HEAR VAUGHN MONROE
SING

"RIDERS IN THE SKY"

RCA VICTOR RECORDS

The novel shot pictured above vividly depicts the sensational success of maestro Vaughn Monroe's current click tune "Riders In The Sky." The song, which racked off the sale of a million platters in less than a month, is the third of Vaughn's million-record sellers, the others being "Ballerina" and "There I've Said It Again." As part of the promotion on the disk, RCA Victor Records sent a blimp aloft, flashing the above message which was seen by thousands of New Yorkers. Other winners for Vaughn are "Red Roses For A Blue Lady", "Don't Lie To Me", and his latest which has already stirred up music fans, "Gigolette". Vaughn Monroe is exclusively featured on RCA Victor Records.

Talking It Over

The Cash Box was born during the past war to give this industry a much needed trade publication.

The Cash Box believed that there simply must be some medium to hold together whatever remained in the field so that there would be a solid and substantial base for the industry to once again grow upon when the war was over.

The Cash Box had faith, then (just as it has faith now) that this industry would continue onward. Greater and stronger than ever.

When VE day arrived—it was stated, "Well, that's the end of the 'war baby'". Meaning us (The Cash Box) of course.

But, here we are. Just as zestful, youthful and just as full of energy, vim, vigor and vitality as ever. And just as full of fight, too, when fight is necessary. We believe we are the one and only publication in the history of this industry that received so many letters of commendation (and every single one unsolicited). As many as any publication in any industry ever received.

Yet, what's most important, is our humble thanks to all of our friends. For, within just a few more weeks, we'll be celebrating our SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY in the coin machine industry.

Those were SEVEN eventful years. They were the very greatest years anyone could ask for. Maybe we did lose some hair off our pate. Maybe we did get a few more wrinkles, and maybe we have some "ideas" left in us. We're humbly thankful to ALL OF YOU.

We hope that this "Lucky" 7th ANNIVERSARY will be celebrated just as sincerely and properly as it should. Naturally, we look forward to your advertisements for this issue (and if we may get a plug in here, the 7th ANNIVERSARY ISSUE will close on JUNE 16).

THE CASH BOX exclusively covers the coin machine industry, including operators, jobbers, distributors and manufacturers, and all those allied to automatic coin operated music equipment; automatic coin operated vending machines and service machines as well as all coin operated amusement equipment; the music and record business, recording artists and publishers of music; and all others in any fashion identified or allied to the coin operated machine industry as well as all finance firms, banks and other financial institutions expressly interested in the financing of coin operated equipment of all types.

THE CASH BOX has been recognized by various associations of coin machine operators thruout the United States as their official weekly magazine.

THE "C. M. I. BLUE BOOK," also known as "The Confidential Price Lists," gives prices of all new and used coin operated machines of all kinds, weekly reporting all market changes and continually adding on all new equipment. The "C. M. I. Blue Book" is officially recognized by many cities and states throughout the country as the "official price book of the coin machine industry." It is an integral part of The Cash Box. The "C. M. I. Blue Book" is used in settlement of estates, in buying, selling and trading of all coin operated equipment. It is the one and only officially recognized price guide in the coin machine industry. The "C. M. I. Blue Book" is used by finance firms, factors and bankers to guide them in making loans to the members of the coin machine industry.

WHY AN AMUSEMENT MACHINE POLL...

What Does It Mean To The Coin Machine Industry?

There are, without any doubt, enough inquisitive people in this industry (as well as in all other industries) who continually ask, "Why?" Why this? Why that? Why the other thing? Just simply, "Why?"

There are, probably, some skeptics who are now asking, "Why an amusement machine poll?"

That's a fair question. Why an amusement machine poll in the coin machine industry?

Simply because the time has arrived, while the recessive slide is under way and until it once again rights itself and business regains its equilibrium, when everyone in this field wants to learn just what is in this business which maintains it year in and year out, and just what brings new men into it as well as drives others out of it.

That's definitely not easy to answer. Tho, no doubt, there are many who would immediately begin to give "answers." But usually those quick answers mean very little to the intelligent man who has "big" money invested in this business. The man who manufactures the products that are sold to the trade. Or, better still, that he is "trying" to sell to the operators.

This man, this manufacturer, with many thousands of dollars invested in machinery, in general inventory and in property, wants to know "just what to do" that will please the operators and that will "most definitely help the operator to earn a very good livelihood and decent profits from the equipment he builds."

Therefore, what equipment should he build? What can he do to insure his own sales, as well as operators' profits?

To just go out and question thousands of operators isn't the most economical method. That may be alright for some high and mighty, financially powerful soap manufacturer who wants to get a quick survey on the public market. It may also be alright for other manufacturers who build millions of an item. But, the average amusement machine manufacturer is not in this category. Therefore, he wants to learn why (?) and learn it as economically as he can, so that he can help his customers (the operators) to realize better profits.

That's the reason for the First Annual Amusement Poll in the coin machine industry. It will bring this man, this great investor in the coin machine industry, the information he needs to assure his customers (the operators) that they will get what they want and that they will be able to continue profitably in this business.

The voting reports in the First Annual Amusement Poll which will come in (and which are already arriving from operators all over the nation) are telling some very interesting stories. No one single report is made public. All voting reports are kept strictly confidential. Only the complete mass results are made known.

Final results will appear in the 7th ANNIVERSARY ISSUE of THE CASH BOX which will go to press on June 16, 1949.

That is why THE CASH BOX is asking every operator to get his report (his choice in this voting poll) in on or before June 15, 1949.

The manufacturer will be able to study the results of this FIRST ANNUAL AMUSEMENT POLL instituted by THE CASH BOX (just as THE CASH BOX has instituted a tremendous number of "firsts" in so many other things) and will, by careful study of the results, know what the operators are seeking.

This is one time when an unusual opportunity presents itself to the amusement machine operators of the nation. In fact, it is the very FIRST TIME that they are able, thru a national medium, THE CASH BOX, to tell the manufacturers just what they want by HOW THEY VOTE for the games they believe were their very "best money-makers" from June, 1948 to June, 1949.

Instead of a tremendously expensive survey THE CASH BOX will bring to this industry a complete new and better understanding of just what the market desires. What has already proven profitable. What the manufacturer must do, after complete study of these votes, to assure this market remaining profitable for the operator so that the manufacturer, his jobbers and distributors, will be able to continue in a "profitable business."

Ever since its inception seven years ago, THE CASH BOX has stated that, "If the operator doesn't make money—no one in the field, all the way up the line, will make money." Today, all agree.

This is the time to help shorten this recession period, to stem this backward slide, to halt loss. This can be done by the operator himself. He can, by honest votes, and intensive study of what he will vote for, tell the entire industry just what must be done to help him.

THE CASH BOX pioneering leadership and honest daring has long been established firmly in the hearts and minds of all in the field who are honestly progressive, who believe in and desire constructive criticism, who feel that there is a greater future ahead for this business, greater than anything that has yet happened to it.

This FIRST ANNUAL AMUSEMENT POLL in the coin machine industry will be the answer. The one BIG SURVEY, year after year, for the years to come, which will help guide the entire industry into the right path—the profit path—so that all will be able to continue forward progressively, with their welfare secured.

If you haven't yet voted in this poll—it is up to you, as a progressive operator to tell all in the field just what's what.

This is your opportunity. It's your vote. It's you who will help all to decide what should be done to help you.

Therefore, vote today. Tear out the voting page and make sure that it is mailed from your office to: THE CASH BOX, EMPIRE STATE BUILDING, NEW YORK 1, N. Y.

Record Reviews

"Lover's Gold" (3:01)

"Purty As A Picture" (2:43)

GRIFF WILLIAMS
(Tower 1464)

● The widely heralded "Lover's Gold" gets a sensational sendoff here via the Griff Williams ork. It's a unique production number, ably handled in the musical and vocal departments, from start to finish. Piper Bop Kirk and a vocal chorus chant the lyrical expression of the deeply-moving lyrics here, and turn in an excellent performance. Slow, vibrant tempo in the background makes the deck glow all the more. The coupling, with Walt King at the mike, is a cute enough romance tune that should hold its own. Top deck is a winner.

"The Heart Of Loch Lomond" (2:58)

"That's When I Long For You" (2:54)

JAN GARBER ORCH.
(Capitol 57-630)

● Music styled in the sweet manner of maestro Jan Garber, with "The Heart Of Loch Lomond" and "That's When I Long For You" in the offing for music ops. Balladeer Bob Grabeau handles the lyrics of the top deck in affectionate vocal style, as the sweet refrain of the Garber ork fills the ether with lilting music. The coupling is an up-tempo novelty that should hold its own in the boxes. Ernie Mathias and a vocal ensemble pipe the wordage in cute manner throughout. Top deck is the better side.

"Angels Never Leave Heaven" (3:03)

"My Heart Beats Faster" (2:59)

TONY MARTIN
(RCA Victor 20-3454)

● Long missing from the phono spotlight as a name attraction, balladeer Tony Martin sets with a pair here that seem certain to come in for an avalanche of juke box play. Top deck, titled "Angels Never Leave Heaven," is a beautiful, lilting ballad that should find its way to the top in no time at all. Tony's vocal efforts on the side, coupled with those of the Jud Conland Singers, make the deck a winner. On the flip with "My Heart Beats Faster," Tony once again delivers an excellent bit of music on a timely tune that should garner some hot moola. The Skip Martin ork back the pair in top notch manner throughout. Both sides are sizzling hot—grab 'em.

"Take It Easy Arthur" (2:48)

"Get Me One Of Those" (2:42)

JOHNNY DEE ORCH.
(Regent 158)

● Pair of pleasant enough sides are found in this coupling tagged "Take It Easy Arthur" and "Get Me One Of Those." With chirp Randie Richards to wail the cute lyrics on the pair, the wax takes on a bright air. Both sides are offered in the novelty vein, and make for fairly pleasant listening time. Top deck is the side that deserves ops' attention — it's cute enough to become a potential "sleeper."

DISK OF THE WEEK

"A Room Full Of Roses" (2:25)

"A Chapter In My Life Called Mary" (2:51)

DICK HAYMES
(Decca 24632)

DICK HAYMES

● The soft, relaxed vocal efforts of Dick Haymes nab this featured spot this week, with a ditty that is sure-fire winner if there ever was one. Dick's purring of "A Room Full Of Roses" should have this song up the ladder in no time at all. Tempting tones of teeming tonsiling roll from Dick's pipes in graceful manner throughout the platter, with the captivating and enchanting lyrics worming their way right at the listener. It's the type of tune you can and undoubtedly will wanna sit down and listen to. Dick's charming and prepossessing vocal work on the side is really something to marvel at—that is the extent of the beauty of this bit. On the flip with "A Chapter In My Life Called Mary," Dick once again turns in a brilliant performance. This side has been taken off another of Dick's recordings, and in turn, dubbed on here. Top deck, "A Room Full Of Roses," will allow music ops to reap harvest. It's a hot one—it rates a top spot in music ops' juke boxes throughout the land. Grab it!

"Gloomy Sunday" (2:55)

"Be-Bop Spoken Here" (2:50)

CHARLIE BARNET ORCH.
(Capitol 57-640)

● A great side by the Charlie Barnet ork that is sure to come in for a ton of juke box play is this bit tagged "Gloomy Sunday." Well known to veteran ops and the music trade as the "Suicide Song," chirp Trudy Richards hogs the limelight on the side to turn in a brilliant bit of vocal work. Wax is done up in a unique production manner, with Trudy piping the intense and deeply meaningful lyrics in strong, winning tones that count. Take note of the unusual arrangement provided the lass in the background, which adds to the luster and glow of the disk. The flip is the bop novelty tune that has caused a load of attention. Lyrics by Dave Lambert and Buddy Stewart brighten up the side immensely. "Gloomy Sunday" is a hot item—get with it!

"I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair" (2:53)

"Happy Talk" (2:25)

ELLA FITZGERALD
GORDON JENKINS ORCH.
(Decca 24639)

● Thrush Ella Fitzgerald sitting on the throne again, with another terrific pair of sides from the click "South Pacific" musical winner. Both tunes are undoubtedly well familiar to music ops since they have been well recorded. The quiver in Ella's pipes, added to the musical beauty by maestro Gordon Jenkins, makes this pair a polished and captivating platter. Ops will have to listen to the wax in order to fully appreciate the gal's vocal charm—and that is just what we recommend.

"Drinking Wine, Spo-Dee-O-Dee" (3:20)

"What's Happenin', Baby?" (2:49)

LIONEL HAMPTON ORCH.
(Decca 24642)

● Some fresh wax by orkster Lionel Hampton with the mellow refrain of "Drinking Wine Spo-Dee-O-Dee" and "What's Happenin', Baby?" coming at music ops. Top deck has been a hot item on music ops' machines for some time now—this rendition, with Sonny Parker and a vocal ensemble handling the lyrics, should win some healthy coinplay. The flip is a low-down blues number, with Sonny back again to shout 'em in top notch style. The many Hampton fans should go for the top deck.

"Weddin' Day" (2:49)

"Dreamy Old New England Moon" (2:53)

DICK JURGENS ORCH.
(Columbia 38502)

● Pair of sides which might attract a bit of attention are these rendered by the Dick Jurgens ork, with the refrains of "Weddin' Day" and "Dreamy Old New England Moon" headed ops' way. Top deck is currently causing loads of attention. This rendition, with Jimmy Castle handling the pleasing lyrics, is fair enough as it stands. The flip is just what the title indicates, a dreamy ballad aimed at the moon-in-june set. Vocal refrain fills the bills, while the ork rounds out the side effectively. Wax won't stop traffic—music ops take it from here.

"Some Enchanted Evening" (3:05)

"Bali Ha'i" (3:09)

PAUL WESTON ORCH.
(Capitol 57-629)

● The musical wizardry of maestro Paul Weston is shown to perfection on this coupling, as Paul lifts his baton to offer delightful moments of listening pleasure in this instrumental rendition of "Some Enchanted Evening" and "Bali Ha'i." The superb splendor that radiates from this wax makes you wanna listen to it time and again. It's a well-deserved feather in maestro Weston's cap, for turning in a terrific musical performance. Both sides rate heavily—especially so in those wired music locations.

"Nobody's Sweetheart Now" (2:43)

"Red Head" (2:47)

LITTLE SANS & LEE
(Apollo 1148)

● Pair of playful sides by Little Sans & Lee show effectively here, with the pleasing refrain of "Nobody's Sweetheart Now" and "Red Head" sifting thru. Music is lightly styled and should be greeted warmly by the many tavern locations. Vocal work on the pair is pleasant enough, with the instrumental team providing mellow music to round out a winning duo. Music ops should listen in—and more.

"You Run Your Mouth, I'll Run My Business" (2:43)

"A Chicken Ain't Nothing But A Bird" (2:42)

LOUIS JORDAN
(Decca 24643)

● The novelty manner of maestro Louis Jordan, and the set-up of some great wax in the offing for music operators. Top deck, "You Run Your Mouth, I'll Run My Business," has Louis offering his usual sure-fire winning brand of advice, that makes for excellent listening pleasure. Tempo is steady, with the boys backing him ably. The coupling has the crew chanting a vocal chorus while Louis handles the top vocal spot on another novelty that bids fair to cop a ton of coin. Both sides should garner a featured spot on ops' machines—get it.

"A Wonderful Guy" (2:58)

"A Cock-Eyed Optimist" (3:04)

EVELYN KNIGHT
(Decca 24640)

● Still more recordings from the click "South Pacific" musical production, with thrush Evelyn Knight on deck to wail "A Wonderful Guy" and "A Cock-Eyed Optimist." Evelyn handles both tunes very beautifully and should win her fair share of coin play. Both songs have been well recorded and should be familiar to most music operators. This rendition will undoubtedly boost the popularity of the music immensely.

Record Reviews

"My Girl Friend Mabel" (2:40)

"Who Got De Key?" (2:47)

LA MOTTA BROTHERS ORCH.
(Manor 1186)

● Some calypso wax in the offing for music operators is done up here by the La Motta Brothers ork, with the cute tones of "My Girl Friend Mabel" and "Who Got De Key?" sifting thru the platter. Top deck, with Lloyd Thomas handling the vocal, is a happy item that should suit the hip swivelers. The flip with Pedrito La Motta in the vocal spotlight, weaves around the title, while the refrain, in rhumba calypso time, makes for easy listening. Music ops who have the spots should listen in.

"Little Pink And White Lady" (2:51)

"Only You" (2:49)

HIGHWAY SERENADERS
(Highway 3455)

● Pair of smooth and easy flowing sides turn up here by the Highway Serenaders, with the refrain of "Little Pink And White Lady" and "Only You" echoing pleasantly. Balladeer Jimmy Lennon handles the vocal refrain of the pair in effective style, while musical accompaniment offered rounds out the wax in fair manner. Top deck is a flowing waltz, while the flip is a straight ballad. Both sides should hold their own—music ops might take a look-see.

"A Room Full Of Roses" (2:59)

"It's Summertime Again" (2:53)

SAMMY KAYE ORCH.
(RCA Victor 20-3441)

● Maestro Sammy Kaye keeps his parade of winning platters hot via this one tagged "A Room Full Of Roses." It's a smooth, slowly set ballad that should grab on in no time at all. Piper Don Cornell and the Kaydets render the charming lyrics in brilliant vocal tones, while the Kaye crew back them in first rate fashion. The flip, "It's Summertime Again," with Tony Alamo in the vocal spotlight, is a smooth bit of ballad material that should have the moon-in-june kids swooning night and day. Tony's vocal refrain on the side is beautiful from start to finish. Ops should get this disk—but pronto!

"Riders In The Sky" (2:41)

"The Round Square Dance" (2:43)

WINGY MANONE
(Kem 2700)

● A real novel rendition of "Riders In The Sky" is knocked out here by Wingy Manone and his herd of Dixie saddlers. Wingy and the boys flavor the ditty with a ton of old-time jazz that is easy on the ears. Vocal refrain by Wingy, in his usual coarse manner, is pleasant enough. The flip is a mellow novelty ditty that has Wingy in the vocal spot, knocking out "The Round Square Dance." It's smart stuff on this side, and is wax that should grab on and go. Music ops should pay this disk some heavy attention.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"Ting-A-Ling" (2:54)

"Lover's Gold" (2:57)

GORDON MacRAE
(Capitol 57-628)

GORDON MacRAE

● Balladeer Gordon MacRae comes up with a pair that should have 'em waiting ten deep in line to play at juke boxes throughout the land. His sure-fire vocal expression on the duo is nothing less than sensational from start to finish. The lad has the type of voice that makes you wanna keep on listening to him—and then come back for more. Top deck, tagged "Ting-A-Ling" is a slow waltz that makes for wonderful listening pleasure. The mellow resounding refrain of this side should merit it top juke box play in a zillion locations, especially so in those many tavern spots. Lyrics ring true throughout, while the Paul Weston ork lends the platter an air of beautiful simplicity. On the other end with "Lover's Gold," Gordon once again displays his terrific set of tonsils in strong resounding tones that score. Music ops should be familiar with this tune at this date since it has been fairly widely recorded. This rendition undoubtedly is one of the best around, and is one that will definitely gather a ton of juke box coin. Ops shouldn't hesitate one second with this cookie—grab it!

"Row, Row, Row" (2:51)

"Cocktails For Two" (2:53)

FREDDY MILLER ORCH.
(Hi-Tone 132)

● Pair of pleasant enough sides that may catch on with music fans are these rendered by the Freddy Miller ork. Wax, titled "Row, Row, Row" and "Cocktails For Two" is easy to take and should garner its fair share of coin play. Top deck is a novel rendition of this favorite standard, with thrush Janet Parker handling the lyric in a gay '90 mood. The flip is offered straight and has the lass bouncing back again to turn in a fair bit of music. Top deck is the side that bears ops' attention.

"You're Mine" (3:10)

"You Told A Lie" (3:01)

MARJORIE HUGHES
(Columbia 38500)

● First single sides for thrush Marjorie Hughes turns up bright for the lass, as she delivers her vocal best on this coupling titled "You're Mine" and "You Told A Lie." There is no doubt that the gal has a socko set of pipes. The refrain of the top side, a slow, strong sensual ballad, is top drawer material from start to finish. The gal has that extra bit of soulful delivery in her tonsils that makes this a winner. The flip is a light novelty ditty that is currently picking up in popularity. Miss Hughes' version should find a featured spot in many a phono. Take note of the wonderful orchestral patter supplied by maestro Hugo Winterhalter, and ops really have a disk that can take off and go. Top deck, "You're Mine," is the side to ride with.

"Put Something In The Pot, Boy!" (3:16)

"Be-Bop Spoken Here" (2:48)

LES BROWN ORCH.
(Columbia 38490)

● Maestro Les Brown on the bandstand with a pair of cute ones in "Put Something In The Pot, Boy" and "Be-Bop Spoken Here." Top deck features Butch Stone in the vocal department, offering the mellow and happy lyrics of this novelty ditty. It's cute stuff that may catch on and go with the younger set of music fans. The flip is the bop novelty ditty that has caused such widespread attention. This rendition, with Stumpy Brown and the Four Hits And A Miss handling the vocal chores, should hold its own. Ops who have the spots might go for this duo.

"Lover's Gold" (3:00)

"Till My Ship Comes In" (2:20)

DINAH SHORE
(Columbia 38509)

● The charming vocal refrain of chirp Dinah Shore is shown to excellent light on this duo of fresh ones just out. Dinah's smooth and graceful vocal style handles the lyrical expression of "Lover's Gold" in soft, tempting tones that score. Ditty is slowly set and is in the deep-down-to-earth vein so rapidly taking hold. The flip, "Till My Ship Comes In," is a medium tempo'd novelty ditty that should meet with its fair share of coin play. Vocal chorus on the side adds to the glamour found here. "Lover's Gold" is the side tho.

"Cabaret" (3:08)

"Bargain Day" (3:16)

ROSEMARY CLOONEY
(Columbia 38501)

● Thrush Rosemary Clooney, famed for her vocal etching of "Grieving For You," sets with her first single disk and turns in a stellar performance on this coupling tagged "Cabaret" and "Bargain Day." Both sides of the platter are sizzling hot, and show the chirp off in top notch vocal form. Top deck is the sultry item rapidly catching on. Rosemary's tonsiling of this infectious ditty is hard to match—it's that good. The flip is an unusual bit of music, with Rosemary warbling the torchy words of this romantic air in vocal tones that score. It's the type of song you have to listen to in order to fully appreciate its beauty. Ops should, by all means, get with this recording.

"Hohokus, N. J." (2:27)

"Malaguena" (2:56)

ANDREWS SISTERS
(Decca 24645)

● Pair of tunes by the Andrews Sisters that may catch on with their many fans are these titled "Hohokus, N. J." and "Malaguena." Both sides have been issued before, and might be familiar to music operators. Top deck is a light, medium tempo'd ode to that city found in the title, while the flip has the girls offering their vocal interpretation of this famed standard. Ork backing by Vic Schoen rounds out the wax in excellent manner. Ops who have the spots might take a look-see.

"If I Could Be With You" (2:41)

"My Melancholy Baby" (2:31)

JACK TEAGARDEN
(Regent 159)

● The widely popular Jack Teagarden comes up with a pair of oldies here, with "If I Could Be With You" and "My Melancholy Baby" seeping thru the wax. Both sides are styled to musical perfection by Jack, with some mighty pleasant jazz tones rounding out the wax. Songs have always won favor with music ops—this duo should meet with excellent reception, especially so in the tavern locations. Ops should listen in.

"Lora-Belle-Lee" (2:51)

"Lucille" (2:53)

JOHNNY BRADFORD
(RCA Victor 20-3447)

● The vocal splendor of piper Johnny Bradford is shown to excellent advantage on this pair titled "Lora-Belle-Lee" and "Lucille." Top deck spills in medium up-tempo patter, with Johnny wailing of the grandeur of his gal. It's cute stuff throughout, and a side that should do well in the boxes. The flip is a slow, romantic item about "Lucille," with Johnny turning in an able performance. The pair should do more than hold their own in the music machines—ops take note.

ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

NEW YORK:

Herb Hendler, RCA Victor record exec, the proud pappy of a girl, Tory Ann . . . The lass weighed in at 5 lbs. 7 oz. at birth. Mom and Dad doing well . . . The Korn Kobbler have just retained disk flack Al Millet for a national exploitation campaign on their MGM disking of "San," which many agree is one of their finest recordings ever . . . Leon Gary of Marshall Record Co., Richmond, Va., in town. Leon is currently working on the promotion of "I Challenge Your Kiss," which incidentally is starting to perk up throughout the nation . . . Dizzy Gillespie instituted another gimmick to his stage presentation while at the Apollo Theatre. The idea is another one of the audience participation stunts—this one a bop singing contest with selectees appearing with Gillespie's band on stage every show. The winner of the contest at the end of the engagement gets a week with the band when Dizzy opens at Bop City for a month on July 8th . . . Buddy Rich joined the Les Brown band as drummer. He probably will return to fronting his own crew later on this season . . . It's rumored that Stan Kenton may become a bandleader once again . . . The way that Billy Eckstine keeps on breaking it up at Bop City. Without a doubt, no other name has soared to the heights that Billy has in recent years, and created as much tumult, all with good cause too . . . Chirp Connie Haines goes into the Patio Theatre, Brooklyn, for a week. The nabe vaude spot has become one of the better bookings in the city . . . Jack Smith and Frank DeVol are skedded to head for Yurup at the end of June . . . RCA Victor execs all excited about Fran Warren's next platter. Her "Wonderful Guy" keeps right on spinning . . . Gene Williams reported going great guns with his "Just Goofin'" disk . . . Theatre biz along the mainstem reportedly picked up this past week, with maestro Eddy Howard at the Capitol packing 'em in . . . ditto Mel Torme at the Latin Quarter . . . Alan Dale standing 'em up at the Strand with his fans lining the streets during the day.

STAN KENTON

CHICAGO:

Mercury Records going hot and heavy with their new Mercoplatic platters. Dealers just can't seem to get 'nuff of them . . . Dick (Two Ton) Baker, Mercury recording artist, set with some new Mercury waxings which will be released shortly . . . Lee Egalnick of Miracle Records keeping very busy and telling us "he's never really through with his day's work" . . . Jimmy Hilliard, recording head of Coral Records, discussing his plans to move his Chi office to New York . . . Warren Ketter, promotional director of Tower Records, all set for action on his new position as Dave Garroway's assistant . . . Saxie Dowell, former band leader, now doing band and tune promotion work here. Saxie handles the new hit tune "Whose Girl Are You" for Sajewski Music, and from what we understand, is doing one swell job with it here in the Chicago territory . . . Latch on to Griff Williams' latest Tower disk "Lovers' Gold"—it's another Towerific hit . . . Art Mooney set for the Windy City territory July 7-9 . . . Orkster Larry Green opened the Aragon Ballroom, May 31, for a two week stint. Larry and his crew were acclaimed as "the most promising band of 1948" by eastern dee-jays. His current RCA-Victor hits are: "It's A Big Wide Wonderful World" and "You're So Understanding" . . . Al Kavalin of Bourne Music set for a trek out to the West Coast. Al has some big plans in mind for the future . . . Pulenty doin' over at the Club Silhouette where Ol' Satchmo, Louis Armstrong, and his gang have taken over . . . Gorgeous Lena Horne bewitching her audience over at the Mayfair Room of the Blackstone Hotel when she sings "Bewitched." Lena does it like no other gal can. And, when she gives out with "You Do Something To Me," she really does something to her listeners . . . Gertrude Niesen inked for the Chez Paree, June 5. Mark this on your calendar as a "must" . . . Tony Pastor and his ork go into the new outdoor spot, Martinique Gardens, come June 15.

LOS ANGELES:

That "Riders in the Sky" really stirring up a storm in these parts, with the new Wingy Manone treatment on the Kem label sounding so different from the ballading of Victor's Vaughn Monroe, Columbia's Burl Ives, Decca's Bing Crosby, and Capitol's Peggy Lee, that you can hardly tell its tune is based on the same Civil War ditty, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again" . . . Wingy happens to be an old friend and we're glad to hear from Ben Pollack, who's distributing former Columbia man Bill Richards' new label nationally, and Mike Kurland, handling discs locally at Modern Distribs, that the platter is really scoring for the Dixieland maestro . . . Hunter Hancock, one of Central Avenue's two favorite dee-jays, now joins the select group of whirling dervishes to have had a record dedicated to them . . . It's Big Jay McNeely on Exclusive's "Hoppin' with Hunter," and we hear plenty other folks (besides Hunter) think it's a great tune . . . All that legal threat and verbal spinach, which the local entertainment trade sheets went for big, about the disc jockey boycott on Kay Starr's "Good for Nothin' Joe" and "Ain't Misbehavin'" seems to have done nothin' but spur the sales of these two platters from the Gene Norman "Just Jazz" series and to have done likewise for the top thrush's many excellent, current hits on the Capitol label. . . . Bill McCall, not a lad to be caught napping for long, is coming out soon with "Echoes of the Trail," sung by Bill Hughes and described by the 4-star head as "a 19-year-old tune brought to light by 'Riders in the Sky' and sure to top it in popularity" . . . That's what the man said . . . Paul Reiner is back from his Northern junket with these wise words: "Didn't set the world on fire but we accomplished our objective".

RACE DISK O' THE WEEK

"Slider" (2:27)

"The Derby" (2:25)

FREDDIE MITCHELL ORCH.
(Derby 711)

FREDDIE MITCHELL

● New group bowing into the wax horizon makes their first cutting a hot contender for top notch juke box honors via this sensational thing tabbed "Slider." The Freddie Mitchell ork really bow into the wax spotlight on this bit in a blaze of glory, offering one of the greatest instrumental pieces we've had the pleasure of hearing in a long time. The tremendous drive of a section of joined saxes, coupled with the steady dance beat of this tune, makes this hunk of wax a winner. It's the type of disk that'll have phono fans standing ten deep to play, and then have 'em come back for more. Wax is full of excellent, mellow music—the kind that goes over like a house on fire with juke box fans. The flip, titled "The Derby" has the Mitchell gang knocking out another instrumental bit that should win wide favor. Slow tempo of the side should sit well with the shuffle crowd. We go for the top deck, "Slider"—we're sure you will too. Music ops can grab this one by the boxful—but fast!

"California Hop" (2:41)

"Sunday Dinner" (2:45)

DEACON McNEELEY
(Savoy 698)

● Keeping in step with the mode of the day, Deacon McNeeley and his crew come up with a pair of great ones that should find a top spot on the phonos. The hot wax that Deacon and his boys offer on this duo should meet with healthy juke box take. Top deck, tagged "California Hop" is just what the title indicates—a mellow hop number with a heavy tenor riding it out. The flip has a few saxes blowing wild on a hot jump tune that should go well in the boxes. Ops should get with this disk.

"Hot Dog" (2:38)

"Last Saturday Night" (2:47)

CHRIS POWELL & THE BLUE FLAMES
(Columbia 30162)

● Pair of cute novelty sides turn up here by Chris Powell and the Blue Flames, with the mellow beat of "Hot Dog" and "Last Saturday Night" seeping thru. Both tunes make for wonderful listening pleasure, with the gang turning in an excellent vocal and instrumental performance on the pair. The side we go for is the top deck. It's smooth, easy to take musical pleasure and shows the combo at their best. Music ops should listen in.

"Big Baritone" (2:43)

"Miss You" (3:13)

JOE LIGGINS ORCH.
(Exclusive 102)

● Long missing from the phono spotlight as a name attraction, orkster Joe Liggins really comes up with one that should reap harvest for music ops. It's the top deck, "Big Baritone" that we're ga-ga about, and with good cause too. The deep, resounding tones of the baritone sax on this side makes for great listening pleasure from start to finish. Music is styled in the usual pattern of the Liggins routine and is welcome on the ears. The flip is the standard "Miss You," with Joe turning in another great vocal performance. Top deck, "Big Baritone" is a healthy coin winner.

"Ugly Woman Blues" (3:00)

"Clark's Idea" (3:01)

SABBY LEWIS ORCH.
(Mercury 8134)

● One of the greatest pieces of wax to come our way in a long time is this hunk of shellac by the equally great Sabby Lewis ork, with the famed maestro serving up "Ugly Woman Blues" and "Clark's Idea" to set the stage for some torrid coin play. Top deck, with a heavy vocal by piper Al Morgan is the side to ride with. It's a mellow up tempo blues number, with Al handling the vocal in terrific style. Take note of the excellent instrumental backing displayed here, and ops have a disk that can take off and fly. The flip, "Clark's Idea" with Dan Turner on the vocal is a mellow ditty replete with a heavy beat and a band hand clap. Top deck, "Ugly Woman Blues" is the winner—grab it!

"Drinking Wine Spo' Dee O' Dee" (2:16)

"Baby Baby Blues" (2:22)

STICK MCGHEE & HIS BUDDIES
(Decca 48104)

● The original dinking of this great tune, "Drinking Wine Spo' Dee O' Dee," by Stick McGhee and his Buddies crops up here, and bears the same terrific refrain that has made it into the hot coin culler it is. Stick and his boys go all out on the side, with the band chanting vocal passages in the background. The flip is a bit of slow moody blues that should catch on and go. Ops who haven't as yet caught this disk, should do so by all means now.

"T-W Boogie" (2:17)

"Ooo-Ouch-Stop" (2:34)

THE FLENNY TRIO
(Excelsior 534)

● Some excellent instrumental wax in the offing for music ops turns up here by the Flennoy Trio, with the refrain of "T-W Boogie" ringing true. It's hot guitar work all the way, played in the very best of style from start to finish. The terrific tempo of the ditty coupled with the wonderful beat shown here should have the dancers going wild. The flip, with Big Joe Turner on the vocal is a fast blues novelty that make for wonderful listening pleasure. Both sides are hot.

"Folk" and "Western" Record Reviews

"Soft Lips" (2:47)
"Please Believe In Me" (2:45)

T. TEXAS TYLER
(4 Star 1321)

T. TEXAS TYLER

● Make no mistake about this one! It's a cinch for top juke box honors in no time at all, and is a disk that'll wear white on the phonos, but pronto. The widely popular and capable T. Texas Tyler comes up with a pair that make for top notch listening pleasure in this coupling of "Soft Lips" and "Please Believe In Me." The side that we're ga-ga about is the top deck, "Soft Lips." It's a very slow romantic ode, with Tex spooning the lyrical expression in soft, dulcet tones that score. The charming and warmly inviting refrain of this side is sure to win wide attention for Tex, and have music ops reaping harvest in silver. It's the type of song that needs no urging, it just melts about you, and you wanna listen to it time and again. The flip, "Please Believe In Me" has Tex coming back with another superb performance as he wails the tender word-age of this folk lament. Tempo is a bit brighter, with the guitar work on the side glowing to add to the winning incentive found here. It's a sure-fire winning biscuit—music ops should grab 'em by the boxful.

"I'll Have A New Life" (2:34)
"Looking For A City" (3:04)

THE CHUCK WAGON GANG
(Columbia 20587)

● Some spiritual sides in the offing for music operators are these rendered by the Chuck Wagon Gang. Titled "I'll Have A New Life" and "Looking For A City," both sides feature unison singing that make for fairly pleasant easy listening. The wide call for music of this sort should be enough for music ops on this platter. It's good stuff that should meet with heavy favor. Ops oughta climb on the bandwagon.

"I'll Forgive & Try To Forget" (2:35)
"The Moonshiner" (2:50)

MICKEY & MARY CARTON
(Decca 46164)

● Pair of playful enough sides roll out here by Mickey and Mary Carton, with the lass handling the vocal work on this duo tabbed "I'll Forgive & Try To Forget" and "The Moonshiner." Altho both sides are not offered in the strict folk vein, they should garner some heavy coin play in this category. Both sides are pleasant waltz tunes that make for nice listening time. Wax should meet with excellent reception in those many tavern spots. Music ops should listen in.

"I Know What It Means To Be Lonesome" (2:38)

"Why Don't You Come Back To Me!" (3:01)
PETE CASSEL
(Coral 64010)

● The mellow vocal splendor of Pete Cassel is shown to excellent light on this coupling. Top deck, tagged "I Know What It Means To Be Lonesome" has Pete wailing the comely lyrics in fine style, while a pleasant guitar strums beside him. Yodel in the second chorus makes the wax all the more a winner. The flip, "Why Don't You Come Back To Me" is a straight folk lament which Pete handles excellently. This platter should hold its own, and more, in the phonos.

"I Didn't Raise My Boy To Be A Billy" (2:06)

"A Package Of Lies Tied In Blue" (2:57)

TEXAS JIM LEWIS
(Exclusive 104)

● Some wax by the widely popular Texas Jim Lewis, and the set up of "I Didn't Raise My Boy To Be A Billy" and "A Package Of Lies Tied In Blue" in the offing for music operators. Texas and his boys give out with their best on the top deck, with the maestro handling the vocal chores in excellent style. It's a pleasing novelty ditty that should draw some jitters. The flip is a folk lament that is rapidly catching on—this rendition should prove to be a healthy coin culler. Ops should listen in.

"It's Nobody's Fault But Your Own" (2:41)

"The Drunkard's Child" (2:56)

JESSE ROGERS
(Apollo 209)

● Pair of fair hillbilly tunes which ops may call for are these rendered in effective manner by Jesse Rogers. Wax, titled "It's Nobody's Fault But Your Own" and "The Drunkard's Child" is easy on the ears, altho Jesse's vocal spot is excellent from start to finish. Guitar work on the platter shines brightly, as does the lyrics offered. Music ops who have the locations for good hillbilly music ought to listen in.

"Beautiful Blonde" Selected As June Click Tune of Month

Final Session Cheered. Parties To Be Resumed In Early Fall.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Teenagers at the monthly meeting of the "Click" party held on May 28 by the Phonograph Operators Association of Eastern Pennsylvania in conjunction with the Click Theatre Cafe, selected the MGM record "The Beautiful Blonde From Bashful Bend" with Art Lund on the vocal, as the "Click Tune of the Month."

This get-to-gether was the season's final session, and will be resumed on September 24, according to a statement by Charles Hannum, business manager for the operators' group. The forthcoming season will inaugurate the third year in which these two groups have cooperated in presenting the kids of Philadelphia with a full night of entertainment, once every month.

The Click was packed to the rafters for this final session, with thousands of kids sharing in the fun, prizes and refreshments. A night, long to be remembered by the youngsters saw the guest appearance of Savannah Churchill and the King Odom Quartet. Ed Hurst and Joe Grady, disk jockeys of station WPEN, and Stu Wayne of KYW "Musical Clock" fame, split the MC chores, and were complimented on the smooth manner in which the proceedings were run off.

As is customary, "The Beautiful Blonde From Bashful Bend" MGM recording will be featured in the number one position in all juke boxes in territory covered by association members.

Johnny Long Signed To King Records Pact

NEW YORK — Orkster Johnny Long this past week concluded agreements with Sydney Nathan, president of King Records, Inc., for the signing of a recording contract with the plattery. It was later learned that Mr. Nathan signed the maestro late this past week.

The news of Long's signing with King certainly puts the indie record company, who only recently went into the popular recording field, into a prime position. They have a band that has a large following and is widely popular on records.

Long formerly recorded under the Signature banner, where he had thrown his hat for the past three years. Signature recently has branched out into the cheaper platter field, and it was reported, wanted Long to stay with them under their Hi-Tone label.

T-Bone Walker Set To Return To Capitol Record Fold

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.—T-Bone Walker's first disks under his new, and exclusive contract with Capitol Records are set to be released nationally on June 13th, it was learned this past week.

Formerly featured on Comet and Black & White Records, the tall guitar player will hit the market with four songs. "Vacation Blues" and "Prison Blues" will hit the market for the first time; "Call It Stormy Monday But Tuesday's Just As Bad," and "Your Wig Is Gone" will appear as re-issues. All four of T-Bone's releases will appear on Capitol's royal purple label.

Walker, who first attracted attention as a member of the old Les Hite ork, today ranks as one of the greatest attractions in the blues and jazz fields.

The plattery also disclosed the addition of Bus Moten, the Tommy Douglas orchestra, Walter Brown, Lee Young, and the Golden Wing Quintet. All artists will be featured in the plattery's new "race" line.

Columbia Records Cuts Sales-Publicity Staff

NEW YORK—In anticipation of the normal summer slump in the record business, Columbia Records, Inc., this city, this past week reduced its staff. The slice in personnel did not touch the recording end of the firm, but did touch the merchandising, promotion and advertising departments.

Among those affected were: Debbie Ishlon, for several years in the publicity office, along with Bob Viano; George Prudding, who was the plattery's New York district manager, and Rudi Tolnay, long associated with Columbia as their merchandising man in the popular field.

The widespread publicity given to the slash in personnel caused loud talk in disk circles, with many rumors being passed around that Columbia was not merely reducing their staff for the summer slump in sales.

"I CHALLENGE YOUR KISS"

By THE FOUR JACKS

Allen Record No. 21000

From "The Cash Box" May 28 Issue

"New label and a new group how into the disk business with a sensational platter that should garner a top spot on music ops machines in no time at all. The vocal harmony of The Four Jacks on this tune is superh from start to finish. Wax, titled 'I Challenge Your Kiss' is a slow, infectious sentimental tune that makes you stop and listen. It's smooth, soft, brilliant harmony that the Jacks offer, with the subdued echo of the group ringing true. It's the type of disk that makes for easy listening pleasure, and is one that should wear white on the phonos. The flip is a smart rendition of the standard 'Swing Low, Sweet Chariot' that should take on and hold its own. Top deck is a hot winner—grab a boxful!"

From "The Billboard" June 4 Issue

"... this shapes up as one of the strongest race ballads in some weeks. Easy tempo and mellow group feeling help."

Cole Cops Pittsburgh Courier Award

NEW YORK—The proud recipient of the coveted Pittsburgh Courier Award is Nat "King" Cole, while the equally proud emcee is Johnny Clarke, dee-jay at radio station WNJR, Newark, N. J. The award was given to Cole on his closing night at the famed maestro's recent Bop City engagement. The Courier Poll, as did last year's Cash Box Music Poll, pegged Nat's group as the best small instrumental combo in the land.

Modern Records—Kay Starr Settle Disk Dispute. Plattery To Issue New Recording.

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.—Thrush Kay Starr and Modern Records came to agreement here this past week in their much publicized lawsuit, served against the plattery and dee-jay Gene Norman last week.

Saul Bihari, vice-president of the firm, disclosed that the firm will dress up the recording in question, and that he also had come to a financial agreement with Miss Starr.

Bihari will cut the word "hell" from Starr's etching of "Good For Nothin' Joe" and press the new version.

The lawsuit started when Miss Starr claimed that the record, as issued, damaged her character and impeded her career. The disk originally was cut by Norman at a jazz concert some years before Miss Starr signed with Capitol Records.

Meanwhile the plattery disclosed that sales of the disk had boomed immensely, and altho not directly attributed to the controversy, a good part of it was laid to the widespread publicity arising out of the lawsuit.

Joe Green Forms New Record Distrib Firm In Baltimore

Saratoga Distributors To Handle National Records

BALTIMORE, MD.—Joe Green, formerly associated with National Records, Inc., this past week announced the formation of a new record distributing organization, with headquarters in this city. The new firm will be called Saratoga Distributing Corporation.

Joe Green is the son of National Records prexy A. B. Green, and a brother of Irving Green, president of Mercury Records.

Mr. Green also announced the appointment of Phil Rose, formerly with Cosnat Distributing Corp., New York, as sales manager. Mr. Lou Krefetz, formerly of the Oriole Dist. Co. in Baltimore has been named manager of the firm's Washington, D. C. office.

Green disclosed that the distributing firm will have a staff of eight record salesmen and will cover the Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D. C., territory. National Records is the first line the new distributing organization will handle it was learned.

Hirsch De La Viez Visits With Bob Hope

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.—Mr. & Mrs. Hirsch de La Viez dropped in to say hello to Bob Hope during a recent visit here and caught the screen, stage and radio star just about ready to go to work. Hirsch, president of the Washington (D. C.) Music Guild, local music operators association, is currently on a nationwide combination business-pleasure tour, and is scheduled to return to Washington shortly.

MGM Hypo's Music Op Sales Via Direct Promotion Contact

NEW YORK—Richard I. Cowitt, sales manager for Zenith Radio Corp., local MGM record distributors, this past week disclosed a new sales promotional program aimed at stimulating sales with music operators.

The program is aimed at reaching music operators who normally are difficult to get at thru the regular staff of MGM record salesmen. It should be pointed out that a great many music operators are busy throughout the day servicing their music route, and are available only in the evenings or at home for their digesting of record material and literature.

Cowitt has selected a list of these operators and has mailed each sample recordings of new MGM releases which the distributing organization believes will be potent coin cullers in the future. A letter also points out the cheaper price of MGM records in comparison to other labels, which in itself, represents a saving of 10c on each MGM record purchased by the operators. Business reply post cards are available for the ops use so that they can easily order records. In addition, Cowitt disclosed, Zenith will supply the operators with printed title strips for each and every recording purchased. The latter point, a source of constant concern for the music operator, should be greeted by the ops with wide acclaim.

Altho sales figures could not be ascertained, it was learned that an appreciable increase in sales from those operators contacted was noted.

Jones' Gag Disking Of "Riders In The Sky" Arouses Publisher

NEW YORK—Edwin H. Morris, music publishers of the song hit "Riders In The Sky" this past week was reported to have taken action against RCA Victor Records for their recording by Spike Jones of the disk hit.

It was learned that Morris has refused RCA Victor a license for the song, and has informed radio stations throughout the country, that they would be sued for copyright infringement in the event they played the Jones recording. RCA Victor has withdrawn the record from its release schedule.

The Jones disking, made in Hollywood last week, is a gagged up routine on "Riders In The Sky" and kids the original disking in the manner of past Jones' disks. It is the publisher's contention that the Jones disking kids the original recording in such a manner as to lessen the prestige of the song. It is easily seen that the Vaughn Monroe recording, which recently passed the million-mark in sales, would become a valuable addition to the Morris catalog, while the Jones disk might tend to lessen that value.

Another recording of "Riders In The Sky," which might be construed as detrimental to the value of the original recording was issued this past week by Wingy Manone on a Coast indie label tagged Kem Records. The Manone version is a straight Dixie rendition, with Wingy handling the vocal himself.

Bally Introduces New One-Ball Game

Replay Model "Champion"—Automatic Model "Kentucky"—Follows On Heels Of "Citation" Which Enjoyed Continuous Run Since September 1948—Volume Deliveries To Distributors

RAY T. MOLONEY

CHICAGO—Volume deliveries of Bally Manufacturing Company's new one-ball game started this week, George Jenkins, Bally general sales manager, announced. Replay model is called Champion; automatic model is named Kentucky. The new game succeeds Citation, which enjoyed a continuous run since September 1948.

Advancing Odds

Basic play principle of Champion is the popular "Match-Selection" idea. From 1 to 7 Selections light on back-glass, and ball shot into a hole corresponding to a lighted Selection scores Odds indicated, depending on section of playfield—Win, Place, Show or Purse—in which Selection is matched. Player may deposit as many coins as desired to obtain desired Selections and Odds before shooting ball.

Champion retains the so-called "Citation Odds" first introduced in Citation, whereby Odds advance on a mystery basis, either one step or several steps per coin. Odds either advance or remain as high as on previous coin and never drop back to a lower bracket. Therefore, without fear of losing favorable Odds, players may deposit additional coins for additional Selections and to advance Odds.

Two Horse-Shoe Buttons

Champion is equipped with two Horse-Shoe Buttons, instead of only one. After lighting desired Selections and Odds, player may press No. 1 Horse-Shoe Button to hold Selections and Odds and then play additional coins for one or more of several No. 1 Horse-Shoe Advantages: (1) from 7 to 28 holes "wild" holes; (2) Purse scores Win Odds; (3) Show scores Win Odds; 3, 4, 5 added to lighted Selections; (4) all seven Selections light. After playing coins for No. 1 Horse-Shoe Advantages, player may press No. 2 Horse-Shoe Button to hold Selections, Odds and No. 1 Advantages and then play coins for No. 2 Advantages: (1) winning ball in Purse scores Double; (2) winning ball in Show scores Double; (3) additional holes become "wild" holes; (4) Odds advance.

"Wild" Holes

Coins played, after No. 1 Horse-Shoe Button is pressed, progressively light letters of legend "WILD-PURSE-SHOW-PLACE-WIN" on back-glass. Letters may light one letter per coin or several letters per coin. Each coin either advances the letter-light or holes letter-light at letter lit on previous coin. When "WILD-PURSE" is lit, all 7 holes in Purse section are winners. When "WILD-PURSE-SHOW" is lit, Purse and Show sections are "wild." All 28 holes on board are "wild" when complete line is lit.

Double Score

No. 2 Horse-Shoe Button permits player to hold Selections, Odds and No. 1 Advantages and to play extra coins to double the value of holes in Purse and Show section.

Spell-Name, A-B-C-D, Feature

Champion retains the popular

GEORGE JENKINS

Spell-Name idea, A-B-C-D bumpers and build-up Feature.

New Positive Armor

Among mechanical improvements introduced in Champion are hardened steel armor protecting all vital mechanism; new type triple-wheel Replay Recorder that eliminates projector-lamp burn-outs and numerous other improvements. Jenkins points out that the new features incorporated in Champion are provided without increasing over-all size of game and with no increase in price. He reports that location tests ranging from 30 to 60 days indicate that Champion earning power exceeds that of Citation.

Maine Coin Mach. Ops Assn. Holds May Meeting

WATERVILLE, ME. — Coinmen thruout the state of Maine traveled to the Crescent Hotel, this city, for the May meeting of the Maine Coin Machine Operators' Association. A meeting and luncheon was held on Wednesday, May 25, with quite a nice attendance of members and their guests, which included representatives from three distributors.

Due to the extra demands of summer business, which make it impossible for many of its members to be present at meetings, it was decided to hold the next meeting in September at a time and place to be determined by the Board of Directors. Claire McNeil, secretary, will send a news letter to members once a month thruout the summer, and the Board will handle any business that comes along during this period.

The meeting disclosed that the association is enjoying a constantly growing membership from all parts of the state, and Maine operators have expressed their complete satisfaction with the accomplishments of their organization.

As a result of a motion, the secretary was instructed to communicate with the manufacturers pointing out that due to the general trend in business, the association feels that it should be given price relief on the cost of equipment.

Cincy Music Ops To Meet June 16

CINCINNATI, O. — The regular monthly meeting of the Automatic Phonograph Owners Association, this city, will be held on Thursday evening, June 16.

Ordinarily the association holds its meet on Tuesday evenings, but the Cincinnati Reds baseball club is playing on that night. The rabid ball fans here would rather see a ball game than eat, so it's Thursday night when there is no night game.

Charles Kanter, president of the association, flew to Detroit, Mich., for a June 4th meeting of the Promotional Advertising for Associations, hoping to return with sufficient enlightenment which he will pass along to his members. Kanter's wife, his son Leonard and daughter-in-law, off to Miami Beach, Fla., for a three week vacation.

Nat Bartfield, member of the Board of Directors, entertaining his parents, who are visiting from Brooklyn, N. Y. Charles Streicher (Diamond Vending Mach. Co.) handing out cigars upon the arrival of a baby girl, born May 31.

Sam Chester, past president of the association, and the missus driving to Nashville, Tenn., to visit with his parents.

Bill Strout, Automatic Music Co., who was recently married, moved into his new home.

Above photo taken recently at Bally Manufacturing Company plant, Chicago, shows a portion of assembly line from which the firm's new "Champion" one-ball games are rolling at rapidly increased rate.

CHICAGO CHATTER

Calling over at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. in the early mornings usually finds the execs of the firm in their daily morning staff meet . . . Sam Stern over at Williams Mfg. Co. busier than a bee. While "Maryland" is going at top speed along come the firm's distribts and ask that the new baseball machine, "Star Series," also be got under way . . . which means that two games are now going down the production lines at this time at Williams . . . Plenty of the boys here are worried over that battle which is under way and which may bar games of many types from taverns here. But the general hope is that this will be amicably settled and that everything will once again be okey dokey . . . Over at Bally Mfg. Co. terrific excitement prevails with the firm's new one-ball, "Champion," already garnering more orders than any other one-ball game has in years and years. And coming right after such a clickeroo as "Citation," this puts the bee on the production line-up with the boys down in the production department working double speed to speed the games to the firm's distribts.

Looks like Al Sebring has the corner on the horse market from what we hear . . . the guy's simply clicking off those long shots like nobody's business . . . Someone stole Mike Spagnola's No. 5 iron the other day, and Mike's absolutely lost. "If they would only have stolen my woods," wails Mike, "everything would have been okay."

Francis J. Lubien, who won that 32,000 bucks on the "Stop The Music" airshow, called around at Automatic Distributing here to look over that brand new AMI phono that was one of the prizes in the jackpot. Lubien decided that he'd rather take cash. So it looks like the boys will have to give him cash instead of the phono. But, if they give him enough cash, will they also try to sell him a used machine? . . . Jerry Haley over at Buckley reports that everything "is going along fine" and that even tho there is a slowdown here and there, on the average the nation is doing a very grand job. Jerry also claims that Bob Buckley and Sam Tridico of New Orleans (Console Distrib. Co.) are "doing a marvelous selling job" for the firm . . . Pat Buckley up at his country home in Watervliet, Mich., enjoying the breezes . . . Georgie Jenkins of Bally still down in Florida getting a long needed rest . . . Seems that Ray Moloney was absolutely scared to teeny weeny pieces the other day when someone told him that Mrs. Ben Coven had the measles. Here he was right in Mrs. Coven's company (which, believe me, isn't bad company, for the very pretty and charming Mrs. Coven is one of the really beautiful ladies in the coin machine business).

They tell me that Sam and Ellie Stern are looking for a house in the suburbs. Seems like Ellie just can't get that Philadelphia suburban life out of her system . . . R. F. Jones of Salt Lake City in town this past week . . . Ditto for Leo Weinberger of Louisville and Sam London of Milwaukee . . . From what Dorothy Billheimer tells me it seems that Bill (The Shadow) Billheimer is getting to be more of a shadow each and every day. Wonder whether he'll wind up being something like a beanpole one of these days? . . . Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tratsch expected back sometime the middle of this month from their extended stay in Europe . . . And George Lewis of ABT tells me that the guns of the firm are going great guns. By the way, George, have you seen your new scale on location in the 34th Street Subway Station in New York? . . . Lindy Force of AMI came up with one of those "English" jokes this past week . . . all about a cockroach in an unusually sanitary kitchen . . . and we're still trying to figure out the punch line. Maybe you can. Phone him and let him tell it to you.

Bill Hemminger of Aero Needles was in Noo Yawk this past week. He'll be back here for a day, they claim, and then out again . . . Al Stern over at World Wide Distribts is one busy boy these days with some real news for ops that should make it attractive for any one of the boys to get in touch with him.

Sam Lewis over at Chicoin is busier than ever since that game was okayed in Noo Yawk and, they tell me, Sam just hasn't the time to even turn around to greet some of the boys with the rush the firm is enjoying . . . Dave Gensburg of Genco is still out of town and isn't expected back until sometime later on . . . In the meantime Myer Gensburg is carrying on and clicking with whatever the firm presents . . . Like the way Ben Coven tells the cointrade to get right up on its hind legs and howl for its rights—and maybe a few lefts, too . . . Trying to reach Lou Koren is one tough job at any time, but, this past week, it was just tougher than ever before . . . Roy McGinnis of J. H. Keeney & Co. will have one terrific surprise for all the trade very soon . . . proving that "Mac" knows this business a lot better than most of the guys who claim that "this is my business and I know all about it."

If you ever get lonely in Chi, here's an antidote—simply hustle right over to United Mfg. Co. and get Billy DeSelm, Herb Oettinger, Ray Riehl and all the other swell people over there to talk things over with you and, believe me, you're gonna feel fine all over again . . . this is one swell bunch of guys, who are always smiling and sunny and ready to pep things up . . . Roy Bazelon, they tell me, is doing one of the biggest and best jobs in the shuffleboard biz and that the orders the firm have on hand indicate plenty of work for months and months to come . . . Even more important to you and you and you—from me—is the fact that on June 16 we close our big, "Lucky" 7th Anniversary Issue, and we most certainly hope that you and you and you will be with us featuring the biggest and most outstanding advertisement of all your career in The Cash Box.

Williams' "Star Series" In Production

SAM STERN

CHICAGO—Sam Stern, Vice-President and General Salesmanager of Williams Manufacturing Co., this city, reported this past week that the firm have just started production on their brand new baseball game, "Star Series."

This game is somewhat similar to the game which the firm clicked so well with last year and which they then called, "All Star."

It was on the request of their distribts that Williams went back into production on this larger type baseball game, according to Sam Stern, who also said, "Our new 'Star Series' is entirely new and different from any other machine we have ever built. It is mechanically brand new and its design and appearance is the finest which has ever yet appeared in any baseball game ever built."

Officials of the firm are tremendously enthused over the success which greeted the announcement that they were entering in production on "Star Series."

Their distributors have been phoning and wiring them ever since the first announcement and orders have been doubled and redoubled in some cases.

"There is no doubt," Stern stated, "that 'Star Series' is entering the market at the most appropriate period. Both the National and American leagues are now in one of the hottest races in years and interest in baseball has been increasing daily. This gives every op a chance to cash in big with our 'Star Series.'"

EASTERN FLASHES

Arcades opened officially this past week-end, Decoration Day, and reports from most locations are very heartening. Exceptional business recorded in Coney Island, Atlantic City, Asbury Park, and points south. The weather was cool enough to keep the crowds off the beaches, but sunny and pleasant for visiting and strolling. Under these circumstances amusement spots played to large crowds of pleasure seekers. The New England territory, unfortunately, ran into bad weather—rainy and cold. However, it's a long season, and with the economical type of amusement served up by arcades and amusement machines in shore resorts, coinmen are looking forward optimistically to a banner season.

* * * * *

Usually the heights of wholesale selling for the arcade season is over with Decoration Day, but this year, local dealers are still taking orders for equipment. Mike Munves, Blendow & Meyers, and International Mutoscope Corporation, all working at top speed shipping games . . . Music operators still talking about the Jack Mitnick Testimonial dinner of a few weeks ago. Everybody claims they had a most enjoyable time. One of the most heard comments was "We should have more parties of this kind" . . . Phil Mason, Mason Distributing Company, who has been traveling thru the southern states periodically this winter, now expects to remain in his office so that he can be the host to many coinmen who promised to be in the city this summer . . . H. F. (Denny) Dennison still in the city, but expects to be traveling in about two weeks . . . Dave Stern, Seacoast Distributors, Newark, N. J., who recently took over the distribution of the "Acorn" bulk merchandiser vendor for the state of New Jersey, reports that sales have been very fine, and from every indication it looks like he has a winner.

* * * * *

Al Simon, Alfred Simon, Inc., Chicago Coin's representative here, is jubilant over the recent decision of the license commission in approving his new game "Bango" and the manner in which the licenses are now issued. "Bango" is an amusement game that is played with a shuffleboard disc, but from there on the similarity to shuffleboard ends. The game, built in the size of roll-down games, has a flashy multi-colored backboard, with scores totaled into the high figures. Operators here are keeping Simon busy taking orders, with the problem arising of keeping deliveries up to the pace of order writing . . . Dave Lowy, Dave Lowy & Company, returns from a hectic week-end, tired and worn out but orders in the mail and customers visiting the showrooms keep him moving.

* * * * *

George Ponser, George Ponser Company, opens a wholesale business at 417 Frelinghuysen Avenue, Newark, N. J., where he is specializing in the sale of reconditioned late model pin tables. In addition to supplying the local trade, Ponser is shipping equipment thruout the country . . . Avron Gensburg, Chicago Coin Machine Company, in the city, visiting with Al Simon . . . Votes are piling in on the 1st Annual Amusement Poll being conducted by The Cash Box—have you sent in your votes? Poll closes June 15, so send in your voting sheet . . . Your choices will appear in the big "7th Anniversary Issue" . . . Which brings to mind The Cash Box 7th Anniversary Issue—send in your ads now—last minute closing is Thursday, June 16.

DALLAS, TEXAS

J. F. Newman, long time Texas mechanic in Ft. Worth and Dallas, passed away May 23rd. Burial was held in Ardmore, Okla., May 25th . . . Russell O. Burns Sr. off to Omaha for the purpose of racing his well known horses . . . sadest thing we've heard this week: Sam Ward, Decca branch office manager, deserting our fair city for his new post as southern representative for Vocalion Records, Inc. (a Decca subsidiary) . . . Charles Smith, field service representative for the J. P. Seeburg Corporation, visiting Seeburg representative S. H. Lynch and Co. for several days . . . Walbox Sales, Dallas, held open house June 1st, displaying Bally's new "Champion" one-ball machine . . . M. R. Jones, former stockholder and partner of A. H. Shannon, Coin Machine Sales, Houston, sold his interest to stockholders Fred Barbour, George Wrenn, Gene Bybee and A. H. Shannon.

Porter and Virginia Harrison returned from a week-end in Houston and Galveston . . . Jules Bihari, prexy, Modern Records, Inc., and brother Joe stopped off in Dallas for several days and gusted with the Herb Ripa's . . . Seen here and there: W. A. Groom (Groom Novelty), Jacksonville; John Nance (Nance Music Co.), Oklahoma City; Harder Strange (Central Music), Temple; Mr. Harkins (Scarborough & Harkins), Taylor; Olin Dreyer, San Angelo; William Brown, Henderson; Bob Cowan and Lee Moore, Ft. Worth; Henry De Levan, Lubbock; Clarence Cleere, Ft. Worth; Homer Clifton, Littlefield; Guy Kincannon and Speedy Walker, Waco; and Gene Williams giving the "Champion" the once over . . . Dallas ops are in a tizzy over the Modern release on Kay Starr's "Good For Nothing Joe." This promises to be a terrific hit . . . Homer Walker, Blue Bonnet Music, leaves for Port Aransas on vacation . . . Johnny Caldwell exchanging small talk with Herb Ripa.

Urges Hard Work For Recognition

CHICAGO — Ben Coven of Coven Distributing Co., this city, Bally and Wurlitzer distrib for this area, reported this past week that, in his belief, the time had arrived when all coinmen must work harder than ever to gain greater recognition for the games industry as one that purely vends entertainment to the public and that this industry is no different from any other division of the entertainment industries of the nation.

"It's just like any legitimate business in the country," Coven said, "and it is up to us, the members of the games business, to tell everyone, everywhere in the nation, that our job is to purely and simply sell entertainment to the public."

Coven is of the belief that if all coinmen will work hard in this direction to gain the right sort of recognition for the industry that they will hoist this business to a higher and better plane and that it will meet with the approval of all the nation for it is one of the finest as well as the most economical of any entertainment yet offered to the public.

He says, "We must all work together and work harder than we ever did before. By intense and hard effort we will win for ourselves the sort of recognition we need to make this industry the most outstanding of all the entertainment industries."

IMPORTANT!—One outstanding method which has been used in almost every major industry to ascertain the type of products best suited to individuals in the field has been by surveys which have been conducted intensively and studiously by leading publications in those industries. It is therefore the hope of THE CASH BOX that this FIRST ANNUAL AMUSEMENT POLL will bring to the fore the type of products which earned the nation's operators the most money during a fiscal yearly period (June, 1948 to June, 1949) and that this will prove of great help to the manufacturers in this industry to decide on just what the operators need to continue to conduct profitable businesses. Your complete honesty and your intensive devotion to this FIRST ANNUAL AMUSEMENT POLL will prove of great worth to you individually, as an operator, and will prove just as valuable to everyone of the nation's amusement machine manufacturers. It is up to you! You are now carrying the ball! You are by your votes, telling the entire manufacturing division of this industry just what you believe is best suited to you because the machines you are listing above were your very best moneymakers! Please rush your votes in today. All names are kept strictly confidential. No individual votes are shown AT ANY TIME. This is your BIG OPPORTUNITY. Get your votes in to THE CASH BOX on or before June 15, 1949. The complete final results will be published in the June 25, 1949 issue of THE CASH BOX.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

This was a week of changes, rather surprising ones, in the personnel setup of several distributors along the L. A. Coin Row . . . Walter Solomon, who seemed comfortably and effectively established at E. T. Mape's, hopped up the street to Joe Peskin's, where he replaced Jack Dolan as Sales Mgr. . . . Walter happens to be one of the most likeable and well informed gents in the business and we're sure wishing it'll be a good and long range move for him . . . But even more surprising an event was Charlile Fulcher's leaving the Mills branch . . . Charlie had been there a long time and somehow seemed to be very much a part of the place . . . One of the Freezer Division men, we hear, is taking over on his duties for the time being, and we haven't yet heard what Charlie's next connection will be . . . Aubrey Stemler hit the road to tell all who'd listen of the wonders of his "Koffee-King" java vendor . . . Ray Powers in from Sacramento and comparing notes with Nels Nelson . . . Jack Millsbaugh back from his St. Louis and points East trip with plenty Western Shuffleboards and scorer sales racked up for his San Diego plant to step up production . . . Mary Sims, Western's L. A. manager sprained her ankle again and decided to go on a diet (one really has nothing to do with the other).

Paul and Lucille Laymon back from visit in Chicago, where they had a fine time and were royally entertained by Bally execs . . . Mrs. Laymon tells us that travel is way down these days, with their rating almost a private car to Chi and traveling light coming back too . . . Paul has a nice little bowling pin set in stock for those shuffleboard ops who feel that some locations require more than a plain board for maximum play . . . Also on top, in the way of new items, were the compact Telescore unit and the Olympic "Shuffpins," that very attractive game described in this column last week . . . The new and more attractive "Quizzer" game on hand at Laymon's and we came close to beating the very intelligent Mrs. Laymon on it . . . Congrats to Charlie Daniels, who this week became the youngest grandpop on the Row, if not in all of L. A. and the U. S. A. . . . Charlie, who's not a day over 37, took it like a veteran but threatened mayhem for the first person, customer or Cash Box correspondent, who called him "Gramps" . . . Bill Happel had us worried at Badger Sales when we spotted him in a bos'un's mate uniform but it turns out he's just re-enlisted in the reserves and is attending naval school for a few weeks . . . Jack Ryan still vacashing at Sicking's and Fred Gaunt back on the job at General Music . . . On the Row: Norman Christ from Lompoc (and swapping a short drink and longer war experience with us at Laymon's), Glenn Hall of Redlands, Gardena's Harold Smith, Perry Irwin from Ventura, L. G. Leonard of Santa Monica, Calexico's A. Verdugo, Jack Gilbert from Big Bear Lake and T. Andress all the way up from Phoenix.

MINNEAPOLIS—ST. PAUL, MINN.

Things were very quiet in the Twin Cities last week, what with the holiday weekend, operators remained very close to home, and little excitement in regard to business took place. Many of the Twin City operators started out early for their favorite fishing holes and were not expected to return until sometime after the holidays.

Izzy La Fleur of Devils Lake, North Dakota and his charming wife drove into Minneapolis to spend a few days with their friends . . . Herman Paster of the Paster Distributing Company, St. Paul, Minnesota (still on crutches), took time out to go to Chicago on business . . . Andy Benna of Ironwood, Michigan spent the holiday vacation in Minneapolis . . . Bud Nittiburg of Castlewood, South Dakota took his turn to drive to Minneapolis the last minute to pick up merchandise for his resort, as he expected a tremendous turn out over the Memorial Holiday.

Pete Wornson of Kasota, Minnesota in town buying a supply of records for his juke boxes . . . Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sundem of Montevideo, Minnesota spending a few days in Minneapolis while calling on the distributors . . . Archie Pence, Minneapolis, took advantage of the beautiful weather and went up North for Muskie fishing. That's a real sport!! . . . Phil Jordan of the Howard Sales Company, Minneapolis, smashed up a brand new Packard in an accident which occurred last week. Fortunately, he was not injured.

Verling Geib of Deadwood, South Dakota, driving into Minneapolis for a few days calling on several of the distributors . . . Harold Lieberman of the Lieberman Music Company, Minneapolis, in Chicago for a few days.

HOW TO USE THE "C. M. I. BLUE BOOK"

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter The C.M.I. Blue Book can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. The C.M.I. Blue Book acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. The C.M.I. Blue Book, rather than show no price, retains the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices continue to be very widely divergent these days. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, condition, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, etc., must all be taken into consideration. The C.M.I. Blue Book reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: The C.M.I. Blue Book should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week: Second price listed is highest price. Where only one price appears this should be considered lowest price.
