EDITORIAL A Word Of Caution

The so-called "retail explosion" was one of the major industry developments of 1978. The opening of many new retail outlets around the country, better stocked, better staffed and with attractive decor and friendly ambiance, contributed greatly to the overall expansion of the music business. And the trend shows no sign of letting up, according to a Cash Box survey, despite some rather gloomy economic forecasts for the coming months.

While we support this continued growth, there also appears to be a need for caution on the part of both retailers and manufacturers.

The entertainment industry may be "recession resistant," as Lieberman Enterprises chairman

David Lieberman recently put it, but many retailers said that holiday buying was more conservative this year than in past seasons. There were a variety of factors behind this, however, most dealers agreed that the $8.98 list album is at least indirectly responsible for a slowdown in catalog purchases and multi-unit sales.

So keeping in mind that inflation usually reduces disposable income, manufacturers should seriously consider the full impact of more widespread price hikes. Retailers, too, should take into account the effect of higher interest rates and make sure their capital reserves are sufficient to cover the cost of expansion.

EDITORIAL

April 30, 1955

There can be little doubt that the economy of the United States is on the verge of one of its greatest eras of prosperity. And the effects of this bright future on the music and record fields will be spectacular . . . The social changes which have occurred in the United States in the last two decades have all tended in the direction of greater productivity, greater distribution of wealth and greater leisure for the majority of the population. These changes . . . can only affect the music and record business favorably.

January 24, 1964

The success of the Beatles in America could change the whole thinking of American record companies toward all British product. Until recently, the British sound didn't fare very well in the States . . . Now, however, everything seems to be coming up British . . . It's quite obvious that the belief that "the British sound is too square for American teenagers" has been broken. And if our guess is correct, we'll be seeing more releases from the Isles on a regular basis.

September 9, 1972

Along with the boom in black music has come the increasing importance of black radio. It has reached the point where many of these outlets are competing effectively for share-of-audience with their Top 40 counterparts . . . There is, however, a basic difference between the two . . . (Black) stations are generally operating on a less restrictive programming schedule, offering more time to not only the established recordings, but new entries . . . We believe this development is something Top 40 radio should be weighing with considerable thought.

October 7, 1978

New artists are the lifeblood of the music business. This hackneyed phrase is certainly valid, but the practical application of this philosophy is not being developed to its fullest potential . . . We believe that there is a way to increase exposure and sales of records by these unknown artists . . . We propose a sliding scale of suggested retail list prices to cover the various career stages that artists pass through . . . The basic concept is to make the struggling artist a more attractive purchase.

FOREIGNER GIVES THANKS — When Atlantic recording group Foreigner made their New York City debut at Madison Square Garden on Thanksgiving night, the group donated the proceeds from the concert to a number of local charities, including the Tri-State Division of the United Way, the Police Athletic League (PAL), and the World Hunger Year. Pictured presenting a check to PAL executive director Conrad A. Ford (l-r) are: Mick Jones, Ian McDonald and Al Greenwood of Foreigner; Bud Prager, the group's manager; and Lou Gramm, Dennis Elliott, and Ed Gagliardi of Foreigner.

Holiday Sales Up For Nation's Retailers, But Fall Slightly Short Of Expected Levels

by Charles Palkert and Randy Lewis

LOS ANGELES — Retail sales were up for the most part this year compared to last year's holiday season, according to the nation's top record retailers, but not as high as many expected due to a sales slump at the outset of the month. But an eleventh-hour buying surge enabled most to surpass the levels they achieved last year.

Albums listed at $8.98, including "52nd Street" by Billy Joel and "Barbra Streisand's Greatest Hits, Volume 2", and disco music figured prominently in the strong selling season, retailers surveyed by Cash Box said, but many dealers said that the newly introduced picture discs exhibited disappointing sales. In addition, the season was marked by an exceptionally brisk sales of Christmas product and, in the area of product availability, there were surprisingly few problems.

In addition to the Joel and Streisand albums, retailers were almost unanimous in naming the Blues Brothers' "Briefcase Full of Blues," Steve Martin's "Wild and Crazy Guy" and Neil Diamond's "You Don't Bring Me Flowers" as the hottest albums of the 1978 Christmas season.

11th-Hour Buying

Eleventh hour buying was so formidable for the 88-store Record Bar chain that Bill Golden, executive vice president of the chain, described the Saturday before Christmas as "the biggest day in our history." Record Bar's sales volume for the month long Christmas season, Golden said, was approximately 15% ahead of last year's totals.

In New York, Ben Karol, head of the seven-store King Karol chain, stated that "as the Christmas season began, our faces got longer and longer. It just wasn't happening. But the last week proved to be an incredible resurgence, and everybody seemed to be pouring in. Now it looks like we may be 40% ahead of last year."

Similarly, Janna Brooks, purchasing director of the 25-store Licorice Pizza chain in Los Angeles, commented, "We were behind our projections at the beginning of the month, but we had such a great week right before Christmas that we blew our projections through the roof."

She attributed the early month slowdown to the outbreak of Russian flu which hit near-epidemic levels. "There was talk that the state of the economy had a lot to do with it," Brooks said, "but if that was the only reason, it would have continued through Christmas."

Another factor, Brooks said, was that Chanukah and Christmas fell much closer together than usual, so much buying was delayed until late in the month.

People Spending Less

Joe Bressi, vice president of purchasing and marketing for the 85-unit Stark/Camelot chain, also reported healthy sales for a late-peaking season. "We were about 10% over last year," Bressi said, "although this season seemed much later in getting started, perhaps because of the mild winter. I think people were spending less dollars per purchase this year. . . but I also think that was balanced by the fact that we had more new customers than ever before."

At the Portland-based Everybody's Records chain, Everybody's president Tom Keenan said his business was also up about 10%. But they had hoped to be up

$400 Million UA Suit Claims CBS Violated Antitrust Laws

by Alan Sutton

LOS ANGELES—United Artists Records co-chairmen Arthur Mogull and Jerold Rubinstein filed federal and state antitrust suits totalling more than $400 million against CBS Records and Walter Yetnikoff, president of the CBS Records Group.

Also named in the complaints, filed Dec. 21 in U.S. District Court and the Superior Court of California, are Jet Records and its principals Don Arden, David Arden and Sharon Arden and Electric Light Orchestra members Jeff Lynne and Bev Bevan.

The state action was in the form of a cross-complaint in an existing suit previously brought by Jet Records and ELO against UA, Mogull and Rubinstein and others. The federal complaint initiated a new lawsuit.

CBS Records, Yetnikoff, Jet Records, the Arden family and ELO are charged with unlawful restraint of trade and attempting to monopolize the worldwide market of certain ELO phonograph recordings. These same defendants are charged with unfair competition. CBS and Yetnikoff are separately charged with breach of contract, conversion and fraud, and Yetnikoff and some of the Jet Records defendants are separately charged with interference with prospective business advantage. All of the defendants except Don Arden and Sharon Arden are charged with libel.

Series Of Complaints

Both suits arise from circumstances centering around the purchase of United Artists Records by Mogull and Rubinstein from Transamerica Corp. in May 1978. They are the latest in a series of legal disputes that began last July 26 when Jet and ELO sued UA and its owners, charging conversion, unfair competition, breach of contract, false advertising, fraud and interference with contractual relations, among other things. The suit followed an announcement by Jet that it had terminated its previous relationship with UA and had agreed to a worldwide distribution pact with CBS.

On Oct. 20, 1978, the New Jersey State Superior Court lifted a temporary injunction obtained by CBS and Jet that would have blocked Promo Records and its president, Morris Levy, from selling more than 1 million ELO "Out Of The Blue" albums sold to Promo by United Artists Records. The court had granted the injunction two days earlier in response to a suit filed by CBS and Jet charging that Promo, a New Jersey based cutout distributor, purchased approximately 1.2 million "Out Of The Blue" LPs after UA allegedly contracted to sell its entire inventory of that LP to Jet.

Sham Litigation

Mogull and Rubinstein now charge in their antitrust complaints that CBS and Jet "conspired and agreed upon a course of conduct whereby they would use federal and state litigation as a sham to cover an attempt to interfere directly with (UA's) competing trade" in "Out Of The Blue" inventory. As a basis for this claim, Mogull and Rubinstein contend that under the agreement with Transamerica they were entitled to dispose of any Jet artists' product credited as returns from distributors on or

Palladium Rights After Next Year Are Still Unclear

by Aaron Fuchs

NEW YORK — The question of who will have contractual rights to the Palladium Theatre after next year apparently remains unresolved, perpetuating the controversy surrounding New York concert promoter Ron Delsener and Bottom Line promoters Allan Pepper and Stan Snadowsky.

Currently, Marine Midland Bank, trustee of the estate that owns the Palladium, rents the venue to the U.A. theatre chain, which in turn subcontracts it to Delsener. According to a highly placed source at Marine Midland, U.A. has already exercised its first option to renew renting the theatre at the end of 1979. This statement conflicts with a previous report (New York Times, December 12) in which David Pitcher, attorney for the Schinasi estate, stated that the theatre had been sold to a third party, with whom Delsener claims to have negotiated a contract for purchase of the Palladium. At press time, Pitcher was unavailable for comment.

Snadowsky and Pepper earlier reported plans to buy the theatre themselves (Cash Box, December 9). Last week, Snadowsky commented, "I don't know whether the Palladium has been sold, even though Delsener has reported renewing. We were told by the bank that the theatre could be sold, that our bid would be considered, and we haven't heard otherwise yet."

DONATION FOR FOUNDATION — The T. J. Martell Memorial Foundation for Leukemia Research was recently given a check for $5,000 by the Conference of Personal Managers East. The contribution was made on behalf of Bruce Lundvall, president of CBS Records Division who was honored as CPME Man of the Year. Pictured at the ceremony were (l-r): Tony Martell, vice president and general manager of the CBS Associated labels; Gerald Purcell, president of CPME; Lundvall; and Floyd Glinert, board of directors, T.J. Martell Memorial Foundation.

ABC Slates First Regional Meets For Field Staffs

LOS ANGELES — ABC Records will hold its first series of regional meetings involving all field personnel Jan. 8-15 in New York (Jan. 8), Chicago (Jan. 10), Atlanta (Jan. 12) and Los Angeles (Jan. 15).

Announcing the meetings, Arnie Orleans, vice president of sales and merchandising said the gatherings would allow the field staffs to meet face-to-face and discuss goals for the coming year.

"Many of the field people are new," Orleans, vice president of sales and merchandising, said the gatherings would in many respects be a new record company so the meetings will provide an opportunity for the people to get to know one another.

"We will also talk about general goals, aims and problems," Orleans continued, "not in speeches or through seminars, but rather in open discussions about advertising policies, sales policies, relationships with distributors or the relationship between sales and merchandising. It will be a loose agenda, sort of a free-form thing."

The meetings are being coordinated by ABC's regional managers and will be attended by a number of top executives from the label's Los Angeles headquarters, including: Steve Diener, president; Orleans; John Barbis, vice president of promotion; John Smith, vice president R&B promotion; B.J. McElwee, sales vice president; Elaine Corlett, vice president of artist development and publicity; John Conner, director of national accounts; Eric Doctorow, director of product management; Herb Wood, director of advertising and Peter Starr, national director of publicity.

Levy To Be Honored By Jewish Committee

NEW YORK — George Levy, president of Sam Goody, Inc., will be honored with the Human Relations Award for 1979 at a testimonial dinner, tendered by the American Jewish Committee Appeal for Human Relations, on Saturday, Feb. 3, at the Americana Hotel. Retailers Planning Expansion Despite Threat Of Recession

by Leo Sacks

NEW YORK — In spite of high interest rates and the threat of an economic recession in 1979, the nation's leading record retailers have indicated that expansion will be a cornerstone of their retailing philosophy in the coming year.

Pickwick International expects to open a minimum of 75 new outlets in 1979, according to a company spokesman. The majority of the stores will be located in malls that average 3,000 square feet. Pickwick currently operates 330 Musicland and Discount Record stores in addition to its leased departments. New stores will be constructed in California, Arizona, Iowa, Indiana, Florida, Texas, Louisiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.

The 36-store Peaches chain also plans to expand the number of its stores in the coming year, though Debra Colman, director of real estate for Nehi, Inc., which owns Peaches, declined to speculate on the number and locations of the proposed sites. Colman did add, though, that the outlets would range from 13,000 to 20,000 square feet in size.

Everybody's Record Company anticipates the opening of two to four new outlets in the Portland and Seattle areas. Michael Reff, executive vice president of the six-store chain, said that the sites would be free-standing and vary in size from 5,000 to 6,500 square feet.

The 88-store Record Bar chain, whose profits for 1978 "exceeded our projections by 50%," according to Barrie Bergman, president and chief executive officer of the company, plans to open between 15 and 20 outlets in the coming year. Among the stores definitely set to open are those in Newbern and Greenville, North Carolina; Florence, South Carolina; and Bowling Green, Kentucky.

New Grapevine Stores

The Stark/Camelot chain, which currently operates 85 outlets, expects to open between 10 and 15 Camelot Music Mall and Grapevine units in 1979. This will enable the chain to reach its goal of 100 units by 1980. Joe Bressi, vice president of purchasing and marketing for the company, said that 1979's projected figures are consistent with those the chain has maintained for the past five years. Each of the new Camelot units will be located in a mall and will average Bobby Caldwell is a singer/songwriter/producer/arranger who plays all the instruments, with the exception of drums, on his debut album for TK Production's Clouds label. But then Caldwell comes to entertaining naturally.

Born in Manhattan, N.Y. in 1951, Caldwell's parents were members of many road show companies and off-Broadway productions before they did their own TV show during the early days of television.

Bobby received his first guitar which he taught himself to play at age 10, and years later, after mastering saxophone, bass, steel guitar and piano, he joined a group called Katmandu which recorded for Mainstream Records and was hired to tour with Little Richard. During the next few years Caldwell became a prolific songwriter, working on more than 100 soundtracks for Walt Disney and writing his first hit "The House Is Rockin'."

Currently, Caldwell's single "What You Won't Do For Love" is #81 bullet on the Cash Box Top 100 Singles chart and #9 bullet on the Top 100 Black Contemporary chart.

Some Agencies Make Separate Peace With Striking Artists' Unions

NEW YORK — AIEicoff, the 39th largest advertising agency in the country, has signed an interim Television and Radio Commercials agreement with AFTRA and the Screen Actors Guild.

The Chicago-based Eicoff agency, whose billings are 97% in broadcasting, has become the fifth Chicago area agency that has signed an interim agreement with the AFL-CIO unions since the nationwide strike between the unions and ad agencies began Dec. 19.

Bud Wolff, national executive secretary and chief negotiator for AFTRA, commented, "There are many advertising agencies and sponsors whose sentiments are not represented by the major agencies at the bargaining table, and AFTRA has launched a campaign to inform them of the interim agreement that is available to them based on the final proposals at the negotiations."

Fogelman Attributes Music Plus Holiday Sales To 12-Page Inserts

by Jeff Crossan

LOS ANGELES — Business at the southern California-based Music Plus retail stores was up during the holidays approximately nine percent over last year's figures and according to Lou Fogelman, president of the 16-store chain, an ad campaign utilizing 12-page inserts in the Los Angeles Times and Herald-Examiner newspapers was largely responsible for the sales increases.

Fogelman said the full-color inserts, which ran in the Times, Los Angeles' largest daily paper on Dec. 3 and 17, and the Herald-Examiner on Dec. 17 marked the largest print ad campaign ever conducted by the chain. More than a million copies of the inserts, which included ads placed by 22 record labels, were distributed in the newspapers while another 2,000 copies were available at each Music Plus outlet.

Definitely Effective

"We've never done anything on this kind of a scale before," Fogelman said. "It was definitely a very effective part of our overall advertising mix for this Christmas. If J.C. Penney and K mart and Sears stores do this type of advertising all the time we believed it would be good for us and we think it definitely was."

Plans have already been made, Fogelman said, for another, larger insert in the near future. "The response was so good," he said, "that a lot of the manufacturers who were left out last time have already told me that they want to be included in the next insert."

Other than full-page record ads, the inserts included ads for a variety of record accessories and blank tapes. "The front page of the insert was purchased by Music Plus, Fogelman said, and contained a map of Southern California pinpointing the location of the chain's stores.

"We put a lot of the money into the inserts ourselves," Fogelman said, "because this was the first time we've done this sort of thing. I'd say a third of the expense was ours but it was well worth it. All the manufacturers were very pleased and it seemed to help out sales very much."

NEW FACES TO WATCH

Sarah Dash

Sarah Dash is the last member of the trio Labelle to record a solo album. After 16 years of performing with two other singers, Dash says, "I'm learning to be a solo performer, and after such a long time, I'm getting used to hearing my own voice alone."

Dash has known what it's like to be an established artist and is learning the ropes of how to re-establish oneself in a different vein. She recently signed with Kirshner Records, and her single, "Sinner Man," is currently zipping up the disco charts. Referring to the strong cult following Labelle had, Dash notes that she has retained a great deal of those fans. "I was recently walking down the street and was stopped by a long-time fan, who expressed his excitement of my finally having recorded an album of my own," she says.

Although the "Sarah Dash" LP was not initially recorded as a disco album, after the producers listened to the finished product, they decided that "Sinner Man" was a natural disco track.

Dash says she worked hard with producer Wally Gold and executive producer Don Kirshner to create her own sound: "I have brought forth sounds that I never realized I had, with the freedom I have at Kirshner Records, I can really be me."

While noting that she is committed to becoming a total performer, Dash says that she realizes that it will probably take two or three years to build her career to that stage. Meanwhile, she explains that she is ready to make whatever adjustments are necessary to achieve her goal. Not only is she with a new label, but she recently went with BNB management.

Dash started singing with several different groups while in high school, before finally meeting Patti Labelle and Nona Hendryx and forming Patti Labelle and the Bluebells. They had a couple of hits in the '60s, but were relatively dormant for several years, until they met Vicki Wickham in England, who became their manager and helped them establish a new approach to singing. The avant-garde style eventually clicked, taking them to the top of the charts with the '70s hit "Lady Marmalade."

Since Labelle went their separate way, Dash started to work on her own act. After a successful solo engagement at Reno Sweeney's in New York, she went to work on her album.

Reflecting on the relationship she has with the Kirshner organization Dash says, "I have a very strong relationship with Don and his wife. We were friends before we entered into a business relationship, and we are very open with each other and would never let anything break up our friendship."

Steve Forbert

Though he is pictured on the back of "Alive on Arrival" as a kind of rockabilly throwback to the Sun Studios era of guitar-toting singers with their feet spread and hair combed back, Steve Forbert is a folk artist whose voice and poetry immediately suggest the influence of Bob Dylan and Jimmie Rodgers.

As one of nine children growing up on a lettuce farm in Meridian, Mississippi the 23-year-old singer started playing the guitar in his early teens, though he notes that "I played a plastic guice and trash-can drums with my first band, the Mosquitos." Singing in various groups throughout high school and two years of junior college, Forbert played to gatherings at county fairs, teen centers, fraternity houses, park pavilions, honky-tonks with sawdust floors, church socials, parking lots, and "any other place that would have us."

By 1976, when he lost his job as a truck driver at White's Auto Store in Meridian, Forbert headed for New York with a repertoire of his own songs. "I was under the impression that Greenwich Village could offer places for a singer to perform," he recalls. "I didn't want to think twice about it, so I dove right into it, checking it out."

Taking a room at the YMCA on West 23rd St. and keeping "pretty much to myself," Forbert worked a variety of "straight" jobs for the next 18 months while singing his songs by night — at times on the street, then gradually in a succession of Village bars and music clubs like Folk City, the Other End, and Kenny's Castaways. Soon he became the lone acoustic voice at CBGB's, where he was often featured on bills with John Cale and Talking Heads. Forbert later came to the attention of those who steered him to Nempereor, where he signed in the spring of 1978.

The songs on Forbert's debut LP belie the innocence and vulnerability one might expect from a Southern boy who has come North. "Big City Cat," for instance, stands out as a remembrance of his days at the YMCA, while "Grand Central Station, March 18, 1977," reflects his thoughts as a street musician singing at the depot. But most of all, one must admire his wide embrace of the situations he has experienced since coming to New York.

Because of his Southern heritage, Forbert readily acknowledges the influence of the blues in his music. "You just grow up with it," he says. "At home, in church, it's always there." He lists some of his favorite blues musicians as Robert Johnson, Hank Williams, Howlin' Wolf, Sonny Terry, Woody Guthrie, and Elvis Presley. His taste in authors is equally secular, ranging from F. Scott Fitzgerald to Truman Capote to Tennessee Williams.

ARTIST PROFILE

New Studio, Album And Tour Keeping Saxman Scott Busy

by Joey Berlin

LOS ANGELES — After a dozen years as a recording artist, composer, arranger, producer and performer, saxophonist Tom Scott is one of the most respected musicians around. He has appeared on more than 300 albums in the past 10 years and scored dozens of TV shows and movies. He has worked with such artists as Joni Mitchell, Carole King, Paul McCartney, Steely Dan and Doc Severinsen.

So it comes as no surprise that, at the age of 30, Scott is focusing his attention on his career as a solo artist. His latest album, "Intimate Strangers," is an ambitious effort that includes a three-part six-song suite covering all of side one and it's well on the way to becoming his best selling album. It stands at #5 on the Cash Box Top 40 Jazz Albums chart and #132 on the pop albums chart.

Scott is currently resting between legs of a national tour with guitarist Steve Khan. In an interview last week, Scott expressed great pleasure with the way the tour has gone and his prospects as a solo artist.

"It's really true that popular tastes have expanded," says Scott. "We played 'cow towns' in middle America and it didn't matter whether or not the audience knew our songs."

"I'm particularly encouraged by the success of Chuck Mangione and George Benson," adds Scott. "I consider myself to be in the same musical category, the only difference is that they've had hit singles. So now I'm hoping we can spin a hit single off 'Intimate Strangers'."

His Own Studio

While he is clearly enthusiastic about his current tour and album, Scott is most excited about the recording studio he purchased in September with his co-producer Hank Cicalo. Formerly called the Brothers Studio and owned by the Beach Boys, the Santa Monica studio has been rechristened Crimson Sound.

"We completely remodeled the studio," says Scott. "We put in a new board and state of the art technology. I love the technical side of recording, the intricacies and although the day-to-day upkeep work is hard, it's worth it to have a home base."

"Now Hank and I have a place that we know — we don't have to jump around from room to room and worry about being able to book the right room. It's got my management office there as well, so right now I look on that studio as my family."

"I worked the studio once a couple of years ago and I loved it. It moved me on an aesthetic level. It's got that special something, so when I heard it was for sale I jumped. Hank and I had been anxious to get a studio already, so it was perfect."

It makes sense that Scott shares the studio with Cicalo. They met when Cicalo was a top engineer at A&M and Scott was an up and coming artist. Ode Records was then affiliated with A&M and Cicalo was instrumental in getting Scott signed to Ode.

"Hank is my sounding board, he's been my alter-ego on all my LPs since I was with the L.A. Express," explains Scott. "I'm more of a conceptualizer than most artists so I really need someone to sound off on that I trust."

Session Player

The product of a musical family (his father Nathan is a veteran film and TV composer whose credits include the current "Battlestar Galactica"), Scott began making a name for himself as a sax player while in his teens. Soon he was one of the top session players in Southern California, while also recording a series of solo LPs starting with "Honeysuckle Breeze" in 1967 on Impulse Records.

In 1971, his recording of Joni Mitchell's

PRODUCER SERIES

Diamond Stresses Follow-Up As Producer's Responsibility

by Peter Hartz

LOS ANGELES — "It is my job as a producer," says Joel Diamond, "to get the best from the artist in the studio and then to get out and promote the results. Making the record is the first step. Getting it played is the next."

Diamond's attitude is representative of a new breed of producer who nurtures his project from inception to promotion. In many respects, Diamond, in his own work, has expanded the traditional responsibilities of the producer.

'You Have To Be More'

"To be successful today, you have to be more than a typical producer," says Diamond. "I do my own promotion. My biggest capability is putting pieces together. I act as a catalyst. Through experience, I have developed the skill of matching song to artist. I sit down with the artist and exchange ideas and then settle the time, place and arranger."

"Pre-studio work is very important. Some producers live in the studio. I believe rehearsal and forethought is necessary before walking through the door. I'd rather spend more time promoting the record that wasting it unnecessarily in the studio."

Diamond who selected the material and produced Engelbert Humperdinck's platinum plus "After The Lovin'" album, is currently at work finishing Humperdinck's new as-yet-unnamed album, which is slated for release in February.

"With artists like Englebert, Paul Anka, Wayne Newton etc., you need the right song, the right chemistry and the right promotion. Because of his talent, Englebert could sing anything. However, Top 40 radio is scared about hurting its image with an MOR artist. It is a matter of re-education and proving a point. A million people will buy an Englebert Humperdinck album. By smart promotion, you build on Englebert's gigantic MOR base and expand from there."

While maintaining a staff in New York to work adult contemporary stations, Dean Kay Named To VP Post At The Welk Group

LOS ANGELES — Dean Kay has been appointed executive vice president/general manager of the Welk Music Group.

Kay, a 20-year industry veteran with experience as a songwriter, recording artist, producer and television performer, has been with the Welk organization for seven years.

Kay is noted for composing "That's Life," which was popularized by Frank Sinatra.

Joel Diamond

mond works very closely with Epic. By promoting his product, he feels a record stands less chance of being lost.

"I consider myself a hot wire," says Diamond, "I act as a liaison between the market and the company."

Diamond and Humperdinck rediscovered each other for the new album. Humperdinck's last venture "The Last Of The Romantics" was produced by Charlie Calello. However, after the hiatus, Humperdinck returned to Diamond.

'Winning Chemistry'

"On the last record, Englebert wanted to change producers and that is his right. But I am back now and I think it is a winning chemistry. I care for the record," Diamond says.

As was the case with "After The Lovin,'" Diamond is hand-picking the material from hundreds of potential candidates. The aim, says Diamond, is to give the album a varied texture. The first single, "This Moment In Time," debuted on the Top 100 singles chart the week of Dec. 16. Diamond hints that the next single may be more uptempo the Herbert Altman Communications Research firm.

Names of the nominees on the ballots were compiled from the year-end sales charts of the major music industry publications. Results of the voting, tabulated by the Peat, Marwick and Mitchell accounting firm are kept secret until the envelopes are opened during the presentations ceremonies.

In addition to the 20 award winners, there will be a special distinguished merit award.

"American Music Awards" is a Dick Clark Teleshows, Inc. production, produced by Al Schwartz and directed by Tim Kiley. Dick Clark is executive producer.

Performers on the special will include Crystal Gayle, Heatwave and Frankie Valli.

Also appearing on the special will be Debby Boone, Peter Brown, Lynda Carter, Linda Clifford, Natalie Cole, Judy Collins, Dave & Sugar, Mac Davis, Larry Gatlin, Marvin Gaye, Isaac Hayes, Evelyn "Champagne" King, Cheryl Ladd, Kenny Loggins, The Oak Ridge Boys, Johnny Paycheck, Teddy Pendergrass, Lou Rawls, Tanya Tucker, Conway Twitty, Jimmie Walker, Barry White and Deniece Williams.

FEEL FINE IN '79 — One sure way to get '79 off to a great start is to start making plans for the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, which will be celebrating its 10th anniversary this year. Plans call for an expansion of the Festival to include three weekends, running from April 20 to May 6. Artists will be announced shortly, but it's almost certain that you count on the perennial New Orleans favorites like Professor Longhair, Allan Toussaint, Erma Thomas and Earl King to be heard from. Ticket info available from P.O. Box 2530, New Orleans, La. 70176.

OH SO THAT'S WHAT JOHN'S BEEN DOING — Over in England, Michael Watts may have pulled the quote of the year out of Yoko Ono. Yoko was in London taking care of some business for the ill-fated Apple concern, when Watts caught up to her and asked about her husband, one John Lennon, who was back home in New York with the couple's baby, Sean. "John is meditating in his boudoir," Yoko replied. "We are really sorting out our psyches."

BEER AND POP — Following his Bottom Line engagement in New York, Rory Gallagher stopped backstage at the Palladium to visit with Debby Harry of Blondie.

NAMES IN THE NEWS — Johnny Mathis is joined by Jan Oliver on his new album, "The Best Days Of My Life." Jack Gold produced, and Mathis included Cole Porter's "Begin the Beguine" on the LP. George Thorogood, who comes into the Bottom Line January 16 with his Destroyers, has sold out all his shows. . . . And speaking of crowded nightclubs, Steve Forbert packed the Other End before Christmas, even drawing such top CBS execs as Bruce Lundvall and Tony Martell. Forbert garnered critical acclaim, and became THE young rocker to watch in '79. . . . Also in '79, watch for a live Weather Report album, and possibly solo albums from Joe Zawinul and Wayne Shorter. By the way, at Weather Report's New York City appearance at the Beacon theatre recently, Miles Davis showed up to listen to the entire set backstage. . . . Remember James Burton, ace rock guitarist for Rick Nelson? He's on tour in France these days, with French rocker Dick Rivers. . . . And what of Iggy Pop? Well, the number one Stooge is living in Berlin now, where he's working on a new album. . . . Gary Valentine, former base player with Blondie, has signed to Chrysalis as a solo act. . . . Evelyn "Champagne" King is readying her second album, again with T-Life producing.

A REAL NON-BOOK FOR YA — The non-book has been a big team in the publishing world of late, but we had no idea how far so little can go until we saw "Rock Critics' Choice: The Top 200 Albums," compiled by Paul Gambaccini. The author, who has worked for Rolling Stone magazine and BBC Radio, states that, while working with those two mediums, he's "become aware of how seriously consumers weigh the opinions of rock critics before purchasing LPs." Now there's no question that rock critics seriously weigh the opinions of other rock critics before reviewing albums, but asserting that rock critics seriously influence the record consumer is like saying that American voters are seriously influenced by political columnists. Anyway, close to 100 pages are filled with a list of 200 albums, puffed up by pictures, very big numbers, and the personal lists of the "world's leading critics." The way the Top 200 is assembled is really never explained, but you want to want to know the Top 10 anyway, right? Well, here it is, in order — Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band, Blonde on Blonde; Highway 61 Revisited; Astral Weeks; Rubber Soul; Revolver; Exile on Main Street; Let It Bleed; Abbey Road; Born to Run.

NEWS NOTES — Pete Townshend has signed to Atco as a solo artist, where he joins the recently inked Chuck Berry. The move, sources say, isn't expected to affect the future of The Who. . . . Sun Records recently released an entire album of the controversial "Jerry Lee Lewis And Friend" tapes. Folks are supposed to think that the "friend," off course, is a now-departed Memphis rocker, but according to Jerry Osborne, the friend is actually one-time Sun recording star Jimmy Ellis. . . . The London Symphony Orchestra, whose album "Classic Rock" has sold over half a million copies in Great Britain, will come out with "Classic Rock, Second Movement," and a program of classically-treated rock music at the Royal Albert Hall Jan. 30 and 31.

MUSIC IN PRINT — Some new music sheets — the New York Post has initiated a new music section to run one Friday every month. Among the regular contributors will be Lou O'Neill and Lisa Robinson. . . . Dallas now has a regular jazz tabloid, called the Dallas Jazz News, put out by a local fan/writer/musician, Dale McFarland. Circulation is reportedly over 10,000 now. . . . And then there's "Barbra Magazine," described as a "magazine completely about Barbra Streisand." It'll be published four times a year. Need more be said?

POINTS WEST

POINTS WEST — HONORARY MENTIONS — When President Carter arrived recently in Memphis for a Democratic Party mini-convention, Cream-Hi Records artist Al Green was on hand as a representative of the city's music industry. As the President stepped off his plane, he shook Green's hand and congratulated him for doing a fine job. Most people would have been honored or some, perhaps, embarrassed, but Green instead was perplexed. "To tell you the truth," he said later, "I wasn't exactly sure what job he was talking about" . . . Moving further south, Louisiana Gov. Edwin W. Edwards declared Dec. 31 as "Louisiana's Le Roux" Day in the state in recognition of the success the Capitol Records group has achieved with its debut album. The date chosen coincides with the group's headlining concert in Baton Rouge. Gov. Edwards appeared on public television to make the announcement. The concert was recorded on 24-track and video taped for future domestic and foreign promotional use, but considering the elaborate sound equipment used, it's possible some of the audio portion will be used later on a live LP . . . The second annual Bay Area Music Awards is slated for Jan. 30 at San Francisco's Galleria. Tickets are on sale Jan. 5 and the $10 price includes admission to the awards presentation as well as the party afterward. Proceeds from the event go to the Bay Area Music Archives, "a non-profit, professional library dedicated to the recognition, celebration and preservation of the bay area's musical heritage."

CLASH LANDING — The Clash, currently at the front of Britain's punk class, has tentative plans for a U.S. tour beginning late in January. While here, the Epic recording group hopes to land a guest spot on "Saturday Night Live" and then head for some warm-up shows in Toronto and Vancouver before launching its assault on American audiences. According to its preliminary plan, the band will hit the west coast in the first part of February, with stops in San Francisco and L.A., followed by dates in Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago before winding up the tour in New York City. Group members are also hopeful of lining up prizes such as lava lights and digital watches, there will also be mood rings given to some lucky party-goers.

MARLEY HITS FRANCE — Reggae artist Bob Marley recently visited Paris, where a reception was held for him by Phonogram France. Louis Hazan, president of the label, presented Marley with gold discs for his "Exodus" and "Kaya" albums, both of which have sold over 100,000 copies in France. Pictured (l-r) are: Monique LeMercy, program director for Radio TeleLux, France; Marley; and Hazan.

SHORT TAKES — Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers have been working in Sound City studios with Jimmy Iovine producing. MCA's War has also been at work at Sound City with Jerry Goldstein producing . . . The McGulinn-Clark-Hillman album due soon on Capitol is being produced by Ron and Howard Albert . . . Larry McNeely, Geoff Levin and Jack Skinner have finished work on their second direct-to-disc LP for the Sheffield label. Titled "At Home On The Planet," the album should be out in January. The day after that LP was cut, McNeely, Sam Bush, Gary Walters and Charlie Collins cut another record for Sheffield of bluegrass material . . . David Nelson, lead guitarist for New Riders of the Purple Sage, took a wrong turn while driving around the College of Marin and drove his car down a concrete stairway. Fortunately, he wasn't hurt . . . Five dates have been added to Tanya Tucker's current U.S. tour, including shows in San Francisco, Vancouver, Seattle, Portland and Los Angeles. In the midst of those shows, which run Jan. 9-15, she will act as a presenter on Dick Clark's Music Awards Show, set for Jan. 12 . . . The University of Houston's marching band plans to play "Live And Let Die" during halftime of the Notre Dame-U of H football game New Year's Day in a "salute to one of the most prolific songwriters in recent years" — Paul McCartney . . . RSO recording artist Yvonne Elliman's first concert tour of Mexico has been extended. The tour began in mid-November with a week-long headlining engagement at the National Arts Center Concert Hall in Mexico City and has covered a number of other cities throughout the country.

TOP 10 TIME — The Jan. 1, 1979 issue of Time carries the publication's list of the Top 10 LPs of 1978. In the pop category, the winners are (alphabetically by artist): The Clash's "Give 'Em Enough Rope"; Ry Cooder's "Jazz"; Lee Dorsey's "Night People"; Keith Jarrett's "Sun Bear Concerts"; Nick Lowe's "Pure Pop For Now People"; Van Morrison's "Wavelength"; John Prine's "Bruised Orange"; Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes's "Hearts of Stone"; Bruce Springsteen's "Darkness on the Edge of Town"; and Warren Zevon's "Excitable Boy."

READERS RESPOND — We've gotten some interesting responses to our question of last week "What do you feel was the most significant musical development of 1978?" Probably the most creative "answer" we've received so far came from Bob Davidson of Pickwick Distribution Div. in Sun Valley. Davidson actually offers what he thinks are two important musical developments of 1978. The first features a xerox-copied picture of Blondie's Deborah Harry with a saxophone around her neck and the words "sax and drugs" written above it. The other offering, again a xeroxed composite, is the Devo pose and Barry Manilow's face inserted under the famous slogan "Q: Are We Not Men? A: We Are Devo!!!" Beneath the Manilow/Devo photo reads the words "the important sound of things falling apart." Casablanca publicist Art Feln was slightly less cryptic with his answer. He says the most significant development of the year has been "picture discs and colored vinyl." He also notes the "continued explosion of rockabilly" as witnessed by the fact that "it easily doubled its audience in '78." Sax man Tom Scott, who dropped by last week and was posed the question, replied "Punk jazz." Columbia Records publicist Eileen Schnelder says it is the effect punk has had on the rest of pop music. Because of punk, she thinks, a lot of acts are now opting for a more energetic, less complicated and less "studio perfect" sound. Anyone else who has an answer to offer is welcome to direct their reply to Charles Palkert, Cash Box New York, or Randy Lewis, Cash Box Los Angeles.

Infinity Records Canada Launches Operations With Toronto Reception

by Kirk LaPointe

TORONTO — Several international label representatives were on hand for the inaugural reception to open Infinity Records' Canadian operations Dec. 17.

Ron Alexenburg, the label's chief executive, was on hand to officially welcome to the firm Martin Onrot, the label's vice president and general manager of Infinity Records Canada Ltd.

Alexenburg told Cash Box, "We're trying as hard as possible to start the label from the bottom up, with solid personnel in all places of operation."

The label's initial roster of over a dozen acts includes no Canadian-bred artists, but the label will establish a Canadian A&R department before mid-1979. "I believe in delegating responsibility," Alexenburg said. "Martin (Onrot) will have the opportunity to call the shots for this country's operations."

While Alexenburg admitted Canadian signings will not receive automatic American release of product, he said, "I hope that all acts signed to Infinity Canada will be suitable for North American release. That isn't meant to intimate we'll only be pursuing acts that have American commercial possibilities. It's just that I feel there are a few differences in the tastes of Canadian and American consumers."

For that reason, Alexenburg feels the initial success of the label in Canada will not be impeded by the disco and R&B-oriented releases by Hot Chocolate and Dobie Gray. "I really don't categorize music as being either black or white oriented. Music today crosses any barriers."

"If there's any one label I'd like to pattern mine after," says Alexenburg, who was head of CBS' E/P/A operations before obtaining financing for Infinity this past year, "it would be A&M, a strong independent with ties to major distribution through another label (in Infinity's case, MCA)."

Onrot, whose career in the Canadian music industry spans the past decade in the concert promotion and managerial fields, spoke promisingly of the label's Canadian operations. "I look to this new opportunity as the biggest challenge of my life. I will be asked to start up a new label from scratch in a market that is known for its competitive nature."

Onrot, whose Martin Onrot Management operations oversee the development of recording artists Chilliwack and Malcolm Tomlinson, among others, will divest himself of all interests in his artists, according to Alexenburg.

Onrot served most recently as site-coordinator for the highly successful Canada Jam, held this past August north of Toronto.

Sigma Joins BMA

FEATURE PICKS

PABLO CRUISE (A&M 2112)

I Go To Rio (3:36) (Irving Music/Woolnough Music/Jemava Music — BMI) (P. Allen/A. Anderson)

If you aren't going away for the holidays but you would like a taste of something exotic, try this new single from the "Worlds Away" album. Vigorous drumming, "chopsticks" piano work, backing vocals, percussion, guitar and handclap break and strong lead singing make this track suited to pop adventures.

GREY & HANKS (RCA JH-11460)

Dancin' (3:07) (Icecream Music/Unichappell Music — BMI) (L.R. Hanks/Z. Grey)

Remember "Back In Love Again" by LTD? These two guys were the writers. This track from their debut "You Fooled Me" album is a celebration to dancing. Funky rhythmic undercurrents by bass, congas and guitars provide the muscle while Earth, Wind & Fire horns and punchy vocals hold the top. Great for R&B, dancing and pop playlists.

ZULEMA (London 5N-34002)

I'm Not Dreaming (3:23) (Warner-Tamerlane/Van McCoy Music — BMI) (V. McCoy)

Zulema is joined by Van McCoy on this track from her "Z-Licious" album. Flowing strings and xylophone set up the exchange. Both these artists have made names for themselves with disco-related material, but this outing is pure MOR, pop which ought to appeal to a wide-range of formats. Check it out.

SEA LEVEL (Capricorn CPS-0312)

Living In A Dream (3:22) (Stoned Individual Music/Sweet Glory Music — BMI) (R. Bramlett/D. Causey/A. Pearson)

Mysterious electric guitar work opens this track and sets up the image of a dreamworld. A perky high-hat beat, electric piano wanderings and fine vocals round out this excellent ballad which blends jazzy influences with rock set-ups. A fine outing, this track is suited to top pop spots.

SINGLES TO WATCH

DESMOND CHILD AND ROUGE (Capitol P-4669)

Our Love Is Insane (3:40) (Desmobile) Music/Managed Music — ASCAP) (D. Child)

Does your love drive you bonkers? Well, here is your song. Upfront beat, jaunty beat and excellent lead and backing vocals make this track well-suited to pop playlists. The vocals are stunning — soaring, vulnerable yet powerful. Rough edged guitar work adds tasty fills. This track is well-suited to top pop slots.

GONZALEZ (Capitol P-4674)

Haven't Stopped Dancing Yet (3:45) (Buckwheat Music/Old "Eye" Music — ASCAP) (G. Jones)

A 12" version of this track is just starting to create waves on the disco chart and this 7" ought to find its way up through the perils of the pop chart. Melodic, infectious, with an excellent driving chorus makes this track ready for broad acceptance.

PARADISE EXPRESS (Fantasy F-845)

Dance (3:58) (Irving Music — BMI) (P. Jabara)

Handclaps and outspoken bass work open this track which is aimed at making those feet move. Swirling, funky keyboard lines and the disco beat keep the pace fast and engaging. High-hat shushing, rhythm guitar and energized lead and back vocals make this suited to crossover.

SIDE EFFECT (Fantasy F-850)

She's A Lady (3:28) (Spicy Music/Relaxed Music — BMI) (E. Joyner)

This warm R&B ballad sets a pleasant mood. Stocked with analogies about a lover's love, the track is sweetened with strings and soulful backing vocals. The lead vocals, however, are aggressive and impassioned. Suited to R&B lists.

STARBUCK (UA-X1263-Y)

It Feels Good (Brother Bill's Music — ASCAP) (B. Blackman)

The vocals rock and roll on this melodic rollercoaster of a track. Rhythm guitar fills and an expansive keyboard line make this track feel so good. Horns and strings add texture. Stepping base line and smooth backing vocals make this a good pop add.

STARZ (Capitol 4671)

Last Night I Wrote A Letter (3:37) (Maximum Warp/Rock Steady — ASCAP) (R. Ranno/M. Smith)

Taken from the "Coliseum Rock" album, this song is hard-driving rock 'n' roll with heavy fuzz guitar work and kick drumming. Tight lick changes, dead stops and good vocals make this appeal to AOR and tough pop lists.

GREATEST HITS OF THE NATIONAL LAMPOON — Visa 7008 — Producer: None Listed — List: 7.98

Several of the National Lampoon albums were quite successful when originally released solely because of the outlandish routines on LPs such as "Radio Dinner" and "Lemmings." But since then, a number of the performers then with the Lampoon have gone on to even bigger success, so this greatest hits collection should have even more appeal now. With the names of John Belushi, Chevy Chase, Gilda Radner and Bill Murray among those represented, this should be an instant AOR add. OLIVER'S STORY (Original Soundtrack) — ABC AA-1117 — Producer: Lee Holdridge — List: 7.98

This all-instrumental soundtrack recording from the sequel to "Love Story" is a collection of romantic themes put to lushly orchestrated music produced, composed and arranged by Lee Holdridge (with the exception of "Theme From Love Story" and "Love Theme from Oliver's Story," which is composed by Francis Lai), this album features a series of intimate piano-based passages, interspersed with elaborate orchestral arrangements.

PACIFIC STEEL CO. — Tom Brumley, Sneaky Pete Kleinow, Jay Dee Maness, Al Perkins and Junior (Red) Rhodes — Pacific Arts PAC7-121 — Producer: Al Perkins — List: 7.98

The days are long gone when the only time a steel guitar shows up on a record is to achieve a feeling of lament on a country ballad. This LP shows why. These five Men of Steel from the West Coast (hence the title) demonstrate the range of sounds and styles a steel can deliver in the right hands. Considering they've played with the likes of Buck Owens, Rod Stewart, Michael Nesmith and even Stevie Wonder, it could have quite a market waiting.

THE REMAINS — Spoonfed SFD 3305 — Producers: Robin McBride, Billy Sherill and Ted Cooper — List: 7.98

This LP includes most of this obscure but respected '60s pop-rock group's best songs, plus four previously unreleased tunes. The Remains demonstrate on these tracks recorded in 1965 and 1966 that it could passionately create energetic rock 'n' roll that boasts crisp, clean arrangements. Spotting Barry Tashian's aggressive lead vocals and the band's catchy harmonies, this is a noteworthy collection for cultists and mainstream pop fans alike.

Oliver's STORY

DUETS

BUSTIN' LOOSE — Chuck Brown And The Soul Searchers — Source/MCA SOR-3076 — List: 7.98

Opening with the explosive title track single, this album from start to finish is a versatile, dynamic assortment of fiery dance numbers, romantic ballads, and Philly International soul, as witnessed by a stirring version of "Never Gonna Give You Up." "Bustin' Loose" of course showcases the peppy guitar work, charismatic vocals and songwriting talents of Chuck Brown, but the Soul Searchers ensemble playing here is also noteworthy.

DUETS — Jerry Lee Lewis and Friends — Sun 1011 — Producer: None Listed — List: 6.98

Not too long ago, callers lit up the switchboards of radio stations that played "Save The Last Dance For Me" by Jerry Lee Lewis and "friends" because of the rich baritone voice which joined The Killer on a chorus or two. This album presents two full sides of vintage Jerry Lee Sun Records material treated in the same manner, although a close listen reveals some vast vocal dissimilarities between this "friend" and the former Sun Records artist it pretends to be. It's too bad they don't just release the Million Dollar Quartet sessions instead.

ZAP-POW — Mango/Island MLPS-9547 — Producer: Zap-Pow — List: 7.98

Issued on Island's Mango label, this new album by this Jamaican sextet features heated reggae rhythms combined with infectious lead singing by Beres Hammond and chanting background harmonies. What distinguishes Zap-Pow from other reggae configurations is its extensive use of horns, which add a unique dimension to the music. Trumpeter David Madden and saxophonist Glen DaCosta inject spice and color to the album, which features six solid tracks.

TWIST AGAIN WITH THE LOW NUMBERS — Rhino RNLP 004 — Producer: Harold Bronson — List: 7.98

Led by Harold Bronson and Louie Maxfield, the Low Numbers on its debut album has concocted an engaging if somewhat crude hard-rock/new wave formula, as witnessed by such self-penned compositions as "Little Miss Quote" and "Savage Surf." In addition, the L.A.-based quartet also performs capable versions of the Jam's "In The City" and Graham Parker's "Hotel Chambermaid." Too raw for most tastes, but an interesting effort nonetheless.

RADIO NEWS

AIR PLAY

NEW YORK AFTERSHOCKS — After the shocking New York ARBs that had disco WKU-FM dancing to the top of the ratings heap, rumors of format changes, firings and hirings are flying fast and furious. Everything from dethroned market leader WABC going all-talk to one station programming a punk-religious sound is being rumored.

One rumor that turns out to be true is George Taylor Morris has resigned from his position as PD at WPIX-FM/New York. Morris left the station as of Dec. 29 to take a job with RCA Records in Los Angeles as western manager of national LP promotion. Joe Piasek is now acting PD at WPIX. The station is reportedly looking for a new MD as well.

Morris' departure from WPIX is no surprise. The AOR station failed to make the Top 10 among Big Apple music stations with a 1.1 average quarter hour share according to Arbitron's Oct./Nov. book. And an unconfirmed rumor has WPIX changing formats soon, possibly to Top 40. The fall ratings have raised serious questions about the future of AOR radio in the nation's largest market.

STATION TO STATION — ABC's WDAI/Chicago is the latest to jump on the disco bandwagon. The former Windy City AOR went disco at midnight Dec. 21. WNBC/New York's first annual "Holiday Concert" Dec. 12 contributed in excess of 4,000 toys to the U.S. Marines' 32nd annual "Toys For Tots" Christmas campaign. The concert in Madison Square Garden's Felt Forum starred WNBC designated joker Richard Belzer as well as Columbia's Eddie Money and RCA's Richard T. Bear. For every copy sold of Gino Vannelli's "Brother To Brother," Chicagoland Venture Stores, in conjunction with RKO's WFYR and A&M, will donate part of the proceeds to the Big Brothers-Big Sisters organization in Chicago. WFYR has set up displays promoting the campaign in all Chicago-area Venture Stores. Stations from coast-to-coast flooded the airwaves with special features throughout the holiday season. WLIR-FM/Garden City in New York, for example, used New Year's Eve as an excuse for broadcasting six recorded-live concerts. Featured artists included Derringer, Dicky Betts, The Good Rats, Jorma Kaukonen, James Taylor and Steve Miller. For Christmas, KSJO/San Jose not only went commercial free for a day, but it also gave 24 listeners the chance to program 20-minute music sweeps each hour. WMMR/Philadelphia let its listeners trim its Christmas tree with homemade decorations and gave the complete Beatles catalog to the one who brought in the most creative decoration. The three local medical students who brought in a real, formerly living human ear to the station as a perversely apt decoration were not the winners. KMET/Los Angeles recently broadcast RSO's Player live from the Roxy. The KOME Run Number One, a 10,000 meter road race, will take place Jan. 14 in San Jose. A total of 22 prizes will be given out and all entrants will receive a commemorative T-shirt of the event.

BEST OF THE BAY — The second annual Bay Area Music Awards will be held Jan. 30 at the Galleria in San Francisco and the ceremony will be broadcast live on KSAN/San Francisco. "Bammies" will be given out in 18 categories on the basis of votes cast by readers of BAM Magazine, which has been printing ballots in its issues since Dec. 1. Proceeds from the event benefit the Bay Area Music Archives, a professional library dedicated to the recognition, celebration and preservation of the Bay Area's musical heritage.

NAB NEWS — The NAB has filed with the FCC its belief that the Commission has sufficient information to establish standards for AM stereo broadcasting and does not need to supplement or amend its Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. The NAB wants the FCC's Field Operations Bureau to observe testing of the stereo systems during normal operating hours under normal conditions "to confirm the actual compatibility with present standards of AM monophonic transmission and reception." In other words, let's give it a shot and see what happens.

The NAB's Radio Research Subcommittee held its first meeting recently. The subcommittee was created to communicate the concerns of NAB members to the radio ratings services and will provide a forum for discussing issues particularly pertinent to radio research. Subcommittee members include chairman Daniel Kops, president of Kops-Monahan Communications; Keith Donald, general manager at KOWH/Omaha; Richard Dudley, president and GM of Forward Communications; Eugene Jackson, president of the National Black Network; Hal Neal, president of ABC Radio; and Carlyle Wagner, radio vice president for Taft Broadcasting.

SYNDICATION INDICATIONS — Warner-Lambert has renewed its sponsorship for 1979 of "Star Trak" and "Dr. Demento," two syndicated series produced by Westwood One. Both shows are carried in more than 150 markets, according to Westwood One president Norm Pattiz. KDKO/Denver PD Jim O'Brien is putting his disco programming expertise to good use. He has started a disco programming service that includes station IDs, music supplemental service and complete formats. Cost is $200-$500 according to market size. His first clients include Studio 101/Greenville, MI (WDMS-FM) and Studio 107/Texarkana, TX (KADO-FM).

NEW JOBS — T.J. Donnelly has been promoted to general manager of WHBQ/Memphis. The former general sales manager came to WHBQ from WNDE and WFBQ-FM in Indianapolis where he was general sales manager. The new PD at Z-93/Atlanta is John Young, who is moving on from WSM-FM/Nashville. Robin Mitchell has resigned his PD position at KYYX/Seattle. A big shakeup at KWST/Los Angeles (K-West) has sent the old on-air staff packing. KMET Still Tops L.A. ARB's; Philly, San Diego Ratings Out

by Joey Berlin

LOS ANGELES — KMET is maintaining its clear-cut lead over a half dozen tightly bunched competitors in Los Angeles, according to the Oct./Nov. ARBs. The Metromedia-owned AOR pulled away from the pack in last summer's book and showed a slight increase in the fall book (from 4.8 to 4.9 average quarter hour), while its five closest competitors all declined.

In Philadelphia, pop adult giant WIP still leads the music stations with an 8.2, while WDAS-FM pulled down a 6.6 share with its black format and AOR WIOQ went up to a 4.2 for its best book ever.

In San Diego, summer book leaders Top 40 B-100 and AOR KGB-FM dropped back into the pack. The top five stations in the market are now within a half point of each other, according to the fall book. The other three co-leaders are AOR KPRI, Top 40 KMJC (Magic 91) and Top 40 KCBQ.

Los Angeles

Under the direction of program director Sam Bellamy, KMET proved that its leadership in the July/Aug. book was no fluke. With the help of such popular air personalities as Jeff Gonzer and Mary Turner, the Mighty Met is clearly the #1 contemporary music station in L.A., leaving behind the direct competition and taking on the news, talk and beautiful music stations for overall market supremacy.

Eight contemporary music stations are bunched between 2.1 and 3.0 in the battle for second place. Adult contemporary KRTH (K-Earth) slipped from 3.2 to 3.0, while Top 40 KHJ dropped from 3.1 to 2.7 but still came out as the #1 AM music station. Three stations came in at 2.6, although for disco-black KUTE-FM it was a big drop from the summer's 3.7. Adult contemporary KRLA and Top 40 KFI both fell from 3.1 to 2.6.

Also in the race are AOR KLOS, which crept up a tenth of a point to 2.4, and two stations whose formats have changed since the ratings period or are due to change shortly. KTNQ (Ten Q) has been sold and is expected to go Spanish when the deal is cleared by the FCC. KIIS-FM switched to a disco format on Nov. 15 so its fall ratings are of little import. Ten Q and KIIS-FM both scored 2.1 in the fall book.

Philadelphia

Behind WIP, WDAS-FM and WIOQ, there was little change in station rankings in the City of Brotherly Love. AOR WYSP was down from 4.8 to 4.1, Top 40 WIFI lost half a point to 3.9 and pop adult WUSL inched up to 3.7. Other market leaders include Top 40 WFIL (down to 3.6 from 4.2), country WSNI (up to 3.3 from 2.7) and pop adult WMGK (down to 3.1 from 3.5).

AOR WMMR continues to turn things around for the better, moving up almost a point to 3.1 after a similar jump in the summer. Another nice jump was made by WDAS-FM, up a point to 2.1 with its black format. WDAS competitor WHAT also showed a healthy gain, up almost a point to 1.8. Top 40 WZZD slipped half a point to 2.4.

San Diego

Of the top-rated music stations in San Diego, only Magic 91 went up in the fall book, from 3.7 to 4.7. KPRI pulled the highest rating, a 5.2 down from 5.9 in the summer but still twice as high as last fall's rating. Summer leaders B-100 (down to 4.9 from 7.0) and KGB-FM (down to 4.8 from 7.1) both took big drops. Rounding out the leaders is KCBQ, whose 4.7 is almost half its rating of a year ago.

Other notable music stations in San Diego slipped as well. KFMB-FM saw its MOR format down slightly at 3.9, but 91-X took a serious plunge from 4.8 to 2.0, less than a third of its rating of a year ago.

REVIEWS

JANNY — He Made Me Worthy — Sparrow: SPR-1021 — Producer: Billy Ray Hearn — List: 6.98

The lady who gave us "New Covenant Woman" and "Keep On Casting Your Bread Upon The Water" has done it again. She is Janny Grine and her third Sparrow release, "He Made Me Worthy," is worthy of every accolade and award the industry can present. Janny and co-writer/husband Bill Grine have penned some excellent new songs, but "More Than Conquerors" is so outstanding it alone is worth the price of the album. "... Conquerors" will be impossible to overlook when the GMA Dove for song of the year is inscribed. This album also includes several other excellent cuts such as, "By His Word," "Diamond In The Rough" and "Follow The Way Of Love."

NEDRA ROSS — Full Circle — New Song: NS-005 — Producer: Scott Ross — List: 6.98

In 1963, 17-year-old Nedra Talley, along with her two cousins, struck musical gold with "Be My Baby." That group was the Ronettes. Three years and two more gold records later they disappeared from the pop music scene. At the height of their popularity and following tours with the Beatles and the Rolling Stones, the group was dissolved. Now over a decade later, Nedra Ross is back on vinyl and better than ever. Her mellow vocals capture the listener with a subtle quality that is more enchanting with each hearing. Best cuts: "Lean On Me," "With Every Bit Of Strength" and "Gonna Keep My Mind."

FCC Proposal Would Limit Clear Channel AM Signals

by Tim Williams

NASHVILLE — A new Federal Communications Commission ruling proposed last week would seek to restrict the coverage of some 25 clear channel AM stations, including WSM/Nashville. If the new proposal were adopted, the FCC would allow approximately 120 new full-time AM stations to "co-exist" on the same frequencies as the clear channel stations.

Currently, there are 25 Class 1-A AM radio stations with 50,000 watts in the United States. A Class 1-A station has no other radio station on the same frequency, while a simple Class 1 or Class 2 station might share the same frequency with several other stations.

The new proposal would eliminate the "clear channel" status of high-powered stations all across the country including KFI in Los Angeles; WSM/Nashville; WNBC/New York; WLW/Cincinnati; WSB/Atlanta; WBAP/Ft. Worth; WHAS/Louisville; WWL/New Orleans; WHO/Des Moines; KSL/Salt Lake City and WOAI/San Antonio.

When the FCC wrote the rules and regulations covering the class, power and frequency of radio stations, the clear channel stations were created to serve millions of "fringe area listeners" who might not otherwise receive any radio coverage. Now, however, the FCC maintains that only about one-third of the U.S. land area, or less than 4 million people, do not receive radio coverage at night. The FCC seeks to limit the Class 1-A station's coverage to 750 miles skywave, or 100 miles groundwave. This means that a new station on the same frequency as a Class 1-A station would have to be far enough away to protect the larger station's signal from interference.

Opposition

It's not completely clear how the proposal, if adopted, would affect the revenue of the clear channel stations involved, but a group representing those stations, The Clear Channel Broadcasting Service, is strongly opposed to the idea. They say the proposal is not in the public interest, claiming that more than 26 million persons occupying more than half the U.S. land area must rely completely on skywave radio. In a written statement filed with the Commission, "Bud" Wendell, president of WSM/Nashville, said that the proposal "... would destroy the only nighttime AM service now received by millions living in under-served areas." The clear channel group also maintains that they are able to provide improved service to many nighttime travelers, farmers and other small town residents.

Cash Box spoke with Lou Stevens, an attorney for the legal branch of the FCC's Policy and Rules division to find out exactly how this new proposal came about, how its adoption could affect the concerned stations, and when the final results of the proposed changes could be expected.

Stevens related the history of the proposal in revealing that "... the FCC invited comment from all concerned parties in 1975 as to what to do about the status of the clear channel Class 1-A stations." Stevens said that opinion differed in the various segments of the broadcasting community. He said several choices were presented. Stevens added that some of the comments were not in favor of change, while others thought the FCC should try to open-up the airwaves for more stations. He said, "Some of them even wanted to increase the power of the clear channel stations." Stevens admitted that the only way the FCC could put more stations on the air was by limiting the coverage area of the Class 1-A stations.

Co-Existence

The proposals considered last week would allow the 50,000 watt stations to maintain the same power, as explained by Stevens. The only difference would be that an additional 120 AM stations would be able to go on the air by permitting these stations to "co-exist" on the same frequencies as the larger stations.

Stevens said that further comments from interested parties must be submitted to the FCC by April 9, with reply comments due by May 9. He says a final decision on the proposal should be made by the FCC in the latter part of 1979.

The FCC has not yet developed the criteria for new AM applicants. However, inside sources indicate that the FCC will probably favor minority applicants if the proposal is adopted.

The new AM stations which would be created by the proposal would be full-time radio stations, with power ranging from 500-5,000 watts.

Bob Luman Dies Of Pneumonia At 41

NASHVILLE — Country singer Bob Luman, a popular member of the Grand Ole Opry, died Dec. 27 of pneumonia in St. Thomas Hospital here. Luman, who was admitted to the hospital's intensive care unit Dec. 18, was 41.

Luman, who was known for country hits such as "Let's Think About Living" and "Lonely Women Make Good Lovers," had been a member of the Opry since 1965. He had begun his career as a singer during the '50s in his hometown Nacogdoches, Texas. He later became a regular on the "Louisiana Hayride" radio show in Shreveport.

In 1976 Luman was hospitalized with a bleeding esophagus and he never completely recovered despite an operation to correct the condition. A hospital spokesman said that while he was in the intensive care unit, Luman's breathing was being supported by a ventilator.

Funeral services were held Dec. 29 at Alexander Funeral Home in Gallatin. Luman was buried in Woodlawn East Memorial Park in Hendersonville.

Luman is survived by his wife Barbara and daughter Melissa, 11, of Hendersonville. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Luman, reside in Nacogdoches and his sister Mrs. Pat Everett lives in Ohio.

Luman recently had announced that he would soon sign with a new record label.

THE COUNTRY COLUMN

This is the season of good cheer and gift-giving, and Nashville is in full swing. The holiday spirit is in the air here with music business slacking off until the new year. Speaking of gifts, MCA's Jerry Clower decided this year he was tired of giving "worthless" Christmas gifts, and he changed his style. Clower gave $10,000 to his business manager Tandy Rice, president of Top Billing Management and Booking Agency. But Rice will never get to spend the money because it is a donation establishing the Tandy C. Rice, Jr. Scholarship Fund at The Citadel, Rice's alma mater in Charleston, S.C. The money will be used for the education of a needy cadet.

Epic's Tammy Wynette will return to Las Vegas for a Jan. 17-30 booking at the Copa Room of the Sands Hotel. Comedian Shecky Greene will open her shows. Managed by The Jim Halsey Co. in Tulsa, Okla., Tammy has been awarded two Grammys and has won "Female Vocalist of the Year" three times by the Country Music Association in her successful career.

Jerry Clower

World Champion Rodeo-rider-turned-singer Larry Mahan performed recently at Nashville's Exit/In and has been cutting material here under the production reins of Richie Albright, who is Waylon Jennings' drummer, right-hand man and co-producer.

The producers of "Nashville Swing," a Canadian syndicated television show, held a reception at the Spence-Manor last week to acquaint music row folks with the format of the TV show.

ABC's the Oak Ridge Boys will leave for Las Vegas this week where they will appear with Roy Clark for two weeks beginning Dec. 31 at the Frontier Hotel in Las Vegas. The Oaks new single, "Come On In," sits this week at #25 bullet on the Cash Box Country Singles chart.

All future singles released to radio stations by the Nashville division of MCA will be offered as 'A' and 'B' sides, rather than the customary one-cut 'A' side generally sent to radio stations. The new policy becomes effective Jan. 1. MCA national country promotion manager Nick Hunter says the new policy affords a greater chance of exposure for album cuts than was previously possible on the standard double 'A' releases.

Columbia's Barbara Fairchild will appear at the Sportsman Lounge in Moab, Utah on Jan. 19 and at Arcadia Park in Montrose, Colorado on Jan. 20.

Lifesong artist Gail Davies recently completed a five-city tour which introduced her to label personnel, media tastemakers, major accounts and radio personnel throughout the country. The tour also introduced her new album, "Gail Davies."

Inergi's Mary K. Miller entertained last Saturday night in Houston at a reception in the new Inergi 24-track studio. The TCB Band (Elvis' old group) backed Mary K. Inergi just opened Nashville offices in Suite 403 in the United Artists tower on music row. Frank Jones will be heading the operation here.

RCA recording artist Jim Ed Brown and his family are taking a 10-day skiing vacation in Aspen, Colo. From the slopes of the Rocky Mountains, Brown flies to Puerto Rico for his first Country Music Association board of directors meeting Jan. 9-11. Brown was elected to the CMA board in Oct. 1978.

Connie Cato is under new direction. Jim Pratter, former manager of the late Mel Street, is taking the reins of her career at the beginning of the new year.

The Kendalls are back on the road for 1979 after a three-week vacation spent decorating their new six-bedroom home. Between wallpapering, carpeting, painting, buying and arranging furniture, Royce and Jeannie rested up for their heavy touring schedule in Jan. and Feb. to support their next album, "Real People", to be released the end of Jan. on Ovation Records.

Tom T. Hall and his son Dean took to the woods in Monroe, La., to hunt duck and in Brackettville, Tex. to go after wild boar and deer. Accompanying them on the hunting trip in Louisiana were wildlife artist Ralph McDonald and Nashville frame shop owner Al Crockett; in Texas, business associate Clarence Selman joined them. The hunting trips marked the beginning of Hall's three-month sabbatical from touring to complete an autobiographical novel Doubleday will publish next fall.

Jeanie C. Riley has been named the commercial spokeswoman for Syntax Agribusiness-Diamond Laboratories, a leading producer of pharmaceuticals for farm animals whose primary product is a skin-implanted capsule that enables cattle to reach maximum weight quickly. With her band, "The Red River Symphony, Riley has agreed to make personal appearances, record radio commercials and participate in related advertising promotions for Syntax. Riley is now recording for The Benson Co.

Journalist Stacy Harris has published the first books on country music aimed at the juvenile market. "Comedians of Country Music" and "The Carter Family" have been published by Lerner Publications Co. of Minneapolis, Minn. and are targeted for distribution to elementary and junior high schools throughout the United States and parts of Canada. The author has taped a full 30-minute interview with John Seigenthaler, host of WDCN-TV's "A Word On Words."

Monument's Ray Price worked in Jack Clement's studios most of last week finishing up his first album for the label. Price's new single, "Feet," is #19 this week on the chart. Fred Foster is handling production work on Price.

A new series of night courses dealing with the music business (and taught by working members of the music industry) will begin in early January at Belmont College. Courses will include music publishing, copyright law and administration, introduction to electronic music, music and commercial song writing.

The theatrical motion picture rights to Bobby Goldsboro's song, "The Cowboy And The Dandy," has been purchased by Jimmy Caan's production company. And Bobby rewrote the lyrics so Dolly Parton could record the song. She recorded it as "The Cowgirl And The Dandy."

Scorpion's Jean Shepard and the Second Fiddles have signed an exclusive representation agreement for bookings with the Atlas Artist Bureau, Inc. Shepard happens to be the first female country artist to ever sell a million copies of a single with "A Dear John Letter."

United Artists' Kenny Rogers (along with Len Epand) has written a book, "Making It With Music," which is a comprehensive, practical guide in dealing with the various aspects of the music business. The 224-page book takes a hard look at such subjects as getting started, making the right deals, coping with the road and success and handling a fall from fame. A veteran of many years in the business, Rogers' approach is to treat music from a down-to-earth practical perspective. "Making It With Music" retails at $5.95 and is published by Harpers & Row.

THE COUNTRY MIKE

LARRY JAMES GOES BACK TO WBT — In a surprise announcement by WYDE/Birmingham PD Mike Malone, it has been revealed that after only one month at WYDE, celebrated morning man Larry James will return to WBT/Charlotte as of December 29. Making the announcement Malone said, "This is kind of embarrassing . . . considering the amount of publicity we were able to generate, both nationally and locally, when we hired Larry." Malone's big problem now is finding an exceptional talent to replace James. It will require a heavy, and if you would like a crack at a great job with an "excellent" salary . . . send tapes and resumes to Mike Malone . . . WYDE Radio, 2112 11th Ave. South, Birmingham, Alabama . . . 32505. Malone says he'll hire the right person immediately.

WBAM HOSTS CELEBRATION IN MONTGOMERY — Montgomery area sponsor wide variety of industry representatives were invited to the celebration of WBAM-FM's the-air opening with 100,000 watts. WBAM has been trying to get FCC approval to go ahead with their FM for almost a year but was hampered in their efforts to obtain the needed approval by the local competitor WLWI. WLWI had tried to keep WBAM's FM from getting on the air, through a series of legal appeals to the FCC. Station manager for WBAM AM/FM, Cyril Brennon, hosted the reception in Montgomery's Civic Center, with several dozen industry representatives attending, including Irv Woolsey, Joe Deters and Ron Chancy from ABC Records . . . Jerry Seabolt and Hilton Hawkins from United Artists Records . . . Doyal McCullum from Mercury Records . . . Jack Pride from Capitol Records . . . Nick Hunter from MCA Records . . . Dick Kiser from Hickory Records . . . and Ed Hamilton from Lone Star Records. Cash Box thanks the entire Brennon family, especially Cyril, Erin and Diane, for the excellent Montgomery hospitality.

Gil Rosenwald

VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER PROFILE — Gil Rosenwald was appointed VP/GM at WHK/WMMS/Cleveland in July of 1977, after nine years with the station. Rosenwald started his broadcast career with WHK/WMMS in 1968 as an account exec when the stations were owned by Metromedia. He moved to WKYC in 1969, returning to WHK/WMMS again in 1973. In 1975, Rosenwald was appointed General Sales Manager for both stations, and was then named station manager one year later.

Johnny Gray (former WYDE/Birmingham PD . . . now regional promotion for RCA/Nashville out of Atlanta) was in Nashville last week for meetings. Gray was associated with WYDE for more than 12 years before going into record promotion almost a year ago. Gray says he misses radio, but he still does a little announcing once in a while. Last week, he put his voice on several promo spots for WBAM/Montgomery. Gray says all his old friends can get in touch with him at 404-455-3636.

RADIO EXECUTIVES — ON THE MOVE — Congratulations to former KCUB/Tucson PD Bill Mortimer on his new position as station manager for KCCC in Carlsbad, New Mexico . . . Doug Brannan will replace Mortimer as PD at KCUB.

Larry Scott, PD at KJJJ/Phoenix, is planning to leave the station. Scott will be announcing his future plans after the first of the year. In the meantime, KJJJ MD Terry Black has moved into the public affairs department of the station. Larry Barwick will return to KJJJ as the new PD, and Gary Bender will take over the music duties.

KRAM/Las Vegas mid-day man Chuck Manning had an interview with Anne Murray while she was in town a couple of weeks ago. KRAM put together a one-hour special from the interview to run on the air last weekend. They'll be doing the same thing with Larry Gatlin this week.

KZIP/Amarillo music director Dugg Collins has been having some trouble with his record service ever since he moved to KZIP from KDJW. He asks that all record labels check to make sure his records are going to the right station. Change the addressograph label to read: Dugg Collins . . . KZIP-Radio . . . P.O. Drawer 7968 . . . Amarillo, Texas . . . 79109. If you have something going U.P.S., the address is 3309 South Georgia . . . 79109.

KNOE/Monroe, Louisiana also needs record service from UA and RCA.

Have a great New Year's . . . 'til next week . . .

20 MUSICAL SEDUCTION BOBBY VALENTINE (Bronco 106)

"Keep your eye on Ruben Blades because he is going to transform salsa." This comment was made by one of the best discoverers of new talent in the Latin music field, Cheo Feliciano. And his words again have proven to be true — Ruben Blades is turning salsa around.

Ruben was born in Pueblo Nuevo, Panama. His early musical influence came from his parents, his mother was a singer, his father a percussionist. However, aware of the hardships of a musical career, Ruben's parents insisted that he follow other directions. It was to please his parents that he enrolled at the National University of Panama to study law. In 1974, Ruben graduated from the University, a full-fledged lawyer, and went to work at the National Bank of Panama as one of its attorneys.

In 1972, while visiting the island of Puerto Rico, Richie Ray and Bobby Cruz, two top Latin musicians from the island, brought Ruben Blades to the attention of Fania Records. Ruben was offered a contract although there was no immediate opportunity for him to record. In 1974, with a law degree and all his legal cases taken care of, Ruben decided to come to New York in order to find out once and for all if he could make it in the music field. Nobody knew him musically so his services weren't required by the established bands in New York and Fania Records wasn't yet prepared to record him. But he remained confident of his possibilities and decided to hang around. He took the only thing that Fania Records could offer him at the time: a job in the mailroom of the biggest salsa recording company in New York.

Some of the artists in the company that were aware of Ruben's talents felt he shouldn't be doing this kind of job, but Ruben felt it was necessary to do this in order to stay in touch with what was happening at Fania. He recalls philosophically: "Young kids who are starting out should realize that a lot of times you have to spend time doing things you don't want to do in order to get the things you want."

And what Ruben wanted came at Fania's mailroom door one day in the person of Ray Barretto. Ray was looking for a new singer for his band and asked Ruben to audition for him. Ruben was hired right away. He recorded four songs on Barretto's new album, two of them his own compositions "Canto Niche," and a slow bolero, "Eso Es Amar."

In 1976, Ruben saw his opportunity to team up with Willie Colon, whom he had known since 1969. Their first LP, "Metiendo Mano," was the beginning of a mutually satisfying and successful partnership. That LP was recently awarded a #1 award in the trade publications.

Ruben's desire to upgrade the material that was being written for the Latin field led him to pursue a composing career on his own. Consequently, many recent Latin hits have been written by Ruben Blades. He is highly admired by his own peers, who are anxious to record Ruben's tunes. Ricardo Rey recorded "Guaguanco Raro," Ismael Miranda recorded "Cipriano Almenteros," "Amor Pa' Que," and "Las Esquinas Son," Bobby Rodriguez Y La Compania have had hits with "Numero 6" and "What Happened."

Ruben is serious about his role as a composer. "There's been too much copying of old Cuban numbers for too many years. In order for music to progress, it has to develop in the minds of the artists. A lot of heavy names have kept the levels of our minds in the same direction for years and years." Ruben feels that a song doesn't have to sacrifice its musical excitement in order to be socially relevant, as evidenced by his own hit tune, "Pablo Pueblo."

No Formal Training

Never having had any formal training in music, Ruben's understanding of the musical process is amazing. He views the total picture, in the context of cultural development, and as such as he tackles the difficult task of writing lyrics. And his lyrics are truly inspirational. Ruben himself is still surprised at the public's reactions to the words of his songs. But he knows that through lyrics salsa can become a truly folk idiom by expressing the true message of its time and place. "Our music has always been applied to dancing and rightfully so. My contention is that you can also make it educational and reflect the realities of today. Unfortunately, most of the themes of our music deal with unknown qualities... I would like to expand the concepts of music."

A very private man, Ruben Blades is not given to the flashy stage costumes that characterize other performers. Especially as a Fania All-Star, Ruben is emphatic about the fact that he is going on stage to sing, not to put on a fashion show. The enthusiastic reception by his fans proves him right once more. His easily flowing melodies and flexible soneos are exciting; his understanding of the rhythmic phrase, how to play around with it, how to make it more interesting, makes him a giant in the Latin field. And despite all the outrageous costuming and glitter on the stage, Ruben's vocal glitter steals the show.

In the future, Ruben feels he would like to act and make movies — the acting bug that bit him in Panama when he performed "West Side Story" has not quite left him. But his first love was and always will be music.

LATIN PICKS

QUISIERA SER — Jose Jose — Arcano DKL1-3420 — Producer: None Listed

Multi-talented singer Jose Jose scores again with another sparkling album that consists of a collection of love songs as only he can perform them. He has recently been acclaimed as the best ballad singer in Mexico, and here, he demonstrates why cut after cut. Likewise, the orchestra backing him in this album is superb. The songs are beautifully suited to his style, with excellent string arrangements. Another hit for Jose Jose.

CON CARINO PARA TI — Sonora Santanera — CBS-Mexico-DCS-858 — Producer: Federico Mendez

Sonora Santanera has been regarded as a legend in salsa music in Mexico for sometime. On this remarkable album most of the cuts are slow moving boleros, merengues, son montuno and mambos. The vocals are superb. The orchestra is very tight, except for one number called "Dondo" in which the clave beat is out of meter. The arrangements are great and there are a few good solos by the piano player.

LA ORQUESTA DE MI TIERRA — Sonora Poncena — Inca-1064 — Producer: Papo Lucca

Sonora Poncena has had a couple of supporting credits to their name. The group has been considered to be one of the top sellers in Puerto Rico and United States and in this album they demonstrate their music ability. Orchestrations by Papo Lucca are superb. Female vocalist Yolanda Rivera sounds like a young Celia Cruz. A good horn section and tight rhythm makes this album a masterpiece of contemporary salsa.

ATLANTIC PARTY — Atlantic Records hosted a holiday party at the New York, New York disco/restaurant recently. More than 1,000 people attended the bash including a number of celebrities such as Dan Aykroyd and John Belushi (the Blues Brothers), Roberta Flack, England Dan & John Ford Coley, and Peter Tosh. New Studio Album And Tour Keep Saxman Scott Busy

"Woodstock" on his "Great Scott" album caught the author's attention and Scott's career shifted directions. Mitchell asked him to play on her "For The Roses" LP, and later she requested that his whole band, the L.A. Express, work with her. In 1974 the L.A. Express went out with Mitchell on a tour preserved on vinyl on her "Miles Of Aisles" LP. By the time the tour was over, Scott had reached a new level of popularity with artists and the public alike. Everyone from former Beatles to mainstream jazz artists wanted his help on their projects.

Meanwhile, Scott had also become a leading TV and film score composer. Starting with a "Dan August" show in 1969, he has scored a long list of TV shows and in 1972 he did his first on many movie soundtracks for "The Culpepper Cattle Company." But by 1975, his weekly composing for "Baretta" and his desire to get serious about his solo career convinced Scott to cut back his session work.

"I used to do seven to 10 dates a week in the studio, but I had to cut back to concentrate on my own career," remembers Scott. "Now I'm doing far fewer sessions but ones I enjoy more. Now I know the artists I work with, but before, that wasn't always true."

Still considered a "session player" by many, Scott objects only to the constrictions of being placed in the category.

"If I'm limited by the 'session player' title I'm against it because I want to be judged by the work I'm doing now. But there's nothing wrong with doing sessions. In fact, doing a lot of sessions is one of the best ways to be in on what's happening on the music scene, literally."

On his new "Intimate Strangers" LP, Scott got his first chance to use film scoring techniques on his own albums. The suite on side one tells the story of a brief affair between a musician on the road and a woman in the audience.

"The suite is based on a story I roughly lived," Scott notes. "It was easier to write than a film score because it was my own story, my own spark and I let my imagination go from there. I wasn't locked into the action someone else had written. But I got to use the skills I learned in translating other people's stories to music."

"I often have trouble deciding which direction to move in, so the suite idea was great for my album because it gave me a clear direction. But now I don't know what I'm going to do for a followup album. Right now I'm leaning toward something harder and funkier than my last three LPs. I've been using the same band for three LPs and I think it's time for a change of players as well."

Beside cutting his first album in his new Crimson Sound Studio around March, Scott's plans after finishing his tour include co-producing the next Boz Scaggs album and looking at film projects. One possible film project in the works is the story of how the Blues Brothers, the half-serious blues act put together by "Saturday Night Live" funnymen John Belushi and Dan Aykroyd with Scott in the horn section, got together. A screenplay is now being written by Aykroyd.

But whatever specific projects he undertakes, Scott is enthusiastic about his potential in a music scene increasingly open to his type of music.

"After all the guitar-dominated years, it's natural for listeners to open to other instruments," says the sax-lyricist expert. "The sax is clearly on the upswing in rock music, which is part of the growing acceptance of horn music. I'm not sure exactly where contemporary music is going, but I'm confident of one thing — it won't go backwards."

$400 Million UA Suit Claims CBS Violated Antitrust Laws

after April 1, 1978.

Interestingly, according to court papers filed by the UA co-chairmen, when they sought to purchase United Artists Records from Transamerica they initially went to CBS for financing. The proposal fell through, however, and Mogull and Rubinstein obtained financing elsewhere for the purchase.

Block Sale

Although CBS allegedly acquired approximately 475,000 "Out Of The Blue" albums, as well as the right to manufacture and sell additional copies of the album as part of its agreement with Jet, Mogull and Rubinstein charge that CBS and Jet conspired to block the sale of UA's "Out Of The Blue" returns, in violation of the Sherman Act. Specifically, they allege:

—That CBS Records and Yetnikoff "explicitly made an agreement" whereby CBS would purchase UA's "Out Of The Blue" inventory for $3.00 per album, excluding defectives, and that CBS subsequently breached the agreement under the pretext that a substantial portion of the UA inventory was defective.

—That the defendants instituted "baseless, duplicitous and harassing litigation" in an effort to "deplete the financial resources" of UA and to expose the company to "public obloquy, ridicule and disapproval."

—That CBS Records, through Yetnikoff, breached a long-standing record club agreement between United Artists Records and Columbia House by "informing the president of the Columbia House record club that unless Columbia House dishonored and breached its agreement with Mogull and Rubinstein's company, Yetnikoff would terminate the license of CBS Records of its enormous repertoire to Columbia House and in addition Columbia House would not be allowed to press its albums at CBS-owned pressing plants."

—That during the months of October and November 1978, defendants took out full-page ads in trade journals and newspapers with national and international circulation, which encouraged a public boycott of Mogull and Rubinstein's product.

—That defendants contacted recording artists under contract to UA and have "attempted to induce them to breach their contract" with the label.

In addition to treble damages under the antitrust laws, Mogull and Rubinstein are seeking punitive and exemplary damages in excess of $400 million. They are also asking for injunctive relief.

A spokesman for CBS declined to comment on the antitrust complaint.

Stevie Wonder To Perform At Dr. King's 50th Birthday

by Cookie Amerson

LOS ANGELES — Stevie Wonder has agreed to perform at a benefit concert to commemorate Dr. Martin Luther King's 50th birthday. The concert is part of the annual event held to observe King's birthday. Wonder, who has not performed in concert for over four years, was contacted by King's widow, Coretta Scott King, who asked him to do the show.

The Martin Luther King Center For Social Change has set aside Jan. 11 to Jan. 16 for the 50th anniversary commemoration ceremonies. The theme for this year's activities is "The Fiftieth Anniversary, You Can Fulfill The Dream." The center is going all out to make this year the most memorable. George Clements, director of communications for the center said, "This year's thrust is to get Dr. King's birthday made a national holiday; there is also a U.S. stamp being issued in his honor."

Many dignitaries are scheduled to attend, including Senator Edward Kennedy, UN Ambassador Andrew Young, several Congressmen and labor leaders.

The United Nations will hold separate ceremonies honoring Dr. King Jan. 16, at the World Congress Center. United Nations officials, and additional political figures will gather to commemorate Dr. King's numerous contributions to the betterment of mankind.

All proceeds from the concert will be donated to The Martin Luther King Center For Social Change. The show will be held at Atlanta's largest indoor facility, the Omni, which holds more than 17,000 people. The performance will be held from 8 p.m. to midnight and Wonder will be the headlining performer. Wonder's organization will also be adding two additional acts to open the show. Tickets for the concert went on sale Dec. 28.

BMA FOR LIFE — Mary Mason, radio station WHAT talk show hostess and Philadelphia Daily News columnist, presents Black Music Association co-founders Kenneth Gamble (left) and Edward W. Wright with a $1,000 check, thereby becoming the BMA's first lifetime member. As chairperson of BMA's Conferences and Meetings Committee, she will be integral in the planning and implementation of BMA's Founders Conference, June 8-12 in Philadelphia.

THE RHYTHM SECTION

IMPERIALS TO EMI — The Imperials, who recently signed with EMI Records, have just completed a successful Japan tour, and are remaining in the country to negotiate dates for Korea and Hong Kong. The trio is scheduled to release its first EMI single Jan. 15 with an album session set for February. Based on the success that the threesome had in the Far East, a TV special is under consideration featuring the Imperials with Japanese artists on the subject of American Soul and Disco Music.

STYLISTICS WAKE A SLEEPING LION — TK recording artists The Stylistics have a new single coming, which is a remake of the early sixties hit, "The Lion Sleeps Tonight." Producers Hugo and Luigi have added a disco treatment to the tune, and will release it as a 7" and 12".

CUBA IS RUNNING — Cuba Gooding has just completed his second solo LP effort for Motown. Gooding originally recorded a tune called "Running Man," but became so overcome with the movie "Superman" that he rewrote new lyrics to the "Running Man" track, and he now has two of the same song with different lyrics. Since this is the first time Gooding has written for himself, he is really going all out.

NAB MINORITY PROGRAM — The NAB Minority Legal Fellowship program will be adding Yale law student Enola Gay Aird. The program consists of a one-year fellowship with the NAB's legal department where a selected minority student participates in rule making proceedings, drafts briefs for appellate reviews, assists the government relations department in its activities before Congress and becomes involved on a daily basis with the federal regulatory process. Aird, who will graduate from Yale Law School next year, will join NAB in August.

SAD XMAS — John Smith, vice president of special markets at ABC Records, had a very sad Christmas Day. Smith's mother, Ms. Viola Tidwell, whom he had not seen in quite some time, was able to come and visit for the holiday, but she passed away on Christmas Day during dinner.

HISTORY OF THE APOLLO — Lou Rawls will co-host the upcoming NBC special called "Uptown," which is a history of Harlem's Apollo Theatre.

CRUSADERS FEATURED ON TV SPECIAL — The Crusaders will be featured performers on the television special "A Celebration: The Year Of The Child." The three-hour program will be syndicated live nationally on Jan. 13, and will focus on the problem solving work of several children-oriented service organizations. In addition to the Crusaders, the special will feature performances by Gladys Knight, Isaac Hayes and Jose Feliciano. The show will be produced by "Rock Concert" producer, David Yarnell.

Salsoul Launches Promo Campaigns

LOS ANGELES — Salsoul Records has launched a major merchandising campaign in support of the label's most recent LP releases, "Ole, Ole" by Charo and "Instant Funk" by the group of the same name.

In support of the Charo album, four-color posters and life-size, cut-out stand-ups have been shipped to key dealers across the country. Initial pressings of the album are being issued in a limited edition on pink vinyl. Four-color posters and mobiles are also available for Instant Funk.

For both albums, radio and television time is being reserved across the country in addition to national consumer print advertising. A trade ad campaign will begin in mid-January, with dealer co-op advertising beginning shortly after.

A personal appearance promotion tour for Charo and Instant Funk will run in conjunction with the merchandising campaign.

Produced by Tom Moulton, "Ole, Ole" was arranged and conducted by John Davis and spotlights Charo's classical guitar playing on tunes such as "Stay With Me" and "Concierto de Aranjuez."

Salsoul has also released a disco remix of Instant Funk's single "I Got My Mind Made Up (You Can Get It Girl)."

'Superman' To Get Major Label Push

LOS ANGELES — Warner Bros. Records has begun mapping out a major national merchandising, advertising and promotional campaign on behalf of the two-record soundtrack LP from the film "Superman."

Merchandising Aids

Merchandising aids will include Superman patches, buttons, T-shirts, life-size stand-ups and posters. A motorized retail display, involving a phone booth and a revolving Superman mobile is also being prepared. Contests on both consumer and display levels are also being planned for accounts and radio stations.

Rush Earns Gold

LOS ANGELES — "Hemispheres," the latest album by Phonogram/Mercury recording artists Rush, recently was certified gold by the RIAA.

Statlers Get Gold

LOS ANGELES — "Entertainers... On And Off The Record," the Statler Brothers album on Mercury Records, has been certified gold by the RIAA.

ON JAZZ

"New Orleans Heat" is the title of the new Albert King album on Tomato, and it is one that should knock the socks off any blues fan. Recorded in New Orleans, it was produced by Allen Toussaint and engineered by Cosimo Matassa and Skip Godwin. Among the N.O. veterans on the date are Wardell Quezergue, June Gardner, Charles Williams, and George Porter and Leo Nocentelli from the Meters. Great King!

India Navigation continues to document the best young players of the avant garde. The latest releases include "Song For The Old World" by Anthony Davis and "Paseo Del Mar" by the remarkable young flautist, James Newton.

The Art Ensemble of Chicago is a unique organization that often combines contemporary theatre effects to enhance its music. Now they are diversifying with their own AECO label and getting into such pop-related paraphernalia as T-shirts, buttons, photos, window decals and bumper stickers. Check it out at Box 49014, Chicago, Illinois.

Reedman Chris Woods, late of the Clark Terry and Ted Curson groups, has recorded his second LP for Delmark.

Lest there be any confusion, Don Elliott is alive and well in Connecticut. It seems as though several broadcasters confused Elliott with Don Ellis, who died recently.

The first Muse release of material from the Dutch Timeless label will be next month. Five LPs are scheduled, including Art Blakey & the Jazz Messengers' "In My Prime," Joanne Brackeen's "Ast," "Lionel Hampton And His Giants," Tete Montollu's "Catalonian Folk Songs," and "Medal Soul" by a Dutch quartet led by Rein De Graaff and Dick Vennick.

Upcoming from Columbia: Cedar Walton's first for the label, "Animation," which is co-produced by Walton and George Butler and will feature original Walton material for the most part; Lonnie Liston Smith's "Exotic Mysteries;" a single album drawn from the four-LP Return To Forever album; and "Just Before After Hours" by soprano sax-flute lady, Hilary.

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

THE SUMMER KNOWS — Art Farmer — Inner City 6004 — Producer: Itoh and Itoh — List: 7.98

A mellow quartet date, with Farmer on flugelhorn all the way and a sterling rhythm team of Cedar Walton, Sam Jones and Billy Higgins. Five standards and one Farmer line comprise the program, with the title track perhaps the most striking. Laid back, burnished maturity here in an album that should be a favorite of late night DJs.

BOB MOVER — Vanguard 79408 — Producer: Danny Weiss — List: 7.98

Mover is a young alto player with plenty of fire but also a more thoughtful approach than many of his peers. A diverse program of originals, standards and Brazilian tunes gives Mover and his front line partner, the impressive Claudio Roditti, a chance to display their abilities. An engaging album with several different moods, but one that makes one look forward to more Mover.

AUTUMN — Tommy Tedesco — Trend TR 514 — Producers: Albert Marx and Dennis Smith — List: 15.98

Looking for some very glassy guitar work that can only be truly revealed via direct disc recording? Catch up to this LP and relax as Tommy T. glides his way through some soft classics and some invigorating self-penned tunes. Thoughtful and introspective and at the same time slick and sly, this album is bound to satisfy. After a quarter of a century of session work, recording dates and movie calls, it's time Tedesco got the recognition he deserves.

THAT BOP THING — Howard McGhee — Bethlehem 6039 — List: 6.98

A stimulating bebop date from 1955 finds McGhee in the company of Duke Jordan, Percy Heath, Philly Joe Jones and Sahib Shihab. Eleven tracks, none overly long, provide space for what is probably the finest McGhee on record. Rhythm is a delight and the performances are superb.

LEGENDS — Dave Valentin — Arista GRP 5001 — Producers: Dave Grusin and Larry Rosen — List: 7.98

Valentin's youth (26) is no indication of experience as on this stylistic potpourri he dips into the classical pool as well as the Latin jazz river for which he is known. The fact that he transcends so many musical genres is a tribute to his unity with his flute. Lush production by Dave Grusin and Larry Rosen coupled with a host of top side men only enhance what is a foundation in musical sophistication.

LIVE FROM BEAUTIFUL DOWNTOWN BURBANK — Tommy Newsom — Direct Disc Labs DD-108 — Producer: Joe Overholt — List: 15.00

Her-r-re's Tommy! Tonight Show's Tommy Newsom joins the direct disc brigade with an LP featuring his own arrangements of contemporary pop standards. With musicians drawn mainly from the TV show band, the tunes are a grab bag of swingers and soft stuff. Needless to say, the musicianship is flawless and Newsom's arrangements utilize the entire range of men at his disposal. Even that famous dresser, Doc Severinsen, joins Tommy on a number they co-wrote.

Retailers Planning Expansion Despite Threat Of Recession

about 3,000 square feet. A new Grapevine outlet in the 10,000-square-foot range is set to open later this month in Charlotte, N.C.

The Spec's Music chain will open its 13th store later this month in Broward Mall in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, according to Bayard Spector, owner of the chain. Spector said that the chain plans to open an additional five stores in the Florida and Georgia markets by the end of this year. The new stores will range in size from 3,000 to 6,000 square feet and will be operated in both mall and free-standing locations.

Fathers and Sons, Inc., the Indianapolis-based wholesale outlet and parent company of the Karma retail chain, will open five to six new stores in 1979. The company currently operates eight record stores and three audio outlets. Dave Crockett, president of Fathers and Sons, said that the new stores would be free-standing and average between 4,000 and 5,000 square feet.

Tower Records is committed to the opening of eight new stores in 1979, according to Bud Martin, executive vice president of the 41-store chain, 22 of which are record stores (the other outlets are either book or poster shops). Martin said that six of the stores would be located in both free-standing and strip shopping centers and range from 8,000 to 23,000 square feet. Two of the new sites will be located in Washington, one in Arizona, and the rest in California. Five of the eight will be pure record stores, while the rest will be either book or poster stores or combinations thereof, Martin said.

Interest Rates Important

Comments from the majority of executives who spoke with Cash Box indicated that, while contracts for most of their new stores had been negotiated prior to 1978, current high interest rates will play an important factor in the consideration of future store openings.

Diamond Stresses Follow-Up As Producer's Responsibility

than the MOR pacing of "Moment."

In addition to producing Humperdinck, Diamond has also worked on a variety of other projects. In July 1978, Epic released a disco album by Diamond called "Silver Blue." Although the music did not catch on, the graphics created waves. The back cover depicted two identical six foot three sisters in dog collars and chains. However, the album was a studio aggregate with no artist identification.

Diamond is quick to point out that the LP was not a success ("it was a smash cover and a stiff album") but the project did produce an interesting turn of events. Hal Jackson of WBLS in New York invited Diamond to participate with the models in a disco fashion show at Saks Fifth Avenue. Diamond also received considerable flak from feminists who considered the cover graphics derogatory to women.

'Bachelor Of The Month'

That was not the first time Diamond went out on the limb. In 1974, he was chosen as the Bachelor of the Month by Cosmopolitan magazine and he had the courage to include his real New York address in the article.

"I received 3,000 letters from girls in mental hospitals and jails. It was a tremendous ego boost. I felt like Burt Reynolds."

Diamond has also been involved with more traditional pursuits. He joined the music business in the early seventies and ran April/Blackwood publishing for two and a half years. Claiming to be the first individual in that position to combine A&R and publishing activities, Diamond signed Dr. Hook among others to publishing deals.

In 1973, Diamond left CBS and formed Silverblue Records which was distributed through Polydor. Diamond continued his publishing interest with two publishing companies and a group of staff writers. However, it was the teaming with Humperdinck in 1976 that proved to be a breakthrough for Diamond.

"I am a workaholic. I like to keep busy so I am constantly looking for and working on new projects," says Diamond. An upcoming project is a concept album with television star Telly Savalas which Diamond hopes to have out by mid-year.

TALENT

Bruce Springsteen

WINTERLAND, S.F. — Since his breakthrough "Born To Run" tour in 1975, Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band has been regarded by many as the most spirited, spectacular American-bred rock attraction in concert today. Onstage, the Boss and the E Streeters always deliver a performance with 110% effort, whether they're playing in San Francisco, Los Angeles or smaller cities in the midwest. Each show is transformed into a rock 'n' roll celebration, where the feedback and energy flow of the audience drives the group to further levels of musical intensity.

Springsteen constantly alters his song selection with every concert, introducing new compositions, re-arranging older ones and offering rousing cover renditions of rock 'n' roll classics. The New Jerseyite may not play all of his patented showstopping numbers on a given night (at Winterland he bypassed two standouts of his summer tour, "Adam Raised A Cain" and "Growin' Up"), but Springsteen possesses such an arsenal of varied, compelling tunes that the show remains stunningly effective, featuring numerous climaxes.

Springsteen and the E Street Band now divides its concert into two segments of about 90 minutes each, in addition to playing several encores at the close of the show. At Winterland, the group concentrated mostly on the "Darkness On The Edge Of Town" material during the first half, while devoting the second half to showcasing new songs ("Ties That Bind" and "Point Blank") and Springsteen tunes recorded by other artists ("Fire" and "Because The Night"). For his encores, Springsteen and band executed tight, exuberant renditions of "Born To Run," "Raise Your Hand," "Good Golly Miss Molly" and "Devil With The Blue Dress," among others.

If there was one complaint about the show, it was simply that the concert lasted too long. Including the encores, the performance endured for a solid three-and-a-half hours, which is probably an hour more than necessary. Springsteen and the E Streeters hardly seemed to tire all evening, but members of the crowd were noticeably exhausted by the end of the show.

Despite the length, the Winterland engagement remained another thunderous performance by a septet at the top of rock 'n' roll field.

Nicolette Larson

ROXY, L.A. — With a debut album behind her which has already spawned rave reviews as well as a hit single, the only thing Nicolette Larson had left to establish at her concert debut was whether the charm and congeniality of her record would come across in person.

Her 45-minute set successfully proved that and more, as she showed herself to be one of the most promising and exciting singers to emerge this year.

As soon as she came on stage she set everyone at ease with her informal, easy-going manner and her characterization of Steve Martin's "wi-i-ld and cr-a-a-z-z-y guy." Once she started singing, she exhibited a voice with the kind of range, power, control and expressiveness that should ensure the longevity of her career.

The songs from her Warner Bros. album made up the bulk of her show, and while some have complained that the variety of styles she covers — from country and rock to R&B and disco — is too wide, it is merely a reflection of the range of her talent.

But there is no room to fault anyone who can move as effectively as she does from a disco-laced treatment of Neil Young's "Lotta Love" to the straight country in Bob McDill's "Come Early Mornin'" to "Last In Love," a pure pop ballad by J.D. Souther and Glenn Frey. It was, in fact, the latter song which provided the show's high point and proof that her success is not dependent upon production tricks or flashy instrumentation.

Minus nine of the 10 instrumentalists who backed her on the rest of the songs, Larson, supported solely by Billy Payne on electric piano, gave an emotionally stirring performance which held the audience spellbound.

Given her vocal ability, her fresh, honest stage manner and talent for choosing material so well suited to her, Nicolette Larson looks like a major new force for pop music in 1979 and beyond.

Ian Matthews

ROXY, L.A. — After six weeks on tour opening for David Gates and Bread, singer-songwriter Ian Matthews had the chance to let out the stops and play without restrictions at his recent show before a packed partisan crowd. He enjoyed it. They enjoyed it. It was a night between friends.

With "Shake It" bulleting up the charts many Top 40 listeners are getting their first peek of Matthews and his flavor of melodic pop. Matthews, however, is not a newcomer. He has accumulated on both sides of the Atlantic a dozen albums.

At 32, English-born Matthews has been a member of groups such as Fairport Convention, Southern Comfort and Plainsong. He has recorded eight solo albums and been signed to Elektra, CBS and now Mushroom Records which is devoting concentrated energy to breaking open Matthews' career.

Backed by his band, "The Polaroids," Matthews presented a simple and direct show which drew material from his previous works, his new album and writers such as Jackson Browne and Van Morrison. Matthews' style is an amalgam of various influences. Light and innocent, tracks such as "Shake It" have an infectious sweetness while other tracks have a harder stance that allows the band to stiffen its lip and bite down. "Stealin' Home," the title track of Matthews' latest LP, has a country/pop feel. Strumming an acoustic guitar and backed by a versatile band, Matthews was in a bouyant mood. The result was a pleasant evening of music.

POOL NEWS — Cosmo Wyatt of the fledgling New England Disco DeeJay Assn. and George Borden of the Boston Record Pool held a meeting recently to discuss the fractious situation among the two pools. Cosmo has verbal commitments from five BRP jocks to move over to the New England pool as of Jan. 1. The DJs reportedly involved in the move are: Joe Iantosca of Celebration and Union Station, Bobby Lawler who spins at Union Station, Butchy DJ Holland of Lucifer's, Donny Goff of Club Max and Tony Porter of Arabian Nights in Chicopee. Borden, understandably, is worried about DJ desertion; Wyatt insists that he is not trying to "steal" anyone. The dilemma is rooted in sensitive issues within the Boston Record Pool. Borden has reportedly said that BRP will separate itself from the MK Dance and Nightfall magazine situation during the new year. Some observers see this move as a healthy one for the pool. Wyatt resigned from BRP because of his frustration with alleged conflict of interest problems and related issues. In addition to the five BRP members who are slated to join the New England pool, Wyatt has DJ members in Amherst, Wellesey, Worchester, Westport and Revere, Mass. as well as DJs in Hampton, N.H. and Providence, R.I. Total membership stands at this point at 25 with a waiting list starting to develop.

DJ Al Paez

Frank Lembo of the Pocono Record Pool reports that the pool will be negotiating with the record labels to increase the pool's allotment from 100 to 200. Noting that Philly is 45 percent black, Lembo said the pool aimed at more completely representing the market by inducting more black DJs. The pool has had a swelling waiting list and Lembo's attitude was to "clean it up all at once".

Michael Neuman, director of the Disco Midwest pool is trying to re-establish the pool's credibility and expand from the current membership of 15. The pool used to be the Omaha Rec. Pool which had 50 members. Neuman was in a car accident and was forced to resign. The subsequent manager Barry Johnson changed the name of the pool to Metro Disco Distributing and reportedly angered several record companies by padding the roster with fictitious names. With a handful of members spread over six states (the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri), a recovered Neuman is attempting to get the pool back on track and back in good favor. Starr Arning of Prelude reports that the label is switching to direct mailing to jocks in the Atlanta area after friction with the Atlanta Music Pool. Stating that she is "trying to support the pools," Arning said that the label is adding the Deep South Disco Assn. and the Virginia Disco Assn. to the mailing list.

MACHINE — There But For The Grace Of God Go I — Hologram/RCA YD 11457 — 12" — 5:14 — List: 3.98

August Darnell of Doctor Buzzard's Savannah Band produced and arranged this unusual track. He also wrote the interesting storyline lyrics. Kevin Nance who used to be Natalie Cole's music director wrote the music and plays keyboards. Fast clipping beat by Lonnie Ferguson, engaging keyboard lines, fine lead singing by Clare Jackson and Stovall and the atypical lyric and chorus make this worth immediate attention. Check it out.

OLLIE BABA — Stomp Your Feet — Polydor PRO 067 — 12" — 6:45

Drummer Ollie Brown has been around. Over the years he pounded the skins for Stevie Wonder and the Rolling Stones among others. Brown wrote, produced and arranged this vigorous and exciting track which ought to work well on the way up to the evening's peak. The immediate vocal opening of the track may make it harder to mix and require tasty slip cuing or a cold mix but the driving funk, enthusiastic horns, handclaps and smooth female vocals make this a good add to your playlist.

NAMA Produces New Audiovisual Vending Program

CHICAGO — A 13-minute slide presentation with a cassette tape narration, describing in detail the operations of vending and food-service management businesses, has been produced by the National Automatic Merchandising Association, according to Walter Reed, the association's director of public relations.

The title of the film is "It Just Looks Automatic" and, in addition to historic content, it offers a behind the scenes look at office and in-plant vending and restaurant locations while focusing on the various supporting services and facilities provided by the industry.

"The new audiovisual presentation consists of slides to allow individual users to make modifications and to add scenes from their own operations," Reed explained, adding that the new program replaces the motion picture "A Far Cry From Hero" which NAMA produced in the early 1970s.

"It Just Looks Automatic" was produced by Chartmasters, Inc. of Chicago and premiered at the NAMA annual convention in Atlanta this past October where it was enthusiastically received by industry members, according to Reed.

The complete 13-minute slide and tape set can be purchased from NAMA for $65. It will not be available on loan, Reed said. "We

Merchandising Features Highlight Lowen's New 'Festival' Phonograph

CHICAGO — The "Festival" ES 160 is the newest model in the current line of NSM phonographs, produced by Lowen Automaten of Germany. It was introduced by the firm at the recent AMOA convention and will soon be available for domestic delivery.

The Festival is a 160-selection stereo phonograph with eight loudspeakers and 140 watt music power. The unique frontal design, with its glass enclosure, permits full visibility of the mechanism in operation and, as an added attraction, the "price per play" display is programmed to activate at various intervals when the machine is not being played.

While concentrating on the visual aspects which are geared to call attention to the machine and thus induce play, Lowen has also placed a great deal of emphasis on technological features for the benefit of operators in the service and maintenance of the new models.

As pointed out by company official Peer von Oertzen, the Festival incorporates a number of merchandising features for stimulating play and, most importantly, various "musts" which are of special significance to operators.

Electronic Notebook

In tallying collections, for instance, utilization of the Rockwell microprocessor allows for an accurate count of the proceeds in the cash box. This "electronic notebook," as von Oertzen described it, determines the exact amount, in readout form, in a matter of seconds. In addition, the Festival has the capacity to determine the most popular records, and the least popular, as well as how often an A or B side has been played.

Since its conversion to microprocessor some time back, Lowen has developed considerable expertise in this field, von Oertzen stressed, and in the production and design of Festival has exercised this expertise combined with the valuable feedback garnered in the international marketplace over the past two-year period.

Williams Introduces New 'Pokerino,' Its Wide Body Pinball Machine

CHICAGO — "Pokerino" is currently in production at the Williams Electronics, Inc. factory. This new model is the firm's latest solid state four-player to feature the wide body playfield, which was introduced this past year on Williams' noted "Contact" flipper.

As in Contact, the new model is equipped with double action flippers for advancing scores. These are located on both sides of the expanded playfield, with the top flipper being activated when the flipper button is pushed half way in and both top and bottom activated when the button is pushed in all the way.

In addition, Pokerino features an exciting innovation called the Kings' Captive Ball Feature, which is "designed to test the skills of all players," as explained by the firm's marketing manager Ron Crouse. "By striking the four captive balls and sending each into the ball pen, additional points are scored and new scoring opportunities created. It's a challenge which will generate player interest and participation," he added.

Also noteworthy is the special Pokerino feature which is accomplished when the player lights the Aces (by striking the top rollover targets), the Kings (by hitting the four captive balls) and the Queens and Jacks (by knocking down the drop targets).

Pokerino has 10 memory features, including the carry-over of all bonus multipliers, except 5X, which is believed to be an industry first. The game is also equipped

Rock-Ola Announces Distributor Changes; Betson, Hudson's Bay Named

CHICAGO — Edward G. Doris, executive vice president of Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corp. announced two distributor changes for the factory's phonograph line. Betson Enterprises of North Bergen, New Jersey, a long time Rock-Ola distributor, has extended its coverage to include the entire states of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

In Canada, the factory has appointed Hudson's Bay Vending of Winnipeg, Manitoba to distribute its phonographs in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. The new Canadian distributor will maintain a comprehensive line of parts and accessories, according to Ed Doris.

At present, Rock-Ola distributors from throughout the world are introducing the new Model 478 "Mystic" phonograph which, according to Doris, has been extremely well received by operators. The model's exclusive income producing features, Doris added, have the potential to stimulate added play and increase the operator's profit from jukebox locations.

want to encourage industry members to show it frequently to outside audiences and therefore have set the price low enough so that people can easily afford to buy and keep it," he added.

Williams Introduces Its First Wide Body with Williams' renowned dual electronics sounds system, as well as the multiple extra ball feature.

"Our first wide body flipper, Contact, was a big hit on location," Crouse said, "and we believe Pokerino may even surpass Contact's success."

'TILT' PROMO — Jim Tolbert (right), author of "Tilt", a pinball book focusing on the care and maintenance of the machines, is pictured with Tom Hata, who currently runs the game room at the MGM Grand Hotel in Las Vegas but is better known in the coin machine industry for the numerous schools he conducted while on the Bally staff. This photo was taken at the Bookworm in Vegas, where a press party was held to promote the book.

CHICAGO CHATTER

BALLY MFG. CORP.'s director of marketing Ross Scheer is looking forward to 1979 with much optimism, and rightfully so, considering Bally's performance last year and his projections on what's in store for the months to come. The popularity of flippers will continue unabated, he said, with Bally again playing a major role in the market place. The factory's current "Playboy" model will still be in production at the first of the year and following this model will be "Supersonic," which Bally is testing right now. Ross made special mention of the graphics on this model and the exceptional test reports. Construction on the firm's massive new plant facility in suburban Bensenville is expected to be completed by mid-year '79 and this, Ross tells us, will be one of the largest, most modern plants of its kind in the entire industry — with production focusing mainly on flippers.

AMONG THE FIRST AMOA functions of the new year will be the annual Notre Dame Seminar, March 9-10, at the O'Hare Hilton in Chicago. Next up will be the association's annual board meeting, April 5, 6 and 7, at Disney World in Orlando, Fla. — in between which AMOA's accelerated schedule of training schools will be in progress. The association's Fred Granger, in stressing how successful the schools have been, commended his assistant Vic Rye for his efforts in coordinating the new series, adding that this program has expanded considerably since its inception.

IN EARLY '79 Williams will be releasing its next wide body pin, "Pokerino" and, come spring, the trade can look forward to "Flash." "Latter," according to company exec Jack Mittel, is making fantastic grades on test, has tremendous earnings potential, and should be among the year's hit pieces. At present, the factory is concentrating on its current pin "Phoenix."

NEWEST MEMBER OF THE Bally Service staff is field engineer Arnie Aarnstead, who's been learning the ropes by accompanying Gene Williams on his rounds of service schools; most recently at Northwest Sales in Seattle and McKee Distg. in Portland. Field service manager Bernie Powers, who just concluded a series of schools for Betson in Connecticut, New York City and New Jersey, has already finalized his calendar of service schools through July 1979. Nothing like keeping ahead of yourself. He told us the new Bally parts catalog will be released in January and it's about as comprehensive as you can get, with up to date coverage of all of the factory's electronic games, ranging from Freedom to Six Million Dollar Man . . . Representing Bally at the two-day State Music conclave in Dallas was Felicia Tornabene, of the factory's marketing department, and a bunny, of course, in behalf of "Playboy" since this event annually spotlights a full line of products representative of many of the industry's major factories.

ON THE SINGLES SCENE: In the opinion of Singer One Stop For Ops' Gus Tartol this one has "jukebox hit" written all over it — "When I Wanted You" by Perry Como on RCA. Considering the track record of both gents (Gus for picking hits and Perry for making them) we're not inclined to argue the point.

DATLINE UNION CITY, CALIFORNIA: home of Vectorbeam, a new company that's already made an impact in the trade with "Space War." Firm is headed by Larry Rosenthal, originator of Cinematronics' "Space Wars" and the newest member of the team is Hal Wartner, formerly of Exidy, who is now marketing manager at Vectorbeam. Company's latest upright video game is a model called "Scramble" and Hal said they'll be premiering a new driving game at the ATE show in London.

CBS-Britain Restructures It's Marketing Operations For '79

by Nick Underwood

LONDON — CBS Records United Kingdom has undertaken a major re-organization of its marketing operation. Beginning this week, CBS-U.K. will be separated into two marketing divisions, the CBS label and Epic and Associated Labels (E/P/A). Both CBS and E/P/A will have separate identities and marketing personnel, although the two labels will have similar corporate structures.

Each label will be headed by a general manager who will have reporting to him the heads of the press, product management and promotion departments. The newly-appointed general manager of the CBS label is Jerry Turner, who has been CBS' pop marketing manager. Peter Evans has been appointed to senior product manager with product manager Kate Mundle reporting to him.

Elly Smith, manager of press, public and artist relations, will head up the CBS label's press operation, which includes press officers Simon Frodsham and Sue Foster, artist relations officer Dave Beeching and staff photographer Terry Lott.

Lois Rogers will continue as head of promotion for the CBS label with Alvin Jordan, Mertin Sunley and Carolyn Wilkes reporting to him.

Ian Groves, formerly general manager at EMI, joins the E/P/A group as general manager. Though the senior product manager position for E/P/A, has yet to be filled, the remaining team consists of product managers Frank Brunger and Barry Humphreys.

Jonathan Morrish formerly with RCA, has joined the E/P/A group as press and artists relations manager. Reporting to Morrish will be press officers, Judy Totton and Johnny Black, along with artist relations officer Anthea Joseph.

The E/P/A promotions department will differ slightly from that of its CBS counterpart in that it will have dual heads of promotion. Judd Lander continues as head of Epic promotion with Golly Gallagher and Roger Bowan reporting to him. Phil Holmes will remain head of promotion for the Associated Labels with Chris Stevens and Richard Comben reporting to him.

Martin Nelson takes on a new role as field services manager, and in his new post he will be given increased responsibility. In addition to running field promotions, he will also have reporting to him special projects manager Carl Miller, and Derek Witt, whose role has been modified to include greater emphasis on corporate publicity.

Disco promotions manager Greg Lynn will continue to report to Nelson. The commercial marketing department headed by David Adams remains unchanged.

Emphasizing that the two labels are equal in terms of workload and profitability, Tony Woolcott, marketing director, commented, "We wanted to establish a cleared definition of responsibility within the marketing area. I feel it is a critical step in improving effective communication within the company as a whole."

David Betteridge Named Managing Dir., CBS-UK

LONDON — In the wake of the appointment of Maurice Oberstein to the position of chairman of CBS-UK, David Betteridge has been named managing director of CBS-UK, which is Oberstein's old post.

Betteridge began in the music business with the Lugton Company, UK wholesalers and distributors, and then went on to co-found Island Records with Chris Blackwell. He worked for 15 years at Island, the last six of which he served as managing director. Most recently Betteridge was managing director of Bronze Records UK.

Beck-Clarke Group Complete Japan Tour

TOKYO — Jazz-rock artists Jeff Beck and Stanley Clarke, teaming up to form a new touring group, recently completed a successful tour of Japan.

The duo and its backup musicians performed 10 concerts, beginning in the city of Miito in late November and touring the major cities throughout the country. Tickets sold out for the first nine concerts of the tour, and due to the strong demand for the duo, Clarke and Beck added a tenth show at Budokan Tokyo, which seats 10,000.

INTERNATIONAL DATELINE

Canada

TORONTO — First they wanted a by-line, then they wanted a review of themselves. Two acts of the new wave genre appeared at the El Mocambo on consecutive evenings in mid-December, fronted by local rock journalists opening for bigger name acts. The Battered Newsmen, fronted by Jonathan Gross (a.k.a. Johnny Grotesque) of the Toronto Sun, plunged through an hour of half-baked rock. The act opened for The (Battered) Wives, which still can't figure out where its next drummer is coming from. Cleve Anderson has quit, returned, quit, returned and quit again. The next night, The Deserters (with an old Wives bassist) appeared as the opening act for Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes, with Toronto Star rock critic Peter Goddard tinkling the ivory. Goddard's appearance was not well-received by the crowd. One man was ejected for throwing a Heineken in Goddard's direction.

Speaking of Southside Johnny, he performed well despite a heavily-bandaged left arm, the result of his fall on some glass in Sacramento recently. The Jukes and he have performed two of the best shows in recent memory at the El Mocambo. In spite of pressure from the record label, Lyon isn't rushing to do a live album yet. "We want to put more studio stuff down, before we cut a live album. We're just getting to the point where we have our production problems eliminated. We want to get stronger in the studio first." The band played a successful set of gigs in Europe recently. "In Amsterdam, we played this club where they sold hashish over the counter, besides the drinks. Wild place," Lyons commented.

Also in town this past week was Milt Jackson, the veteran vibraphonist, to play a local jazz club. He has become a little fed up with the proliferation of fusion music emanating from North America. "It isn't music," he claims, "it's noise. Somehow, we've gone wrong in teaching people how to appreciate the emotion and feeling in playing jazz. This crossover nonsense is just an insult to the true players. I've spent 40 years playing jazz, and these young people are incredibly rich." Jackson intends to record an album in February, and hopes to eventually own his own jazz radio or television station.

In the studio right now in Toronto is Domenic Trolano, who is recording his third disc for Capitol, and is reunited with Roy Kenner, his old James Gang compatriot. Also at work on a debut disc for Capitol is Hughie Leggatt and Surrender, the second act to come to Capitol out of the agreement that brought Daffodil Records president Frank Davis to the label this past year. Dale Jacobs will help Zon on its next album, as an arranger, in February.

SUPERMAX GETS GOLD — WEA International vice president Sigfried E. Loch (r) recently presented the first gold record to Supermax member Kurt Hauenstein for sales of more than 250,000 LPs. It took exactly one year for Supermax LP "World of Today" to reach gold status. The presentation took place at the DJ's discotheque in Hamburg.

BUENOS AIRES — Sales skyrocketed in the Argentinian market during December, causing an immediate pressing capacity shortage. According to the figures made public for the first time by the Chamber of Phonographic Producers, in November the industry sold roughly 1,060,000 albums and about 650,000 singles. Tape sales were around 350,000 units. The November LP figures are 50% above the October volume, and the December mark is only limited by the amount of records the factories may manage to press. It is also expected that the market will not decrease too much in January and February, and there is plenty of cautious optimism. The blank cassette market is around 300,000 units a month, and has been increasing steadily over 1978.

Phonogram is releasing the second volume of the Hit Sounds series, an arrangement between CBS, EMI and Phonogram to share repertoire and to alternately release one album each. The first volume was marketed by EMI and has sold more than 120,000 units; it is expected that the new one will surpass the 150,000 mark.

Capitol arranged a press party to introduce the new album by young tango artist Filipeli. The label (an independent division of EMI) is headed by Roberto Ruiz, and has also marketed LPs by chanteuse Luciana and teen artist Ian Simmons.

CBS has a new hit with Henry Nelson's rendering of "Un Amigo De Ley," a chartbuster in the northern part of the country. The company is also enjoying strong sales with the new LP by the Cuarteto Imperial, with Colombian music adapted to local tastes.

RCA's creative director Mario Pizzurno is traveling this week to attend MIDEM in Cannes, France. The company has released recently several new artists and LPs by well established groups like Los Moros and Pomada.

Japan Tape Sales Booming, Records Stable In '78 Survey

by Sachio Saito

(JPRA).

TOKYO — In a survey of 16 major record labels in Japan, total sales from the six-month period of April to September this year reached 93 billion yen, a solid jump of 6.6% over the same period in 1977. In addition, the survey, conducted by the Cash Box Tokyo office, noted that tape sales have increased at a much quicker pace than record sales.

For the six-month period, record sales totaled 70 billion yen, or 76% percent of prerecorded music sales, while tapes sold 22 billion yen, or approximately 24% of the market. The total sales of records increased by only 1.1% over the same period last year, which indicates a marginally successful year for record sales. However, tapes sales exhibited a sizable growth, increasing 26.5% over the past year.

Separating the total tape and record sales into categories of domestic and international recordings, domestic recordings accounted for 68.5% of sales, while international recordings contributed 31.5%.

The 16 labels polled in the survey include Victor Musical Industries, Nippon-Columbia, Toshiba-EMI, King, Teichiku, Polydor, Crown, Tokuma Music Industries, CBS-Sony, Nippon-Phonogram, Toho, Canyon, Warner-Pioneer, Torio, RVC, and Disco. All of the labels are affiliated with the Japan Phonograph Record Association

Teichiku, Polydor, CBS-Sony, Canyon and Disco were the most successful companies during the six-month period, displaying the biggest sales increases. Teichiku boosted its sales by 33%. Polydor by 11%, CBS-Sony by 24%, Canyon by 91%, and Disco by 29%.

Of the 16 companies surveyed, CBS-Sony, Victor Musical Industries, Toshiba-EMI and Nippon-Columbia claimed the largest shares of the Japan record market. CBS-Sony led the labels with a 15.3% share, followed by Victor with 13.2%, Toshiba-EMI with 12.2% and Nippon-Columbia with a 10.1% share.

Attic Signs Dist. Pact With CBS

TORONTO — Attic Records in Canada has signed a distribution agreement with CBS Records Canada, effective Jan. 1, 1979. The label was formerly affiliated with London Records of Canada.

Artists signed to the label's domestic roster are Triumph, Patsy Gallant, Hagood Hardy and Ken Tobias. In addition, the label's international licensee product will be distributed by CBS. The artists pacted under this agreement are George Thorogood and Wayne County & The Electric Chairs.

BILL SMITH ON THE SLOPES — Bill Smith, managing director of CBS Records Australia, recently launched the Australian CBS Records national convention from the top of Mt. Crackenback, N.S.W., Australia. 62 delegates from every state in the country attended the convention, which was held in the alpine village of Thredbo and lasted four days.

O'LOUGHLIN IN LONDON — Ed O'Loughlin, executive vice president of Midsong International, visited London last week to play new product to Polydor personnel. He is pictured here receiving gold and silver discs for the John Travolta single, "Sandy," and the album of the same name, plus a silver disc for the Travolta single "Greeded Lightning". Retail Sales Up In December But Below Anticipated Levels albums like the Billy Joel, Streisand and Neil Diamond," commented Stuart Schwartz, chairman of the board of the 19 store Harmony Hut chain. "And although we had a very good season and went up by close to 20% over last year, I think we're beginning to see a substantial reduction in the number of units sold in total. While the $8.98 doesn't appear to be a problem at the bit level, I think multiple sales will suffer as a result. There has to be a trade-off."

Dave Crockett, president of the 8 store Karma chain, headquartered in Indianapolis, echoed Schwartz' remarks. "We had an unbelievable season," Crockett said, "and we should be up 25% over last year for Christmas. But I did see a consumer concern at the $8.98 list price. We still had the Joel and Steve Martin as very strong albums, but I believe there was a drop-off in multiple purchases. I just hope the manufacturers keep a variable pricing policy in 1979."

Catalog Sales Mixed

Catalog sales were also reported down at Everybody's and Licorice Pizza, but spokesmen at Peaches, Tower and Sound Warehouse said sales were good or better than expected on catalog items at their stores.

"We're a catalog house," stated Frank Miko, vice president of the 36-store Peaches chain, "and we moved a tremendous amount of catalog this year." He said as a result, Peaches met its projected sales for the season, but he also admitted those projections were more conservative than in previous years.

"We had a conservative view about Christmas, based on what the economy has been doing. We sold a lot of merchandise this year," Miko said, "but it's not the Christmas of last year."

Keenan said he has received some negative feedback from consumers about $8.98 list albums but admitted some of that response has been solicited.

"We've initiated petitions for our customers to sign saying they will not buy $8.98 list albums and we've gotten a lot of people to sign them. We're going to forward them to WEA and CBS," Keenan said. His two hottest items, this season though, were Billy Joel's "52nd Street" and Steve Martin's "Wild And Crazy Buy," both $8.98 list LPs.

Keenan also said defectives were a major problem in his area and cited as an example "one entire shipment we got of Neil Diamond albums had Diamond's record on one side and Barry Manilow on the other. The quality of records is getting worse every day. Defectives some weeks are running as high as 10 to 15 percent."

In most other areas of the country, however, retailers said defectives were not particularly significant.

Disco's Impact

The impact of disco on the 1978 Christmas season was noted by Mark Durbin, advertising and promotion director for the 12 store Spec's Music chain based in southern Florida. "Disco was one of the important trends this season, and it helped us experience a very good sales jump over last Christmas season," Durbin said. "But the main thing is that disco continued to grow in sales, in our stores at least."

Len Silver, head of the 17 unit Record Theatre chain, also noted that disco began to show an impact at his stores during the Christmas season. "All together we were at least 20% ahead of last season," Silver said, "and we could begin to see disco coming out here. We did very well on disco singles like 'YMCA,' 'Le Freak' and 'I Love The Nightlife.' The albums didn't always do as well, but 'C'est Chic' was one of our best sellers."

'Flop of Year'

While disco asserted itself saleswise during Christmas 1978, picture discs generally did not. "They're the flop of the year," exclaimed Ben Karol. "Everybody got excited at first, but now they're just sitting there on the shelf." Joe Bressi added that he saw "a dramatic slowing in picture disc sales as the season went by, a condition he ascribed to "an over saturation of the market."

The brisk sale of Christmas product, according to Crockett, was partially due to "an older buyer who has now grown up and wants Christmas music for his young kids. It's also interesting that we sold a lot of MOR Christmas records this year."

Other Trends

Keenan says one trend he sees developing is a slowdown in the steady growth prerecorded tapes have experienced in the past several years.

"I think tape growth is tapering off," Keenan said. "Part of the reason is that a lot of people are still selling tapes at a higher price than LPs. I think 8-tracks are slowing down and cassettes filling in for some of that, but overall I think tape sales are not up."

Based on the big success of the Steve Martin, Blues Brothers and Barbra Streisand albums, Licorice Pizza's Janna Brooks says she thinks there will be even more emphasis in 1979 on what she calls "personality albums."

"TV is playing a much more important role now and people will buy albums by people they are familiar with through television or the movies," Brooks said, "even if they aren't established recording stars."

of 1978 as seen by the membership. "You Make Me Feel (Mighty Real) Disco Heat" by Sylvester was the top track. The pool will have a membership meeting Jan. 9 at the City. (If you don't go, you won't get your BADDA T-shirt.)

DOMINICAN DISCO — Richard Long, noted disco sound designer who has installed systems in Studio 54, Paradise Garage, Regine's and other clubs in NYC, is heading south of the border to install sound systems in January in Santa Domingo, Dominican Republic at a club called Waldo's and also at the club City Hall in Caracas, Venezuela. Long says that City Hall will be the largest discotheque in South America. Closer to home, Long has been commissioned to re-do the sound system of New York, New York. GLI previously handled the sound but problems prompted the change-over which will be accomplished within a couple of weeks. Long is also handling new systems for Melons in NYC and PB's in Palm Beach, Fla. At the end of January, Long and his small company (eight people involved) will equip a club in Boise, Idaho. However, the "real monster," according to Long, will be the installation of a sound system later in the year at the upcoming NYC club Pharoah's at 45th and Broadway which reportedly will be NYC's largest discotheque. Long's sound systems, which have been installed around the world (Big Apple in Berlin, Dorian Gray in Frankfurt, Trinity in Hamburg, Circus in Brussels, and Anna Bell in London), cost usually between $15-$50,000 plus. Having installed Regine's facilities in New York and Montreal, Long expects to be involved in Regine's upcoming move to the west coast.

NEW YORK TIDBITS — Drug charges have reportedly been dropped against Ian Schragger of Studio 54 who was booked on charges of cocaine possession. Roy Cohen, the club's lawyer, announced the drop of charges. Reportedly, the IRS had a search to examine the disco's books but did not have a search warrant for drugs. The end result of the bust appears to be tremendous world-wide publicity for the club. It is also rumored that Schragger and co-owner Steve Rubell are discussing the formation of a label. . . . Boris Midney's new gigantic studio is nearing its official debut. It is allegedly the first honest-to-god 48-track studio on this side of the ocean with additional capacity through tie-ins to reach 64 tracks. The studio which is located on 54th St. between 2nd and 3rd Avenues is called Eras. Dan Joseph of TK who visited the studio was shocked. "I have never had my body massaged by sound like that before. It was clear and clean and it wasn't too loud but you could feel it in your liver." . . . Most of the clubs in NYC held New Year's Eve celebrations, but Flamingo's had to be one of the more exceptional. The festivities ran from 10 p.m. on Sunday to 6 a.m. Tuesday morning. Richie Rivera, Armando Galvez and Howard Merritt spun. Rivera debuted his mix of Van McCoy's "Lonely Dancer." . . . Electric Circus has moved its opening to Jan. 18.

RADIO CORNER — WDAI in Chicago switched to disco on Dec. 21. The rock station had dipped in the ratings from 1.7 to 1.3 in the latest book and the next day the station changed. Ford Coley is PD. . . . Jim O'Brien of KDKO in Denver has started a disco programming service with two southern stations already involved. WDMS-FM in Greenville, Mississippi and KADO-FM in Texarkana, Tex., use the service which costs between $200-$500 per month, according to market. O'Brien can be reached at (303) 794-4211.

SHORT TAKES — Pattie Brooks and Joe "Bean" Esposito have recorded the title song ("Deeper") for the NBC-TV series, "Joe & Valerie," which debuts Jan. 5. The sitcom centers around two lovers who meet in a disco. . . . Mike Lewis offered a playdown of the year's Top 10 disco hits at Circus disco's "Silver New Year's Eve" party in L.A. . . . Solar Records has launched a nationwide dance contest keyed to a cross-country tour by Shalamar. The L.A. version of the contest was held at Osko's last week. The finals will be held at Studio 54 with a top prize of $3,000.

PRODUCT — Ray Caviano is re-servicing next week a 12" by Dinosaur on Warner Bros.' Sire label. The track has been remixed and shortened. Caviano reports that Seymour Stein, head of Sire, "has realized his label is based in New York and he has decided to join the funk train." A Boney M 12" "Dancing In The Streets" is also coming. Caviano reports that Larry Graham of Graham Central Station is moving in a more disco direction. His next LP will have several disco tracks. As a sidenote, Caviano is visiting the WEA branches during January for product presentations of WB and RFC product. . . . ABC is rush-releasing "Dancing In The Fire" LP by Dallah. The album was acquired through CCI, an affiliate company of David Chackler who has a label deal with ABC. Produced by Frank Cook and Rich Moyers, the LP features the title track which was originally released on Sunshine. . . .
