CASH FLASH BRINGS TAX SMASH

Twice in the past year, The Cash Box has repeated its editorial entitled "Quiet". This editorial proved one of the most popular to have yet appeared in this industry. Its popularity is based on the fact that this is the time for this trade to contain within itself its business transactions, its earning capacity and all other matters which might be seen or fall into, the hands of blue-noses, publicity seeking politicians, tax seeking legislators, or the any others who can harm this trade with this sort of knowledge.

Surely, with the tax situation so seriously desperate, and continuing to grow more and more alarming each day thruout the nation, this is the time for - quiet. This is not the time for anyone to openly advise the world the amount of money his equipment is earning. Many will recall what this meant in one state legislature some months ago when a ranting, raving tax bug got up on the assembly floor and wildly waved a page from a publication wherein tremendous cash figures were openly printed regarding the earning power of music machines and other equipment of this industry.

The result, in that specific case, was to bring about a demand from the majority of the assembled members of this state's legislature for a monstrous share of the gross receipts from music machines and other equipment. Tho this was eventually defeated, much effort and energy, not to speak of the sleepless nights of worry that many of these men underwent in the efforts they pursued to offset this most confiscatory and severest sort of taxation against this industry. (And a demand for a share of the gross receipts is becoming the national vogue among the tax bugs.)

Everywhere in the nation, gradually and surely, tax bugs are standing up on the floors of their assemblies and senates and yowling their heads off that their state obtain a big share of the gross receipts from coin operated equipment. Some such taxes are already in effect. Others have been defeated. But as even these coinmen who have been successful in defeating such legislation admit, tax bills of this type will continue to reappear at each session of their state legislatures and they fear that eventually such taxes will become fact.

It is therefore most treacherous, and an actual crime against all in this business, for anyone in this industry to flash cash proceeds in the faces of such men who are so intent on severely taxing this trade. It is certainly even more dangerous to openly advertise that certain equipment will earn such tremendous amounts of money that trucks will prove necessary to bring the cash to the bank. All this but irritates and incites the tax bugs. All this is what brings about demands by these tax bugs that their states, counties, cities, villages and hamlets share in the gross income from the machines of this industry.

Tho twice before The Cash Box has urged quiet on this trade, and has made it its own policy to keep this medium strictly confidential and confined to the members of this business only, it feels now that such warning should once again be published. Many seem to have again become lax these past few months and have brought harm upon themselves unknowingly by too much open discussion of their business affairs and ostentatious display of their earnings. Not only have they brought harm upon themselves, but upon all in this industry.

Thruout the nation there is a great urgency forced upon the average legislator to obtain funds so as to be able to take care of the millions of service men who will soon return to this country. These politicians realize that only by quick action will they be able to set up a taxation program necessary to assure their communities and states, and the nation as well, the tax monies for public works projects and other works programs, so that the returned veterans will not again have to stand cold and windy street corners peddling apples.

This is something that everyone in this industry, too, wishes to avoid. That is why the average coinman is willing, and even happy, to pay higher license fees on his equipment, as long as he feels that this license tax money will be used for the best benefits of these service men as well as for the good and welfare of his own community.

But no one wants to pay confiscatory nor iniquitable taxes. No one wants to suddenly find himself out of business because of such high taxation that he cannot continue to profitably operate his business. This very thing, this inequitable and confiscatory taxation, is being brought about by the men in this industry who, tho they openly oppose it, unconsciously flash cash in the eyes of their neighbors.

When this sort of thing reaches a publication which can be obtained by any politician in the country by simply purchasing it from a newsstand, then trouble starts to brewing. The case histories of resultant political actions are national knowledge. One after another reports have been received from coinmen all over the nation, as the 1945 state legislative sessions came into being, that tax bugs were appendaging reports from certain media to their bills, showing where this industry was earning so much money that it could stand up under the severest kind of taxation - a share of the gross receipts.

Again The Cash Box urges the members of this industry to quiet concerning their businesses and their earnings. This is not the time to openly advertise anything about big money. This is not the time to even discuss earnings, especially where strangers to this trade might hear them. And certainly, all will admit, that this sort of information is something which should never appear in print - unless the members of this trade are anxious to commit business suicide.

It must be firmly impressed on the men in this business that tho present license fees may not seem too difficult to pay, the post-war period will bring about much revision and adjustment to this belief. And unless some of the license fees now being obtained by states, cities, counties, villages and hamlets are cut down, many machines simply won't be able to continue to operate. Everyone knows what this will mean to the future of this industry.

This is the very reason why there is a tax commission at work in Washington at this time studying how best to lower taxation all over the nation. That is also why there has been a demand by the President to Congress that all taxes be cut immediately after the war, so that free and private enterprise can once again come into being. And that is also why The Cash Box is urging this industry to create a National Tax Council to protect itself from rampaging tax bugs and bring them into line logically, by common sense reasoning, to prove to them that high taxation simply knocks out business colder than a dead fish and does not bring increased revenue.

Uncle Sam learned the lesson of diminishing economic returns by overtaxing the jewelry and fur industries. He is also learning more lessons each day in many other fields. He realizes that while this war is on and war workers pockets are lined with unusually high wages that he will continue to receive a goodly share while no merchandise is being offered for sale. But he is also shrewd enough to realize that once there is enough manpower available to again create competitive wage scales he will then have to revise his present high taxation program downward to take care of the lower wages the average worker will be earning.

This strikes right to the heart of this coin operated machines industry. With less money in his pocket the average man is not a better customer for coin machines. Therefore, if taxes are high on the equipment of this industry, and earning power is less, the simple and logical answer is - a most complete halt to all profit for this business. And that cannot be disputed.

But, if the men in this business continue to flash large rolls of bills, openly advertise the fact that the equipment of this industry is bringing in truck loads of money, no politico in the nation can be convinced that this industry should not be taxed higher than it already is. And it is common knowledge that the majority of communities thruout the nation are severely overtaxing this industry - with demand for even greater share of coin machine income popping up in city councils, state legislatures and village boards every day.

There's an old horse-sense expression which runs, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure". And that is just what the members of this industry must adopt now - and rapidly. Unless the men in this business learn about the necessity for quiet, as well as for confidential interchange of their business conditions and relationships, they will be walking into more and heavier taxation every day.

This is not the time to flash cash. This is not the time to speed flashy cars thru the streets. This is not the time to openly advertise "big money" earnings. This is not the time to have the inner workings and earnings of this business discussed. This is not the time to bring down the wrath and vengeance of tax bugs upon the head of this industry to such an extent that it will become the national vogue to take 30% or 50% of the gross income from the machines of this business. This is instead the time for quiet.

ARE THERE MORE NEW RECORD DEALERS?

Possibly the strangest, and certainly the most puzzling part of the entire inequitable record distribution situation for the members of this coin operated music machines industry, is the fact that the record distributors continue to most vociferously state that they are NOT appointing any more record dealers.

This has been told to one music operator after another. And one operator after another has been cut off from "dealer" prices. Today, 75% to 90% of the music operators in the nation must buy their records from retail stores and pay consumer's prices, even tho prior to the war these men were on a privileged dealer basis with the record firms and their distributors.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating", is an old, old, worn out expression, but typical of what has been going on in record distribution. The record distributors who have been cutting operators off dealer classifications and thereby forcing these men to buy at retail, are the very same people who have appointed over 50% more retail store dealers since the war in almost every city in the nation and over 100% more dealers since 1940. These figures can be verified in the Classified Red Books.

In New York City's Manhattan borough, where only 37 retail record stores were listed in the Red Book in 1940, there are now 79 retail record dealers listed. This is an increase of over 100%. Since December, 1941, when the war started, there is an increase of over 50% in retail record stores listed in the Manhattan Red Book.

As far as wholesalers in the record business are concerned, there were only 7 of these listed in 1940. Today there are 58 listed. In 1941 there were only 29 listed. This should give this trade some idea of the tremendous upsurge there has been in retail and wholesale dealer set-ups.

Therefore, the record distributors' statement that he is not creating any more dealers must be taken with a very, very gigantic and even mountainous grain of salt. This statement, which he has been continually making to the coin operated music machines man, simply means that he is desirous of cutting the coinman off the dealer listing and forcing him to buy at consumers prices from now on in.

It is interesting to note that these Manhattan figures are typical of Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, Dallas, Los Angeles, Wichita, Omaha and dozens of other cities thruout the country. They definitely prove that the record distributor, who was built up to his present position by the music machines operator, is no longer interested in the automatic phono field and now looks to the "possible" future home market to get him the sales he wants.

The average, big time record distributor doesn't even like to talk about the "juke box" man. He becomes embarrassed when business dealings with these men are brought up to him in front of his family and friends. He actually dodges meeting coinmen. He likes everyone to believe that his business is solely confined to the upper sphere music stores and that he, himself, is the purest of lily-white lilies.

This is not the time for the music machines operator to back water. This is the time to punch harder than ever before at these people who were brought out of the worst slump of despair in their history by the automatic music machines industry. This is the time to make these sort of people remember that when the war is all over and peace again sets in that they will once again want to do "big" business with the men in this field, for then they will have the strong competition which their present actions and tactics have brought upon them.

There is no doubt that they will, at that time, come out with statements to this trade explaining, "Now, my friendly friends, that the war is over, we can again supply you with all the records you want." But will they then mean records that have to be purchased from Jones' Furniture Store, Jimmy's Cigar Courter, Bess's Ten Cent Emporium, Smith's Dry Goods House and Eddie's Appliance Establishment, or direct from them at dealer's prices on the old basis of sending a few samples in first for test with the privilege of returning those not wanted?

There is no need to go much deeper into this matter for the members of this coin operated music machines industry. It is completely and openly apparent as to just what these record distributors are doing during this war period, whether their manufacturers wish to believe the true facts or not.

But what is most interesting is what the music machines operator will do when the war is over? Will he crawl back and take the same, smooth, oily line he got before? Or will he, for once, stand up on his hind legs and hand it right back to the guy that pushed him around when he most needed him?

What do you think?

"TALKING OUT LOUD"

EASING OF CURBS V-E DAY STIRS TRADE

Regardless of Optimistic Byrnes' Report Trade Leaders See No New Machines For Sometime After General Reconversion

NEW YORK—First radio reports which came on the air this past Saturday advising the nation that War Mobilization and Reconversion Director James F. Byrnes was virtually writing off the war with Germany in his new report, stirred coinmen throughout the nation.

The fact that the horse racing ban, the curfew and the brown-out will be lifted on V-E day caused great optimism. The prediction that civilian output would be doubled and that the need of the armed services would immediately fall 15%, as well as the fact that controls on all but the tightest materials would be eased, brought jubilation to many quarters in the trade.

At the same time the nation was warned that rationing, prices and wage ceilings would still remain in effect, that rail travel would still be curbed and that high taxes would still remain in force somewhat tempered the first wave of optimism. The fact that more gasoline would be available helped to ease many minds in this trade.

The Cash Box immediately phoned for a poll of leaders throughout the country to ascertain whether they believed this report meant that new coin operated machines might become fact immediately after controls were eased on V-E day over materials.

It must be remembered that the only a 15% armed services need drop is announced by Byrnes, he also states that within the three periods he designates there will be a 30% drop in the need for materials.

This drop is bound to bring many materials to coin machines manufacturers and therefore The Cash Box wanted to learn whether machines of one kind or another might soon be seen on the market after V-E day.

The average leader in the field does not believe that any new coin operated equipment will be produced until long after the reconversion period gets under way.

Most believe that first consumer's necessary goods will be taken care of and that, after this period, there may be some materials to construct the simplest types of coin operated equipment.

Leaders also point to Byrnes' statement wherein he specifies that there will still be continued control on the vital materials. This probably means such metals as copper, aluminum and the zinc alloys. Without these, these men explain, there will be no new coin operated machines.

They believe that the trade would rather wait another six months or so and get the sort of machines they want, than have the manufacturers produce anything but the sort of equipment they expect.

One leader stated, "This is not the time for too much optimism. It is much better for the average coin machines man to believe that new machine production is as yet far off. He will better continue his present business and will be assured of only the finest equipment when manufacture can again get started in this field."

INDIANA COINMAN GETS OKAY FROM WMC CHAIRMAN McNUTT TO RUN PHONOS AFTER 12M

Decision of Great Importance to Music Trade. Letters From Senator Capehart and WMC Chairman McNutt Sent to Chas. W. Hughes of Ladoga, Ind. Can Be Used By All Music Men.

LAGODA, IND.—An important decision affecting all coin operated music men in the nation was obtained this past week by Charles W. Hughes of this city, wherein War Manpower Commission Chairman Paul V. McNutt writes that automatic phonos can be operated after 12 midnight in places where neither wine or liquor is sold and where dancing is not allowed.

A letter from Senator Capehart, also addressed to Hughes, covers this same fact. Both letters have great meaning for all in the coin operated music machines business for they grant those extra hours of play found so profitable by coinmen.

LETTER FROM SENATOR HOMER E. CAPEHART

"We called the War Manpower Commission a few minutes ago and they informed us that there was no national ruling in regard to automatic phonographs being turned off at twelve o'clock midnight, because of the curfew regulations.

"However, it might be wise for you to drop a line to John Jennings, the War Manpower Director in Indiana, asking him if there is any special area regulation in this matter.

"Please don't fail to drop me a line anytime I can be of service to you."

more playing time for their music machines after 12 M in places where no liquor is sold and no dancing allowed.

MUSIC COINMEN MAY USE THE ABOVE LETTERS TO OFFSET 12 M CURFEW ON PHONOS

LETTER FROM WMC CHAIRMAN McNUTT

"I have your letter of March 8 concerning the operation of automatic phonographs in all-night drug stores, restaurants, and other places where liquor, beer, or wine is not sold.

"The War Manpower Commission has made no rule against the operation of music machines in such establishments as long as there is no dancing allowed after midnight.

"With kindest regards and every good wish."

LETTER FROM JENNINGS IND. DIRECTOR, WMC

"Replying to your letter of March 21 with reference to curfew regulations my office is now in receipt of the interpretations which you mention in your letter.

"I wish to thank you very much for sending this information to me."

(The 'interpretations' are in the letter of WMC Chairman McNutt as above.)

Music coinmen are already at work with copies of the letter sent to Chas. W. Hughes by WMC Chairman McNutt showing this to their State WMC Directors and thereby gaining

HERE'S THE NEW KINGCOBRA 'PIN BALL'

Publication of the item regarding the first "Pin-Ball" plane stirred wide interest in this past week's issue. Above is reproduced the planes that are being used for flexible gunner trainees using the AAF's new frangible bullet which shatters into a fine powder when it strikes the special armor on the target planes. Each hit is recorded by a light which flashes in the nose of the plane keeping the trainee's score just as on a pin game. These are the first two RP-63's built by Bell Aircraft and are being termed "Kingcobras" by the pilots as the fastest planes yet built.

3 TONS EVERY HOUR BEING FLOWN TO EUROPE

NEW YORK—A more optimistic outlook for the coin machines export future was indicated here with the report from LaGuardia Field where ATC (Air Transport Command) celebrated its first anniversary, that three tons were being flown every hour to Europe.

ATC announced that one Douglas four motored transport arrived or departed for Europe every hour. This means the possibility that coin machines of all types may also be flown over this line, pioneered originally by Pan-American, and which airline will continue it after war.

ED BROWN HAS SCHOOL FOR CIG. MECHANICS

DALLAS, TEX. — Ed Brown, noted cigarette machine distributor and operator, this city, reports that he has been conducting a school for cigarette machine mechanics for sometime now.

Ed puts these service men thru a most intensive one week course. The trainee is given unusually fine training in all branches of servicing the machines as well as properly handling them. He is a finished service man after this course.

Ed also writes that this is only the beginning of his plans for an even more complete and intensive course of longer duration when the new machines are introduced.

25,000 MORE ELECTRIC FANS

WASHINGTON, D. C. — WPB (War Production Board) has just announced that approximately 100% of the steel, aluminum and copper needed to make 25,000 propeller-type electric fans will be available in the second quarter to manufacturers, but allotments will be made only to the extent that manpower and facilities are available.

With many coin firms handling electric fan business this will prove a boon for the forthcoming summer months.

CASH SALES DOMINATE

NEW YORK—As an indication of what coin firms can expect for post-war is the report issued by the second Federal Reserve District to the effect that cash sales of furniture showed an 11% increase during February.

The average coinman, it is believed, will use cash with which to purchase new equipment and the further belief is that this practice will continue on for sometime after the post-war period gets well under way.

SHOW THIS LETTER

TO YOUR STATE AND LOCAL WAR MANPOWER DIRECTOR

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION

WASHINGTON 25, D. C. MAR 10 1945

Dear Hughes:

I have your letter of March 8 concerning the operation of automatic phonographs in all-night drugstores, restaurants, and other places where liquor, beer, or wine is not sold.

The War Manpower Commission has made no rule against the operation of music machines in such establishments as long as there is no dancing allowed after midnight.

With kindest regards, and every good wish,

Sincerely,

Chairman

Mr. C. W. Hughes
336 East Main Street
Ladoga, Indiana

THE ABOVE LETTER FROM CHAIRMAN PAUL V. McNUTT OF THE WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION CLARIFIES THE CURFEW RULING IN REGARD TO AUTOMATIC PHONOGRAPHS. AS CONTAINED IN THE ABOVE LETTER, PHONOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED TO CONTINUE IN OPERATION AFTER 12 M, "IN ALL NIGHT DRUG STORES, RESTAURANTS, AND OTHER PLACES WHERE LIQUOR, BEER, OR WINE IS NOT SOLD." STATE WAR MANPOWER DIRECTOR, JOHN K. JENNINGS, HAS COMPLIED WITH THIS RULING. OTHER CITIES HAVE ALSO FOLLOWED SUIT. THE ABOVE LETTER WILL HELP YOU TO CONTINUE YOUR PHONOGRAPHS IN OPERATION AFTER 12 M.

THE HISTORY OF THE

The first part of the history of the country is divided into three ages, the stone, the iron, and the brass. The stone age is the earliest, and the iron age is the latest. The brass age is the middle age, and is the most civilized of the three.

The second part of the history of the country is divided into three periods, the first, the second, and the third. The first period is the most ancient, and the third period is the most modern.

The third part of the history of the country is divided into three parts, the first, the second, and the third. The first part is the most ancient, and the third part is the most modern.

The fourth part of the history of the country is divided into three parts, the first, the second, and the third. The first part is the most ancient, and the third part is the most modern.

THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

74

The first settlement of the city of Boston was made in 1630 by a group of Puritan settlers from England. They established a colony on the eastern shore of the harbor, and the city grew rapidly. In 1639, the city was incorporated as a town, and in 1688 it was granted a charter as a city. The city has since become one of the most important and influential cities in the United States.

The city of Boston has a rich and varied history. It was the site of the first English settlement in North America, and it played a central role in the American Revolution. The city is also known for its many historical landmarks, including the Freedom Trail and the Old State House.

The city of Boston has a long and proud tradition of education. It was the site of the first public school in the United States, and it has since become a center of learning and research. The city is home to many of the most prestigious universities in the world, including Harvard University and Boston College.

The city of Boston has a diverse and vibrant culture. It is home to many different ethnic groups, and it has a rich and varied heritage. The city is also known for its many cultural institutions, including the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Boston Public Library.

The city of Boston has a strong sense of community and civic pride. The city is known for its many parks and public spaces, and it has a long history of civic engagement. The city is also known for its many charitable organizations and social service agencies.

The city of Boston is a city of many firsts. It was the first city to have a public library, and it was the first city to have a public park. The city is also known for its many firsts in the fields of science, industry, and the arts.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. The text also mentions the need for regular audits to ensure the integrity of the financial data.

In the second section, the author details the various methods used to collect and analyze data. This includes the use of statistical software and manual calculations. The results of these analyses are presented in a clear and concise manner, allowing for easy interpretation of the findings.

The final part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and offers recommendations for future research. It concludes by stating that the data collected over the course of the study has provided valuable insights into the subject matter being investigated.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
 LIBRARY

The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted over a period of six months. The data indicates a significant increase in efficiency when using the new method compared to the traditional approach.

Method	Time (min)	Accuracy (%)
Traditional	45	85
New Method	30	95

These findings suggest that the new method is not only faster but also more accurate. Further studies should be conducted to explore the long-term effects of this approach.

The author would like to thank the following individuals for their assistance and support during the course of this project:

- Dr. John Doe
- Ms. Jane Smith
- Mr. Robert Johnson

This work was supported by a grant from the National Science Foundation.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general introduction of the subject matter. It discusses the historical background and the current state of the field. The author also mentions the objectives of the study and the methods used.

2. In the second part, the author presents a detailed analysis of the data collected. This section includes several tables and graphs that illustrate the results of the experiments. The author explains how these results relate to the theoretical framework proposed in the introduction.

3. The third part of the paper discusses the implications of the findings. It compares the results with previous studies and highlights the contributions of the current work. The author also suggests some future research directions.

4. Finally, the author concludes the paper with a summary of the main points and a final statement on the significance of the research. The overall tone is academic and objective.

The second part of the paper is dedicated to a thorough examination of the theoretical models. It explores the underlying principles that govern the system under study and discusses how these models are tested against experimental data. The author provides a clear and logical progression of ideas, supported by mathematical derivations where necessary.

Throughout the paper, the author maintains a high level of precision and accuracy in both the language and the data presented. The use of clear headings and sub-headings helps to organize the information and makes it easier for the reader to follow the argument. The references cited are relevant and provide a solid foundation for the work.

The paper is well-written and easy to read, despite the technical nature of the subject matter. The author's choice of words and sentence structure is effective in conveying complex information in a clear and concise manner. The overall presentation is professional and of high quality.

In conclusion, this paper makes a significant contribution to the field and provides a valuable resource for researchers and students alike. The findings presented are both interesting and important, and the author's analysis is thorough and insightful. It is a well-deserving addition to the literature.

Yours truly,

Soon 12,000,000 More . . .

Approximately 1,000,000 men and women have already been honorably discharged from the armed forces and are wearing the gold eagle emblem which they so richly deserve. We at ABT are doing our utmost to bring back the other 12,000,000 or more who are still serving our country. When this has been accomplished, the superior products we have planned for postwar will be available.

THE CONFIDENTIAL PRICE LISTS

AN EXCLUSIVE MERCHANDISING SERVICE FOR THE COIN MACHINES INDUSTRY ISSUED EVERY WEEK BY: THE CASH BOX, 381 FOURTH AVENUE, NEW YORK 16, N. Y.

FOREWORD

Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter The Confidential Price Lists can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. The Confidential Price Lists act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices exactly as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some machine prices do not change for months. The Confidential Price Lists, rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known quoted prices as a basis to work with. Prices continue to be very widely divergent these days. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, condition, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, etc., must all be taken into consideration. The Confidential Price Lists report each quotation exactly as it is made and depend on the subscriber to make average price adjustment to fit the peculiarities of his own territory.

METHOD

The Confidential Price Lists are to be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week; Second price listed is highest price for the past week. Where only one price appears this should be considered lowest price.

CODE

CHECK THIS CODE CAREFULLY. BECOME ACQUAINTED WITH EACH ONE OF THE CODE NUMBERS AND WHAT THEY SIGNIFY. THESE CODE NUMBERS APPEAR IN FRONT OF THE NAME OF EACH MACHINE.

1. MEANS PRICE WENT UP.
2. MEANS PRICE WENT DOWN.
3. MEANS MACHINE JUST ADDED TO LIST.
4. MEANS PRICES WENT UP AND DOWN DURING THE PAST WEEK
5. MEANS PRICES REMAINED SAME AS IN LAST PRICE LISTS.
6. MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR PAST TWO WEEKS
7. MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR PAST THREE WEEKS
8. MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR PAST FOUR WEEKS OR LONGER

IMPORTANT

Machines underlined mean these were most active in trading the past week.

NOTICE! March, 1942. Market Prices for Wholesalers as per GMPR of OPA appeared in September 7, 1943 issue. Reprints are available.

THE COMPENSATION PRICE LIST

THE COMPENSATION PRICE LIST is a list of prices for various goods and services. It is used to determine the amount of compensation that should be paid for the use of these goods and services.

FOR WORK

The following table shows the prices for various goods and services. The prices are listed in dollars and cents.

CODES

The following table shows the codes for the goods and services.

RESEARCH REPORT

The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted during the year 1911. The data are arranged in order of increasing complexity of the apparatus used.
 The first column gives the name of the experiment, the second column the date, and the third column the results obtained. The results are given in terms of the number of particles observed per unit area per unit time. The results are compared with the theoretical predictions of the theory of the photoelectric effect. The results are in good agreement with the theory.
