Trudy Richards, whose Derby Record of "The Breeze" catapulted her into the top hit charts, here, with a fan at her side, aptly demonstrates the song. Trudy's latest "I Believe What I Feel" coupled with "Bye Bye Blackbird" bids fair to follow "The Breeze" into the lists. Responsible for the top notch arrangements on Trudy's records is Eddie Wilcox. Trudy's personal manager is Larry Newton, president of Derby Records. And she is booked through GAC.

Music Industry's Next Show:

MOA CONVENTION

March 8, 9 & 10, 1954

For the past several years the members of the record industry have returned from NAMM Shows complaining of the indifferent treatment accorded them. With each succeeding year, less and less attendance of record manufacturers has been marked. This past show was the weakest of all—several major recording companies even passed it up completely.

"The recording industry" they state, "is sufficiently strong and big enough to have a show of its own."

There isn't anyone who would question this statement. But, while feelings run high immediately following the NAMM show, no one takes the necessary steps to bring the members of the recording industry together to formulate plans for such a meeting. Then as the weeks and months go by, importance of the matter fades away—that is until the next show is announced. Once again, with reluctance and forebodings, the members of record industry (diminishing numbers every year) pack their bags for a convention.

With the record manufacturing and distributing industry doing nothing to formulate plans for its own show—the announcement by MOA (Music Operators of America) that it will hold its next show on March 8, 9 and 10 at the Palmer House in Chicago, is of utmost importance. The juke box operator of this country, not only is the biggest single market for the sale of records, but offers record manufacturers the most outstanding showcase possible. The juke box operator is the man record companies are most interested in seeing, conversing with, and selling to.

The meeting of juke box operators, in addition to giving the record industry an opportunity to reach an important segment of its buyers, also makes it possible for publishers of tunes to promote its material.

There's still another factor for the music industry to consider about an MOA Convention. Many of the juke box men who will be in attendance are also owners of record wholesale and retail firms.

It is therefore interesting to note, that while the NAMM Show is lacking the necessary meat to interest the record firms, and is becoming weaker each year, the annual Convention of the Music Operators of America, possesses the ingredients that those in the music industry need.

In past years, members of the record and music industry who have attended and displayed at the MOA Conventions have always returned to their offices fully satisfied that they had accomplished a great deal. They have been able to meet personally many of their customers listen to criticism, both constructive and destructive, and at the same time acquaint the juke box operators with the problems with which they have to contend. Thru these contacts, both sides have benefited. And of course, with these juke box operators, buyers of the music they are selling, the opportunity is right at hand to actually acquaint them with recordings just released or to be released shortly, stimulating interest which results in sales.

As in past meetings, recording companies, both major and independent, as well as music publishing firms, can avail themselves of an opportunity to be heard by the juke box operators, thru the medium of talks or forums at several of the scheduled meetings. George A. Miller, president of MOA, we know, would be more than happy to include talks by members of the record and music industry in their program. He can be reached at 128 East 14th Street, Oakland 6, Calif.

This was supposed to have happened on Bill Silbert's "Silbert At Six" program the other day. Bill was interviewing a woman on his WMGM show, and when he got around to the usual question, "How old are your children?", the lady replied, "2, 3, 5, and 6". Bill smiled and asked, "What happened to 4?", to which he received the answer, "That's the year we got our television set!" (ed note: Even if it didn't happen, item seemed just the thing to lighten the effects of these torrid and humid 90 degree days). . . . Dorothy "Tico Tico" Collins getting tremendous reaction in Boston and surrounding areas on her latest Audivox release, "Tico Tico". Jockies laying on it heavy. Your correspondent also noticed the tune getting big New York play. Could be Dorothy's biggest so far.

RECORD REVIEWS

ⓐ A DISK & SLEEPER	ⓐ GOOD
ⓑ EXCELLENT	ⓑ FAIR
ⓐ VERY GOOD	ⓐ MEDIOCRE

THE HOLIDAYS
(King 1246; 45-1246)

- ⓑ "LET THE DICE DECIDE" (2:40) [Sunbeam BMI] The Holidays cruise through a cute ditty about the dice deciding. It's a cute jumper that demonstrates the fine talent and harmony of the group. Rhythmic item is catchy. Terrific idea.
- ⓐ+ "JUST OUT OF REACH" (2:32) [Four Star BMI] The Lou Stein ork offers another fitting backdrop, this time for a smooth folk flavored ballad. A real pretty tune, warmly done.

SARAH VAUGHAN
(Columbia 40041; 4-40041)

- ⓑ+ "LINGER AWHILE" (1:58) [Leo Feist ASCAP] Sarah Vaughan is in top form as she belts out in her wandering fashion, a great standard. The torchy delivery is backed by a high speed orking by Percy Faith. Contrast is exciting.
- ⓑ "TIME" (2:21) [Tannen BMI] As the tick of a clock opens the record, the song stylist glides over the lyrics to a beautiful item with a familiar melody. Real solid job. Puts her whole heart into the presentation.

JERRY MURAD
of the HARMONICATS
(Mercury 70202; 70202 x 45)

- ⓑ+ "THE STORY OF THREE LOVES" (2:27) [P.D.] Jerry Murad masters the harmonica on a beautiful melody, the theme from the flicker "The Story of Three Loves." With Richard Hayman's ork assisting, the results are great. Could happen. Real potent.
- ⓐ+ "SWEET LEILANI" (2:39) [Santly-Joy ASCAP] Richard and the ork set up another fitting accompaniment for Jerry's harmonica version of a lovely Hawaiian item. The feeling of the warm and romantic tropic isles is perfectly portrayed.

MOLLY BEE
(Capitol 2567; F-2567)

- ⓑ "GOD BLESS US ALL" (2:51) [Brewster BMI] Molly Bee takes on the role of a child at prayer as she sings this sentimental item that should go well with parents. Fine coverage from all angles. Molly gets an assist from Van Alexander's ork.
- ⓐ "THIS IS MY DOG" (3:01) The young vocalist has no melody to work with on this end as she recites a poem about a child's love for a dog. It's interesting but a poem may not fit into the juke boxes.

TED HEATH MUSIC
(London 1344; 45-1344)

- ⓑ "ALOUETTE" (2:30) [P.D.] Ted Heath and his ork send up a terrific arrangement of an old French song that everyone has sung. The instrumental jump with whistling and a march tempo makes the side move. Delivery is a la Sauter-Finegan.
- ⓐ+ "YOURS IS MY HEART ALONE" (2:31) [Shubert ASCAP] Ted leads the gang through another jump number that makes for good dance music. It's another good oldie that gets a Billy Mayish sax section.

THE CASH BOX

DISK OF THE WEEK

"I BELIEVE WHAT I FEEL" (2:30) [Karen ASCAP] TRUDY RICHARDS (Derby 830; 45-830)
 "BYE BYE BLACKBIRD" (2:55) [Remick ASCAP]

TRUDY RICHARDS

• Still riding the heights of the charts with her sensational version of "The Breeze" and heading higher and higher as a female singer, Trudy Richards comes up with two absolutely sensational platters, each of which out-shines the other. With hand-clapping in the backdrop, the thrush belts out a rhythmic jumper dubbed "I Believe What I Feel." The song is loaded with wallop and makes you wanna sing along. Adding to the grade "A" quality of the song is a top notch backing by Eddie Wilcox's ork. Trudy is at her best on this end.

Using the multiple voice technique that made a hit out of "Breeze," Trudy gives her all on the jump rendition of another oldie labeled "Bye Bye Blackbird." The terrific arrangement makes the thrush's reading blossom. She sings right from the toes and makes the number rock. Each side is a natural for the boxes.

SPIKE JONES ORCHESTRA
(RCA Victor 20-5413; 47-5413)

- ⓑ "GOD BLESS US ALL" (2:45) [Brewster BMI] George Rock imitates a child's voice as he sings a prayer. The touching and appealing number is effectively treated and backed by the angelic sounding choir of Jud Conlon. A potent deck. Spike's terrific.
- ⓑ "I JUST LOVE MY MOMMY" (2:48) [Robert Mellin BMI] The choir and the Spike Jones crew back Marian Richman on this end as she chirps another sweet item that should have an effect on adults. Lyrics are moving.

TONY MARTIN
(RCA Victor 20-5414; 47-5414)

- ⓑ "CARIBBEAN" (2:53) [American Music BMI] A samba beat novelty with a tropic isle air is colorfully treated by the smooth voice of Tony Martin. The rhythmic item is backed lushly by Henri Rene's orchestra.
- ⓑ+ "RELAX" (2:24) [Hill & Range BMI] Tony sends up a novelty that he presents with oomph in his voice that should go great with his fans. The tango beat and cute set of lyrics, topped off by a fine vocal job makes this one a contender.

LOUIS ARMSTRONG ORCHESTRA
(Decca 28803; 9-28803)

- ⓐ+ "SITTIN' IN THE SUN" (2:58) [Irving Berlin ASCAP] The familiar Louis Armstrong style comes forth once again as he offers a slow jump blues item by Irving Berlin. He sings right from the toes and gets a fine backing under the direction of Jack Pleis.
- ⓑ "DUMMY SONG" (2:17) [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP] With a real Dixie rag-time backing, Satchmo picks up the beat and rhythms through a cute novelty that should get spins.

BROC PETERS & THE FOUR LADS
(Columbia 40042; 4-40042)

- ⓐ "I LOVE YOU" (2:00) [Feist ASCAP] Broc Peters dishes up a terrific vocal with the Four Lads keeping the jump beat in the backdrop. Broc's low rockbottom voice is very impressive. The lad has get the star qualities.
- ⓑ+ "900 MILES" (2:36) [Emperor BMI] A spiritual flavored blues item gets a fabulous styling from Broc and the Lads. The artists work wonderfully together and send out an exciting piece of material that could catch. Real exciting. Great voice.

ISH KABIBBLE
(MC 1005; 45-1005)

- ⓑ "THREE LITTLE FISHES" (2:26) [Fox Music] A cute oldie that has seemed to stick with everyone throughout the years, gets a refreshing going over by Ish Kabibble in his "hick" vocal manner. The New Yorkers assist the artist.
- ⓐ "WRINGIN' THE TEARS" (2:23) [BMI] With the New Yorkers assisting again, Ish hands up a country flavored novelty with a cute set of lyrics that should get laughs.

JOHNNIE RAY
(Columbia 40046; 4-40046)

- ⓑ+ "TELL THE LADY I SAID GOODBYE" (2:40) [Carlyle ASCAP] A trifle song that Johnnie Ray wrote and recorded B.C. (Before "Cry") is reissued. The belting slow blues item has what's needed to make it click now. Real sock delivery.
- ⓑ+ "ALL I DO IS DREAM OF YOU" (2:41) [Robbins ASCAP] With the Buddy Cole Quartet setting up the rhythm, Mr. Emotion belts out a fast moving oldie that he cut for his album. A double sided natural for the boxes. Hit material.

GUY LOMBARDO ORCHESTRA
(Decca 28751; 9-28751)

- ⓐ+ "BLUE DANCING SHOES" (2:30) [Miller ASCAP] With Guy Lombardo and the crew setting up the pretty waltz tempo, the Lombardo quartet sends out an appealing vocal of a pleasant tune. Lombardo fans should like this one.
- ⓑ "THERE'S ALWAYS SOMEONE THAT YOU CAN'T FORGET" (2:43) [Elmore White] Kenny Gardner does the crooning on this end while the Lombardo men dish up their appealing background that's tailor made for dancing.

DEAN MARTIN
(Capitol 2555; F-2555)

- ⓑ "IF I COULD SING LIKE BING" (2:09) [Meridian BMI] With a shuffle tempo set up by the Dick Stabile ork, Dean Martin does a take off on Bing Crosby as he vocals a cute ditty about the Der Bingle. The Herman McCoy Singers assist. Number should get plenty of laughs.
- ⓑ "DON'T YOU REMEMBER" (2:21) [Central BMI] With another shuffle tempo jump backing, Dean dishes up a romantic item to the up-beat. Makes for good listening. Very pretty tune.

LOIS BANTA & THE SPELLBINDERS
(Horizon 703)

- ⓐ+ "ONE SIDED LOVE" (2:20) [ASCAP] A country flavored handclapping bouncer is pertly chirped by Lois Banta as the Spellbinders back her with a fitting vocal accompaniment. A cute deck.
- ⓐ+ "JUST PRETENDING" (2:21) [ASCAP] The Spellbinders work alone on this end and glide through a lovely lilter. The smoothness of their voices carries weight.

Eddie, who arranged and backed Sunny Gale on her "Wheel Of Fortune," also provided the orking for Trudy Richard's "The Breeze." Eddie also arranged and backed Trudy on her latest, "Bye Bye Blackbird" and "I Believe What I Feel." Looks like a smash follow up for the gal. . . Paul Siegel, Symphony House Publishing, just acquired the United States and Canadian rights to "Fan Fan La Tulipe" from the pic currently showing in this country. Original version is recorded on Pathe in France. Lee Kauderer, who wrote the lyrics for "Tonight Love," will do the English lyrics for the French tune. . . Her "Crying In The Chapel" getting bigger and bigger. . . Looks as tho Eileen Barton's "Toys" will keep Bob Merrill's record of hits going. The last time Eileen and Bob got together the result was "If I Knew You Were Comin' I'da Baked A Cake" which went over a million. . . Sammy Kaye started something the other day when he promenaded down Fifth Avenue in short pants. He was deluged by telephone calls congratulating him on his courage in pioneering this new style trend. . . CHICAGO:

Linn Burton's Steak House Jammed with celebs this past Satiddy nite. Saw June Valli, Ray Anthony, Ralph Marterie, Eddie Fisher, Julius LaRosa, Rusty Draper, Jim Lowe, Hank Thompson, Paulette Sisters. And deejays Howard Miller, Eddie Hubbard, Jay Trompeter, Jim Mills, Don McCarty, Ted Travers. And many, many others, who sat and reminisced 'til the wee hours of the morn. . . Decca's Larry Green off to visit his home town, Los Angeles, for a very few days. . . June Valli, after an extensive vacation in our town, is currently doing a stint in Pittsburgh. June then returns to Chi for a two-weeker at the Chicago Thitter beginning 8/21. . . Bettye Kummerle all smiles these days. And rightly so. Bettye has just signed a contract whereby Frank Loesser will publish her tunes. This all started a few weeks back when Dick Grey, a rep for Frank Loesser, was in town and heard several of Bettye's songs. Dick was quite impressed and told Frank Loesser about them when he returned to the coast. Bettye was then called to New York for a meeting with Frank. And therein lies the story. . . Eddy Arnold winning many new friends via his twice-weekly TV show on NBC here. . . Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy continue to pack 'em in at the Chez Paree. . . Former Chicagoan, Tommy Sands, though only 16 years old, has cut quite a name for himself in the industry. Tommy has just been signed to a contract with RCA-Victor by Steve Sholes, Country & Western A&R man for Victor. Formerly starred on TV. As plans stand now, first session with Tommy will be cut here in Chicago. . . Bud Brandom now in the process of moving to new and larger quarters. . . Rusty Draper claims he's fallen in love with Chicago. This is the first time Rusty has ever spent any time here, formerly here for record sessions only. "Now that I'm at the Black Orchid, I've really had a chance to see everything and I like what I see," Rusty says.

JUNE VALLI

LOS ANGELES:

No one can deny that where a tune like "Danny Boy" should get going big would be staid old Irish Boston. And that's just what's happened. Slim Whitman's cutting of this famed tune is starting to tear loose big there. And all over everywhere else. And is Lew Chudd smiling. . . Because of all his click success with disks Slim Whitman being made some fabulous offers. . . Del Roy in charge over at Ridgeway while Charley Adams still in Honolulu. Advises that Wade Ray and ork booked for 90 days of one niters. . . Some of the indies here getting plans together, as yet 'way down in the early formative stage, for a western disk show to last for three days and be held at the Ambassador Hotel with all dealers and ops from the 11 western states to be invited. Will ask the majors to join in. As soon as they can get together, it's reported, for complete agreement. . . Believe it or not the following all together in one of West Pico's joints. Irv Shorten of Allied; Al Sherman and Ralph Bass of King and Federal; Irving Katz of Children's Record Guild. . . Irv Shorten pulled the best crack of the week when he said, "We're doing a sensational business. But hope it'll pick up." . . Gordon and Mary Jane Wolf of Sunland Distribs telling us all about 6 year old Buzzy and 3 year old Beverly. Now you don't have to even wonder why these two really swell young kids work as hard as they do. . . Dave Cavanaugh over at Capitol vociferously claims that he has absolutely lost weight and is losing more poundage each day. Dave revealed that Kay Starr just waxed a very secret diskeroo and, as Dave says, "It's it." . . Glenn Wallichs in Japan. . . Capitol busier than ever with some great new disks starting to wend their way up the charts. . . Mike Kurlan a happy guy with Lawrence Welk's clickeroos, especially "Oh," and the fact that Welk kicking off so great at the Aragon, which helps the sales of the disks. . . Bob Stern, promotion man, in the clouds as his second boy is announced by the doctors. Passing out cigars. Buying drinks. And just howling. . . Jim Warren and Jack Lewis doing more with R&B than with anything else in the racks. But doing a very busy job.

EBB TIDE

by ROBERT MAXWELL.

THE CASH BOX
SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

● Still riding the crest with his tremendously successful version of Terry's Theme from "Limelight", Frank Chacksfield comes up with another lovely presentation that should be swept into the instrumental wave. The number is labeled "Ebb Tide" and the orchestra

"EBB TIDE"
"WALTZING BUGLE BOY"
FRANK CHACKSFIELD ORCHESTRA
(London 1358, 45-1358)

duction of the sound of sea gulls and water breaking as it strikes the shore adds a unique quality to the ultra-dreamy orchestration. The oboe's lead role in the offering is an important factor in the lush and illustrious delivery. Looks like a hit follow-up from any angle. The lower lid "Waltzing Bugle Boy" is an attractive waltz piece that sways along with a pleasant air. We look for "Ebb Tide" to come through with a strong showing.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS" (3:15) [Personality Prod. ASCAP]

"NOW, NOW, NOW" (3:08) [Jack Gold ASCAP]

JOYCE ROMERO & MONTY KELLY

(Essex 331; 45-331)

• A new artist makes her debut on a terrific song that should be taking the country by storm in no time flat. Her name is Joyce Romero and the tune is a slow waltz number with a country flavor, labeled "Friends And Neighbors." Joyce's voice is sweet and strong and the way she presents the song makes you feel like crying. Her sincere reading gives an added meaning to the lyrics. To showcase the wonderful voice is a lovely choir and orchestra under the direction of Monty Kelly who, incidentally, has a hit of his own in "Tropicana." On the flip deck the thrush eases through a slow waltz ballad with the utmost of warmth. Joyce has a real smooth style. The number is tagged "Now, Now, Now." Again making the side beautiful is the chorus and stringy Monty Kelly orking. Looks like a real sleeper. Watch for it.

KAREN CHANDLER

ⓑ "TRANSFER" (2:53) [Redd Evans ASCAP] The fascinating voice of Karen Chandler is vibrant as the talented thrush gives out with a sentimental slow waltz treatment of a country flavored tune.

ⓑ "MADONNA" (2:56) [Kelly Stoll BMI] Again Jack Pleis sets up a beautiful orking for Karen as she offers on this end an ultra-tender lullaby that she sings right from the heart. The chorus adds a great deal. One of Karen's best jobs since "Hold Me, Thrill Me."

MARGARET WHITING
(Capitol 2550; F-2550)

ⓐ "C.O.D." (1:48) [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP] A solid jump item with a rocking beat is socked out by Margaret Whiting. It's a driving number with a load of zest.

ⓐ "WALTZ THE BLUES" (2:58) [Sunbeam BMI] Nelson Riddle again assists the thrush, this time on slow bluesy waltz number. The heartbroken delivery is impressive and should draw spins.

DAN BELLOC ORCH.
(Dot 15097; 45-15097)

ⓐ "I'LL DREAM TONIGHT" (2:15) [Cadillac ASCAP] Dan Belloc's ork smoothly styles a slow ballad as Nic Noble joins in with a pleasing vocal on a good tune. Number makes for good dance music.

ⓑ "SHORTN'IN BREAD" (2:20) [Cadillac ASCAP] A wonderful oldie gets a refreshing going over by Dan and the men as they make the number jump with a solid beat. Jitterbugs should go for this one in a big way.

ERROLL GARNER
(Columbia 40043; 4-40043)

ⓐ "ST. LOUIS BLUES" (2:45) [Handy Bros. ASCAP] The soft touch of Erroll Garner's fingers as he caresses the keyboard can well be appreciated as he renders his version of a great standard. Real soothing stuff.

ⓐ "MY IDEAL" (2:23) [Famous ASCAP] With a rhythm accompaniment, the master of the 88's glides over another oldie that comes out as warm, romantic, mood music. It's the type of music you could listen to for hours.

DUKE ELLINGTON ORCH.
(Capitol 2546; F-2546)

ⓑ "BLUEJEAN BEGUINE" (2:40) [Tempo ASCAP] Duke works the ivories with the band as they rhythm through a bluesy Latin beguine item with a haunting sound. The instrumental solos are terrific and the number holds a subdued wildness. 'Crazy' trumpeting.

ⓐ "WARM VALLEY" (3:19) [Robbins ASCAP] The crew has an inviting style that comes over romantically on this end as they ease through a soft number good for dance material.

PAUL WHALEN
(Gem 7003; 45-7003)

ⓐ "MINE" (2:34) [BMI] The sincerity in Paul Whalen's voice comes over perfectly on this end as he offers a polished treatment of a pretty ballad. The smooth and fitting orchestration is a perfect showcase for the lad's voice.

ⓐ "BRAVO MY HEART" (2:33) [BMI] Again, with the lush assistance of the ork, Paul sends up a fine romantic item. Has a great deal of sincerity in his voice.

LES BAXTER ORCHESTRA
(Capitol 2568; F-2568)

ⓑ "JULIE" (2:54) [Robbins ASCAP] With "Portugal," "Gigi," and "I Love Paris" still riding high, Les Baxter continues his streak with another lovely instrumental item. The lush music is topped off by the beautiful harmony of the Baxter chorus. Could make it.

ⓑ "TROPICANA" (2:06) [Eastwick BMI] The maestro leads the ork through a fine bit of cover work on a tune that's making the grade. The samba tempo and lush strings make for exciting listening.

JUNE HUTTON & AXEL STORDAHL

ⓑ "RATHER" (2:34) [Larry Spier ASCAP] A slow pretty waltz number gets a smooth sweet vocal treatment from June Hutton while Axel Stordahl conducts the ork. The Boys Next Door back Junie with a fine choral setting. She sounds great here.

ⓐ "NO STONE UNTURNED" (2:29) [Miller ASCAP] A lilting ballad with a country flavor gets another polished styling from the thrush. With the ork and chorus doing such a fine job in the background, June has another solid deck.

RED FOLEY & PATTY ANDREWS

ⓐ "BABY BLUES" (2:40) [Hub BMI] A country blues item gets a colorful styling from the combined talents of Red Foley and Patty Andrews. The jumping rhythm piece, with a guitar in the backing is cute for a listen.

ⓐ "UNLESS YOU'RE FREE" (2:35) [Blossom ASCAP] A ditty bouncer gets a lively presentation from Patty and Red. They each come through with a solo segment and join for the ending. An ok side.

VIN RODDIE ENSEMBLE
(Eagle 101)

ⓑ "VOLCANO" (2:00) [Symphony House ASCAP] A rhythmic Latin beat instrumental of the lovely theme music from the flicker "Volcano" is thrillingly presented by Vin Roddie's ensemble. Number has that "Anna" quality about it. Rhythm is terrific.

ⓐ "CIURRI CIURRI" (2:05) [Symphony House ASCAP] Direct from the sound track of the Anna Magnani "Volcano" film comes this Italian vocal treatment of the theme song. Number is not too clear but has the excitement of an original treatment.

BABY PAM
(Mercury 70207; 70207 x 45)

ⓐ "GOD BLESS US ALL" (2:35) [Brewster BMI] Eddie Ballentine's ork backs Baby Pam as the child vocalist plays the role of a child at prayer. Number is exciting and should appeal to older folks. A moving number. O.K. coverage.

ⓐ "I WANNA GO TO SCHOOL" (2:00) [Brandom ASCAP] The pert voiced youngster chirps a cute ditty about a child that wants to go to school. It's a cute item that should get spins.

Manie Sacks Elected V.P. of NBC

To Continue Present Duties With RCA

NEW YORK—Brig. General David Sarnoff, chairman of the board of directors of RCA and NBC, announces that Emanuel Sacks, now a staff vice president of the Radio Corporation of America, has been elected to serve also as a staff vice president of NBC. Sacks will continue his present duties and responsibilities as vice president and general manager of the RCA Victor record department.

In his new post with NBC, he will function as an assistant to General Sarnoff in connection with the latter's present duties at NBC. Sacks has a wide acquaintance in the entertainment industry and a long standing close association with performers. He will assist the various divisions of NBC in their activities in the talent field as well as in other areas.

He joined RCA on February 1, 1950 as director of artist relations for the RCA Victor division and NBC. He was elected as staff vice president on December 1, 1950 and was named general manager of the RCA Victor record department on January 5, 1953.

Before joining RCA, he was associated with the phonograph record industry for nearly 10 years. Before that, he was, for seven years, with the Music Corporation of America.

Sacks and Hilliard Confer On Victor Post

NEW YORK—It was revealed today, by Manie Sacks, vice president and general manager of RCA Victor Record Department, that he had talked with Jimmy Hilliard, former A & R head of Decca Records, with reference to the latter's moving into the RCA Victor organization.

Mood OK's TV Rhumba For Stations Holding BMI-ASCAP Licences

NEW YORK—In a telephone conversation with V. George Badoian, president of Mood Records, it was learned that Badoian had sent out notices to the trade this week stating that the current Mood hit "TV-Rhumba" could be performed by stations holding licenses granted either by Broadcast Music, Inc., or ASCAP.

A letter was sent with the notice stating that under the compulsory licensing provision of the Copyright Act, a record company was privileged to record for commercial use any tune which had previously been licensed for recording, provided that the full statutory rate of 2 cents per tune per side is paid the publisher. This has been cleared with Harry Fox, publishers' agent and trustee, said Badoian.

The notice read as follows: "Attention radio stations, program directors and disk jockeys of America: Our recording of "TV Rhumba," containing themes from many well know TV programs can be played by stations having both ASCAP and BMI licenses, regardless of any misleading claims by our competitors in the record industry."

"TV Rhumba," was recorded by Bob Bachelard and features the theme of approximately a dozen TV programs.

AIR MAIL SUBSCRIPTION To The Cash Box $30

Things are pretty quiet in Tin Pan Alley these days. Must be the summer slump or is everyone holding back for a sensational fall drive? Main topic of conversation seems to be the meeting of Ratcliffe and Petrillo in Paris. Ratcliffe says "Control entry of U. S. Bands." Petrillo wants "Free for all." Let's hope some agreement can be reached soon. . . . After two weeks of Abbott & Costello the Palladium goes back to top disc talent, bringing us the much awaited Kay Starr. This is one gal I won't miss. Neither will thousands of fans judging from advance box office. . . .

Oscar Hammerstein here to see to his coming show "The King and I." Valery Hobson and Herbert Lom set for star parts. . . . British Columbia records issuing "Gentlemen prefer Blondes" discs in September to coincide with pic release. However, discs will be those made by Carole Channing and Broadway cast, not Marilyn Monroe and Jane Russell. Wonder who'll issue the latter? . . . Rumors going around about the CORAL label making its bow in this country shortly via a new or maybe not so new company. There's always room for good records over here. . . .

Hear June Christy is coming over with the Kenton band instead of Chris Connors. . . . U. S. bound, Dorothy Squires, and Decca's British chief E. R. Lewis. . . . Donald Heywood composer of "I'm Coming Virginia" has written and produced a new musical revue opening at the Irving Theatre this week. . . . Garland Wilson opens at the Copacabana London August 5th for one month.

Opening a new supper club in Paris. Dick Edwards of the "Ringside" will sign U. S. stars for niterie. . . .

Muriel Smith who made such a hit with her recording of "Hold Me Thrill Me" has another winner in "Oo What You Do To Me" for the Philips label. . . . The New Musical Express organizing a Record Ball at the Albert Hall on September 26th. Climax of the evening will be special Disc Awards (suggested by yours truly) for the best British vocal record of the year, and the best British instrumental record of the year. . . .

Georgia Gibbs will be pleased to have Pat Dodd playing for her at the Sporting Club Monte Carlo. Seems Pat is a favorite with most top supper club stars.

NEW YORK—Cash Box's Bob Austin was a busy little bee last week. In the top photo, Austin is shown presenting Eddie Fisher with his Cash Box Award for winning the Juke Box Operators Poll as Best Male Vocalist of 1952. Don Ameche looks on. Don later made the formal presentation on Eddie's Coca Cola TV show. In the lower picture, Austin is awarding Les Paul and Mary Ford The Cash Box Scroll designating them The Most Programmed Small Instrumental and Singing Group as decided by the disc jockies of America. Mary is holding Cash Box Juke Box Operators Award as Best Small Instrumental Group of 1952. The double award was made on stage at the New York Paramount Theatre where Les Paul and Mary Ford are currently appearing. Looking on is bandleader Russ Case. Eddie Fisher also won the disk jockey poll as Most Programmed Male Vocalist, but presentation of the scroll was not made at this time.

Best Selling Records

FROM MORE THAN 15,000 RETAIL OUTLETS!

• Tunes are listed below in order of their popularity based on a continuing weekly national survey of thousands of record dealers by Jack "One Spot" Tunnis. Each listing includes the name of the song, record number, artists, and tune on the reverse side.

• The number underneath the title indicates the actual sale per 1000 records made for the week. If the figure is 67.4, it means that for every 1000 records sold that week, 67.4 were of the tune indicated—a combination of all the records on which it was available.

Dave Kapp Leaves RCA Victor Post

DAVE KAPP

The resignation of Dave Kapp, administrative assistant to Emanuel (Manie) Sacks, vice president and general manager of the RCA Victor Record Department was announced today by Sacks.

Kapp has been associated with RCA Victor for the past two years. Originally brought into the company as manager of the popular artist and repertoire section, he was later elevated to the position of administrative assistant to the vice president.

"It was with a great deal of reluctance that I accepted Mr. Kapp's resignation," said Sacks. "He has made a real contribution to the record business and to RCA Victor. I can only wish him in his future undertakings the same measure of success he helped to bring to me and the company."

Kapp, who leaves the Victor company with business at its peak, plans to go into business for himself.

"Purple Cow" - Welch Promotional Tie-In

NEW YORK—Inspired by Doris Day's current hit recording of A PURPLE COW, the Welch Grape Juice Company began making elaborate plans last week to promote a new ice cream soda called "A Purple Cow Soda." The new drink, made with vanilla ice cream, sparkling water, and grape juice—Welch's of course, was introduced at a luncheon during the recent sales convention of Columbia Records at the Palmer House, Chicago.

The soda was served as dessert to all of the distributors and executives attending the luncheon, and first-hand reports indicate it was a huge success. Promotional stunt was the product of the fertile imagination of Jerry Simon, record promotion man for Doris Day.

"Nick Hall" Grussner Dies

CANADIAN CAPERS

TORONTO TOPICS

Attractions along the main stem are highlighted by Canadians right now. Headlining at the Bermuda are Rex Doyle and Barry Phillips. Both acts have strong local followings dating back to when each of them was the stock vocalist at the Casino theatre several years ago. Both boys have built local draws, Rex hitting the nitery circuit with his vocalizing and Barry, the radio networks (as pianist and singer on Colgate's daily Barry & Betty program. . . . At the Zanzibar Ann Brooks, from Montreal is proving to be a crowd pleaser. She is the talented sister of Norman Brooks, whose records are doing so nicely these summer days. . . . As expected Capitol records, The Four Knights again did good business headlining an all coloured show at the Casino Theatre. . . . The incoming Casino show will be headed by Borrah Minevitch with his Harmonica Rascals and Derby's disc star Bob Carroll. Even with the summer vacations of the local Dee Jays, the Quality record boys are getting a lot of plays on the Carroll platters tied in with his Toronto appearance. . . . The Edison Hotel seems to have struck a winning combo that is drawing local dancers and visiting firemen. Team of Phyllis Marshall (the CBC TV Sepia song star) and two-beat rhythms of the Trump Davidson band (with an established network radio fandom) seems destined to be held over for a long time. In the other room at the Edison, the Joe King group enters its third year and their zanie antics continue to please the patrons. . . . Our congratulations to Canadian High News, whose first Music Edition is a welcome edition to local press. Aimed at the high school and teen age readers, the new publication fills a void at the consumer level which augers well for its future. . . . Len Hopkins and his mello music is always sweet to listen to but particularly so these summer nights in the newly decorated Sky Club of Burlington's Brant Inn. The same location is holding a Festival of Barber Shop Quartets at 8/11 featuring the World's champions, Buffalo Bills and the Four Chorders, the Canadian champions. Central Ontario has always been a happy haven for singing of this sort and the Burlington date should be a sell out. . . . Up Stratford way the Shakespeare Festival has proven to be a greater success than its backers had expected and plans are being considered to make it an annual event in the Avon River City. To cope with the public demand the current season is being extended an extra week. . . . Advanced ticket sale for the Canadian National Exhibition Grand Stand Show 28/8 to 12/9 has opened. Again this year the stage show will be made up largely of Canadian Talent with Victor Borge being this year's guest star. Early indications seem to indicate a better than ever turn out. . . . Up at Shelburne Arena, the Canadian championship Old Time Fiddlers Contest takes place for the second time. Last year, this rustic competition was so successful that it became an annual event. Buttressed with CBC stars Peggy Brooks and the Commodores Quartet doings will be broadcast, featuring the finalist and the winner by the CBC on 12/8. Indicative of the tremendous draw at this event has developed is the fact that its attendance will exceed the total population of Shelburne. Much of the credit for a success is due to the CBC's Don Fairbarim who will be the M.C. and is one of the original promoters of the event.

NORMAN BROOKS

WANDA MERRELL

MONTREAL MEMOS

Top news of the week should be the success of Georgie Faith, the CFCF and Apex folk star who stepped in as a last minute replacement at the Mount Royal Hotel's Normandy Room and clicked in fine fashion. The pattern is as old as show business but the local music folks were 100% for Georgie and his courage in jumping in at the last minute and proving that the Cafe Society folks would go for his folksie vocalizing. They did just that and our congratulations to the Sheraton Hotel and its booker for giving a Canadian a chance to click. . . . Phil Brito and his suave showmanship has been a welcome addition to the local scene. Headlining the Chez Paree Show Phil is back in familiar territory. It was from band vocalist, with the Lloyd Huntley orchestra, then at the Mount Royal Hotel, that Phil teed off as a singer. He has always been fan following here and his records have always been money makers for the ops in this sector, whether their machines be in French or English language spots. Another thing that has endeared Phil to localities was his recording of Raleigh Keith's Canadian tune, "You Hold The Reins While I Kiss You, when Phil sang this song and the Jackie, Rae, Lou Snider, Laurentian-inspired song "Valley of the Saints" in his Hollywood movie, "Square Dance Katie." . . . Wanda Merrell who filled in at the Chez Paree in Montreal was called back by the nitery for a 17 day stand starting Sept. 4. She was asked to return on the basis of the great business the club did when she was last there. Wandra will work the spot with the Will Mastin Trio featuring Sammy Davis Jr.

While TV seems to have been set back till next year in this locale, radio is booming and news around the studios indicates the upcoming season will be the best yet. . . . Recording activities also on the upbeat for the coming seasons with Aragon's topper Al Reusch planning to cut sessions locally. Already scheduled is a cutting bee with Aragon's star Hod Pharis whose platters "Call Of The Mountains" and "I Heard The Bluebirds Sing" were best sellers on the label last season for the Vancouver diskery. Both tunes were written by Hod and were covered by the U.S. Major labels. . . . Understand that Stu Davis, starring on CKXL has another upcoming recording session. Rumor has it that a U.S. Major label is negotiating with Stu at the present time. Before locating in Calgary, Stu recorded for the Sonora and Victor labels in the U.S.A.

Pop Goes Atlantic

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records, one of the leading R & B indies, has launched a bid for pop market honors with a Wingy Manone etching of "Vaya Con Dios" and "The Song From Moulin Rouge." The disk features Manone on trumpet and vocal in a swinging two-beat treatment, and is beginning to stir up strong word-of-mouth report even prior to release.

Band backing Manone comprises topstudio men, with a new vocal quartet, the Town Criers, with arrangements by Dick Carey.

Manone, who used to cover pop hits for the Bluebird label in the late 'thirties and early 'forties, made a big splash more recently with his "hip" treatment of "Riders In The Sky" for the Kem label.

Atlantic is going all-out on a pop promotion of the DIOS-ROUGE etching, with both the Ardmore and BMI companies, respective publishers of the tunes, supporting the promotiion.

Manone has been booked into the Bandbox, this city, on August 18.

Pictured above are Upper left—Ahmet Ertegun and Jerry Wexler welcoming Wingy Manone and his fabulous trumpet into the Atlantic organization. Upper right—A bit of horseplay before the session actually got started. In the right hand corner Ahmet and Jerry use a tuba to help Wingy create an entirely different sound. Lower left—Serious business begins as Wexler and Wingy go over the score as Ertegun and one of the band look on. Lower right—Wingy drops the trumpet to vocal the Vaya Con Dios lyrics.

ⓑ EXCELLENT	ⓑ FAIR
ⓒ VERY GOOD	ⓒ MEDIOCRE

PAULA WATSON
(MGM 11530)

ⓐ "CHICK-CHICK-CHICK-A-DEE" (2:17) [Beacon Music-BMI] Paula Watson sings a moderate-quick tempo bounce in lively and happy style. A fetching etching.

ⓑ "TENNESSEE WALK" (2:31) [Beacon Music-BMI] Miss Watson does a ragtime novelty bounce with zest and enthusiasm. A catchy ditty that should mean spins.

LIGHTNIN' HOPKINS

ⓑ+ "DOWN TO THE RIVER" (2:37) [Rockland Music-BMI] Lightnin' Hopkins is in great form as he mournfully chants a slow blues about his "baby trouble." Hopkins' guitar lends colorful assistance and the side comes out a contender.

ⓐ+ "GONE AGAIN" (2:39) Lightnin' treats to a guitar boogie instrumental that makes for a happy coupling.

LITTLE JUNIOR
(Sun 187)

ⓑ+ "FEELIN' GOOD" (2:50) [Delta Music-BMI] Little Junior gives every indication of really enjoying himself as he sings this spirited hot blues. A very strong side and one that could make plenty of noise.

ⓑ "FUSSIN' AND FIGHTIN' BLUES" (3:00) [Delta Music-BMI] A change of pace as Junior etches a slow blues in sorrowful manner. Junior about to lose his mind fussing and fighting with the woman he loves.

FRANK MOTLEY

ⓐ+ "THAT AIN'T RIGHT" (2:37) [Claiborne Davis-BMI] Frank Motley and his Crew run through a middle tempo jump with Jimmy Crawford doing a talky vocal complaining he made her what she is and she's not playing fair with him.

ⓑ "DUAL TRUMPETS BOUNCE" (2:41) [Claiborne-Davis-BMI] Motley performs his specialty on this end as he plays two trumpets at one time. A quick beat, go-go instrumental.

AL GREY
(Peacock 501)

ⓑ "BIG CHIEF" (2:36) [Lion Publishing-BMI] Al Grey and his ork beat out a fast tempo instrumental in lively style. Piano has the featured spot.

ⓑ "WALKING ONE" (2:44) [Lion Publishing-BMI] The Grey aggregation etches a driving quick beat bounce.

BLAZER BOY

ⓑ+ "WAITING FOR MY BABY" (2:20) [Commodore Music-BMI] Blazer Boy belts a fast moving bouncer about waiting in the rain for his baby who don't show up. He sings and shouts the lively etching with enthusiasm.

ⓑ "SURPRISE BLUES" (2:22) [Commodore Music-BMI] Flip is a change of pace. Blazer Boy sings a slow southern type blues smartly.

"WILL YOU REMEMBER" (2:38)

"STICK WITH IT BABY" (2:41)

LONNIE JOHNSON

(Rama 14)

LONNIE JOHNSON

● Lonnie Johnson, whose "Tomorrow Night" was one of the big R & B sellers of all time, comes up with the answer, "Will You Remember." Theme being will you remember tomorrow night what you said tonight. Lyrics are of a romantic nature, potent, the tune lovely and hummable, and Johnson's treatment lilting and filled with warmth. Of more than passing notice is the excellent guitaring of the artist. This etching should make it, but big. Flip, "Stick With It Baby," is a middle bounce blues rhythmically chanted by Johnson who is certainly strong at selling a tune. Two good decks, but from here it looks like "Will You Remember."

DUSTY BROOKS

ⓑ "TEARS AND WINE" (2:36) [Delta Music-BMI] Dusty Brooks and his Tones etch a slow romantic item with Juanita Brown and Joe Alexander forming a smooth sounding duo. Brooks, instrumental backing is softly done.

ⓑ "HEAVEN OR FIRE" (2:38) [Delta Music-BMI] Juanita Brown does a solo on the reverse deck and the gal handles her job smoothly. Tune is a romantic middle beat. Soft piano sets the mood.

DAVID VAN DYKE

(Peacock 502)

ⓑ "DYKE TAKES A HIKE" (3:10) [Lion Publishing-BMI] On the new Peacock Progressive label David Van Dyke on the sax, with Cherokee Conyers ork providing the backing, etches his first release. Dave provides some top deck sating in the featured role.

ⓑ "WE'LL BE TOGETHER AGAIN" (2:36) [Lion Publishing-BMI] Flip is a slow mood piece. Dyke's dreamy sax is in the clouds. Etching is for the esoteric.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"DING DONG" (2:51) [Progressive BMI]

"LOVIN' DADDY" (2:50) [Progressive BMI]

CARMEN TAYLOR

(Atlantic 1002)

● Carmen Taylor comes through in fine style on her first release for the Atlantic label. In "Ding Dong" the gal belts the middle tempo rhythmic jump with an angry emotional and spirited vocal that rocks from the toes. She employs enthusiasm, gravel voice and shadings to sell the bouncer. Orking is in the torrid mood and the result is a disk that should garner coins in large quantities. Has that "Hound Dog" flavor. The lower end, "Lovin' Daddy," is a middle tempo bounce treated to a solid vocal by the gal, but is not as uninhibited as the top deck. Her personality does not emerge as fully on this side. We vote for "Ding Dong."

J. T. ADAMS

ⓑ "ROCK-A-MY SOUL" (2:37) J. T. Adams, with the aid of the Men Of Texas, sings a rhythmic and engaging middle tempo item. The group blends effectively.

ⓑ "CRYING IN THE CHAPEL" (2:41) [Valley Music] Another beautiful rendition of the lovely tune hitting big in all fields. This one has a different sound in that it employs a big chorus back.

MEMPHIS SLIM

ⓑ+ "FIVE O'CLOCK BLUES" (2:50) [Pamlee-BMI] Memphis Slim does a stirring job on a slow blues and comes up with a very strong side. Slim throws a lot of feeling into his vocal.

ⓑ+ "THE COME BACK" (2:45) [Pamlee-BMI] The under portion is a dramatic slow blues that Slim holds down until about midway and then he sings it out. Orking also gets belty and the result is a potent disk.

BIG JAY McNEELY

(Federal 12141)

ⓑ "ROCK CANDY" (2:39) [Armo-BMI] Big Jay McNeely belts a middle beat handclapper with a moody sax. Orking provides the rocking background.

ⓑ "NERVOUS MAN NERVOUS" (2:35) [Armo-BMI] Flip opens like a cheering section then McNeely and the ork take over. A fast wildie that is in the vein of the current hit, "Crazy Man Crazy."

JAMES ALLEN

(Brunswick 84016)

ⓑ "THE ONLY ONE I'LL EVER LOVE" (2:52) [Challenge Music-BMI] James Allen Sings a slow romantic blues with emotion against an easy backing.

ⓑ "STRANGE ROMANCE" (2:55) [Patricia-BMI] Flip is a slow dramatic item effectively chanted by the artist in dreamy manner. Disk makes good listening and should catch its share of plays.

UNCLE HUGGIE BOY

ⓑ "THREE LITTLE PIGS" (3:48) Steve Allen. "LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD" (3:22) Steve Allen. Uncle Huggie Boy waxes his reading of the Grimm Fairy Tales for Hip Kids initially put out by New York jockey Jazzbo Collins. Brunswick disk, a sleeper, took off wherever exposed. The Uncle Huggie Boy version also making noise out on the coast and indications are that both diskings will sell in large numbers. Seems as though all the hip kids did not reside in New York alone.

THE CASH BOX RHYTHM N' BLUES Ramblings

NEW YORK:

No sooner did Ahmet Ertegun, Atlantic Records, return from his vacation than he and Jerry Wexler threw themselves into a frantic session with Wingy Manone that produced some solid sides aimed at the pop market. Wingy blows an exciting trumpet and sings an inferious gravelly vocal. Looks like Atlantic has another hot one in their latest release by Carmen Taylor, "Ding Dong" and "Lovin' Daddy." . . . Freddie Mitchell, Brunswick sax artist, booked solid for a six month tour of Europe. Freddie leaves on the 13th and his first stand will be in Italy for three weeks. . . . Billy Ward's Dominoes, now at the Bandbox, are negotiating a deal which would team them with Sugar Ray Robinson for an autumn tour of the nation. The group, reports say, has sold over five million records in two years for Federal Records. They have just been invited to perform for President Eisenhower, along with Bing Crosby and Bob Hope, in Denver, Colo. on August 19 and 20. . . . Joel Turnere, now doing A & R work for Peacock and Duke Records, is the author of the next Willie Mabon release, "You're A Fool." Turnero has made quite a rep for himself with his supervision of "Cool Goofer" and "Red Top" for Prestige Records. Joel also was associated with Red Robin Label on their hit releases, "Can't Do Sixty No More" by the Du Droppers (which established the group nationally and led to their signing with RCA Victor) and "Where Are You" by The Mellow Moods. The young tunesmith has now set up a BMI pub, Terrific Tunes. . . . Louis Jordon opens with His Tympany Five at the Golden Hotel, Reno, Nevada on August 12 for two weeks. Following this stint, Louis goes into the Stateline Country Club, Lake Tahoe for two weeks and then on to The Sands Hotel in Las Vegas. . . . Irv Marcus, Peacock and Duke national sales rep, back in New York to make sure the disks are pouring out on schedule. Johnny Ace's "Clock" has showed no signs of slowing up and distribs are yelling for more.

JOEL TURNERO

CHICAGO:

Jack Lauderdale, prexy of Swingtime Records, has opened a branch office here in Chicago. He's staying on here to get the new office going in full swing. Jack intends to make this his main headquarters. "Because," he claims, "I believe that the center of the Rhythm & Blues market will shift from the West Coast to Chicago in the very near future." . . . Amos Milburn reported to be giving serious thought to disbanding his aggregation and going out as a single. . . . Shaw Artists Corp. has just signed Little Esther to a contract. Plans now underway to put her on tour with Eddy Boyd. Thru Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio. . . . Shaw is also beginning to build up its Latin American Dept. and has recently signed Joe Loco Quintette and Elmo Garcia, among others. . . . Big party followed Sonny Stitt's opening at the Bee Hive Lounge August 7. . . . Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong made his industrial show debut this past week when he appeared at the Civic Opera House. Musical extravaganza was put on by the Raytheon Corp., unveiling their brand new 1954 TV models. This was one of Louis' rare morning appearances. . . . Hear tell that Lucky Millinder, who got his start in Chicago, is returning to the band biz, his first love. Lucky left the music biz a few seasons ago for radio and television. He was sorely missed and will most likely be welcomed back in a big way. First stop for Lucky expected to be the Apollo Theatre, Gotham. Then on the road with scheduled stops at the Regal Theatre here and the Fox Theatre, Detroit. . . . By popular demand, the 5 Blazes returned to the Club Bagdad for a limited engagement.

JOE LOCO

LOS ANGELES:

Record distribs here admit that if not for R&B disks these past two months would have been rough. But rough. Not only have the R&B disks helped them to profitably span the past weeks, but with demand for these continuing to grow greater, all now believe that the R&B field bids fair to be the best they've ever yet enjoyed. . . . Those five 16 year old boys from Jefferson Highschool here, who kicked off grandly with their very first disk for young Joe Bihari's Flair label, were booked into their very first theatre date. The boys felt they weren't ripe enough for theatre showing, but, Joe Bihari told 'em to go ahead and get the experience. . . . Jack Allison, sales mgr for Modern Records here, has now been engaged with this label for the past 8 years. He started with Jack Gutshall, back in '45, when Jack was the big exclusive distrib here on the West Coast. . . . Lew Chudd mighty happy to get a very grand phone call from his New Orleans' distrib with an order in four figures for Fats Domino's "Please Don't Leave Me." . . . Close working combo—Art and the very lovely Mrs. Lee Rupe—over at Specialty. Mrs. Rupe handling all promotion and publicity while Art works on getting and filling the orders. . . . By the way, Dorothy Montgomery of Specialty, extremely photogenic. . . . Col. Irving Fogel on his way to Asia. The office in charge of the very charming Joanne Low. Joanne telling all about Mae Williams' cutting of "Oh Brother." And why. . . . Just can't seem to catch up with John Dolphin. . . . Ralph Bass telling about the amateur nites (Monday) at the Club Alabam which he started. And that they have brought out some really terrific hidden talent. . . . Wick Hug is the deejay at Mrs. Autumn's Bop Shop disk store broadcasting over KRKD. . . . Saul Bihari points to some mighty impressive orders for Johnny Moore's "Dragnet Blues." Frankie Ervin does the vocal. . . . Lots of legal tape getting all wound around the Dragnet. But the disk biz just going on ahead. . . . Leo and Eddie Messner cut "Grimm Fairy Tales" in the afternoon and had it played over the air the very same night. Which is starting to roll here. And there, too. That was one of the speediest jobs known 'round these parts. . . . In the meantime, Mike Kurlan simply jammed with orders for Jazzbo Collins' version of the "Grimm Fairy Tales," and calling for more, more and still more.

Capitol's Fall Plans

NEW YORK—At a trade press showing in this city on Thursday, August 6, Capitol Records revealed plans to transform the neighborhood store into a modern self-service plant this winter as the result of a unique campaign. The educational drive emphasizes the advantages of self-service merchandising.

Record dealers in all parts of the country are being presented with hard-learned details on the benefits and problems of self-service, and are being treated by Capitol's long-range planners to a movie dramatizing what happens when a shelf shop goes self-service.

Capitol sales chief Bill Fowler says it has required a year's research and an expenditure of $50,000 to assemble reliable estimates and information for dealers who want to convert to self-service. The material includes full-color brochures and reports from dealers some of whom claim their business tripled when they abandoned traditional retailing.

The movie dramatizing self-service stars Mel Blanc, the "man of a million voices" featured on scores of children's records, and Jane Easton, a leading Hollywood starlet. It was taken "on location" in actual dealer's stores.

Showings will be held for dealers in various parts of the country beginning late in August.

Here's A Twist: Indie Covers Major

NEW YORK—In the past, many major labels have hopped on good songs cut by independent companies. And many of them have become hits. It is well accepted that one of the practices of a successful major record company is keeping a close watch on the indies for coverage of tunes that show promise.

Here's a twist. Essex Records, independent record company, is covering a strong contender first released by a major label. A few weeks ago, Victor released a country flavored ballad labeled "Friends And Neighbors" by a newcomer Mary Rose Bruce. On the basis of the platter's strong showing up north, Essex has immediately cut and now has on the market a rendition of the same song by newcomer Joyce Romero with Monty Kelly's Orchestra. Dave Miller, Essex Records' dynamo, cut Joyce's version on Saturday and had the record in the hands of the d.j.'s by Sunday afternoon.

Margaret O'Brien On TV

NEW YORK—Margaret O'Brien, who just recorded "F.D.R.'s Prayer For Peace", to be released on the 1st of September, through the efforts of Art Seger appeared on Sherman Billingsley's TV show, "The Stork Club", plugging her release.

King Releases Tribute To Robert Taft

CINCINNATI, OHIO—When Hank Williams died on New Year's Day of this year, King recording artist Jack Cardwell, a good friend of the country balladeer, wrote a song as a tribute to Hank. The tune, dubbed "The Death of Hank Williams" automatically became a smash in the folk & western juke boxes and in record stores. After the Cardwell record showed such promise, every record company released a platter in honor of Hank.

Keeping up with the current events in our world and coming up with another first, the King plattery is immediately releasing a record by Jimmie Osborne entitled "A Tribute To Robert A. Taft." Immediately following the recording session, King rushed to the presses to get the number to all its distribs. The company is going all-out on making this one even bigger than the Cardwell record. The backing on this number is another tune on a current topic of importance, "The Korean Story."

BULLSEYE of the WEEK

"JOHN HENRY" (2:59)
[Brazos Valley—BMI]
"YESTERDAY'S GIRL" (3:04)
[Brazos Valley—BMI]
HANK THOMPSON
(Capitol 2553)

● Hank Thompson's latest offering combines a solid pair of tunes that look like potential winners. Both sides look like sure-fire follow ups to his "Rub-A-Dub-Dub" which is currently riding high in the charts. The upper lid is a quick beat light hearted bounce which the chanter vocals in infectious style. The cute lyrics tell of "John Henry" a steel driving man. This zesty and appealing side gets top instrumental accompaniment by the Brazos Valley Boys. The bottom half "Yesterday's Girl" is a soft slow tempo romantic side on which Thompson lectures an errant Romeo on how much grief he's causing the gals by lovin' and leavin' them. Watch for both sides to make plenty of noise in the boxes.

"MY COLD COLD HEART IS MELTED NOW" (2:48) [Acuff-Rose—BMI]
"HEY JOE" (2:30) [Tanen—BMI]
KITTY WELLS
(Decca 28797)

● The winning style of Kitty Wells etches another potent platter that's destined to bring her added honors and create more excitement in the jukes. The top side, "My Cold Cold Heart Is Melted Now," is Kitty's answer to "Your Cheatin' Heart". This lovely slow romantic lament is handled in fine style by the chirp. She bemoans the fact that her "cold cold heart has told on me" and weeps the whole night through. The under portion is an appealing rendition of "Hey Joe", a quick beat spirited tune currently big in both the pop and country fields. This side should catch a goodly share of the spins.

JIMMIE OSBORNE
(King 1268; 45-1268)

B+ "A TRIBUTE TO ROBERT A. TAFT" (2:36) [Lois-BMI] King Records, first to come up with a tribute to Hank Williams, jumps the gun once again with a smooth country vocal by Jimmie Osborne in honor of the late Senator Bob Taft. A real sentimental job that looks like a smash.

B+ "THE KOREAN STORY" (2:28) [Lois-BMI] Jimmie again delivers a number that carries a great deal of meaning. He sings about the Korean problem with all the sincerity he can gather. With times as they are, this one looks like another potent contender.

ROCKY STARR
(Mercury 70192)

B "LONESOME CHILDHOOD" (2:32) [Teri - Music - ASCAP] Rocky Starr and the Happy Cowboys wax a slow tempo bluesy item. Starr tells of an unhappy childhood. The clapping of hoofbeats in the back-drop add color to a sentimental tune.

C+ "ROCK-A-BYE BOOGIE" (2:07) [Teri-ASCAP] Lower deck is a fast moving, change of pace version of the old lullabye with a boogie twist. Chorus blends in happily on the nursery rhymes and cute ending is effective.

TOMMY DUNCAN
(Intro 6080)

B "I RECKON I'M A TEXAN" (2:40) [Intro-BMI] Tommy Duncan chants a fast moving piece that starts slowly and changes pace. Happy lyrics tell of a Texan who loves Texas to the end. Miller Brothers back in solid fashion.

B "STARS OVER SAN ANTOINE" (2:05) [Brazos Valley - BMI] Flip is a quick tempo light-hearted tune. Vocal is engagingly performed by the artist. A muted trumpet adds to this musical pick-me-up.

FREDDIE HART
(Capitol 2524)

B+ "BUTTERFLY LOVE" (2:32) [American-BMI] The mellow chords of Freddie Hart renders a lovely slow tempo romantic ditty about a casual romance. The soft tender reading should stir up plenty of interest in the boxes.

B "MY HEART IS A PLAYGROUND" (2:27) [Brazos Valley-BMI] Lower disk is a slow tempo romantic lament. The love lyrics of this pretty tune are sung with feeling and emotion by the artist.

AL BRITT
(MGM 11533)

B "I'D GIVE THE WORLD" (2:48) Al Britt warbles a slow tempo romantic lament with tender emotion. A mellow reading by the artist supplemented by a soft string backing combine for a pleasing dish.

B "TREE TOP TALL" (2:32) On the bottom half Britt delivers a polished vocal on a slow tempo item. The delightful lyrics tell of how he keeps his head in the clouds and won't be tempted by womenfolk.

Fickle Mr. and Mrs.

Here and There

NEW YORK—Music operators changing over to dime play will be interested in a report issued by the New York City Transit Authority, as reports received from music operators at The Cash Box indicate a similar reaction. In the first week of operation at the increased fare from 10c to 15c, the Authority stated that the rides were down 10.4 per cent, but the income was up over a million dollars. Music operators, in most instances, have stated that they find that play slumps off somewhat when they change over to dime play, but the gross income increases. Then, after a period of time, when the patrons become used to inserting a dime, the number of plays gradually goes up, to a point, in most cases, to the original number.

CHICAGO—Many cities and towns have been plagued with archaic laws which have been on the books for years. In many instances these have been ignored when they become too ridiculous, but other times are enforced to the bewilderment of the citizens. This matter comes to our attention this week when Corporation Counsel John J. Mortimer of the City of Chicago informed operators "Installers as well as keepers of cigarette vending machines are liable to a fine." Mortimer offered his interpretation of the law after William Geis, deputy city collector, said police never have arrested the installers because there is no penalty for installation. It was stated that it is city policy to confiscate machines but not to make arrests. The ordinance provides for $25 to $100 fine for each day for any one who "locates, installs, keeps, maintains or permits installation on his premises of a cigarette vending machine, licensed or unlicensed." How ridiculous can these ordinances get. It's about time someone saw to it that this one is wiped off the books.

NEW YORK—We've seen all kinds of coin operated equipment, but someone's always coming up with a new twist. A New York firm comes along with a seat cushion of rubber foam, which can be used at race tracks, ball games, concerts, etc., for those patrons desiring a soft seat. The cushions are to be fastened down underneath the seat, and the patron can release them for use on top of the seat by inserting a quarter into a coin chute attached. The firm claims patents, and are interested only in selling franchise territories on a royalty basis.

Washington, D.C. — Employment reached 63,120,000, a new record high for July, the Census Bureau reported this week. This is a million above last year's July figure.

It was unusually interesting, being among the company present, when some well known salesmen were discussing the industry generally.

Suddenly one of these men switched the conversation over to the average operator. Discussing some of the statements he had encountered as reported to him by operators.

After a long discourse in this vein, he turned to the others, more or less for verification of the statements he had made, or perhaps, for the thoughts of these others present which might be pro or con to what the operators had told him.

Said one man, "Oh, those operators, they don't know what they want."

He went on from there to explain his statement by speaking at length on the fact that, many times, the operators wouldn't purchase the new machines he showed them, because the operators claimed the new machine was "similar" to what they already had on locations.

"Imagine," this man stated, "an operator telling me that all he had to do was simply paint out the name on his old machine and call the machine something else and it would be the same thing?"

Some disagreed, others agreed, with the operators remarks. But, what this salesman should have done, was to seek out Webster's dictionary, and look up the definition of the word, "fickle."

He would learn that Webster defined the word "fickle" as "likely to change without reason."

And therein he would have the answer to what the operators, whom he had met, were trying to tell him.

The operators weren't speaking for themselves. The average operator would just as soon put an old rusty tin can with a hole in it on his route, if that was what the public wanted to play.

The intelligent salesman realizes that the operator is only the sounding-board for the general public.

What the operator tells him, is what the public tells the operator, either through the location owner or directly.

Therefore, the intelligent salesman, not only relays this information on to his sales manager and his factory, but, takes cognizance of what his factory must build to "please the public" via the operator.

And the public is "fickle."

"Likely to change without reason."

Therefore, the salesman and his factory must always be ready to give the public quick changes of equipment to renew interest in playing their machines.

Variety has been the spice of coin machine manufacturing and operating success.

There's nothing like the appearance of a brand new and different machine on any location to suddenly zoom the play action on that location.

There's nothing better than for the average factory to continually develop new and different type amusement products to interest the players.

There's nothing like a hit game to make life so much more pleasant for all concerned with any manufactory.

The unmoving fact remains that the operator constantly requires something new and different in coin operated amusement to continue to enjoy a profitable business.

This means that those salesmen, who are calling on operators, should always remember that the operator is their "sounding-board" for the general public.

If they meet with the operator's approval they are, actually, meeting the public's approval.

Thereby they are giving "fickle Mr. and Mrs." what they want. And that means all will enjoy a profitable and pleasant business.

AMERICA'S FINES

Why Magic?

Because, almost magically, 100 selections found new markets and MORE BUSINESS for music men. Soon after the introduction of 100, tests proved that people who had never placed a coin in a phonograph were listening to the music of their choice on Select-O-Matic "100" Music Systems. And, locations where there had never been a coin-operated phonograph became 100 LOCATIONS.

But it really wasn't magic. It was just common sense. By offering a broader music service . . . by providing an adequate number of selections . . . by proper programming under the FIVE BASIC MUSICAL CLASSIFICATIONS it became possible for music men to realize the maximum potential from every location.

Today, everyone knows that with 100 selections, there's "music for everyone."

L. A. Ops In Location Hassles

Music And Games Ops Decry Lack Of Association To Bring About More Ethical Business Practices

LOS ANGELES—Music and games ops throughout this area are decrying the fact that there is no association in existence to eliminate the location hassles which are current here and to bring about more ethical business practices.

The fact remains, as some ops here have stated, that the average location is subjected to continuous pressure from competitors and this, in itself, has made operating a very hazardous occupation.

Even the old time operators, who have retained the same locations for years, are being pounced upon at regular intervals, sometimes by new blood and sometimes by older operators, so that, as even these old timers claim:

"Operating can be anything but a profitable business under such conditions."

There is no longer any doubt in this area, especially among the music operators, that dime play is "the answer" to the future continuation of their operations.

"But", as one leading operator here, who has most of his own route switched over to 10c play, stated, "the suspicions which are current, are in some cases, well founded, that competitors will jump spots where dime play is put into action with nickel play and, in this way, both operators suffer with the location owner, himself, completely confused and, many times, also disgusted."

Locations are now beginning to demand dime play, because of reports from other location owners regarding the better profits being enjoyed.

In the meantime, suffering most are the games operators, whether they operate kiddie rides, bingos, pinballs, shuffles, or other type machines, because none respect the other's business.

This situation will continue, leaders here state, as long as there is no agreement between the operators, which could best be brought into being by an association, wherein all would agree to work on a more ethical business basis.

Newcomers here are sold machines on location on one or another unusual basis. For example, one method is to place the machine on location, give the storekeeper the first two weeks' collections and then take the next two weeks, after which, if the machine is sold, the new buyer again gets nothing for two weeks or tries his best to set up a new deal for himself with the location.

This, it is believed here, could be cured by an organization which would, in the long run, work to the advantage of all concerned, because it would assure sellers of equipment here more substantial operators whom they could better trust from a credit standpoint, while also assuring them more stable business conditions all around.

Nation-Wide Publicity For Juke Box Biz

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y.—A. D. Palmer, Jr., advertising and sales promotion manager for The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, this city, advises the juke box firm will jointly sponsor a contest with Frankie Laine, recording artist, for the purpose of bringing to light new singing talent for eventual recording.

Called "The Frankie Laine-Wurlitzer Vocalist Scholarship Contest", it will run concurrently in 40 cities throughout the United States for a period of time—after midnight, September 14, or before October 19.

Each winner in the 40 local areas will be awarded a check for $100 by the local Wurlitzer distributor, and each winner's transcription will be placed in competition for "National Winner." The final national winner will receive a Wurlitzer check for $1,000 as a 2 year vocal scholarship fund for use toward such training in any locality or manner which the winner may choose. The winner will also get a trip to New York City as a guest of Frankie Laine, and a recording on the Columbia label.

While the ultimate purpose is to bring new talent to light, the entire juke box industry stands to gain by the publicity which will result due to the nation-wide coverage by the news press, TV and radio. Palmer relates that a strong publicity campaign has been conceived, and the general public will soon be informed of the contest thru every medium of news coverage. Then, as the contest progresses, a continual flood of information will be kept in front of the public thru local coverage. The final winner is expected to receive national bally-hoo thru the joint efforts of Wurlitzer, Frankie Laine and Columbia Records. (Rules appear on Page 9)

Coin Machines To Norway

Gnisten 1st Firm Permitted To Import Music And Games

OSLO, NORWAY—Knut Andre, owner of Gnisten, this city, states he is the first person given permission to import amusement machines and music machines from the United States.

Andre reports that the first pinball machines arrived May 1, and the first two juke boxes arrived about a month later. Electric current had to be changed to 220 volts, 50 cycles, and coin chutes changed over to accept Norwegian coins. A.B.T. Manufacturing Company supplies specially made coin chutes to accept the smaller Norwegian coin.

First import totaled 2 juke boxes and 25 pinball machines. Andre claims more equipment is being shipped to him. One of the juke boxes has been installed in Oslo's new hotel, Hotel Viking, located in the roof restaurant. Installation, in addition to the music machine, included several speakers.

Altho the restaurant is open only from 11 A.M. to 12 P.M., he reports collections for the first 7 days were for 1400 plays.

The second music machine was located at the Hanko, Norway's most famous bathing and sailing resort. With the juke box, 2 pinball machines were set in.

Several pinball machines are now operating at the hotel where some of the American representatives of NATO are living.

Andre, who spent three years in the United States, has in the past visited at the United Manufacturing Company plant. He says, "I was taken care of by Mr. DeSelm and Mr. Porcelline. They are the nicest people I have ever met." He takes care of all repairs and servicing himself, and because of the shortage of parts, has had to make many of these himself.

LOS ANGELES

Charley Daniels and Don Gilberston got into one of those fishing discussions (?). Said each to the other, "Okay, let's go surf fishing." So they said anyway . . . This is the one town in the U.S.A. where the record distribs have had the intelligence to locate themselves right on Coinrow (Pico Blvd.) The ops must pass their doors as they go to visit their favorite jobbers and distribs . . . That automatic pitcher range, "Batter Up," located on E. Firestone Blvd., near Downey, getting plenty of action. Over the weekends, anyway . . . Phone call from Morrie Wiczter to advise that, "All's well," at the Wiczter menage . . . If you ever get out to Knott's Berry Farm check those ancient Seeburg player pianos. And some of the other coin operated music makers of the last century and the early part of this one. What tremendous progress the manufacturers of automatic music have made . . . Dan Stewart decided to take a trip over to Catalina to relax. So Jack Dolan dashed down to San Diego. "Business," he says. And Pete Ley took over while Bess Barrows was getting her books balanced with the firm's accountants.

Hank Tronick came up with another lulu of a crack this past week. Said he, "As long as I'm on the job here I just won't." It's what he "won't" that pulled the house down with a real belly laugh . . . Pete and Fran Pellegrino. Two of the busiest of the ops 'round this area. Never miss an opportunity to give just that little bit more that makes for finer service. Which has helped them to win location confidence over the years . . . Lucille Laymon irked by that rash from some sort of allergy remarked that it was about time she got out of the business. "But," she added, "the offer better be good" . . . Sure do miss "The Blaze." Really intelligent. Never talked back. Never bragged. Minded his own business. And never would anyone dare step on him. "The Blaze" is retired . . . Here's the fish story to end all fish stories. Charley Robinson returned from old Mexico with this one, "The first day we pulled in 3 dolphin and 3 marlin. Believe me," he continued, when all looked at him with lifted eyebrows, including partner Al Bettelman, "that's more work than I've done in two years." But until we see the picture of Charley surrounded by the six big game fish, well, we ain't agoin' to ever be sure. So, Charley, my boy, make with the picture.

They're calling Ed Wisler, "The kid with the filthy lucre." To which always-smiling-Ed replied, "Only wish it were true" . . . By the way Charley Robinson just turned in his membership application for The Cash Box' "20 Year Club" . . . Ralph Bachelor, the guys who were present claimed, "One of the finest operators in L.A." . . . Like the story Dolores tells us about Jean Minthorne and his telephone which he drags right down to the water's edge with him at his Malibu Beach home and on which the cord is just about two blocks long. Every so often, as one of the sunbeams stirs Jean, he'll grab the phone and talk to his offices here, discussing one thing or another. Then, as Jean says, back into the sun, with eyes closed, just dreaming away. Until another sharp sunbeam comes along to awaken another idea . . . Johnny Nelson explaining the financial problems with which operators are confronted these days while Hugh McElhenny says nothing. Just watches one of their machines being repaired . . . Charley Ganger pops in from Ventura.

All in and out in one day's time: Ken Ferrier of Oxnard, Jack Neil of Riverside, Al Cicero of Santa Maria, C. C. Ellison of Lancaster, Joe Boll of 29 Palms and Clyde Denlinger of Balboa . . . Ed Wilkes to move into a new home in Long Beach. That's far enough away from the smog . . . Jimmy Wilkens plans to go fishing on his vacation. If . . . S. L. Griffin, whom some of the boys were trying to reach at his office in Pomona, reported to have sneaked away and gone fishing. That's the thing to do when business gets too much . . . Most gorgeous home we've yet seen in Southern California. Already photographed by prominent Town & Country magazine and other famed publications. That of Harry and Lee Williams in the Pacific Palisades. It beggars descriptions. There aren't words to describe it. But one outstanding feature that gave us a real kick was the fact that the huge living room actually overhung the Rivera C.C. golf course. In short, by just sitting in her glass living room, or looking down from her bedroom or sun deck, Lee can see Harry go by on the 3rd, 4th and the 18th holes. With the loud speaker system Harry installed, all Lee has to do is let out with, "C'mon home, Harry," and he can hear her clear over to the club house. By the way, Lee came out of her operation at St. Johns Hospital with flying colors. We saw Harry's plans for his guest house and experimental laboratory. All we can say is, "We wish we had it as a home."

Lyn and Marian Brown and their two boys, Phil and Rennie, drove to Las Vegas to show the town to Lyn's sister and his two nieces who are visiting him. Lyn is reported to be some few bucks richer as a result. Very unusual. To say the least . . . After not seeing him for almost a year, it seems to us that Al Silberman looks younger—and mucho handsomer—than ever . . . Bill Happel is reported to be doing a bigger export biz than ever. This is said to be the result of his trip to Europe where he met with some of the continent's largest coin machine importers . . . Sam Ricklin and Gabe Orland can be appointed to write a book of operating ethics which would, without doubt, prove of very great value to ops here . . . E. E. Peterson and Kenny Wolfe popped into town from San Diegoway and didn't visit long enough to have some of the guys chew the fat with them . . . Charley Cahoon dashed in from Long Beach. Grabbed what he needed. Dashed right back. So you can't take the smog, hah, Charley? . . . Mary and Kay Solle advise juke box ops riding thru the heat to stand up the records they buy on the side of the disks. Not to lay them down flat. In this way they won't warp or melt away before the op gets home. That pretty little gal you see helping Mary and Kay is Bobbie, their niece. And she's quite a worker.

Jack Simon's place very nice and cool and quiet. We like it. Takes off the strain of scooting down Coinrow. Especially listening to Jack's quiet conversation . . . If you, too, have been engaged in the coinbiz for 20 years or more, you should send in your name to become a member of The Cash Box' "20 Year Club." If you know any coinman or coingal in your area who have been in the coinbiz for that number of years—send their name to The Cash Box, 26 West 47th Street, New York 36, N. Y. or to The Cash Box, 6363 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif. . . . By the way, have you met Carl Taft, representative of The Cash Box in this area? . . . George A. As I See It

by
AL SCHLESINGER

Every large community has what is commonly known in the trade as a fringe operator. This is the type of operator who has entered the coin machine business with the thought of making a big killing. These fringers are evidently led to believe that, here is a business that requires little ability, but where the profits are huge. They are usually the loud talking type with no more business ability than a flea. They manage to purchase a few machines and then all the world is their pie. They flit from location to location with fantastic tales of placing the latest machines at greater percentages to the location. They do manage to sneak in here and there. After a short period has elapsed, they begin to realize that this business is quite rugged. Then they begin to chisel. They have found out who the various distributors are, and what the prices are for various machines. Then they go back to as many locations they feel might be a prospect for the purchase of a machine. Now, they begin rapping the operator who has his equipment in the location, and in their loud and boisterous manner tell the location what a chump he is to give all that money collected every week in his location to an operator, when, he could buy a machine from him and keep the entire collection. This kind of individual is what is commonly known as a fringe operator. A scourge to legitimate operators. A parasite that unfortunately still clings to this industry. No manufacturer nor any distributor can ever eventually benefit from a fringe operator. They blossom like one of those summer bugs that irritate for a short while and then die. There can be no permanency to them. It is always a great pleasure for me to write about one of these fringers and particularly so, when one is exposed.

Bob Bear, salesmanager for the Rudolph Wurlitzer Manufacturing Co. was recently given a vote of thanks by the members of the New York State Operators Guild. Bob has a big job and is a big man. Yet: he had the time to listen to a complaint and give it his consideration. The spirit and manner in which he cooperated with this association, casts great credit not only on Bob, but the sales-organization, which he heads.

As I see it, the various groups in this industry should always be striving to make this a better business. While the coin machine business is no bed of roses, it is still a good business. If we can eventually eliminate the fringe operator, this would indeed be a better business.

Connecticut Assn. Changes Name To Music Operators Of Connecticut

Members Busy Preparing For 1st Annual Dinner And Dance On October 3

HARTFORD, CONN.—Officers and delegates of the Connecticut State Coin Association met at the Cedar Steak House, this city on Thursday, July 23.

By unanimous approval, those present voted to change the name of the organization to the Music Operators of Connecticut (MOC).

President Abe Fish presided at the meeting. This was his first appearance since he underwent an operation last June. Abe states he's still far from recovered, but is feeling pretty good. He will take a vacation for a month to recover his full vim and vitality.

Among other business discussed, a letter from the Worcester Red Cross was read. Deep appreciation was expressed to the association for its donation in June to the "Tornado Fund." Lucien Montana, New Haven music operator was also commended for his donation of $105 to this relief fund.

Plans were also discussed for their forthcoming 1st annual dinner and dance, to be held at the Hotel Bond, Hartford, on Saturday night, October 3. Paul Rechtschafer of Reliable Coin Machine Co., who just returned from a two-vacation in the Catskill Mountains of New York, will get into immediate action with his job of head of the Publicity Committee.

Trad's C. O. Television

ASBURY PARK, N. J.—Trad Television Corporation, this city, announced a new console model 17-inch coin-operated television unit.

The unit is described as equipped with an RCA licensed chassis, high fidelity sound system, built-in aerial and standard coil tuner, in genuine formica, finished in blond, which assures the ruggedness necessary for installation in public places.

EASTERN FLASHES

Wholesalers along coinrow reported that sales of reconditioned equipment to local operators has tapered off this week, but that export orders are keeping them fully occupied. As most of these firms are working with short staffs, anyway, due to vacations, enough business is being done to satisfy all. Even tho local ops aren't asking for reconditioned machines to a great extent, they are taking all the new ones available, and are asking for more than the distributors are able to supply them with. Practically every distributor could use a great many more new machines than they are getting in.

The two-week special sale of parts and supplies by Atlantic-New York and its branches in Newark, N. J., and Hartford, Conn., August 1 to 15, commemorating the organization's 14th year of affiliation with the J. P. Seeburg Corp., got off to a tremendous start, according to Harry Rosen and Meyer Parkoff. While we visited the New York office this week, ops were in line at the parts dept. window. "This sale has been extremely successful" reported Parkoff, "even beyond what we believed possible. Operators have been phoning us, telling us they're coming in and please hold this or that for them." The office and showrooms were gaily decorated with banners and multi-colored flags, making for happy and holiday atmosphere. Joe Fishman, manager of the Newark, N. J. branch reported that in the first day of the sale, he sold more parts and supplies than he ordinarily does in a month. Mac Perlman, manager of the Hartford, Conn. branch, recovering from a recent kidney operation, makes an appearance at the office—just to see that the sale goes along in good shape. . . . Phil Gould, Newark, N. J., arcade owner, returns from a week's vacation at Lake George. . . . Mike Munves and his missus, Rose, spent the last week-end visiting around Lake George. If Rose has anything to say, Mike will take a 10-day vacation either in the middle or end of August. George Fleckinsteen, Munves' manager, leaves this week for a two-week vacation. Mike still extremely busy, with the new Exhibit "Western Gun" getting its share of attention from coinmen visiting his showrooms.

Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales, his wife, Mollie, and son, Nate, will leave this coming Thursday (Aug. 13) to spend a few weeks with Herman Paster at his Minnesota lodge. Shugy's younger son, Myron, has been there for the past month, frolicing with Paster's three kids. . . . Jack Mitnick, AMI regional representative, recovering from a third-degree burn on his legs. Jack was relaxing in a bathing suit. The weather was cool, and he didn't realize the sun was so powerful. . . . Eddie Betti, son of the well known Humbert Betti, Union City, N. J., down on coinrow doing some buying. Eddie tells us that Humbert, now in Italy, will be coming home some time in October. . . . Joe Kochansky, Brooklyn op, thinks he has a good angle to take advantage of the many parking meters installed thruout the city. He contends that car parkers, on many an occasion, do not have the available dime to put into the slot. He would place weighing machines nearby. Weight 5c—changemaker to return two dimes for a quarter. . . . Jack Semel tells us that his son "Happy" Herbert, has a new baby on the way. This'll make it the third. . . . Hugo Stuker, Switzerland coinman, who has spent the last few months here, leaves for home by plane, Thurs., Aug. 6. Stuker visited Chicago for a rush three days during his stay in the states.

Abe Lipsky and Henry Slavin, Young Distributing (Wurlitzer distribs) away on vacations. Joe Young can't spare the time to get away, so he'll take a few long week-ends. . . . Allie Goldberg's (Young Distributing) mother passed away Tuesday, Aug. 4. . . . With Nat Cohn's secy., Esther Potash, away on vacation, his charming teen-age daughter, Lynn, travels in every day from Long Island, to help pop out. . . . Al Simon, Albert Simon Co., who played hookey from the office for a week traveling thru upper New York State, back on the job. Only complaint he has to make is that "it wasn't long enough." . . . The Bergen-Passaic music ops to hold a special meeting on Monday, Aug. 10, at 8:30 P. M. at the offices of Belmont Novelty Music Co., Paterson.

NEW ORLEANS NOTES

A Bally school for service men is to be held at New Orleans Novelty Company in the very near future. Bob Breither, one of Bally's top engineers, will conduct the school as usual. . . . After the loss of Larry Copeland by the New Orleans Novelty Company, Albert Huffins has joined the staff of salesmen. Albert will represent Bally and D. Gottlieb for New Orleans Novelty. He has been a service man for some time and Louis Boasberg is looking for him to do a good job. . . . Joe Mancusco, Juke Box Music, rushing up and down Baronne Street hunting records. . . . Rumors bouncing around that swell Tony Giardino of Three Star Novelty Co. is about to desert the ranks of bachelorhood. Perhaps if Mr. Three Star would arrange a vacation for Tony it might happen real quick. . . . Ran into Edgar Babin of Luling, La. rushing in to buy records. . . . Rose, of Frank's Music, deserves an orchid. Rose, one of the most accommodating persons in the business, even types up the music strips for operators from in and out of town. . . . Joe Quaglino, Quaglino Cigarette Service, still excited over his trip to Florida with his charming wife, Rita, and their two children. Joe really needed that vacation. . . . Turk of Juke Box Amusement selling all his belongings to get to California. Hear, and we mean hear, he sold his Louisiana plates (teeth) to be able to buy some fancy California ones. . . . Buddy Brand, Air Line Cigarette Service, all packed for his two week vacation with National Guard. . . . Jennie Casanova, of Abdalla's Furniture, just returned from a visit with husband Gene, stationed in Georgia. . . . Bill Taylor, M.G.M. representative in town. . . . Jack Lewke, Good Time Jazz, combined business with pleasure. Showed his wife around town for the first time while visiting his distributors.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CHICAGO CHATTER

Altho the terrific heat, as well as high humidity, continued without a letup again this week, there were less complaints than usual. Maybe everyone is getting used to it—or the press of business activity is so rapid, no one has time to think about it. Even with the temperature at boiling point, our town played host to a number of visitors. Some here expressly to visit with the execs at the factories, others in the midst of vacations and passing thru. . . . Reports from ops is that shuffle games continue producing good collections, despite the heat, and the anticipated drop-off for the summer months. This condition must exist thruout the entire country, as shuffle board manufacturers busy to the extreme rushing equipment everywhere.

Vince Shay, Empire Coin, reports members of the firm hosted more out-of-towners the past two weeks than for quite a long spell. Vince, by the way, leaves for a vacation. He'll spend it in Eagle River, where he'll get together with his son. . . . Lou Boasberg, New Orleans Novelty Co., New Orleans, La., has a Bally "Speed-Boat" in his Canal Street Arcade, and he states it's creating quite a sensation. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Bob Collier, Long Beach Calif. (formerly of Salinas) passed thru Chicago in their spanking new car. They were heading back home. While in town they contacted a number of old friends. . . . Bill O'Donnell, Bally, a red hot White Sox rooter, thinks his boys have a real chance to come up with the championship this year. "This is a real ball team" enthuses Bill, "and with any kind of a break, we'll have a World Series right here in Chicago." . . . Ben Coven, Coven Distributing, continues to commute daily between here and Lake Geneva.

Joe Mangone, All Coin, Miami, Fla., spends several days here visting the coin factories. Joe, who is one of Miami's biggest boosters, claims the Chicago heat didn't bother him too much—"I'm conditioned for the hot sun," smiles the good natured Joe, "but, oh man, that humidity. I'm heading back for good old Miami Beach, where the weather is perfect." . . . Everyone back at work at Gottlieb, including Dave, Nate and Alvin. Only absentee is Sol, who is away taking a much needed vacation. Alvin reports reception for its current game "Marble Queen" is exceptional, and the factory is busy shipping them as quickly as they come off the line. . . . Hugo Stuker, operator from Zurich, Switzerland, visited the Seeburg plant and was tremendously impressed by their facilities, as well as the courtesy shown him.

Tom Callaghan, Bally, considered one of the finest hosts in the coin biz, was busy this week entertaining as usual. . . . Sam Lewis, Genco Mfg. & Sales, back at the office after his Eastern trip. Sam reports this trip proved to be very successful. . . . Another factory exec. who returned to his desk is Ed Levin of Chicago Coin. Ed attended the open house party of S. H. Lynch & Co. at Dallas, Tex., where the firm, newly appointed to distribute ChiCoin's products, held a showing. Ed reports it was a grand party, and the ChiCoin games were warmly received. . . . Frank Mencuri of Chicago Coin, who attended the Lynch showings at Houston and San Antonio, Tex., continues on the rad, visiting other distribs prior to returning to the home office. . . . Report is that Carl Knippel is getting ready to spring a couple of surprises on the trade. . . . Paul Calamary, of Bally's Engineering Dept., away from the plant, vacationing. . . . The reaction of a baseball fan is a mystery beyond the ken of the human, Sam Stern of Williams, remarks. "In cities and towns where the local ball club is in contention for a championship, operators report that our 'Pennant Baseball' is getting a terrific play" explains Sam. "Yet at the same time we've shipped quantities of these games to places where the local team is out of the running, or where the community isn't represented by a ball team at all. It seems the players take out their disappointment by playing the game themselves. Either that, or the game has such a strong hold on America's population that, given the opportunity, everyone wants to hit home runs and score runs." Whatever the reason, Williams continues to ship its "Pennant Baseball" in good quantities.

Once again, big hearted Bob Gnarro came thru in his usual generous manner. An hour after a call from the vets at Great Lakes Naval Hospital asking for records, Bob put together a large package and sent them along. . . . Mary Gillette getting ready to leave for Camp Merrie-Wood in Sapphire, N. C., to pick up her very charming daughter. Mary has as her travelling companion, Charlotte Hughes, the daughter of her secretary. After picking up her daughter, Mary says she will vacation wherever the girls want to go. . . . Everyone mighty happy to see Margaret Zeeman, secretary in Bally's Sales Dept., back at her desk. Margaret returns after a long siege in the hospital. . . . While Roy Monroe, Monroe C. M. Exch., Cleveland, O., continues to enjoy a much needed vacation, George George holding down the fort. George still talking about the "big one" he came up with. While 'way up in Clear Lake, Canada, with rod and reel, he hooked an 8 lb. wall-eyed pickerel, as well as big muskies and bass. "Just so no one would doubt my veracity and think I was exaggerating," George explains, "I took several pictures—and flash them at a moment's notice."

Mrs. Paul Huebsch, who was hit by the pneumonia bug immediately upon her return from vacationing, is now recuperating nicely. What with taking care of the missus, and other things, Paul has had his hands full. This is the first week he has really been able to put in full time at the office. . . . Paul Eckstine of Lion Mfg. Co.'s TV Dept. simply overwhelmed with compliments on the new Lion TV set, complete with remote control. The set also has a brand new arrangement for channel turning, complete with lights. . . . Jim Yates, Bally office mgr., took his family (including the dog) on a vacation to Colorado. He's keeping his fingers crossed, hoping nothing happens to interfere with the trip. Seems that last year, just as their vacation got under way, the kids came down with the measles. . . . Jack Nelson, Bally sales chief, a busy man—rushing from one meeting to another.

Exhibit Announces "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer" With Music

Firm Busy Shipping New "Western Gun"

CHICAGO—Exhibit Supply, this city, in 1952 gave the industry its now famous "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer" kiddie ride, which produced exceptionally fine profits for the operators during the Christmas season, and then kept right on bringing in steady money.

Now, for the 1953 season, A. J. (Art Weinand), sales manager, announced that the "Rudolph" ride is available with music.

"Since informing our customers of the music feature on the 'Rudolph' ride", reports Weinand, "we have been receiving substantial orders from every part of the country. However, as this kiddie ride, incorporating the music feature, is limited in supply, we are asking that all orders be placed prior to September 1."

At the moment, the Exhibit company is concentrating most of its efforts in supplying the trade with its new "Western Gun", which has just now been introduced. However, the firm is continuing to ship its "Space Gun", kiddie horses, "Space Patrol Scout Ship", "Sea Skate" and other kiddie rides.
