decided against focusing its collective buying strength on records at this time and instead chose to purchase radios and accessories. When the price-cutting programs are over, SCRDA's co-op wing will return to its original mission of buying records for its members. Participation in the co-op operation is being left open until May 1, after which non-SCRDA dealers wishing to come aboard will be charged a joining fee.

Election of officers was held at SCRDA's first meeting, resulting in the following slate: Oliver Glas, of Sally's Record Shop, Northridge, president; Harry Martin, Martin's Music, Culver City, vice-president; Richard Smith, Arcadia Music Mart, Arcadia, secretary-treasurer. Three board members were chosen: Dave Arbuckle, Arbuckle's Record Shop, Monterey Park; Jack Lishon, Lishon's Music, Inglewood; Howard Judkins Sr., Judkins Music, Garden Grove.

DEADWOOD, S. D. - "I'm Sending You a Bouquet of Roses" is the title of a long-remembered song of the Gay Nineties. It also sums up a unique merchandising stunt used by Jack Sherman, radio, high-fidelity and stereo equipment dealer here.

Whenever Sherman's store, Jack's Radio and TV, sells a stereo phonograph, Sherman immediately writes a simultaneous order to a local florist shop, for a dozen roses to be delivered to the customer's home. A simple card of appreciation for the purchase goes along with the flowers, which, invariably, are a complete surprise to the re-

Sales Pitches on Tape Up Store's Stereo $$

ST. LOUIS - It isn't always possible to stage sales-training meetings with manufacturers' representatives or distributors' salesmen acting as instructors. Often, either the instructor or the retailer's salesman cannot be gotten together conveniently. This means that the stereo dealer loses the benefits of expert selling help from the manufacturers.

At the record, stereo, and high-fidelity department of Famous-Barr, in St. Louis, veteran buyer Sam Gross, has found the ideal solution in simply making use of the same tape recorders which make up part of the inventory to serve as a relay between the manufacturer, the distributor and the retail salesman.

Gross, whose record and highfidelity equipment department in the huge downtown store, and in almost-as-large departments in suburban stores throughout the entire St. Louis area, does almost $7 million per year, naturally sees a lot of salesmen. Whenever one of them comes up with the sort of sales story which Gross thinks would benefit his 125 - odd salespeople throughout the Famous - Barr chain, he flips on the tape recorder on his desk and records the manufacturer - representative's entire discourse. From this recording, Gross develops a "packaged sales meeting," which is played either individually for the salesman, or in groups, depending upon circumstances.

The most direct course of action, is for the St. Louis record retailer to call in his salespeople one by one, and ask them to listen to the recording whenever it is convenient. The men pick up "pearls of wisdom" in this way.

Now, after many years of following this practice, in fact, since tape recorders were first added to the Famous-Barr inventory, Gross thinks that this idea has probably made more extra sales for tape recorders, monaural and stereo phonographs, television and other lines, than any other single idea he has ever used.

don't encourage any special order business. The customer that comes into my store is not my customer. He is someone else's, probably a discounter's and he's only coming to me because his regular supplier either won't get it or can't. Getting his special order for him will not win him away from his discounter unless my price is 2 cents cheaper than the other guy's. Today, price is everything. #### BERNIE STRICKLER Harmony Hall Record Shop Chicago

Yes-definitely. In the record business, the number of new releases is so vast it's impossible for any shop to carry a complete selection. To meet the public's requirements, you have to order specials. All of our personnel have instructions to order a tune for a customer if we don't have it in stock, I would estimate that about 5 per cent of our total sales consist of specially ordered merchandise. I think this is one area that has definitely helped our business-it's

The term "juke box" is rated by the German industry as in exceedingly poor semantic taste. The "right" word is "music box" or, preferred in more elegant circles, an "automatic musical instrument."

For those who must test their English the preferred term is "automatic phonograph."

Even the words "coin machine" tend to be rather controversial with German semantic purists, who contend that it has a vulgar ring. Preferred is "automatic merchandising." "automatic game" or "automatic musical instrument."

Are they being silly? The Germans don't think so. This country tends to take semantics seriously. They believe that the product "image" is shaped as much by the words employed to describe it as anything else.

To the Germans, an elegant word connotes an elegant product. It's that simple.

As a semantic-conscious operator summarized, "We all know how the sensational press has linked "slot machines" and "juke boxes" with racketeering. But can you imagine it sounding at all sensational to connect hoodlums with 'automatic musical instruments?' It seems to me that would really tax the imagination."

Linguisitically, the Germans enjoy semantical advantage in this respect, as the German word for "coin machines" is "Automaten," but this country is fond of learning English and so-called "Americanisms" have fastened like barnacles onto all facets of everyday living, including, alas, the terms "slot machine" and "juke box."

The Germans can take little comfort in the fact that recurrent attempts to change such trade terms in the U. S. fall by the wayside.

EUROPEAN NEWS BRIEFS

German 1-Stop Trend Grows

WEST BERLIN-West German juke box distributors are rapidly revamping their operations to conform to the one-stop formula. The one-stop distributor operation is becoming standard operating procedure in West Germany, where the industry is fighting the costs-price squeeze with American industry techniques. For example, Helmut Rehbock, the AMI distributor in Hamburg, is operating a one-stop establishment measuring up to any of comparable size in the U. S. The feeling here is that the record distributors are neglecting the music box trade, and that it is the logical function of the distributor not only to supply the equipment and its maintenance, but also the disks. Moreover, German distributors are finding that records and equipment go hand in hand. Distributors who supply records to operators find that is easier to hold the operator as a customer for their equipment. Records, in brief, are a means of keeping the distributor in touch with his customers on a continuing basis.

France's Juke Box Count Up

PARIS-The French juke box count has risen to 20,000 under impact of improving economic conditions, according to government estimates. The De Gaulle government has succeeded in improving the foreign exchange situation to the point where U. S. equipment can now be imported into France free of restrictions. The 20,000 figure represents a rise of about 3,000 boxes in the last 18 months. This is considered remarkable in view of the fact that there has been a brisk replacement of vintage equipment. It is estimated that 60 per cent of French equipment dates back to 1953 and beyond. French juke box producers are winning an expanding share of the domestic market, but U. S. equipment dominates the field where price is not the major factor. Part of the juke box industry's optimism is due to stabilization of the tax situation. Operators have received assurance that the government is abandoning efforts to hike juke box taxes for the foreseeable future. In fact, the trend is now just the reverse. The government is promising producers to take all possible steps to unshackle the industry and enable it to compete more effectively against U. S. and German firms.

Swiss -Self-Policing Effective

ZURICH-Acrimony within the Swiss coin machine operating industry has all but subsided since operators established self-regulatory machinery two years ago. Industry leaders have unstinting praise for the ethics-policing organization, the Association of Swiss Coin Machine Operators. In the last year, thanks to the association, there have been less than a dozen serious disputes within the industry, and inflated and outright unscrupulous advertising has been checked. The association has broad authority to arbitrate disputes involving location contracts for equipment and competitive conditions. Prior to establishment of the association, the Swiss industry had been plagued by a mass of fraudulent advertising of juke boxes and other coin-operated equipment.

Kid Rides in W. Berlin Plans

WEST BERLIN-The city of West Berlin is considering a proposal to underwrite the installation of kiddie ride arcades to finance child welfare projects. Under one proposal, the arcades would be operated mainly in conjunction with fairs and other special events. Other proposals would establish such arcades as a permanent municipal revenue-producing activity. The arcades would include not only rides but also nurseryrhyme juke boxes, and novelty games such as the parrot playback, a tape-recorder inside a large parrot model which tapes conversations and plays them back automatically. Proceeds would be used to build play areas and finance other child welfare activities for Berlin youngsters. Additional revenue would be obtained from sale of advertising on walls of the arcade.

NYBVA, Secret Service Team Up to Battle Slugs

Bulk Vendors Association is waging an active fight to stem the tide of slugs in bulk vending machines.

Monday (6) an 11-man committee of the NYBVA met here with U. S. Secret Service Special Agent Thomas Smith in an attempt to solve the problem. Smith said he would seek a ruling from the United States attorney to prohibit the manufacture of bingo tokens which could be used to activate which had been used as slugs in penny vending machines.

According to Harold Folz, chairman of the NYBVA committee, most of the slug problem comes from bingo tokens. The group will meet with the manufacturers of

NEW YORK-The New York | the tokens and suggest ways to avoid the situation.

Folz explained that the counterfeiting law prohibits the manufacture of coins "similar" to those minted by the federal government. However, "similar" is a vague term.

Bags of Tokens

The New York operators appeared at the Monday meeting armed with bags of bingo tokens machines. Each operator told ONCE UPON A TIME, Rochell and the Candles, Swingle' 623 Smith of his problems, and each offered suggestions as to how the situation might be remedied.

Folz emphasized that the op-

Coin Burglars

MEMPHIS - Memphis police caught a burglary ring last week which specialized in robbing coin machines, and the Memphis Music Association's burglary prevention committee chairman commended police on their fine work.

Caught was a gang of 12 youths, most of them under 21, with their pockets crammed with small change from vending machines, amusement games and phonographs, Detective Chief Charles F. Young said.

Chief Young said the arrests, after several weeks of work, solved a number of restaurant break-ins and coin machine burglaries.

Other Leads A large quantity of money was recovered and a number of leads obtained on other possible suspects, police said.

Drew Canale, owner of Canale Amusement Company and Canale Tobacco Distributors, Inc., chairman of the coin machine operators committee which has been working with police to reduce burglaries, termed the arrests "an outstanding job of police work.

burglars for more than a year now since our concerted drive began to reduce them.

"It has helped all operators in reducing their loss to thieves. I am sure the effective work in catching more and more such burglars will make them think twice before doing it again."

Canale said many operators have burglar alarms set up. In other spots which do not have them, police put a still watch after two or three burglaries in a short period, to nab the offenders.

German Phono Mfrs.' U. S. Sales Dream Fades Out as American Tariffs Tighten

By OMER ANDERSON

HAMBURG - The U. S. gold gap has all but killed German juke box producers' dreams of finding an American market.

The balance of payments plight means, according to the German industry consensus, that the U. S tarriff on imported juke boxes will remain at the present level or even be raised. But nobody-but nobody-here now looks for even a token slash in the tariff.

The fact is, despite sustained ballyhooing of West German capability for a U. S. juke box invasion, the Germans have failed dismally. Analysis of producer-byproducer sales to the U.S. market shows that no German producer has succeeded in making a dent in the U. S. market.

Question..?

How do you convert a modern monaural phonograph to stereo?

Here are your answers!

No. 1

Some modern phonographs just can't be converted. The operator has to buy a stereophonic phono at great added expense when a location owner wants stereophonic music.

Some other so-called modern phonographs can be converted but expensive parts like powerpacks, amplifiers and the like are needed. For the Operator this means increased overhead in parts and labor. The result is less profits.

With the really modern Rock-Ola Regis, you can convert from monaural to stereo play at the flip-of-a-switch. All Rock-Ola phonographs have dual-channel amplifiers and stereo compatible cartridges. The exclusive "Tri-Fonic" switch gives you Monaural, Stereo or Reinforced Stereo sound at no extra cost. Now you really get three machines for less than you used to pay for just a monaural phonograph.

The all-purpose Regis give you all these extra features for greater profits:

(((REVERBA-SOUND))) - Exciting new sound reverberation system gives concert realism in all locations.

331/3-45 RPM DUAL SPEED INTERMIX CHANGER

-New Rock-Ola dual-speed changer plays 331/3-45 RPM record intermixed in any sequence for complete flexibility.

ROCK-OLA'S DEPENDABILITY—Every Rock-Ola phonograph carries the world famous Rock-Ola tradition of quality and dependability for longer life and greater profits.

GEMA is taking action to disassociate itself from controversial practices of the BIEM, and indications are that the cartel office will not prefer charges against the artists' organization.

Meantime, the juke box industry continues at loggerheads with GEMA and the allied organization of performing artists. GEMA is seeking to hike its juke box royalties, and the performing artists are striving to compel the operators to pay them separate royalties for recorded music played in juke boxes.

The operators, with the bloom gone from the juke box boom, have served notice, however, that they will fight a last-ditch battle against higher royalty payments to GEMA and against paying anything to the performing artists.

The operators have just reaffirmed their stand that it is up to GEMA to split its take with the performing artists. GEMA has been warned, in effect, against killing the goose laying the golden

Op's Interests Boost Game Route

DENVER-Certainly one of the most unusual games operators in the Denver area is Charles Cousins, a veteran of some 18 years in the field.

Cousins, an official of the Colorado Licensed Beverage Dealers' Association, is one of the first Negroes to be elected to such an important position, largely because of his own background as the operator of the 715 Tavern in Denver's Five Points district. Along with bar management, and a games route which covers most of the North Downtown Denver area, Cousins is also a busy real estate broker, maintaining a separate office for this purpose, and personally responsible for management of some 217 apartment units, owned jointly by his father, Charles Cousins Sr., and himself.

Cousins became interested in games operation shortly after World War II, and soon became a major figure in all varieties of games. He emphasizes bowlers, which have remained consistently popular in tavern locations everywhere throughout the Colorado capital.

No Music

Even though his games are in the same locations desired by most phonograph operators, and although his day-to-day contacts with bar owners in the association would make it seem logical to double up into the phonograph field, Cousins has remained consistently in games alone.

Part of this decision, of course, was based on the relatively high play and returns which games show, and part on the fact that he can rotate his games from one stop to another every few months and keep earnings at a consistently higher pitch than would usually be possible with phonographs.

As an indication of success which Cousins has enjoyed, he is a constant traveler, having visited Mexico several times, and in 1960 touring England, France, Italy, Spain, Portugal and Switzerland. The Denver operator is an avid amateur photographer, using top-flight equipment, and shoo pictures wherever he goes, with the result that I has album after album of shots made in Europe focus his location owners' interest.

Doing most of his service himself, "simply b cause I like to and because it is hard to find anyon else to do it," Cousins frequently works a 15 of 16-hour day, but doesn't hesitate to change to pair of coveralls and tear into the innards of balky bowler or pinball.

This brings him a lot of good will, and probably responsible for the fact that many Cousins' locations have been "volunteered"-wi no sales effort on his part. Paying cash for equi ment, and setting up a well-balanced depreciation program, Cousins has prospered in the games fie by "not getting too big to handle the job myself

Eisenberg to Begin Charm Production

By IRINA MIHALEGA

CLEVELAND - A local bulk vending operator is entering the charm manufacturing field and is readying a new line for introduction at the National Vendors Association convention in Chicago this week.

Herman Eisenberg, Confection Sales Company, is tooling several new items in the charm manufacturing line and is building up stock in the following charms: Diamond, Pearl, Siren and Action Rings, Locks, Hats, Pepper and Salt Shakers and Spinet Puzzles, also, Sport Metals and Roulette Dice Games, both of which are Eisenberg's own designs.

All of the above merchandise was selected because of its appeal to older children and adults. According to Eisenberg, items under consideration for his manufacture must fall within four categoriesthey must have a novelty value, a

Stamp Vender Installations Turn Marginal Stops Into Profitable Ones

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Beefing up with stamp machines what would otherwise be only marginally profitable locations for bulk vending units has made a difference in collections, according to Fred Millard, veteran bulk route operator here.

Millard, who retired to Phoenix several years ago from the East, and went into bulk operations only after he found retirement a bit chafing, has gone the route, learning the business from scratch, and developing many solid ideas of his own which have kept his operations surprisingly profitable.

One of them was plenty of diversity, which he insures through vending tab gum, mix, charms, and capsules from separate machines in the same

Postage Stamps

It was not until recently, however, that Millard began experimenting with postage stamp vending. Up to this time he had felt that stamp-vending was a field all of its own, requiring specialized techniques that would be difficult to blend it with his usual route spots. A few experiments, however, convinced Millard that he was on the wrong track. and that switching over to stamp machines, as well as gum, nuts, capsules and charms, would pay

Oddly enough, stamp machines have proved particularly helpful in supermarkets. However, even though a supermarket is not the sort of location where it might be expected that shoppers would be interested, Millard found that his stamp venders sell a larger percentage than in other more ideal locations-probably because marketing housewives appreciate the opportunity to take care of postage stamp needs simultaneously with food marketing.

All of the supermarket spots in which he has installed stamp venders along with bulk venders have worked out well,

Increase Collections

In fact, there has been an additional value derived from stamp machines, inasmuch as they invariably increase the collections from gum and candy venders. A customer who stops for a couple of stamps usually is digging in pocketbook or pocket for change, and since the coins are already out, pops one or two into the vending machines. Net results have been increases of anywhere from a modest 5 and 10 per cent to as much as 50 per cent.

Millard surveyed most of his location owners on the idea of adding postage stamps before going into the field. Significantly, he found that numerous location owners who had not been interested in stamp machines when approached by specialists in stamp vending were willing to entertain the idea when Millard presented it-undoubtedly because long-term relations with him had built up the "personal touch."

The skyrocketing population of Phoenix has been a really important factor in building quick success in stamp-vending, as well as in other types of vending. The Arizona desert city, with its healthy climate and freedom from recessions and economic troubles, has meant a steadily increasing flow of newcomers, all of whom are writing letters home.

GERMAN PLANTS INSTALL BOXES TO FIGHT FATIGUE

KIEL, West Germany — The old English nursery rhyme. "She Shall Have Music Wherever She Goes" is being altered by the German coin machine industry to "He and She Will Have Music Wherever They Work."

Based on scientific studies of "fatigue," German industrial plants are experimenting with tandem installation of juke boxes and automatic food service equipment. One of the largest inplant feeding programs is being conducted here at Kiel by the Howald Shipyard. Studies show that food eaten to the accompaniment of juke box music relieves fatigue quicker than the consumption of food without music.

This finding is true of music generally, but German industrial executives prefer the juke box in certain situations to background music systems for a variety of factors. At the moment background music is a controversial commodity in this country. Executives are persuaded that music can be used to increase production by relieving fatigue, but they hesitate to commit themselves on the mass basis necessitated by background music. Furthermore, not all executives are persuaded that background music is suitable to any and all production situations, and on a continuous or prolonged basis.

The juke box is widely preferred as a "half-way house" to background music. With the juke box, the employer commits himself to nothing, but still has the opportunity to study the effect of music on production. Some industry optimists believe there is a tremendous potential market in industrial juke box locations, mainly in conjunction with in-plant feeding facilities.

only about five miles short of that delivered by the foreignmade vehicle and they feel that a better comparison could be made were not the Detroit product automatic. Croutch said that the comfort is worth the little additional fuel cost.

The new vehicle has other features which these operators like. The first is the fact that the back doors are taller, permitting the loading of four, maybe five, consoles into the trunk part. On the foreignmade one, only the top of a dutch-door arrangement could be opened. The new truck has more cubic feet of space and the door on the right side is wider. Croutch said that he can now carry more globes, merchandise and stands than ever before.

Weiner looks at the new truck from a cost point of view. The extra gasoline charge does not bother him. He likes, however, the fact that service can be obtained from any local franchised dealer and almost any gasoline service station or garage can make adjustments. Parts, too, are plentiful and available even in the smaller cities through which these operators pass in their work.

Radio Helps The new van has been equipped with radio, which is entertaining as well as keeping the driver posted on freeway conditions. During the past few months, Peter Bochenek, a German youth who spent a year in the United States on a visa, was able to skirt traffic blocks when advised by the police or highway department over certain commercial radio stations.

Weiner and Croutch used the foreign-made van for five years and got excellent service. They will continue to operate it along with the new one. The problem now with the two vehicles is that each driver wants to take the one just here from Detroit.

CLEVELAND NOTES

Ken Weinberg, counsel for the Ohio Vendors Associations, reports that the Taxation Committee of the Ohio Senate is considering an amendment to the Food Service vending machines from the annual license fee, which, he claims, gives us an even broader exemption than we are enjoying under the present Health Department regulation, because they are going to write into the statute that all vending machines dispensing bulk gum or pan confections or nuts shall be exempt." According to Weinberg, the tax committee appears to be "favorably disposed" toward the amendment.

Steve Zsigrai has entered into the bulk vending field full time after years of part-time operation, and plans are being made for the expansion of his routes in and around Greater Cleveland. He feels the "lush and plush days" are over and attributes the slow business experienced today by many in business and industry to "getting back to normal times." Accordingly, his plans include devoting more time, investment and additional equipment to his bulk vending business.
