By Bill Gersh

ARCADE OWNERS' ASSN.

Many issues ago we received requests from leading arcade men asking that we start a special section devoted to their requirements. This past week we were most pleasantly surprised when we received a phone call asking us to speak before the "Arcade Owners' Association" in New York City. These arcade men had come together because of the grave tax situation racing them out of Washington. They came together because they realized that there were a great many problems facing them that required immediate solution. They also know that only by complete and national cooperation at this time can the arcades assure themselves of a continued and profitable business. (During 1927, '28 and '29 there also existed an arcade operators association. It was weak. It was loosely organized. It had no definite purpose. It was more of a social club than an organization of business men gathered together for their mutual welfare.)

The "Arcade Owners' Assn." is definitely on the right path. It is the nucleus for a great national organization. It wants everyone of the arcade owners thruout the country to join its ranks and thereby get the various ideas and opinions of the arcade men throughout the country to help this organization in its first big job it must do (and do fast) in Washington. Only by such action will the arcade owners of America protect themselves from excessive taxation and also from any wrongful laws which might be passed anywhere in the country. (The Cash Box has joined the "Arcade Owners' Association".) The Cash Box feels that these men, who have come together in this organization, have done so in the right spirit. A spirit of complete cooperation for the future welfare of the men engaged in the arcade business.

As we stated in our New Year Special issue, the growth of the Penny Arcade during the latter part of '41 and all of '42 has truly been phenomenal. It is today an extremely important division of our industry. So important that many leaders believe it may lead to an entirely new type of coin machines business after the war.

One of the big and immediate problems is that of the resort arcade. This arcade will have to pay a full year's taxes even tho it will only be open for 3 or 4 months. Another pressing problem is a "group tax" for arcades, not an individual machines tax. Still another problem is the question of machine legality in an arcade, which can most definitely be placed into an entirely separate category from machines on various locations because in an arcade much better control can be exercised by the arcade operator as well as the city authorities over play action. The A.O.A. is now at work on these problems thru their attorneys. (The address is: Arcade Owners' Association, 1776 Broadway, New York City. The next meeting will be held Thursday, Feb. 4, at 8 P.M., at the Hotel Abbey, 51st St. off Sixth Ave. New York City.)

TAX DATA

We hear that the operators' assn in Seattle, Wash., is attempting to get official tax data regarding the amount of revenue the state received from taxing coin machines. It is a well known fact among the leaders in this industry that there's as much coin going into coin chutes as there is passing under theatre wickets. If the operators' assn in Seattle, which definitely seems to be on the right path, want to do something of tremendous value to themselves and to all the industry, we recommend that they attempt to learn just how much money coin machines are taking in thruout the state and how the lion's share of it remains in their state helping retail businesses, giving employment, brings about better financial conditions for all, for all business generally and also thereby helping their state financially. Not to speak of the relaxation and enjoyment their machines so economically give to the state's citizens.

LONG DISTANCE PHONE RATES CUT

About three issues ago we advised that there was a possibility that long distance phone rates might be cut. That the FCC (Federal Communications Commission) was meeting with A.T.&T. (American Telephone & Telegraph) to obtain some sort of rate reduction. This has just come about. You will still pay the same rate for the first 3 minutes, but the rate thereafter has been lowered. Therefore the coinmen, who are noted users of long distance phones, will save money in those speedy action, inflation days.

"The Coin Machines Merry-Go-Round"

ADS

For the past nine weeks The Cash Box has been publishing far over 100 ads per week's issue. The issue of Feb. 2nd hit the high mark, going over 125 ads. Most interesting is the fact that about 5 "For Sale" ads appear for every 1 "Want-To-Buy" ad.

DIGGERS

Once again the trade is discussing the fact that diggers were taxed $100. per annum by Uncle Sam. Those men who can run diggers with a "silver dressing" will be more than willing to pay $100. for the privilege. It is a well known fact that any digger dressed with "silver" (That is, with quarters, half-dollars and silver dollars as well as bills in various denominations) will take in as much, if not more, money than any slot or console, and will most definitely attract better and more continuous play.

BOOTLESS RECORDS

The staid New York Times this past Sat., Jan. 23, featured a story on its famous front page regarding the bootleg records that are appearing on the market. Mentioned in the item were Classic Record Co. and Savoy Record Co. The item explained that seemingly noted orchestras were masking under other names but so carefully camouflaging their music that the AFM was having a hard time trying to trace them down.

1-BALLS & CONSOLES

Leading the entire field in demand are the 1-Ball F.P. games and the late model multiple consoles, such as the 3-Bells, 4-Bells, 2-Ways, 4-Ways, Lucres and Buckley DD Track Odds. Demand has grown to such a point that these machines have, in many instances, superseded the demand for slots. Slots, of course, are still commanding the biggest prices in their history. But with 1-Ball F.P. and the multiple consoles getting harder to obtain every minute it wouldn't surprise us a bit if these passed the price peak of the slots. (Some control somewhere is necessary.)

SPACE RATES TO GO UP

Within a few more issues we shall be forced to raise our rates for extra size space ads. We held back as long as we possibly could. But, our accountants have shown us that with the phenomenal increase in our circulation this must be done - and done quickly - to avoid any possible losses. It was bound to come. As circulation goes so go the rates. Any contracts made for extra size ads at this time will be honored for the next 26 weeks.

BROADWAY BIZ BOOMS

Owners of Broadway's famed nite spots are actually bewildered at the amount of business they are doing these days. Owners claim that 70% of the crowds are out-of-town-ers. This again proves the terrific demand on the part of the public for entertainment and relaxation and may be the one big reason that your machines are getting better play action.

MUSICRAFT APPLAUDS

Musicraft Corp. were the first record mfrs to recognize the Cash Box. This past week they advised us, The results we have received from our ads in The Cash Box have absolutely been sensational. For the very few dollars we have spent with you to advertise our new, 1943 recording of "Vos Zokt Eer" backed by "Stardust" by Baron Elliot and his Stardust Melodies Orchestra we have received business running into many, many, thousands of records with more and still more orders pouring in every day."

AUSPICIOUS START

The year 1943 has had an auspicious start. There have been good reports from all the war fronts. We are advised by military experts that there is a possibility that the war in Europe may end in late '43, most assuredly in '44. The leaders in this industry, too, have started off with a resounding bang. Many have already come together for their mutual benefit. A greater national feeling has arisen thruout the industry. The leaders in this trade at last see the advantages of amalgamation. "All for one and one for all", may be an old expression, but, it most assuredly is one of the best that can be adopted by everyone engaged in the coin machines industry.

NASHVILLE

This past week we received a letter from Joe Frank of Automatic Amusement Co. of Nashville, Tenn., wherein Joe reports of the seriousness of the $100. per machine tax situation for that territory. Joe has some very fine plans. He has already gone to work with city officials and he finds them in agreement with him regarding the fact that coin machines do help keep the retail merchant in business. He advises us that he will very shortly present the plan he has to us.

LECTURE 10

1. The wave function  $\psi(x)$  is a complex-valued function of position  $x$ . It is the square of its magnitude,  $|\psi(x)|^2$ , that gives the probability density for finding a particle at position  $x$ .

2. The wave function must be normalized, meaning that the total probability of finding the particle somewhere in the region of interest must be 1. This is expressed as:

$$\int_{-\infty}^{\infty} |\psi(x)|^2 dx = 1$$

3. The wave function must be continuous and single-valued. It must also be finite everywhere.

4. The wave function must satisfy the Schrödinger equation, which is a second-order differential equation. For a particle in a potential  $V(x)$ , the time-independent Schrödinger equation is:

$$-\frac{\hbar^2}{2m} \frac{d^2 \psi(x)}{dx^2} + V(x) \psi(x) = E \psi(x)$$

5. The wave function must be continuous at boundaries between different regions. The derivative of the wave function must also be continuous, unless there is a delta function potential.

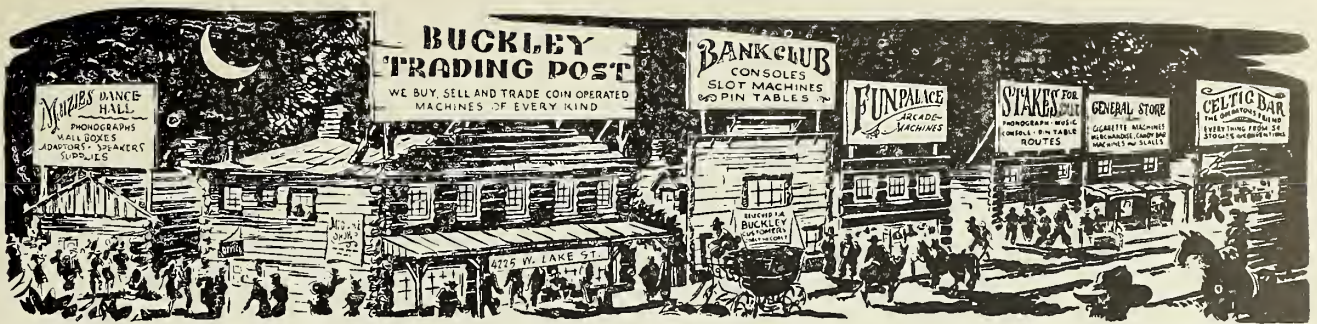

6. The wave function must be bounded as  $x \rightarrow \pm\infty$ . For a free particle, the wave function is a plane wave. For a bound state, the wave function decays exponentially as  $|x| \rightarrow \infty$ .

7. The wave function must be continuous at boundaries between different regions. The derivative of the wave function must also be continuous, unless there is a delta function potential.

8. The wave function must be bounded as  $x \rightarrow \pm\infty$ . For a free particle, the wave function is a plane wave. For a bound state, the wave function decays exponentially as  $|x| \rightarrow \infty$ .

9. The wave function must be continuous at boundaries between different regions. The derivative of the wave function must also be continuous, unless there is a delta function potential.

10. The wave function must be bounded as  $x \rightarrow \pm\infty$ . For a free particle, the wave function is a plane wave. For a bound state, the wave function decays exponentially as  $|x| \rightarrow \infty$ .

"ALWAYS BOOST The Cash Box ALL-WAYS".

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

2. The second section details the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. It includes a description of the sampling process, which was designed to be representative of the entire population. The analysis techniques used were standard statistical methods, including regression analysis and correlation coefficients.

3. The third part of the report presents the results of the study. It shows a clear positive correlation between the variables being measured. The data indicates that as one variable increases, the other also tends to increase, supporting the initial hypothesis.

4. The final section discusses the implications of the findings and suggests areas for further research. It notes that while the current study provides valuable insights, there are still some limitations, such as the sample size and the specific context of the data. Future studies should aim to address these limitations.

5. In conclusion, the study has successfully demonstrated the relationship between the variables under investigation. The findings are consistent with previous research and provide a solid foundation for further exploration in this field. The methodology used was rigorous and the results are statistically significant.

6. The authors would like to thank the funding agency for their support and the participants for their cooperation. It is hoped that this research will contribute to a better understanding of the phenomenon being studied and lead to practical applications in the field.
