"The Coin Machines Merry-Go-Round"

By Bill Gersh

BINGO

It is interesting to note that with the Bingo ban on in New York and in other leading centers thruout the country that the clergy has some forward at the meeting of the New York State Legislature in Albany in defense of Bingo. Here's the statement of the Rev. John D. Bell of Brooklyn, N.Y., "It is lawful now to bet on a fugitive from a glue factory running inside a fence. Why should it be illegal to play an innocent game like Bingo? Gambling is not immoral if a man bets his own spending money." Two of the legislators also came out in favor of Bingo. They stated, "The game is being patronized in our communities by some of our finest people, and the proceeds have financed charities."

FINANCE CHARITIES

We must look to the future. We must think about winning public sentiment in our favor. You have just read what has happened in regard to the ban on Bingo before the New York State Legislature. After you've read that we hope that you will instantly and completely understand what we mean by helping to "finance charities". We don't just mean donating a game for an evening or two to some charitable organization. Nor do we mean for you to give a machine or two to some hospital or other institution. We mean for you and your association to get together and pick extremely worthy charities in your community, those that you know have the power and the gumption to get up and defend you, if and when you need such support, and donate a certain percentage of your weekly proceeds to those charities.

Before we go any further, remember that the present income tax and the further taxes being planned, will eat up any extra profits you are going to enjoy this year and coming years anyway. Therefore, rather than just hand it out, use it wisely, for your own benefit for today and for the future. Get back of noted charities. The churches in your city need money. Other organizations do, too. (Charitable donations are deductible from income tax). Get up on your hind legs at the next meeting of your association and propose that a certain percentage of the take be given to worthy charities. Not only from your end but also from the storekeeper's end. The location owner will simply have to play ball with you in such instance.

Take this action NOW. You have just read in our item on Bingo the statement of the Rev. John D. Bell. You have also read a statement of two of New York's Legislators regarding Bingo. Remember the part of their statement, "the proceeds have helped finance charities". It is important that you get the backing of the charities in your city for your own good. Not only for today - but for tomorrow, when the war is over and the manufacturers begin to produce equipment speedier than they ever did before. Equipment that will be bringing you profit from the tremendous amount of money the public have saved. Banks today are absolutely glutted with savings put there by war workers who look forward to a hard and temporary depression the moment the war is over and manufacturers lay off working while they tool up for new products. Remember that then, more than even now, you will need the support of outstanding organizations. And, IF YOU HAVE THE SUPPORT OF THE OUTSTANDING CHARITIES IN YOUR COMMUNITY - YOU'RE IN.

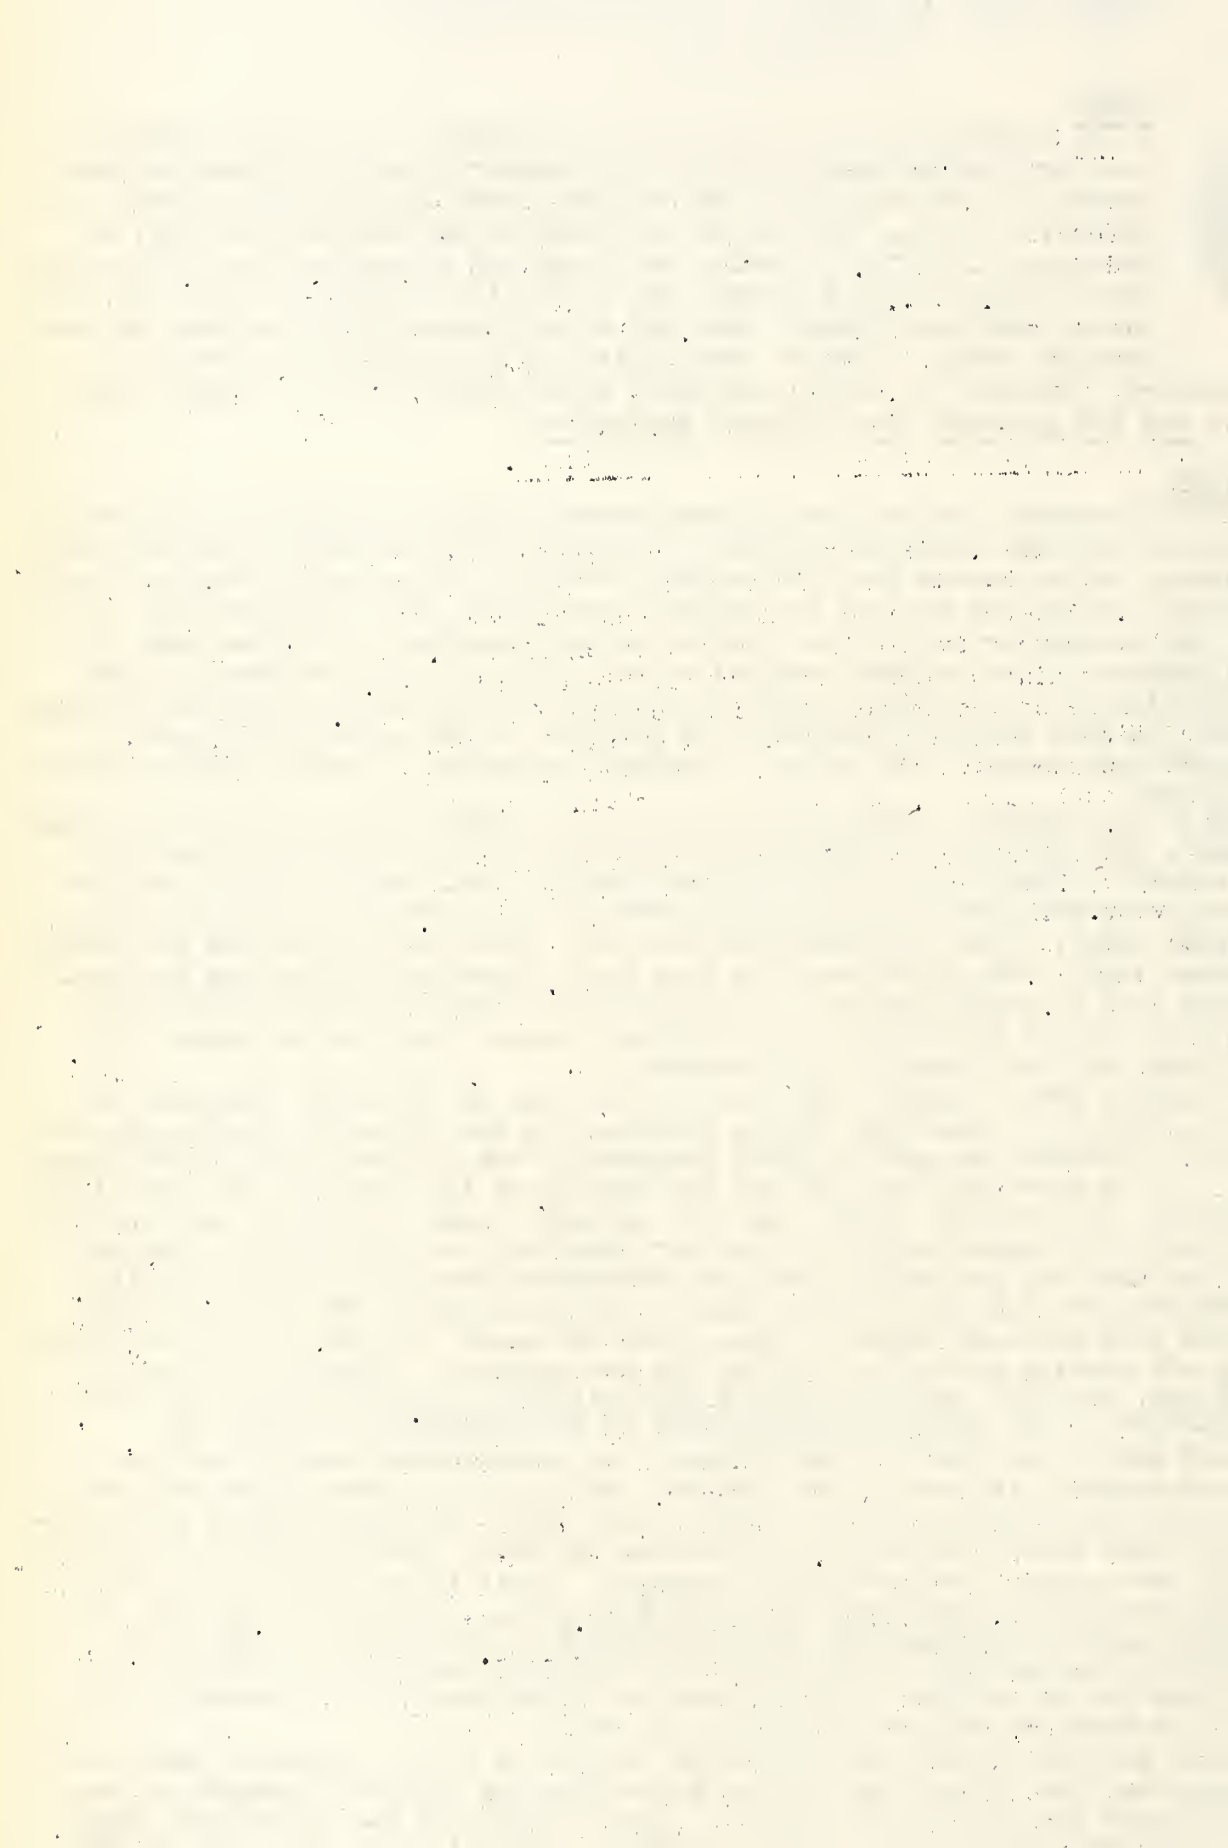

You'll need public sentiment in your favor. For, as machines come in hard and fast, many a new operator is going to be created. He's going to start right off the bat competing with you for your spots. We don't care what a hold you have on your locations or how good you think you are as a convincing salesman. There's always a better man just around the corner. Be honest with yourself. Admit these facts. A soldier with one arm can win a lot of sympathy from your locations. Get into action NOW. See that you and your association come out with a statement to the public to the effect that such and such charities will be given part of this and that day's receipts from your machines from now on, so that you will have the "blessings" of the proper people behind you for the duration and for long after the war.

The Cash Box has been urging our subscribers to get on a 30% commission basis with all average locations for in this way you can accumulate the necessary reserve to continue to lead in your territory after the war. Now we urge that our subscribers keep that territory open by doing what is necessary TODAY and winning the same sort of support that Bingo has won. And, you will admit, that this all again leads to the great necessity for a National Board of Trade for the coin machines industry.

"WHAT'S NEW?"

One of the toughest questions to answer is the one most frequently used in greeting in the coin machines industry. "What's Now?" Therefore, we feel that this question should become a part of our general news.

Sometime ago we reported on certain persons in this industry who envisioned the possibility of television in combination with the automatic phono and its use thru remote control. We stated that in our estimation the first of such instruments would probably have to be built by large manufacturers who would be financially able to make so great an investment and who would do so only because of the marvelous success of the coinphone in opening over 400,000 locations in the nation. The music equipment of the future would furnish the public either recorded music or sound-on-film on remote screens thru remote boxes on the insertion of the coin.

This past week from Washington comes the report of James Lawrence Fry, chairman of the FCC (Federal Communications Commission) wherein he described the radio broadcasting industry of today as in the "horse-and buggy" stage. His statements were to the effect that when the war is over we would see in each American home a radio that was interference-free, with perfect sound reception and color television. This super machine would be a combination of the best there is in frequency modulation sets and television receivers. In short, the music man can look forward to seeing the most unique equipment ever yet developed in his favor with the possibility that the entire record problem may yet be knocked into a cocked hat.

PAT-ON-THE-BACK DEPT.

Gib Bradshaw of Denver Distributing Co., Denver, Colo. writes, "Altho we have been a subscriber for only two weeks, we want to say we are completely "sold" on The Cash Box idea. We find the price list feature very valuable in trading and in making up our own price list." A letter in from Bill Milnor of Capitol Coin Machine Exchange, Washington, D.C., wherein Bill calls The Cash Box "a triumph". A phone call from Morris Hankin of Hankin Music Company, Atlanta, Ga., who calls The Cash Box, "An outstanding success."

HONORABLE MENTION

Our Honorable Mention Award will soon be mailed to: Harry Plissner of The Penny Arcade Co., Baltimore, Md., who approached the Red Cross in his city and pointed out how the coin machine operators of England were doing a magnificent job donating machines to the Red Cross units in hospitals thruout Great Britain for the entertainment of wounded and sick soldiers and that the American coin machine operators were willing to do the same. So forceful was his story that the matter is now before the national headquarters of the Red Cross in Washington and we shall hear further on it soon. Because Harry went out of his way to do something to benefit the entire industry and did so unselfishly - he is hereby given our Honorable Mention Award.

L'AFFAIRE PETRILLO

Our subscribers will admit that The Cash Box tried. Tried desperately hard to awaken the right kind of interest from among music men to L'Affaire Petrillo so that records would at least be made for the coin operated music industry. With complete and concerted support the problem might have been solved and records would now be made. You also read our scorching statements regarding the letter in which we were disowned by the record manufacturers.

Along comes one of the real thinkers in our business and gets mad. Mad enough to write one of our largest manufacturers regarding L'Affaire Petrillo. We have a copy of this letter. Take it from us, it's a masterpiece. It winds up with, "I certainly feel that our industry has too much at stake to let this matter go by default."

In short, he's telling this manufacturer that, if ever the music op needed representation, he needed it with Petrillo. He tells this manufacturer how much he detests Petrillo and his extortionist methods. He realizes that the music op needs records and some sort of adjustment should have been made. And, my music operating friends, where are you today? Right back where L'Affaire Petrillo started seven months ago. Isn't it time for YOU, too, to GET MAD?

MAIL DELAYS

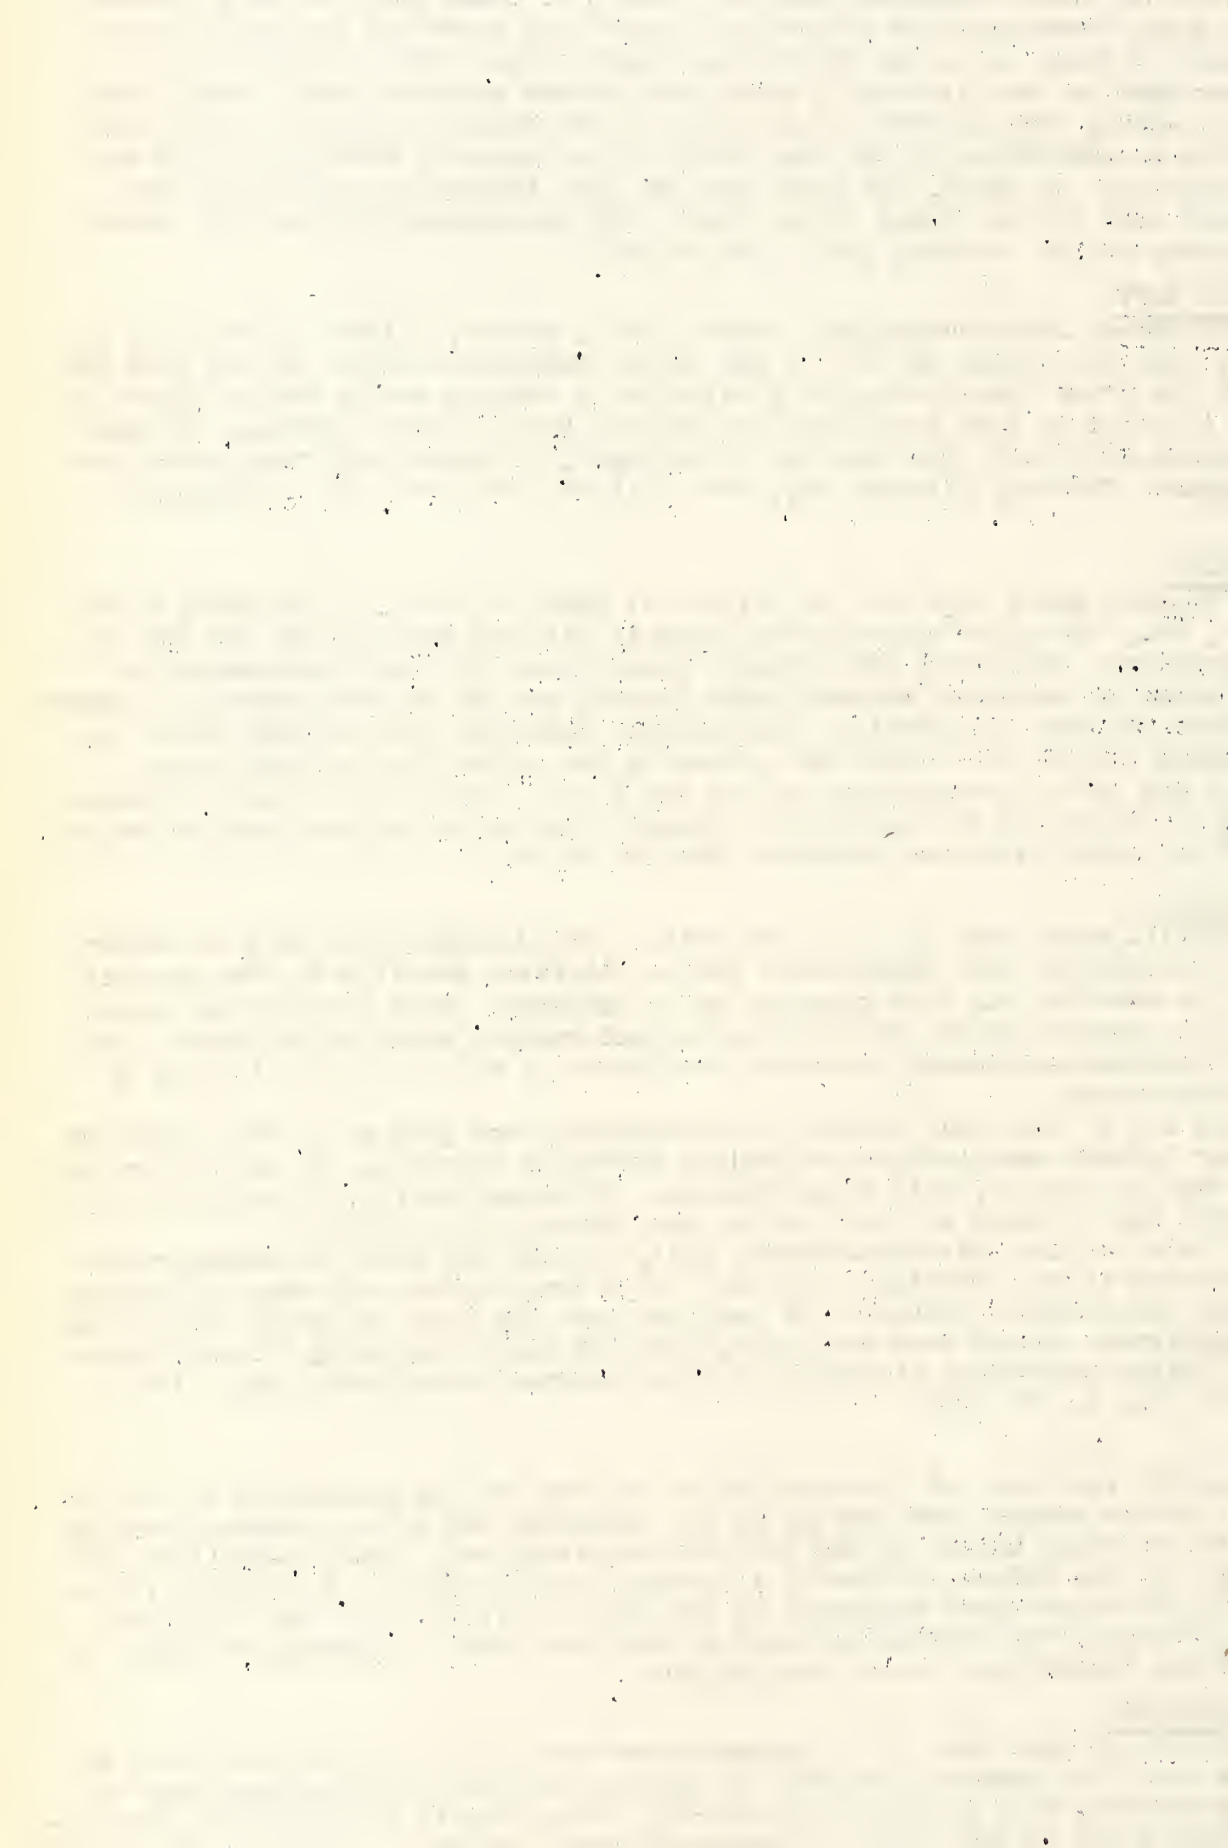

If you don't receive your copy of The Cash Box on the day you are accustomed to receiving it the Post Office advises that anyone of the following may be the reason: 1-Trains are running late and under burden of war load are upsetting mail times. 2-Airlines are short of planes and the volume of airmail is growing greater daily. 3-The Post Office has lost over 25,000 experienced employees to the armed services. The result is that overnight mail delivery, the service on which so many have come to depend, no longer is so regular. It may become less so as time goes on.

NITE SPOTTING MACHINES

Coinmen will be wise to nite spot their equipment now that there is a national move under way to have retailers conserve manpower by opening later and staying open late to accommodate war workers. With so many women working these days it is imperative that retailers adopt late hours to take care of shopping demand. Government agencies are now in a campaign urging retailers to accept this fact. Coinmen, who follow in the footsteps of the retailers, should now plan about nite spotting machines to capture this late play.

WOMEN MECHANICS

Some months ago we advised that women mechanics were on their way into the coin machines business. Again we urge you, while you still have mechanics around to teach newcomers, to get these mechanically minded gals into the place and teach them servicing and repairing of equipment. You will find them loyal, efficient and anxious to please. The fact that the U.S. must raise the labor force from 59,800,000 to about 85,000,000 and 1,900,000 of this new force will be women means that you are going to lose more help whether you like it or not. Train the gals to step into the job now.

This news report comes out of Jersey City where supplies are being purchased for the Army, "It probably will drive Mayor La Guardia kuh-razy, but Uncle Sam has supplied his soldiers with 750,000 pairs of dice", according to Col. Henry B. Barry C.O. of the Army's huge quartermaster depot here.....And you've probably read about the fact that the Army Air Force Technical Training Command at Greensboro, N.C. has notified local authorities it needs 70 pinball machines to be converted for use in technical training and aptitude tests. So far the local D.A. was only able to turn over 10 which he had seized in former raids.....Sam Weinstein of Mutual Music Machine Co., Philly, gave two phonos away last week. One to the British Seaman's Club and the other to the USO. Nice work, Sam.....Mike Murves ("The Arcade King") was interviewed by one of the Navy's officers regarding certain coin equipment they want to use for educational purposes.....Mrs. I. Berman of Economy Supply Co., N.Y., steals a look at that photo of Naval Cadet Jackie Berman every so often during each business day. She keeps it on her desk.

Meyer (Parky) Parkoff of Atlantic Distrib. Co., N.Y.C. joins the ranks of The Cash Box subscribers and wades right into action with some nice buys.....Leon Berman of N.Y. Supply Co. has become known as the "Ball King" because of all those wood balls he's shipping these days.....Bill Milner of Capitol Coin Machine Exch., Wash., D.C., gives us a nice pat-on-the-back with his renewal.....Nate Gottlieb of D. Gottlieb & Co. informs us his brother Maury in Dallas is anxious to become a subscriber and at the same time Nate wants to buy all Gottlieb pins you may have.....Jules Olshein of Albany, N.Y., wants pin cartons, new or used.....Si Redd lets us hear from him from Philadelphia, Miss. (of all places) and promises to meet us in Boston, Mass. (of all places).....H.R. (Perk) Perkins of Buckley Trading Post, Chi., urges that you advise him of whatever equip. you have for sale.....Cy Glickman of Phila. enters into The Cash Box ranks and reports he's busy doing revamp work.

Henry Lemke of Detroit, we hear, was swamped with the demand for Photoframes and Photomatics.....Morris Hankin of Atlanta, Ga. is in town to hear "Junior" Rabkin say his "I Yama Man Today" speech.....Dan Wertz of Richmond got acquainted with Frank Engel of Philly this past week on his way back home. And both guys liked each other.....A.J. Dursell of New Britain, Conn. wants all your Home Run '40's.....John M. Stuart of Paris, Ky. wants to buy all your consoles.....Jack Kauffman of K.C. Novelty, Phila., will buy all the equip. you have.....Ben Lazar of Pittsburgh is seeking late model pins.....Willie Levey of Charleston, W.Va., is seeking Buckley boxes.....Nat Rake of Philly wants pins.....Ron Rood of Souther Music Co., Orlando, Fla. (what a nice place to be right now) will buy all your arcade equip.....Melody Music, El Paso, Tex., have plenty good buys on hand right this minute.....Nat Schoen of Portland, Ore. wants consoles.... The George Vend. Co. of Catasauqua, Pa. is selling.....Bill Nathanson of L.A. asks us when we're going to buy a pen - he'll get accustomed to that red crayon we use.

Archie A. Berger of Philly pops into town.....The Daval Co., Chi. enter The Cash Box ranks and open by selling Veeder-Root counters.....Joe Calcutt will be on the Back Cover of the Spring Special.....Joe Rubin of Utica claims he has (or is it "had" now) 500 pins.....Gib Bradshaw of Denver amazed at the speedy way The Cash Box dug up those new Commandos for him.....Harry Plissner of Baltimore has diggers at a price.....James J. Thompson of Pittsburgh has some neat buys.....Need a good peanut roaster or popcorn vendor - see P.K. in Cambridge, O.....A.B.T., Chi. (good old Walter Tratsch) is doing a terrific job repairing coin chutes.....Morrie Ginsberg of Atlas Novelty, Chi. offers 4-Bells - they'll swamp the guy.....Ed. Heath of Norwood, Ga. came in with late model pins, wonder how long they lasted?.....J.R. (Pete) Pieters of Kalamazoo offers a perfect wireless music set-up reasonable.

Ben Axelrod of Oliver Novelty, St. Loo, always has some buys on hand.....Fred Gaunt of General Music, Los Angeles, joins The Cash Box ranks and hits 'em right between the eyes with his first ad.....Bill Rodstein brings The Cash Box to the Philly pin meet.....Cliff Cook of Cliff Nov. Co., Miami, reads The Cash Box from cover to cover - and then goes out to collect.....Maxie Lipin of Allied, Detroit, is planning a trip to the west because his "Coin-O-Tone" needle is clicking so well out there.....Earl Montgomery of S and M, Memphis, sends us a nice letter, which we do appreciate, Earl..... J.A. (Mac) McIlhenny of Redd Distrib. Co., Boston, threatens to come down to N.Y. to see old friends again.....Paul Davis of Syracuse in with more music buys.

John L. Jones of Jones Sales, Hickory, N.C., back with late Bally 1-Balls and Mills F.V.'s.....Sparks Specialty, Soperton, Ga., in with some neat equip.....Can't stop that Bill Marmer of Sicking, Inc., Cincinnati from offering 'em more slots and consoles every week. He must have a million of 'em.....Bill Burt of Wichita tells us his tube stock is going down - so you better hurry.....Max Berenson of Newport Music, Chicago, has Photomatics.....Charley Harris of Cleveland Hts., O., has plenty equip.....Hy Zorinsky of H.Z. Vending & Sales, Omaha, pays us a sweet compliment in his ad in the Mar. 23 issue. Thanks, Hy.....Dan Stewart of Salt Lake City wants to buy and is selling plenty too.....Joe Hanna of Utica has Shuffle Boards for your tavern spots if you need 'em.....Angelo Claport of Rex. Amuse., Syracuse, has pinballs - grab him.....Sam London of Milwaukee coin, Milwaukee, offers rebuilt gold chromed slots.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and change. From the first settlers to the present day, the nation has evolved through various stages of development. The early years were marked by exploration and the establishment of colonies. The American Revolution led to the birth of a new nation, and the subsequent years saw the expansion of territory and the growth of industry.

THE EARLY YEARS

The first European settlers arrived in North America in the early 17th century. They established colonies in the eastern part of the continent, and their interactions with the Native Americans shaped the early history of the region.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

The American Revolution was a pivotal moment in the nation's history. It was a struggle for independence from British rule, and it resulted in the creation of the United States. The revolution was fought between 1775 and 1783, and it was a defining event in the nation's early history.

THE WESTERN EXPANSION

The western expansion of the United States was a process that began in the late 18th century and continued through the mid-19th century. It was a period of rapid growth and discovery, as settlers moved westward and new territories were acquired.

THE CIVIL WAR

The Civil War was a conflict that lasted from 1861 to 1865. It was a struggle over the issue of slavery, and it resulted in the preservation of the Union and the abolition of slavery.

THE RECONSTRUCTION

The Reconstruction period was a time of rebuilding and reform in the years following the Civil War. It was a period of significant change, as the nation sought to heal the wounds of war and address the issues of race and equality.

THE MODERN ERA

The modern era of the United States is characterized by rapid technological advancement and economic growth. It is a time of global influence and leadership, and it has shaped the course of the nation's history.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be clearly documented and verified. The second section details the various methods used to collect and analyze data, highlighting the need for consistency and precision. The third part describes the results of the experiments, showing a clear trend in the data that supports the initial hypothesis. The final section concludes the study, summarizing the key findings and suggesting areas for further research.

In the first section, we explore the theoretical background of the study, drawing on previous research to establish a solid foundation. The second section provides a detailed description of the experimental setup, including the materials used and the procedures followed. The third section presents the data collected during the experiments, which shows a strong correlation between the variables being studied. The fourth section discusses the implications of these findings, suggesting that the results have significant implications for the field. Finally, the conclusion summarizes the overall findings and offers suggestions for future work.

The study was conducted over a period of six months, during which time a large amount of data was collected and analyzed. The results of the study are presented in the following sections, showing a clear and consistent pattern. The data indicates that there is a significant relationship between the variables being studied, and this relationship is supported by the experimental results. The findings of the study are discussed in detail in the following sections, highlighting the key points and implications.

The first part of the study focuses on the theoretical aspects, while the second part deals with the practical application of the theory. The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted on the 12th of the month. The data indicates a significant increase in the rate of reaction when the temperature was raised from 20°C to 30°C. This is consistent with the Arrhenius equation, which predicts that the rate constant increases exponentially with temperature.

In the first series of experiments, the reaction was carried out at a constant concentration of 0.1 M. The rate of reaction was measured by the change in absorbance over time. The results show that the reaction is first order with respect to the reactant. The half-life of the reaction was found to be approximately 15 minutes at 20°C and 10 minutes at 30°C.

The second series of experiments was designed to determine the effect of the concentration of the reactant on the rate of reaction. The results show that the rate of reaction is directly proportional to the concentration of the reactant, indicating a first-order reaction. The rate constant was determined to be 0.0067 min⁻¹ at 20°C and 0.0134 min⁻¹ at 30°C.

The activation energy of the reaction was determined from the Arrhenius plot. The plot of ln k versus 1/T shows a linear relationship, with a slope of -10000 K. This indicates that the activation energy of the reaction is 100 kJ/mol. The pre-exponential factor, A, was determined to be 1.0 x 10¹⁰ min⁻¹.

The mechanism of the reaction is proposed to be a two-step process. In the first step, the reactant undergoes a slow, rate-determining step to form an intermediate. In the second step, the intermediate reacts rapidly to form the final product. The overall reaction is first order with respect to the reactant.

The results of the experiments are summarized in the following table. The data shows that the rate of reaction increases with temperature and concentration, and that the reaction is first order with respect to the reactant. The activation energy of the reaction is 100 kJ/mol.

The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted on the 12th of the month.
